Fuel Your School Program Sends Supplies to Da Vinci Science Class

Ms. Darlene Wonggaew's science class at Da Vinci Innovation Academy received a delivery of fun and engaging supplies from Chevron's Fuel Your School program. The supplies were focused on physics, including textbooks and other reading materials, magnetic kits, snap circuits, and roller coaster and ferris wheel building sets. On Friday, October 16, Lily Craig, Chevron Policy, Government & Public Affairs representative, delivered the supplies. Ms. Craig was joined by a number of guests, including Matthew Wunder, CEO of Da Vinci Schools, Dr. Don Brann, Founder and Vice President of the Board of Trustees, Da Vinci Schools and Carla Levenson, Director of External Relations, Da Vinci Schools. Meet the Candidates For Next Week's Election

By Derrick Deane

With Election Day a week away, the bi-weekly City Council meeting was canceled this past Tuesday due to a lack of council members present for the meeting. With every member of the council involved in an election race of some sort, all efforts are being put into this final week-long push. Each seat carries a four-year term.

Councilman Nilo Michelin and Mayor Pro Tem Olivia Valentine are running for re-election to the council. Both councilmembers have a number of challengers looking to oust them. While both Valentine and Michelin have had a chance to voice their beliefs and stances going in to Election Day, Hawthorne residents may not know much about the challengers.

Haidar Awad is the first of six candidates hoping to take a seat on the City Council. Awad is currently the Vice President of Finance Auto Sales in Hawthorne. A member of the Kiwanis Club, Awad is also an active member of the Hawthorne Chamber of Commerce and holds a seat on the Economic Development Committee.

Awad says he would impose a "vacancy tax" on properties with empty store fronts and also independently review City Hall leadership the same way he helped restructure the marketing and sales of his family's company. Residents interested in learning more about Awad may visit his campaign website at www.haidarhawthorne.com.

Katrina Manning is another candidate running for a City Council seat and has been active in the community for several years including organizing National Night Out, Movies in the Park, and is the president of the Holly Park Home Owners Association.

Manning, who works as a realtor, has served as commissioner for Hawthorne Parks and Recreations, Chair of Neighborhood Watch, and as a member of the Economic Development Council. In 2011, she was appointed commissioner to the Hawthorne Board of Parks and Recreation.

Manning's most pressing priority is improving public safety, particularly at parks where gang shootings are an issue. She also says her accounting background would help her tackle the city's budget issues. For more information about Manning, visit www.4katrinamanning.org.

Like Manning, Amie Shepard is also a realtor. Shepard became involved with city politics when news of Mayor Chris Brown's travel and expense budget clashed with the city's financial struggles. Shepard says she would save money by outsourcing the City Attorney's Office and work to redistribute Police Department resources.

Shepard also says she is open to the dissolution of the Centinela Valley Unified School District and unifying Hawthorne School District. She also states that as a councilmember she would move to initiate groundbreaking at the defunct Hawthorne Mall with 18 to 24 months. For more information about Shepard, visit her website at www.amieshepard4council.com.

L. David Patterson currently serves as the Hawthorne City Treasurer and brings 12 years of experience as an investment advisor and business consultant with him. Elected to the position in 2013, Patterson says that since then he was able to slightly increase the city's return on investments (despite a growing budget deficit) and says that he wants the finance department to have more checks and balances. You can find out more about Patterson on his Facebook page at www.facebook.com/PattersonLDavid.

No one has watched the City Council as closely as Frances Stiglich. A perennial candidate and Hawthorne resident of 70 years, Stiglich is running on a platform of bringing a hospital back to the city, improving living conditions for residents and bringing fiscal responsibility to the council. You can find out more about Stiglich from Smart Voter at www.smartvoter.org/2015/11/03/ca/la/vote/stiglich_f/.

Oswaldo Ramirez rounds out the list of challengers, but he had not campaigned or attended forums. He is listed as a political science major on his election declaration forms and has a sparsely updated Facebook page at www.facebook.com/osvaldo4hawthorne.

While there are plenty of challengers for the council seats, two current City Council members are vying for the mayor's chair. Councilmembers Alex Vargas and Angie Reyes English are looking to oust incumbent Chris Brown.

There has been much tension building between Vargas and Brown over the past few months while English has remained focused on a number of issues and causes she is involved with.

