New Electronic Billboard Coming to Crenshaw Blvd., Hawthorne Mall Revival Moves Forward

By Derrick Deane

If you thought Hawthorne didn't have enough electronic billboards, get ready because the City Council discussed a new, larger electronic billboard that will be built on Crenshaw Boulevard.

"This is going to be a digital billboard that is larger and taller than the one we currently have on Hawthorne Boulevard," city manager Arnie Shadbehr explained. "The reason we chose Crenshaw Boulevard is because it is our busiest street. It has the highest average daily traffic throughout the city."

Building a digital billboard on the busiest street in the city makes sense to Shadbehr as he points to the potential revenue from ads that can be brought in to the city annually.

"There will be many others as long as our ordinances allow," Shadbehr said in response to a question posed by Councilwoman Olivia Valentine on whether the new billboard will show the same ads and announcements as the one on Hawthorne Boulevard adding that, "with the upcoming football stadium in Inglewood, it can be a great opportunity for us to sell ads."

"I want to be modest about it," Shadbehr continued. "I don't want to generate imaginary revenue, but I want to say comfortably that it will be more than $100,000 a year, but it has the potential to be more."

Shadbehr says that more than half of the construction for the new billboard will be covered up front. He added that the process would be similar to the construction of the billboard that currently sits on Hawthorne Boulevard.

"When we went in to agreement, we received a $200,000 offer that covered much of the $270,000 cost," Shadbehr said of the Hawthorne Boulevard billboard. "So yes, we can recover up front almost 70 percent of the cost [for the new billboard on Crenshaw Boulevard]."

Mayor Pro Tem Angie Reyes English expressed concern for city approved events and programs that are being advertised adding that she doesn't care for how the process currently operates.

"As elected officials representing the constituents here in our city, when we have functions or events that benefit the community and they're in collaboration with the departments such as mine with the Service Provider Fair, whether its organizations or groups like the pancake breakfasts, whether it's our police officers being honored, I can go on and on and on, there is something wrong when it comes to us not being able to advertise on those boards," English said.

English mentioned that her Service Provider Fair wasn't advertised before getting into a brief back-and-forth with Shadbehr who claimed that it had.

"I drive that boulevard every night and I did not see it and I was told that I couldn't post it," English said to which Shadbehr said he personally marked it for advertising.

"Arnie, I love you for that, I really do, but put a directive for it because I'm going to discuss it and make sure it doesn't happen again," English said then turned to Mayor Alex Vargas to say, "I didn't see yours up there either."

The mayor brushed the matter aside saying that, "I found other ways of bringing people to my event," before responding to the issue.

"I think you're right to a certain extent, but let me just tell you one thing; it just depends on what we're trying to promote and what kind of synergy are we trying to create," Vargas said. "We have Space X right there. Sure we want to promote our events but when you're trying to promote Space X and their Hyper Loop competition and the rockets that are just being built and the major developments in the city, the advertising and the marketing has to flow correctly."

English answered back asking if the Service Provider Fair which "provides information to our constituents isn't worthy of being posted on the billboard?"

Vargas said he would, "vote for that exception," and was followed by Councilman Nilo Michelin who backed up Shadbehr saying that, "I believe the City Manager when he says that he placed it on there."

English continued," All I'm saying is that we need to take another look at that because I get a lot of folks telling me the same thing. Yes, Space X is great. They need us to help them move forward with what they need for the Hyper Loop and everything else that they're asking for. It's a city sponsored event too in a sense. Right?"

Vargas concluded the discussion saying that he understood English's concerns.

"The points are well taken and it makes sense. We all have our passions here," Vargas said.

Speaking of passions, the revival of the Hawthorne Mall took another step forward with the city directing the Planning Staff to prepare a change of zone ordinance.

"The Hawthorne Mall has been vacant for nearly twenty years and I would like to expedite the Hawthorne Mall Project and I would like Planning Staff to concentrate only on the mall project for right now, rather than work on other projects that might be time consuming at this time. We need to take this seriously and we need to move forward at lightning speed." •

“Maggie’s Plan” is a Wonderfully Crafted Film About a Crazy Little Thing Called Love

By Morgan Rojas
for www.cinemacy.com

Thanks to the likes of pop-culture entertainment such as “Sex and the City” and practically everything in Woody Allen’s filmography, the Millennial generation has come to believe that finding true love in the concrete jungle that is New York City is among the most romantic of notions. Director Rebecca Miller defies this fantasy with her new film “Maggie’s Plan,” a wonderfully crafted film for the intelligentsia-sect that takes one woman’s quest of subverting modern romantic convention by artificial insemination, leading to a hilarious deconstruction of uncharted adult life.

