El Segundo City Council Members Look Ahead as 2019 Kicks Off

By Brian Simon

The last two Herald editions looked back at the many El Segundo news highlights from 2018. This week considers what looms ahead for 2019, according to the members of the City Council. Each provided a different perspective on the challenges facing the community going forward as well as their wishes and priorities for the new year.

In addition to achieving the safest, most prepared city and investing in technology and infrastructure, Mayor Drew Boyles said he is particularly passionate about maintaining financial strength and also engaging with residents, businesses and employers. “For engagement, we will be using technology to move towards true two-way dialogue across multiple platforms and will continue measuring how we are performing in the eyes of our residents and businesses, while also measuring how quickly and adequately we are addressing concerns,” he said. “With our employees, our goal is to be a true Employer of Choice and we will continue to build an engaged, answer-providing and performance-based culture in our organization.”

Boyles also emphasized the continued need to be fiscal stewards by challenging City staff to maximize productivity, leverage technology and reduce pension burden while fostering commerce in the two-square-mile commercial zone. “This two square miles is the most important in the Southern California economy,” he said. “Given that our city’s revenue is over 95 percent comprised of commercial activity – and not residential property taxes – it is critical that we do everything we can to make these two square miles the most innovative, vibrant, talented and sought-after in the Southland. We are working diligently to ensure this becomes reality.”

An item not part of the City’s 2019 work plan is nonetheless dear to Boyles’ heart and is one he wishes to prioritize: the environment. “We can and should do more,” he said. “More home and business recycling, renewable energy on City property, eco-friendly vehicles, measuring tree quantities and health, and environmental considerations when deciding on policy are just some of the low-hanging fruit.”

Noting the importance of strong leadership, Councilmember Don Brann deemed it a major priority to select a new and effective city manager to lead El Segundo into a bright future. The recruitment process will soon be in progress with the previously announced retirement of Greg Carpenter in June. Brann, who spearheaded the Council’s pension subcommittee, identified the issue as the most pressing threat to the City’s long-term prosperity. “We need to adopt still more measures to ease our pension debt,” he said. “Pension liabilities are serious, growing and must be addressed.” While pleased about proactive measures taken last year such as additional payments to shave interest and negative amortization over the long haul, Brann believes the City should have re-routed some budget monies spent elsewhere to pension payments – and also reduce the percentage of monies the City keeps in reserves, as he feels the amount is excessive. “Given the low interest rates received on such dollars, they can be put to much better use to lessen our city’s pension debt,” he said.

One item Brann plans to advance to an upcoming Council agenda is a percent for arts fee. Presented in late December by a member of the Arts and Culture Committee, the concept is to tack on the amount as part of future commercial development. “It is important to build in a source of funding for arts and culture activities,” Brann explained.

Councilmember Scot Nicol hopes to see a two- to three-year forecast for business trends and how those will affect the City’s tax income as well as preparedness for an inevitable economic downturn. “Fiscal responsibility is priority number one for me,” he said. “Knowing what the next few years are going to look like will dictate how many of our decisions will be made going forward.”

Nicol also hopes to review park land and open spaces within local residential areas. “My goal is to plan and best utilize all the green space available to us as residents in El Segundo -- not just the fields, but the areas that are underutilized currently,” he said. “With a long-term plan in place to rotate field use and the potential investment in flattening and repurposing some of the spaces, we can ensure we are providing to our residents the best possible recreation experience.”

Nicol additionally wants to advance an item, staff time pending, to review the City’s general plan and in particular the traffic element west of PCH along with some of the routes currently in place. “My goal is to enhance the overall quality of life for residents of El Segundo,” he said. “To complete many of the little goals I have, our general plan needs to be reviewed as well as traffic and circulation plans.”

Noting that the most important task for a city government is to be a responsible and reliable steward of its citizens’ money, Councilmember Chris Pimentel pointed to the need to “build bridges” with labor groups, spend cautiously and focus on long-term outcomes in order to build and maintain a

Not Happy About Tax

The City of El Segundo and the City Council ought to be ashamed of its backdoor attempt to defraud the citizen taxpayers on trash services by availing themselves of the bogus Prop 218 negative voter ballot dodge. Prop 218 was intended to allow citizens to protest a proposed tax fee, assessment or whatever name an increase is called. Local governments realized a small percentage of recipients of the bland mailing envelopes would ever open them, especially in the flood of holiday mail.