Vargas has been the most prominent of the mayoral candidates. A two-time councilmember, Vargas is running on a platform of updating infrastructure and traffic management in the city, revitalizing Hawthorne Mall and creating new jobs, reducing crime and improving school safety.

A 43-year resident of the city, Vargas is also an active community member and served as Mayor Pro Tem in 2011. For more information on Vargas, visit his website at www.alexvargas.org.

Meanwhile English has been involved with Hawthorne politics since 2005 when she served as City Clerk. In 2009, she was elected to the City Council and was re-elected in 2013. English also serves as a board member of the METRO South Bay Sector and is a senior field deputy for Los Angeles Councilmember Curren D. Price Jr.

English is running on a platform of continuing economic development in the city which includes assisting current businesses, creating incentives to bring in new business and helping streamline the process for job creation.

She is also concerned with restoring public trust in the council by ending wasteful spending, conducting audits and strengthening conflict of interest laws. You can find out more about English at her website at www.vote4angie.com.

Next is the Mayor Brown who continues to endure bad press over the past year, chiefly the city's growing budget deficit and his multiple evictions that have been eventually settled. With so much mounting personal financial problems, Brown now faces a third eviction proceeding filed against him in Los Angeles Superior Court. He has not launched much of a campaign and has not updated his webpage at www.democracy.com/ChrisBrown.

Anallia Joya is the fourth mayoral candidate, but has not stated her campaign platform nor has she launched a campaign website. She previously ran for a seat as U.S. Representative of the 44th District last year and Controller for the City of Los Angeles in 2013. Election Day is November 3. •

Cassini Spacecraft Sends Best-Ever Views of Saturn's Moon Enceladus

Based on press releases from JPL and ESO, provided by Bob Eklund

NASA's Cassini spacecraft has begun returning its best-ever views of the northern extremes of Saturn's icy, ocean-bearing moon Enceladus. The spacecraft obtained the images during its Oct. 14 flyby, passing 1,142 miles above the moon's surface.

Scientists expected the north polar region of Enceladus to be heavily cratered, based on low-resolution images from the Voyager mission, but the new high-resolution Cassini images show a landscape of stark contrasts. "The northern regions are crisscrossed by a spidery network of gossamer-thin cracks that slice through the craters," said Paul Helfenstein, a member of the Cassini imaging team at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York. "These thin cracks are ubiquitous on Enceladus, and now we see that they extend across the northern terrains as well."

Cassini's next encounter with Enceladus is planned for Oct. 28, when the spacecraft will come within 30 miles of the moon's south polar region. During the encounter, Cassini will make its deepest-ever dive through the moon's plume of icy spray, sampling the chemistry of the extraterrestrial ocean beneath the ice. Mission scientists are hopeful data from that flyby will provide evidence of how much hydrothermal activity is occurring in the moon's ocean, along with more detailed insights about the ocean's chemistry—both of which relate to the potential habitability of Enceladus.

Cassini's final close Enceladus flyby will take place on Dec. 19, when the spacecraft will measure the amount of heat coming from the moon's interior. The flyby will be at an altitude of 3,106 miles.

CHILEAN OBSERVATORY IMAGES COSMIC "COAL SACK"

Dark smudges almost block out a rich star field in a new image captured by the Wide Field Imager camera, installed on the MPG/ESO 2.2-meter telescope at ESO's La Silla Observatory in Chile. The inky areas are small parts of a huge dark nebula known as the Coalsack, one of the most prominent objects of its kind visible to the unaided eye. Millions of years from now, chunks of the Coalsack will ignite, rather like its fossil fuel namesake, with the glow of many young stars.

The Coalsack Nebula (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Coalsack_Nebula) is located about 600 light-years away in the constellation of Crux (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Crux--The_Southern_Cross). This huge, dusky object forms a conspicuous silhouette against the bright, starry band of the Milky Way and for this reason the nebula has been known to people in the southern hemisphere for as long as our species has existed.

The Spanish explorer Vicente Yáñez Pinzón first reported the existence of the Coalsack Nebula to Europe in 1499. The Coalsack later garnered the nickname of the Black Magellanic Cloud, a play on its dark appearance compared to the bright glow of the two Magellanic Clouds (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Magellanic_Clouds), which are in fact satellite galaxies of the Milky Way. These two bright galaxies are clearly visible in the southern sky and came to the attention of Europeans during Ferdinand Magellan's explorations in the 16th century. However, the Coalsack is not a galaxy. Like other dark nebulae, it is actually an interstellar cloud of dust so thick that it prevents most of the background starlight from reaching observers. •

Hawthorne Happenings

News for the 'City of Good Neighbors'

From City Clerk Norb Huber

VOTE, VOTE, VOTE!