The woman with the plan is Maggie Hardin (Greta Gerwig), an independent, plaid-coat loving, thirty-something educator with babies on the brain. After complaining to her friends (played by the perfect comedic duo Bill Hader and Maya Rudolph) that she is incapable of loving someone for longer than six months, she decides that now is the time to start thinking about having children of her own, on her own, which leads her to a brilliant-but-miswired sperm donor (Travis Fimmel), who works as an artisan pickler.

Things get tricky when Maggie simultaneously meets and falls for fellow teacher John partners were artistically satisfied turns into a one-way street, where Maggie is the bridge over John’s troubled water.

With such artsy hits as “Frances Ha” and “Mistress America,” Greta Gerwig has more or less become the go-to actor for the un-stereotypical NYC-dwelling hipster heroine and, as in the aforementioned films, she brings her signature bright-eyed optimism to the big screen. Her honest portrayal of Maggie is equally matched by Ethan Hawke’s John, the self-tortured artist who becomes so wrapped up in his own wants and needs that he doesn’t realize how much his actions are damaging his relationships. The Academy Award-winning Julianne Moore and her unexpected Danish accent prove that, given the right material, she is as much a comedic force as she is a dramatic one. Together, these three actors don’t just provide superfluous laughs, they also strike sensitive chords at just the right moments, giving the film a lasting, full-bodied experience.

At its core, “Maggie’s Plan” is an unconventional romantic comedy that also serves as a dose of therapy for those who may be feeling at a crossroads in their own personal lives. Maggie is a complex character with flaws, and that is exactly what makes her such a compelling Greta Gerwig as Maggie and Ethan Hawke as John. Courtesy of Sony Pictures Classics.

Harding (Ethan Hawke), a charming anthropology professor and struggling novelist whose round-wired spectacles perfectly compliment his geek-chic attire. Maggie thinks she’s found “the one” in John, despite him already being married to the stone cold intellectual Georgette Harding (Julianne Moore), which doesn’t stop an instantaneous affair. Flash forward a few years, and Maggie, now with a smiling infant girl, realizes the tangled web she’s woven when the reality of her life with John sets in and is nothing like she thought it would be.

Rebecca Miller paints the portrait of a 21st-century relationship in such a realistic way, where one’s expectations of certain things tend to trump reality. In Maggie’s case, she wanted a child and love, and at first, she thought she successfully constructed it. The dynamics that set the tone of the relationship in the beginning, however, quickly shift, drowning Maggie in the process. Her ideal relationship where both character to root for. Maggie’s plans pivot within each act, all to hilarious results. From choosing a sperm donor to raise a child on her own, to wanting a child with her lover John, to wanting to leave John and go back to the way things were, Maggie shows us that it is ok to change one’s mind, and that what seemed like a good thing at one point in our lives may not be in our future selves’ best interests.

No matter your age, we may not have everything figured out, and that’s ok. It is ok to make mistakes, especially if those mistakes bring you closer to figuring out who you really are, and what you really want. However, if there is one thing we can take away from Maggie Hardin’s experience, it’s that sometimes, the best plan, is no plan.

“Maggie’s Plan” is rated R for language and some sexuality. Now playing at the ArcLight Hollywood and Landmark Theatre. •

Hawthorne Happenings

News for the ‘City of Good Neighbors’

From City Clerk Norb Huber

K-9 DINNER THIS THURSDAY

The Hawthorne Presidents’ Council will be hosting our annual Community K-9 BBQ dinner on Thursday, May 26 starting at 5 p.m. The HPD’s K9 squad will be there and will show the crowd a few of the dogs’ talents. Dinner tickets are $5 for adults and $2.50 for children.

A raffle is held to raise additional funds. We thank all the volunteers and Victor’s Meats for making this event possible.