After receiving my envelopes (4) and recognizing what they were, I contacted a large number of neighbors around town, and advised them to look for the mailing. The majority had tossed it, not realizing its import. All but a few were able to retrieve their mailings, and return them, protesting the increase and changed services proposed. And what were the numbers of ballots sent out, and ballots returned? This is vital information that the Council must disclose if it wants to be seen as ‘transparent’. The proposed automated system is totally inappropriate in our community.

And the claimed “fact” that El Segundo is one of only three cities in Los Angeles County using manual trash collection has absolutely no bearing on our residents’ desires. That is why El Segundo is independent of the County!!! Since when? Oh yeah. January 18,1917?? By the way, is the City going to reduce each single and two unit parcels taxes by the same dollar amount charged herein? Somehow I doubt it...

Solid Waste Collections Facts And Figures: What El Segundo Residents Need To Know

January 15, 2019 City Council Meeting

The City understands there are many questions regarding the selection of the next residential trash hauler and type of service that the City Council will be considering on January 15th, 2019. The City is providing the following to address the questions and concerns of the community.

If have any questions that are not answered below, please contact Jasmine Allen in the Public Works Department at 310-524-2365 or jallen@elsegundo.org.

PROJECT HISTORY

At the July 17, 2018 meeting, the City Council directed staff to proceed with a Request for Proposals (RFP) process to procure the next Residential Solid Waste Collections services provider, as well as a Proposition 218 process that would require eligible residential dwellings to pay a maximum of $20 per month for the services. Additionally, Council directed staff to include both manual and automated services as base bid options, and to exclude 3- and 4-unit multi-family complexes from the services in accordance with the City's municipal code, which requires the City to provide refuse service to "single-family and two-family unit residences, not including condominiums or stock cooperatives".

At the Sept 4, 2018 meeting, Council approved the scope of services to be included in the Residential Solid Waste Collection RFP and authorized staff to seek bids.

At the December 18, 2018 Council meeting, staff presented the proposal in-interview and evaluation process that resulted in a recommendation that EDCO be offered the next 7-year contract for residential one and two-unit property services as the top-rated provider.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: How were the proposals rated?

A: The proposals were evaluated based upon a series of 33 questions specifically related to each of the key criteria of the RFP.

Proposal Scores and Ranking
Rater	EDCO	WM	RSI	ATHENS
1	45	44	48	38
2	47	45	42	36
3	50	46	41	35
4	48	45	42	36
5	52	50	45	35
Total	242	230	218	180
Rank	1	2	3	4

Given the scoring spread, the panel invited the top three ranked proposers to continue on to the interview phase: EDCO, Waste Management, and Republic Services.

Q: Who conducted the interviews?

A: The interview panel consisted of the City Manager (El Segundo resident), the City's Public Works Director, Finance Director, General Services Manager (Public Works), Senior Management Analyst (Public Works), and the Solid Waste Program Manager (Vice President) from SCS Engineers.

Q: What is the cost comparison of manual vs. automated service over the proposed 7-year contract?

A: When considering the lowest cost automated provider (#1 ranked EDCO) to lowest cost manual provider (#3 ranked Republic) over the proposed 7-year contract period, the City would save approximately $940,000 by choosing the automated provider.

Q: How many other cities in LA County use manual service?

A: El Segundo is the only city in LA County that uses curbside manual collection for its solid waste. Only one other city uses manual services, but they are not curbside collections – hauler staff actually go onto private property to get the trash.

Q: Why Automated?

A: Automated services are safer, more effective, efficient, and cleaner, will encourage residents to reduce their waste stream, and will provide a specific green waste container that can accept organic material (food waste). The automated system will facilitate compliance with the State's solid waste regulations that are managed by the California Department of Resources, Recycling, and Recovery (CalRecycle).