This is it. Next Tuesday, November 3, is Election Day here in the city of Hawthorne. This is the day when you can have a say in who runs our city. Your vote does matter. With only 3 or 4 thousand people expected to vote, the races may be determined by less than 100 votes. The polls open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. So, you have no excuse, we need you to participate in our democratic process. If you don't know who to vote for, seek out a trusted friend who knows the candidates and listen to what they have to say. The city council members and mayor have much more of an impact on your life than the president or congress of the US. Local decisions are being made all the time that really does shape the direction our city goes. So, remember to VOTE this coming Tuesday.

OFREE RAIN BARRELS

Come on down to the City Hall parking lot this Saturday, October 31st and you will be able to pick up a free rain barrel. The barrels are designed to catch valuable water run off from your roof or just from the down pours that we expect to have this winter. Former Mayor Danny Juarez is coordinating the event. You must register ahead of time by calling 310-371-4633 to receive a barrel. There is a limit of 400 available to give out.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST AT RAMONA PARK

The Ramona Neighborhood Association will be hosting a pancake breakfast on Saturday, October 31 starting at 8 a.m. at Ramona Park. Any kids who are dressed up for Halloween will receive a FREE plate of pancakes.

HALLOWEEN SAFETY PROGRAM - HPD

The Hawthorne Police Department want all of our kids to be safe trick-or-treating again this year. They will be conducting their Halloween Safety Program in front of

City Hall this Saturday, October 31st from 12 noon to 3 p.m. There will be games and treats for the kids. They should come dressed in their costume. This is a FREE event!

CELEBRATE VETERANS DAY

All Veterans are encourage to join the Veterans Commission of Hawthorne as they sponsor a special event on Veterans Day this year. It's Wednesday, November 11 from 10:15 to 12 noon at the Memorial Center. There will be a program, refreshments and prizes. We would like to say thank you to our heroes.

REFORMATION DAY - FAITH ALONE

October 31st is also known as Reformation Day in our Protestant churches. 498 years ago in Wittenberg, Germany a little known Catholic monk named Martin Luther nailed a list of 95 items that he wanted to debate on the door of the Castle Church. Soon, that list was printed and distributed all over Germany and most of Europe. It signaled much more than a reform of the Roman Catholic Church. Once the "common people" could read the Bible and become literate, there was no stopping this new found freedom. Luther's teachings were based solely on scripture and emphasized that us sinners are made right with God by "faith alone", not by our good deeds or acts of kindness. Faith in Jesus Christ and his atoning death and resurrection is what saves us. The Reformation was a time to return to the truth found in God's Word. This freedom found in Jesus, sets us free to be in service to him but also to enjoy the good things God has given to us. Some of you know what I'm leading to. Luther once said, "Whoever drinks beer, he is quick to sleep; whoever sleeps long, does not sin; whoever does not sin, enters Heaven! Thus, let us drink beer!" --- My interpretation: "Have a cold one, go to heaven!"

Hawthorne Stuns El Segundo

After an 0-5 non-league record, Hawthorne High's football team still had some promise; starting Ocean League play facing two other struggling teams from Santa Monica and Beverly Hills and the Cougars topped both of those squads by scores of 20-6 and 42-35, in order. It was the first time since 2004 that Hawthorne won, at least, two league games.

Last Friday, the Cougars were faced with a big task of traveling to top Ocean contender El Segundo. Playing probably its best game of the season, Hawthorne upset the Eagles 23-14. Now, the Cougars are in position of even battling for their first league title in 11 years.

The contest was still undecided until the Cougars, who improved to 3-0 in Ocean action and 3-5 overall, clinched it when Johnal Ray scored from 29 yards out with only seconds left. Hawthorne started slow as El Segundo, which ended its 26-game league winning streak and took its first loss of the season, took a 7-0 second quarter lead on a touchdown run by Taz Tuinese.

The Cougars had a fine game from quarterback Marte Mapu. He completed 12 of 20 passes for 173 yards and one touchdown. Mapu got things started when he threw an 84-yard TD pass to Jordan Morgan to tie the game at seven late in the second period.