RED LIGHT CAMERAS

After church services this past Sunday, a fellow parishioner asked me about the red light cameras located on Rosecrans by Costco. I had just gotten my coffee and donut, if you’re a good Lutheran you have to have coffee every Sunday during “coffee hour”, so I sat down to hear his sad story of how he was making the left hand turn onto Hindry Avenue and an elderly, female driver in front of him suddenly slowed down in the middle of the turn. He was caught in the middle of the intersection when he saw the flash of the camera. It was done. Nothing was left to be done other than to anxiously wait for his ticket to arrive via US mail. He went online to see that 697 tickets had been given out in March of 2016 alone for that same violation at that same intersection. At $480, I told him to go home, pay the fine, and go find something cold in his ice box.

WHAT TO DO ABOUT THE HOMELESS?

Did you hear that there is a movement to tax California’s millionaires to help solve our homeless problem? Is money going to solve what many people say is an unsolvable problem? Do we build more shelters? Do we make small structures out on the streets? Do we give out vouchers for the homeless to use for housing? Do we hire more counselors to go and try to help? There are many reasons so many people are homeless. It’s not a crime to be homeless. Because of recent court rulings, the police are restricting on how they can interact with people living on public property. The population of SoCal is still growing and our homeless population is increasing steadily. There is no easy solution. As long as our housing costs remain high, I have a feeling that this will be an ongoing problem for years to come. Maybe Elon came come up with a solution.

NEW PARK

Hawthorne has a new park. Actually, it’s not too new. The park in question is located at 118th and Doty Avenue in the northern part of Hawthorne. It has been a grassy area for over a year, made possible by an organization called, Lots to Spots. The city council is in the process of officially naming it Good Neighbors Park.

THINGS HAWTHORNE IS MISSING

I love lists. There are lists for everything. Here is a list of some of the things that Hawthorne is missing. A golf course or at least a driving range, a hospital, shopping center, a restaurant row, a cemetery, a firing range, more soccer fields, more parks, a dog park, a civic center with a grassy area and fountain and the Jim Thorpe football that was stolen from the Memorial Center’s glass case.

RABIES CLINIC

The City of Hawthorne will once again offer a Rabies Clinic to all residents on Saturday, June 4 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the City Hall located at 4455 W. 126th Street. The event will offer low cost rabies vaccinations, renewal of dog licenses, and low cost microchipping. These services are offered once a year by our animal control office here in the city.

HOLLY PARK

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

On Saturday, June 18th the Holly Park Homeowners Association will be sponsoring a pancake breakfast to help raise funds for their scholarship fund. It will be held at Olivet Lutheran Church located just East of Crenshaw on Imperial Highway. Times for the event is from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. •

Hawthorne Falls to Monrovia in Wildcard Game

Hawthorne High School pitcher Alyssa Casillas prepares to throw in last week's CIF-Southern Section Division IV wildcard playoff game against Monrovia. The Wildcats eliminated the Cougars, 6-4.

Hawthorne base runner Cassandra Perez gets to second base in last week's CIF-Southern Section Division IV wildcard playoff game against Monrovia.

Article and photos by Joe Snyder

A poor start plagued Hawthorne High's softball team as it was eliminated in the wildcard round of the CIF-Southern Section Division IV playoffs by Monrovia, 6-4, on May 17 at Hawthorne. With the loss, the Cougars ended its season at 18-10. Hawthorne was the third place team from the Ocean League.

The Wildcats, who finished third in the Rio Hondo League, got on Hawthorne starting pitcher Alyssa Casillas as Vicky Gutierrez hit a two-run home run in the top of the first inning. Monrovia added two more runs in the third to make it 4-0 before the Cougars finally got things going.

Hawthorne came back with two unearned runs in the bottom of the fourth on a pair of throwing errors. The Wildcats pulled away with two more runs in the top of the sixth, behind a run-scoring double from Samantha Diaz. Monrovia's other run was scored on a throwing miscue, scoring Diaz.

The Cougars attempted to rally with one run each in the sixth and seventh. In the bottom of the sixth, Casillas tripled home Natalie Rocha, who boarded first base on an error. Hawthorne scored its final run on a base hit from Cassandra Perez in the seventh. The Cougars had a shot at pulling the game out but Rocha and Anana Hernandez each struck out to end the threat.

"We had the bases loaded with our number-three, four and five batters up," Hawthorne assistant coach Armando Casillas said. "We couldn't get the key hit."

Casillas went 2-for-3 with one RBI and a run scored, including a triple. Casillas was the starting pitcher, allowing four runs, two of those earned. For Monrovia, which ended its season at 12-14 with a 5-2 loss to host and the playoffs' top seed North Torrance in the first round last Thursday at North. Diaz was 3-for-4 and drove in two runs.