Q: Can the City be fined if it does not comply with CalRecycle's regulations?

A: Yes, and fines for non-compliance can be up to $10,000 per day. The lack of a residential green waste program was identified as a "gap" in the City's Solid Waste Program by CalRecycle. Implementing an automated program in 2019 will provide a residential green waste program and assist the City in complying with the pending CalRecycle requirements.

Q: How large will the automated carts be?

A: The City's bid package requested 95-gallon cart services as the baseline, but smaller options (64- and 32-gallons) are available at no charge to the owner. The carts have wheels and lids so they are easy to move and provide much greater containment of trash, which subsequently reduces the potential for animal intrusions.

Q: How many carts will each household receive?

A: Three (3), at a minimum. If selected, EDCO is also offering one (1) free additional trash cart, three (3) free additional recycle carts, and three (3) additional organics carts to customers, thus providing the easiest transition from the unlimited solid waste services that are provided today, while at the same time encouraging recycling. They will also remove customers' existing cans, if requested, at no cost as part of the transition.

Q: What will happen to the 3- and 4-unit properties?

A: There are 85 three-unit and 104 four-unit properties in the City, which will all be part of the transition and outreach process in March and April to ensure they receive the opportunity to select the best hauler for their property's needs.

Q: Will we still have the City Yard trash and recycling drop-off?

A: Yes.

Q: Can automated trucks use the City's narrow streets and alleys?

A: Yes. Many cities have narrow streets and alleys that are served by automated collection. As long as the truck can fit down the street, they can pick up the carts. As the trash and recyclables are picked up presently on those streets and alleys, there will not be any difference with an automated system. The automated trucks are similar size to the current ones being used to manually collect within the City.

Q: How will special event trash and large pick-ups be handled?

A: The following services will continue under the proposed contract:

- Four bulky item pick-ups per year (six items per pickup maximum)
- Bi-Annual Clean-Up Weeks and Shredding Events
- Holiday tree collection
- Abandoned item collection in public right-of-way

Q: How will residents manage Amazon and other large boxes?

A: If the boxes are too large, you can break down the boxes to fit into the recycle cart. If EDCO is selected, residents can also request up to three (3) free additional recycle carts.

Q: Do we have to go automated? Can we stay manual? If so – how would green waste work?

A: The City could continue manual collections; however, the City will not be able to achieve compliance with the State's current and pending laws. While the City as a whole complies with AB939's requirement of diverting over 50% of solid waste away from landfills, our residential program falls far short of that. Unlimited manual service, which has been proven to be contaminated (green, trash and some recycle in cans together) by CalRecycle's audit, will not be compliant. With manual service, residents would need to provide their own containers for trash and organics/green waste. SB1383 is a new organics disposal law; the regulations to implement SB1383 are expected to be approved early this year and require compliance in 2022. It is different than previous laws in that "generators", which include single-family homeowners, can be fined directly by the State for non-compliance, not just cities.

Q: Is there a third truck with green waste pickup?

A: Yes.

Q: How many days per week would EDCO pick up vs. Republic? How many do we currently have?

A: EDCO proposed 4-day collections Monday – Thursday. We currently are on a 5-day Monday to Friday cycle for residential collection with Republic.

Q: Where do automated carts get placed – in the street or on the sidewalk? How does this impact parking? What is going to happen with the street sweeping schedule?

A: Carts would be placed in the street at the curb for collection. The carts could take up curb or driveway area until the collection occurs and the carts are retrieved, depending on each individual's preference. Vehicles could be parked on the street and carts placed next to them or in front of the owner's driveway, or vehicles could be parked in driveways and carts placed at the curb. Street sweeping is most effective with no parking regulations after trash collection day, but this is something the City will review and program with the selected hauler and our street sweeping contractor to maximize efficiency and minimize impacts on residents. EDCO included paying for new no parking signage in their bid.

Q: How was Republic going to handle green waste with manual?

A: As requested in the RFP, via owner-provided containers.

Q: Will Republic employees be offered employment if the City chooses EDCO?