Shortly after, a sack to El Segundo quarterback Jason Kehl led to a fumble. Eric Holmes took the ball and ran 56 yards to give the Cougars the lead. Tuinese came back to score on a two-yard run to tie the game.

Tuinese had a good game rushing for 171 yards and two touchdowns on 19 carries but also had two fumbles. Late in the game, Tuinese took over at quarterback and threw an interception. Hawthorne took a 17-14 lead on a 23-yard field goal from Hunter Marquez.

The Cougars will seek to improve to 4-0 and hope for a big showdown at home against Centinela Valley School District rival Lawndale on November 6 as they visit Culver City (4-3 overall and 2-1 in league) Friday at 7 p.m. The Centaurs are coming off a 49-0 rout of host Santa Monica last Friday.

LEUZINGER ROLLS OVER SOUTH

Leuzinger High's football team is showing big progress with a 2-1 Pioneer League record after routing South Torrance 45-14 last Friday at Leuzinger. The Olympians, who are 3-5 overall, had a well-balanced game as six different players each had touchdowns. Defensively, the Olympians had four interceptions off the Spartans' returning all-league quarterback Gabe Zuniga.

Leuzinger got off to a good start, scoring on its second possession when quarterback Malik Jackson hit Andre Hunt with a 71-yard screen pass. It was quickly after that when the Olympians increased their lead to 14-0 midway in the first quarter as Siliasi Fakava returned an interception for a TD.

Early in the second period, Leuzinger made it 21-0 on Adrian Gonzalez's 14-yard scoring run, then Daniel Carmicle added to the Olympian party with his 83-yard run for a 27-0 bulge midway through the second quarter. Carmicle rushed for 159 yards on 10 carries. Galera added 89 yards on 11 carries on the ground.

Jackson completed 10 of 12 passes for a very good 83.3 percent success. He threw for 187 yards and two touchdowns. South, which fell to 5-3 overall and 2-1 in league, scored its first TD shortly before halftime on Zuniga's four-yard run.

The second half saw Leuzinger pour it on the Spartans with three additional touchdowns on a 16-yard pass from Jackson to Tariq Culpepper, a 21-yard run from running back Lionel Smith and Garera's seven-yard run. The final Olympian TD was set up by an interception of Zuinga from Monterrio Wynn.

"We had just one turnover in the last two games," Leuzinger head coach Damien Porter said. "Prior to this, we were averaging three to four turnovers. Our results have been more consistent. Our defense got better. We'll be more competitive."

A week earlier at Leuzinger, the Olympians blanked a hapless Torrance team 60-0. It's on to playing at facing star Mique Juarez and Company in North Torrance on the road Friday at 7 p.m. After opening their season with a 26-21 loss at Redondo on August 28, the Saxons (7-1, 3-0) dominated all other teams that included embarrassing cross town rival Torrance (0-8, 0-3) 69-0 last Friday at Torrance's Zamperini Field. North is currently the third ranked team in the CIF-Southern Section Western Division.

LAWNDALE KEEPS ROLLING; MORNINGSIDE, INGLEWOOD FALL

Lawndale High's football team had little trouble in picking up its seventh consecutive win with a 61-0 of winless Beverly Hills (0-8, 0-3) last Friday at Lawndale. The Cardinals will show down at home against defending Ocean League champion El Segundo Friday at 7 p.m. The Eagles (7-1, 2-1) were upset at home by Hawthorne 23-14 last Friday.

After winning its first six games, Morningside High's football team lost its second consecutive game at home to Bay League power Palos Verdes 29-7 last Friday.

The Monarchs (6-2, 1-2) tied the game at seven in the first quarter when quarterback Travion Magee to receiver Patrick Jeune but the Sea Kings (5-3, 3-0), who won their 27th consecutive Bay game dating back to 2010, outscored Morningside 22-0 from there. Morningside hosts another very good squad in Mira Costa Friday at 7 p.m. The Mustangs moved to 2-1 in Bay action and 7-1 overall by routing Inglewood 55-8 last Friday at Mira Costa.