ST. MARY'S, LAWNDALE FAIL TO ADVANCE

St. Mary's Academy's girls' track and field team from Inglewood and Lawndale High's boys had athletes compete in last Saturday's CIF-Southern Section Divisional Championships at Cerritos College but neither school was able to get any athletes to Friday's Southern Section Masters Championships which will be at the same place. Both managed to have some fine performances.

The Belles best efforts were fourth place finishes by, freshman Isreal Conerly, junior Aaryn Smith and their 4x400-meter relay squad. Conerly took the spot in the 400-meter run in 57.4 seconds. Winning the race was Westlake Village Oaks Christian's Carolyn Wilson timing 55.12. Smith finished fourth in the 300-meter hurdles at 46.83 seconds. She placed behind champion Lulu Gilbert of Ventura St. Bonaventure (44.56), runner-up Jordann Feinstein of Westlake Village Oaks Christian (44.97) and third place Brianna Smith from Lancaster Paraclete (46.28). In the 1,600-meter relay, St. Mary's quartet of senior Jade Jones, Smith, freshman Isreal Conerly and junior Ziquisha Reed were fourth clocking four minutes and 1.84 seconds. The Belles finished behind champion Oaks Christian (3:55.09), second place Los Angeles-Bel Air Marymount (3:57.88) and third place Ojai Nordhoff (4:00.66).

In the Southern Section Boys' Division II finals, Lawndale's best performance was a sixth place finish by senior Kiyaam Cooksey in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles in 40.6. Winning the race was Mission Viejo junior Quinn Williams 38.310. Seniors Daniel Sun and Jalen Gill, both from Irvine Woodbridge, were second and third clocking 38.31 and 38.32, in order. Cooksey also competed in the 110-meter high hurdles but was ninth (last place) at 15.57. Senior Khalil Dorsey from Ontario Colony won the race clocking 14.07. Cooksey was Ocean League champion in both hurdles events. Another Lawndale athlete competed in the long jump in Jalen Walker where he finished ninth with a leap of 20 feet, seven and a half inches. Walker was also Ocean League champion at the event.

ANIMO BASEBALLERS ADVANCE

The Animo Leadership High baseball team from Inglewood got past the first round of the CIF-Southern Section Division VII playoffs by rolling over Valley Torah from Valley Village 14-3 last Friday at Urban Youth Baseball Academy at El Camino College-Compton Center. The Aztec-Eagles moved to the second round where they played San Jacinto Valley Academy at a site to be determined last Tuesday. If they win they will play in the quarterfinals Friday at 3:15 p.m.

Animo was led by senior Cesar Rocha, who collected two hits in four at-bats, while adding two RBIs and one run scored. Sophomore Damian Carrillo went 2-for-4 with a run. Senior Ernesto Lucas was one-for-three with three RBI's and a double. Senior Erik Lopez went one-for-two with three runs and drove in two runs. Sergio Orejel and Brian Rocha each had two stolen bases. Junior winning pitcher went six innings, allowing three runs (two earned) on three hits. He struck out five batters and walked three. •

Freshman Isreal Conerly of St. Mary's Academy (left) finishes fourth in the girls' 400-meter run at 57.4 seconds in last Saturday's CIF-Southern Section Division IV Track and Field Championships.

Kiyaam Cooksey of Lawndale clears last hurdle in route to a sixth place finish in the CIF-Southern California Division II Track and Field Championship Boys' 300-meter intermediate hurdles on Saturday. Cooksey was clocked in at 40.6.

A Salute to Graduates!

A Chance to Honor and Recognize your Graduating Senior

Tell us what college, vocational school or other endeavor they will be embracing after graduation and highlight their accomplishments.

Send a photo and 100 words, or less, and we will publish in a special section "Salute to Graduates".

The section will be published in our June 16th issue, so you have an opportunity to include a graduation photo. High School photos would work nicely too.

Cost is $100.00
Please send photo and text to

Jade and her sister Emerald were found by a Good Samaritan when they were only one or two days old. Someone had thrown them away in a trashcan! They went to an expert bottle feeder, where they thrived. Because these sisters were bottle fed, Emerald and Jade are incredibly outgoing, love people, and super affectionate. They would be great for gentle children, or in a busy household. Emerald and Jade get along with other kitties, but have a very strong adverse reaction to dogs. It is possible that they might adjust to a dog who