A: Yes, that was a request in the RFP. EDCO said not only drivers, but "any displaced" employees from the previous hauler would be offered employment. For drivers, EDCO stated City residents and existing drivers would have a "hiring preference".

Helping Support Victims of the Butte County Camp Fire

Last weekend, Brewport Tap House on Main Street held a benefit for firefighters. Sierra Nevada Brewing Company created Resilience IPA to help the victims of the Butte County Camp Fire and featured a keg at the Brewport tap along with kegs brewed by Three Weavers Brewing Co. and LA Ale Works based on Sierra Nevada's recipe. All proceeds from the sale of these kegs will go to benefit the Butte County Camp Fire victims' fund. The fire was devastating -- resulting in the loss of 85 lives as well as the destruction of 153,000 acres and more than 18,000 structures. The El Segundo Fire Department Truck rolled up for the occasion, with El Segundo firemen on hand to collect donations as well.

Catching Up On the El Segundo Eagles As We Start the New Year

Story and Photos by Gregg McMullin

The final year of this decade has arrived. As we ushered out 2018, the Eagles were competing in tournaments. The basketball teams played in some non-league games last week to help hone their skills entering back into the Ocean League play this week.

Girls Basketball Team Finishes Second In Tournament

El Segundo advanced to their first holiday tournament final since the 2015/16 season when it played for the Valley Christian tournament championship. To get to the Temescal Canyon tournament championship game, the Eagles defeated Chaparral 66-38, Corona 53-30 and Hemet 49-44. In the finale, the Eagles fell to Riverside Patriot HS 56-41.

To start the tournament, Temecula Chaparral entered the game with a record of 10-3. The Pumas were blitzed by the Eagles from the start. El Segundo opened the game 24-10 after the first quarter and never looked back en route to a 66-38 win in the opening game of pool play.

The Eagles shot the ball well, hitting on 45 percent from the field. Four players scored in double figures, led by Reese Jones with 18 points followed by a trio of players with 10 points including Storey Noble, Hannah Chang and Remicia Germeille. Germeille had both season and career highs for points. Chang dished out seven assists to go with four steals. The Eagles' unselfish play led to 17 assists, while their tenacious defense led to 13 steals and 42 rebounds --with 24 coming on the offensive end.

The Eagles cruised to a second round pool play win over Corona High School, 53-30. Defense played a key role in the win, which tallied 15 steals and held all but two Corona players scoreless for the game. After leading 33-18 after the first half, El Segundo cruised to its second win in the tournament. Chang paced the Eagles with 13 points and freshman Bo Takehara added eight points -- a season and career high.

In the third round, the Eagles faced a Hemet team ranked in the top 10 of the CIF Southern Section Division 3AA. El Segundo would need to rally from four points down to start the fourth quarter to defeat the Bulldogs 49-44. El Segundo outscored Hemet 19-10 in the final period on the strength of crisp passing, better shot selection and stout defense. The Eagles were led by sophomore forward Jordan Peterson, who scored 18 points and added nine rebounds. The sophomore guard Noble added five key points in the fourth quarter.

The Eagles advanced to their first tournament final in three years and their reward was to face Patriot -- the second-ranked CIF-SS Division 3 team. El Segundo stayed close in the first half, but the Warriors used a solid third quarter shooting to extend their lead to 13 points. El Segundo's bid for an upset fell short in the fourth quarter as the team fell 56-41. Noble led the Eagles with 17 points in the loss.

The Eagles' 12-7 start is one of their best in years. They faced Mira Costa before continuing Ocean League play last night against Culver City -- the defending league champions. They also host Lawndale Friday night at 6 p.m.

Eagles Improving Against Tough Opponents

Head coach David March has directed his team to a great start. The Eagles are 13-7 overall heading into this week's return to the Ocean League schedule. El Segundo's great start is the best in eight seasons and is certainly on track to have its best year in terms of wins since 2010-11 when the Eagles won 19 games.