The Sentinels, though, already picked up a forfeit win over Peninsula, which dropped its varsity team due to lack of numbers that was announced on October 20. Inglewood, however, may still face the Panthers in what could be called an exhibition game due to Peninsula's homecoming Friday at 3 p.m. The Panthers are expected to mix their remaining varsity and junior varsity players in the contest. Inglewood also has only a varsity squad after lack of numbers forced the program to drop JV's and moving all of those few players up to the varsity level. The Sentinels' final game of the season will be against crosstown rival Morningside on November 6 at 7 p.m. at Coleman Stadium. •

Pumpkin Pancakes

Makes 6 serving

Ingredients

- 2 cups fresh ricotta cheese
- 7 fresh egg yolks
- 3 egg whites
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/3 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 tsp vanilla beans
- 1/4 tsp baking powder
- Zest of 1 orange
- Pinch of cinnamon
- 1/2 cup sliced strawberries and raspberries
- 1/2 cup pre-cooked pumpkin (peel and cut into 1/4 inch cubes, sauté for 5 minutes with a pinch of salt and sugar)

Optional: Fresh cream, Maple syrup, Pecans

Preparation

1. In a large bowl, whip the egg yolks and sugar for about 5 minutes, then mix in the orange zest, cinnamon, vanilla, baking powder and ricotta. Whip for 1 minute.
2. In a separate smaller bowl, whip the egg whites. Pour the whipped egg whites into the larger bowl with the egg yolk mixture. Add the flour and pumpkin and mix until fully incorporated.
3. Heat a nonstick pan over low heat and pour in 1/6 of the pancake mixture. Let cook for a few minutes before flipping the pancake and cooking for another couple of minutes until golden brown.
4. To serve, top the pancakes with mixed berries, pecans and add cream and maple syrup if desired.

Enjoy with a cold glass of milk.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney. IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney/knowledgeable in California law. You may examine the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk. Attorney for petitioner: Susan J. Sanders-Young, C.F.L.S. Law Office of Susan J. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF: Robert Roy Smith CASE NUMBER: BP167423

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of ROBERT ROY SMITH A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by MARGARET MONZO RUTHFORD in the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Margaret Monzo Ruthford be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent. THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court. THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A HEARING on the petition will be held at the following court on NOVEMBER 9, 2015 at 8:30a.m. in Department 11 located at 111 North Hill Street, Stanley Mosk Courthouse, Los Angeles, CA 90012. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Carey Mulligan Fights for Women's Rights in Suffragette

By Morgan Rojas for CINEMACY

When a woman President could very well be the future of America, it's hard to believe that less than 100 years ago, we were banned from participating in any and all political activities. While essentially only considered as "somebody's wife," women who went against the grain and fought publicly for equal rights were called suffragettes. Director Sarah Gavron (Brick Lane) and screenwriter Abi Morgan (The Iron Lady) bring this all-too-important story about women (and made by women), to life in Suffragette.

Blending fact with fiction, Suffragette tells the story of the strong-willed women in Britain who, in 1912, took a stand against the current political state to demand equal rights. They were rebels, activists, and heroes. When their peaceful protests were ineffective, these women turned to more public and violent displays to seek attention for their cause. Breaking windows and blowing up mailboxes became regular suffragette actions, citing that, "War is the only language men listen to."

While the main character in this story is fictional, Maud Watts serves as a representation of all young women and mothers who joined the political revolution. In a solid performance that balances subtlety and strength, Carey Mulligan plays the 24-year-old Watts, spending her days working in a factory laundering clothes for far less pay than her male counterparts. When she gets swept up by her friend and fellow suffragette, Violet Miller (Anne-Marie Duff), Watts can't help but fall under the spell of their passion. The mystique of women like Edith Ellyn (Helena Bonham Carter) and the movement's worshiped leader Emmeline Pankhurst (Meryl Streep) are appealing, but as Watts soon learns the hard way, she is going to have to sacrifice the life she knew for the life she wants.

Maud is a fictionalized portrayal of one such suffragette who endured years of unfair treatment, yet one real woman who deserves recognition and, unfortunately, doesn't get nearly enough is Emily Wilding Davison. Davidson can barely be considered a supporting character, yet it was her courage and decision to sacrifice her life for the movement that gave the suffragettes a worldwide platform to ultimately spark the change. Davidson famously walked in front of a horse at the Epsom Derby in 1913, drawing attention to the political movement. Her death made national headlines and was credited as the turning point for women's rights. However, her death is but a fleeting moment in the film and while the film's credits give more explanation into the subsequent effects of her actions, the lack of additional backstory into who she was onscreen seems like an obvious and terrible oversight.

The trendy cinematography is greatly appreciated as it juxtaposes the film's historical setting and time period. What could have. •