During the holiday break, the Eagles traveled to the Heritage Christian Tournament and went 2-2. In the first gamem, the Eagles used a pressure defense to blow out Tahquitz 52-29. The offense clicked in the second half and the Titans had no answer. In the second game El Segundo played Santiago close, but the Cavaliers -- the top team from the Garden Grove League -- held off the Eagles 56-52 at the end. In the third game, El Segundo's defense was tested and the Eagles held a high-scoring Heritage Patriots team to just 36 points. The Eagles had plenty of opportunities, but fell 36-34. In the final gamem El Segundo did everything right on both offense and defense and outscored Linfield Christian 53-18.

In the final tune-up before last night's return to the Ocean League schedule, the Eagles used a tough second half defense to thwart a comeback by South Torrance and hold off the Spartans 47-39.

El Segundo returned to Ocean League action last night against Culver City and will host Lawndale Friday night at 7:30 p.m. The Eagles have the stingiest defense in terms of points allowed in the CIF Southern Section 4AA Division, allowing an average of a mere 39 points per game.

Boys Soccer Team Living Up to Hype

After a historic run to a CIF Southern Section Division 5 and Southern California Region championship, the Eagles were rewarded by going to the Division 3. It hasn't affected head coach Andrew Kelly's team. The Eagles are off to their best start in perhaps school history with a 9-1-2 record. They have played such perennial powers as Division 1 Mira Costa (ranked third), Santa Barbra (sixth), Division 2 powers Santa Ana Valley (fourth) and San Marcos. El Segundo's only loss of the season was a 2-1 setback to Santa Barbara. The ties were with Mira Costa and Santa Anna Valley.

El Segundo resumed Ocean League play yesterday against Culver City and will host Lawndale Friday at 3 p.m. The Eagles return home next Friday to host Hawthorne at 3 p.m.

Young Lady Eagles Soccer Team Keeps Improving

Head coach Skip Jones knew this season's team would face some challenges with a squad that has just six seniors. The Eagles have continued to improve from game to game. Freshman sensation Chelsie Charles leads the team in scoring.

The Eagles have played a demanding schedule. Though they've lost to Bay League powers Peninsula, Mira Costa and Redondo, they have defeated City power San Pedro and Da Vinci -- a team that is 11-3 on the year. The four goals scored against San Pedro represent more than half of all goals scored against the Pirates this season.

The Eagles return home next Wednesday January 16 at 3 p.m. •

Hannah Chang has helped guide the Eagles to their best start in three years. The Eagles return to Ocean League play Friday night at 6 p.m.

Miles Jones drives the baseline against Hawthorne in the Eagles' blowout Ocean League win. The Eagles host Lawndale Friday night at 7:30 p.m.

Public Hearing Notice

The PLANNING COMMISSION will hold a public hearing on:

Amending and possibly eliminating the affordable housing requirement within the 540 East Imperial Avenue project

Project Address: 540 East Imperial Avenue

Project Description: On September 28, 2016, the El Segundo City Council approved land use entitlements, a Development Agreement and a Specific Plan for the development of 34 multi-family dwelling units and 24 single-family dwelling units at 540 East Imperial Avenue. As a condition of approval, the developer was required to provide six units of affordable housing, consisting of two units for qualified extremely low income households, two units for qualified very low income households, and two units for qualified low income households.

The applicant requests an amendment to the conditions of approval, the Development Agreement and Specific Plan, and requests eliminating the requirement that the developer provide 6 affordable units within the residential development. Instead, the developer proposes to pay the city an in-lieu fee and not provide any affordable units in the development. In response, staff is proposing an option of changing the level of affordability for the six units to moderate income units.

Please note that the Planning Commission is not the final decision making body for this request. The Planning Commission will consider the requested amendment and will make a recommendation to the City Council. The Planning Commission's recommendation on the project will then be presented to the City Council for action at a future public hearing. Public notice will be provided of future City Council meetings.

Environmental Determination: The proposed amendments to the affordable housing requirement is not subject to CEQA pursuant to Section 15061(b)(3) because it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that the amendments may have a significant effect on the environment.

Further Information: Any person may give testimony at the public hearing at the time and place indicated above. Written comments may be submitted to Principal Planner Eduardo Schonborn, AICP, at eschonborn@elsegundo.org, or mailed to the address above. City of El Segundo

Public Hearing Notice

The PLANNING COMMISSION will hold a public hearing on:

The Lakes Specific Plan and Topgolf Project

Address: 400 S. Pacific Coast Highway

Project Description: The proposed Lakes Specific Plan (TLSP) consists of the 26.55-acre area that currently comprises The Lakes at El Segundo. The project proposed for the approximately 12-acres located within the southern portion of the project site would replace the existing driving range with a 3-story golf-themed, commercial recreation and entertainment facility including hitting bays, restaurant/bar, and accessory uses operated under the "TopGolf" brand. Other project improvements include modifications to the fairways and layouts of six holes at the existing golf course, parking lot expansion, replacement of existing net poles, and demolition and replacement of the clubhouse/pro shop. The proposed project includes the Lakes Specific Plan, a General Plan Amendment, a Zone Change, a Zoning Text Amendment, a Site Plan Review, a Lot Line Adjustment, and a Conditional Use Permit.

Applicant: Topgolf, represented by CenterCal

Hearing: Thursday, January 24, 2019, 5:30pm
 City Council Chambers
 350 Main Street, El Segundo, CA 90245

Environmental Determination: On September 5, 2017, the City Council certified an Environmental Impact Report (EIR) and approved a Mitigation Monitoring and Reporting Program for The Lakes Specific Plan Project, which included a total of 63,090 sq. ft. of net usable space (72,455 gross square feet). However, the Council did not take any subsequent action to approve or carry out the project. The proposed project is a slightly modified version of the Lakes Specific Plan Project analyzed in the previously-certified EIR. The modifications consist of changes in the locations and sizes of entertainments areas and restaurant/bar areas, resulting in a 76 sq. ft. decrease in net area, but a 351 sq. ft. increase in the gross area due to larger circulation space; however, all other components remain the same, including the number of hitting bays, height of the building and the proposed uses. The City's environmental consultant has independently reviewed the modifications and has determined that they will not result in any new significant environmental impacts and will not increase the severity of any effects previously identified in the EIR. The modifications are adequately covered by the EIR. No significant new information has been added to the EIR since the Notice of Availability was given on January 26, 2017. The EIR concludes that the project would have less than significant impacts, or no impacts, in the areas of Aesthetics, Agricultural Resources, Biological Resources, Cultural Resources, Geology and Soils, Greenhouse Gas Emissions, Hydrology and Water Quality, Land Use and Planning, Mineral Resources, Population and Housing, Public Services, Recreation, Transportation/Traffic, and Utilities and Service Systems. The EIR finds that the project has the potential for significant impacts to Air Quality, Hazards/Hazardous Materials, and Noise; however, each of these potential impacts can be mitigated to less than significant levels with the implementation of mitigation measures. A Mitigation Monitoring and Reporting Program has been prepared to ensure the mitigation measures recommended in the EIR are properly implemented in the event the project is approved. The EIR reflects the independent judgment of City staff and considers project design features, site and surrounding environmental conditions, previous environmental evaluations, standard construction/engineering practices, and potential future projects. Staff is recommending certification of the EIR. The EIR is available at City of El Segundo – Planning and Building Safety Department, 350 Main Street, El Segundo, CA 90245. The EIR is also available online at:

structurally balanced budget. “We are off to a strong start, but the task will only get more difficult,” he warned. “Our ability to support a balanced and responsible budget requires a long-term view that can have difficult short-term choices.”

Identifying the potential obstacles ahead, Pimentel said it was paramount for the City to structure itself to “grow wisely in our commercial zones, be creative in providing ways for our young people to stay here and new, young families to join us, and aggressively defend our interests.” With that in mind, Pimentel pledged that any items he places on the agenda for the next quarter will focus on “updating our regulatory regime and maintaining our stature as the most attractive place in the region to do business.”

Mayor Pro Tem Carol Pirsztuk's top wish for 2019 is for the City to continue to optimize its commercially zoned land east of PCH, which provides over 90 percent of general fund revenues. “The residents of the city reap the benefits of the commercially zoned land and it is my hope to continue to attract new companies in fields such as biomedical science and entertainment in El Segundo,” she said.

The two biggest challenges facing the City this year, in Pirsztuk's estimation, are finding a new city manager and paying down the looming future pension debt. “We are looking for a candidate who will ‘fit’ El Segundo and understands both the residential and commercial aspects of the city,” she said of the search to replace Carpenter that will kick off this month. “Once on board, the city manager will continue to implement the approved strategic plan and ensure that all of the budgeted initiatives are completed successfully.”

On the matter of pension debt, Pirsztuk sees one of the new city manager's roles as identifying alternative revenue opportunities and reducing expenditures. “The City has a bright future as long as we continue to be fiscally aware and stay aligned with our strategic goals,” she said.

One item Pirsztuk said she will personally prioritize is continued discussion with Los Angeles World Airports to ensure El Segundo has a voice in the expansion process and how it impacts the local community. “I will also work to ensure that we are fairly compensated for any disruption during construction,” she said.

Speaking on behalf of his colleagues, Boyles added, “The City Council and I are looking forward to another incredible year in El Segundo. Thank you to all of you for making this town so special.” •

Cinemacy’s Top Films of 2018

By Morgan and Ryan Rojas
for www.cinemacy.com

The films we consider to be among the top picks of 2018 represent a combination of genres that had the greatest emotional impact on us, coupled with movies that felt innovative or groundbreaking. Here are three films that we consider to be the best of this past year. For our complete list, visit www.cinemacy.com.

Roma-Ryan

It seems like the best film in any given year ends up linking to the present climate of social politics and culture. The film that had the most profound effect on me that stands in dignified defiance to the loud, shouting discourse leading American politics today is a story about a quietly humble and sympathetic Mexican maid whose sole purpose is to tend to her family. Alfonso about my adolescent experience. I laughed, I cried and I felt nostalgic for my younger self, but mostly wished I could go back in time and whisper in my ear, “You are cool enough!” The film is a poignant reminder that every second spent doubting yourself are seconds wasted! And while confidence and personal growth will always be relevant to our coming-of-age journey, watching Eighth Grade for the first time offers the realization that I truly wasn’t alone. Growing up can be tough, but Bo Burnham just made it cool to be a misfit...and to that I say thank you from all the former misfits who are now adults who have found and embraced their uniqueness.

Minding the Gap-Both

The story of young skateboarders who seek to escape their dysfunctional family upbringings by goofing off together was brought to the big screen this year in Jonah

Top 10 Films of 2018, Images Courtesy of Netflix, A24, Hulu.

Cuarón, whose previous work is the space-survival film Gravity, is the vision behind this visually rich autobiographical film. Roma is also a triumph for breaking from traditional narrative film style in a liberating way. Shot in black and white 65mm film, there are a number of striking images that transcend the movie. Roma emerges like a flower, blooming throughout its duration until it finally reaches a beautiful emotional catharsis. Credit the streaming giant Netflix for putting stock in this auteur director’s original film.

Eighth Grade-Morgan

How did Bo Burnham get access to my middle school journal? Without a doubt, Eighth Grade is the film that hit closest to home with so many relatable moments that I had to remind myself that this is not a documentary

Hill’s semi-autobiographical directorial debut Mid90s, but it was the Hulu original documentary Minding the Gap that proved to be the deeper and more affecting examination of the same subject. What starts off as a skate video following the fun hangouts within a group of Illinois kids slowly takes shape into something much bigger -- an examination of issues like employment insecurity, racial tensions and domestic abuse are experienced first-hand. Most impressive is this captivating story (of which comparisons to Boyhood have been attributed) that is portrayed by one kid in particular, Bing Liu, who applies his one-man movie-making skills to write, shoot, direct, edit and interview all of his friends in what was one of the most unexpectedly affecting films of the year. •

Three Things About Elsie by Joanna Cannon

By Roz Templin, Library Assistant,
El Segundo Public Library

Florence Claybourne, 84 years old, lives in Cherry Tree Home for the Elderly. As our story opens, she is lying on her sitting room floor, waiting for help to arrive. While she waits, she reminisces about her life and a deeper history unfolds.

Florence has noticed that she forgets things. It doesn’t really concern her until she notices that things in her little flat are being moved around. Miss Ambrose, one of the administrators at Cherry Tree, only thinks she’s confused -- as do other employees and residents at the Home. But Florence knows that something is going on. Miss Ambrose is focused on the fact that Florence keeps too much to herself. Maybe Cherry Tree isn’t a right fit for Florence? “You’re not sending me to Greenbank?” asks Florence. Greenbank is the last resort for the aged, a dreary nursing home. Miss Ambrose proposes a reassessment period of one month -- a probationary period, so to speak. Florence can’t imagine what crime she has committed to deserve such a punishment, but Miss Ambrose only retorts that “it’s a figure of speech. That’s all.”

Worried that she will be moved to Greenbank, but not wanting to participate in dayroom activities with other residents, Florence complains to her best friend Elsie and to the “uniforms” (workers... she can’t be bothered with remembering their names). She goes about her business until she sees someone she used to know, Ronnie Butler. But it isn’t good. Ronnie Butler drowned in 1953.

Not only does this story accurately describe what it’s like to be old and feeling as if you don’t matter in the modern world and not only does it recall a time when characters are young and in the full bloom of life and promise, but it is also a mystery that runs down several roads, depending upon what the protagonist can remember.

Ronnie Butler identifies himself as Gabriel Price, the new resident at Cherry Tree. He soon wins over residents and staff alike with his youthful appearance and helpful attitude. But Florence isn’t fooled. She and her friends Elsie and Jack unite to solve the mystery that is Gabriel Price.

Three Things about Elsie isn’t just about Florence and her fellow residents, but also explores the lives of the workers: handyman Simon, hairdresser Cheryl, Gloria, Miss Bissell and of course, Miss Ambrose. Comical and sentimental, these characters live in your imagination and you root for their happiness. By the end, these people connect with each other and the reader has a better idea what it’s like to be older and also what it’s like to be around those aged folks. You can bet the youngsters learn precious life lessons from their elders, and you will also discover what those three things are about Elsie. •

Recreate Your Entertaining Space for Maximum Enjoyment

(BPT) - If the thought of your entertaining space has you sadly shaking your head no, the good news is there's no reason you have to settle for a less-than-ideal solution. Like the events you use it for, your space can change as needed. To help you make the most of your space for all of the group and individual events you have planned, follow these tips.

* Control light. A common design tip for most spaces is to allow for lots of light. You may want that when everyone comes together to watch a game, but for those times when you want to watch a film or play a video game, a darker environment may be more immersive. To keep total control of the light in your entertaining area, invest in room-darkening blinds or dark curtains that can block out the sun when you crave darkness and let in the light when you don't.

* Redefine your viewing experience. When people come to your home, they will often be there to watch something on the screen. That makes the right technology essential. The 4K UHD Laser Smart Home Theater CineBeam Projector is perfect for binge-watching the hottest shows, enjoying an immersive gaming experience or cheering on your favorite team. The projector itself can be ceiling mounted or set up to reflect onto any screen you want, and because it is empowered with Smart TV, you'll have access to wireless streaming, Netflix and YouTube. What's more, HDMI and HDCP input make your projector ready for Blu-ray and gaming consoles right out of the box. Whatever you want to do or watch, this project enhances your experience.

* Install a seating strategy. Every entertaining area has viewing seats that are less than ideal, and while a new projector can expand your viewing options, there's still no reason to settle for second-class seating. If you're planning to have a large group over on game day, a simple platform can provide your room with stadium seating and give everyone that at-the-game feel. If stadium seating isn't for you, strive for an open arrangement and place display tables and other storage solutions behind seating when guests come over.

* Add a few extra comforts. It's time to take customizing your entertaining space up a notch by adding a few elements that are uniquely you. From full bars to mini fridges, humidors and portable air conditioners or dehumidifiers, there are several tiny additions you can make to any entertaining area to make the space more enjoyable. To learn more about the LG's latest 4K UHD projector and to see it in action, watch the team from Inverse play the hottest game on this one-of-a-kind technology at <https://www.inverse.com/squad-up>.
