“Stuff the Police Trailer” Scores

Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus made a special appearance during the Inglewood Police Department’s first-ever “Stuff The Police Trailer” toy drive. The month-long toy drive collection effort culminated Saturday with an on-location celebration that included music from local radio station KJHL, snacks from local vendors and the appearance of KTLA’s Garth Kemp.

Community’s Generosity Helps Make “Stuff The Police Trailer” Event A Success

By Cristian Vasquez

Families with kids, filled with Christmas joy gathered for the Inglewood Police Department’s first-ever “Stuff The Police Trailer” toy drive on Saturday.

The all-day event, which took place on Grevillea Avenue between Inglewood City Hall and Crozier Middle School, invited the community to enjoy music from KJHL, snacks and coffee from 7 Eleven and gave the opportunity to donate toys for less fortunate families. The effort netted 1,000 toys that the police department will now distribute to boys and girls throughout the city.

“For a first-time event we did pretty good,” Inglewood Police Department Sergeant Reginald Blaylock said. “This is our outreach right here. We are very active with Christmas events; every year we have Shop With A Cop, we have always done something and this year we tried something different.”

Along with Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus, families were greeted by local officials and KTLA’s Garth Kemp, all of whom posed for pictures with kids and families donating to the drive. Due to the high volume of toys collected Saturday, the Inglewood Police Department will have the ability to help more than just the 40 families that were originally identified as being in need.

“We had families send in requests but we made sure that the families are Inglewood residents,” Sgt. Blaylock said. “We will have more toys to give away and that’s great.”

Celler Kimbelle presented the idea to “Stuff The Police Trailer,” and the effort to make it a reality was embraced by the department and the city. Despite budget cuts that depleted the city’s resources for community events, outreach during the Christmas season never ceased.

“Every year for instance, we do the Santa Sleigh throughout the city. Unfortunately, this year the person who puts it together with the fire department couldn’t do it so we had to do something different,” Sgt. Blaylock said. “This toy drive was another way to show support for the families of Inglewood.”

Members of the IPD and Santa Claus greeted individuals donating toys all day. Furthermore, the collection of unwrapped gifts has been taking place since Nov. 27. All donate toys will be screened before being delivered to select Inglewood families.

“Every holiday season there are thousands of families across the United States who experience some hardship that prevents them from having an enjoyable holiday season,” said the Police Department via a press release. “By participating in the “Stuff the Police Trailer” event, we can do our part to help needy families within the Inglewood community.”

Information by the United States Census Bureau states that as of 2013, the City of Inglewood registered 22.4 percent of its residents living below the poverty line. The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported Inglewood’s unemployment rate at 9.3 percent during April of this year, which was slightly higher than the national average. Still, the city’s residents showed their generosity during the holidays.

“To me, what we do at the council and at the mayor’s level is that we represent the city, but what we have done, even since before being elected to the council, is that we have brought Inglewood up,” Inglewood District No. 1 Councilman George Dotson said. “Our whole aim of the Christmas holidays is to bring Inglewood up; always upward motion and today is all about bringing that to fruition.”

For Councilman Dotson the toy drive benefits the people donating as much as it is a helping hand for the families in need.

“Today the kids come out, enjoy time with Santa Claus and people will come out and bring toys,” Councilman Dotson said. “Anytime that you can give back, it is a blessing to you and to the person that you give to; today is a blessing for Inglewood and we will bless someone else in the process.”

With expectations having been exceeded, the Inglewood Police Department is looking forward to what’s to come.

“I am sure we will do it again, it will probably be tweaked a bit like finding a different location, but we will definitely be looking do it again,” Sgt. Blaylock said. •

News for the ‘City of Good Neighbors’

From City Clerk Norb Huber

NEW MAYOR AND COUNCIL MEMBERS SWORN IN

Alex Vargas was sworn in as the new Mayor of Hawthorne this past Tuesday evening. He has served as a councilmen for the past six years. He took over the middle seat on the council after being officially being sworn in by City Clerk Huber and ceremonially sworn in by his father and mother in front of an overflow crowd in the council chambers. Along with Mayor Vargas, Nilo Michelin and Haidar Awad were sworn in as council members. Mr. Michelin is returning for his second term and Mr. Awad is one of the youngest council members ever elected. They won their seats during the November 3 election beating out five other council candidates. Now, with the results official, there is one vacancy on the council. An application process was discussed regarding the appointment of a Hawthorne resident to fill the vacated seat left behind by Mayor Vargas. The appointee will serve for the remainder of his term, two years. With the change of leadership, Hawthorne has a clean slate to work with. There was plenty to be optimistic about after the meeting. Many of the residents commented about the new spirit of cooperation that appeared up in front. We shall see if the four members plus their appointee can move our city forward. Lets all try to work together to make this happen.

WELCOME BACK READERS

I missed you all the last three weeks. With the holidays, the rush to get things done, I have missed writing to you the past month. I know that some of you have missed seeing me as you pick up the newspaper. Maybe I had one too many things to do, maybe I had one too many cold ones, whatever the reason, I’m back and will try to share a few thoughts throughout the remainder of the calendar year and into 2016. I tend to try to do too many things in the course of one day. Besides teaching my high school Math classes and trying to be City Clerk, my small business has grown into a larger operation. There seems to be a lot of people who wish to purchase an outdoor nativity. With Christmas Day approaching, our sales may taper off soon. It’s a challenge to keep our products flowing to fill our orders. The internet has made it possible to sell to the world.

NEW HANGER AT HAWTHORNE AIRPORT

The December Mixer for the Hawthorne Chamber of Commerce was held at the new 42,000 square foot hanger at the Hawthorne Airport. Pat Carey, a Hawthorne Planning Commissioner and owner of the flight school over at the airport was instrumental in getting the largest hanger ever build to become a reality. Along with the growth of SpaceX, the east side of Hawthorne is booming with progress. The parking structure for SpaceX is getting closer to being completed. Take a drive over to Crenshaw and 120th Street to see all of the growth.

UNITY WALK

As a result of the recent shootings in our SoCal area, there will be a Unity Walk held this Saturday, December 12th. It is meant to bring our community together to show our common respect for each other regardless of our religious affiliation. The walk will begin in front of St. Joseph Catholic Church at 10:45 a.m. and will conclude with a gathering at the Islamic Center around 11 a.m. Hawthorne is a diverse community that has shown a great deal of understanding and acceptance for all who live here. We pray for healing and unity.

SANTA COMES TO TOWN

The jolly ol’ fella showed up right on time last Saturday evening over at the old police station on 126th Street in Hawthorne. There was a fairly large group of little ones waiting to get their chance to sit on his lap and tell him what they wanted for Christmas. The Hawthorne Historical Society hosted the annual tree lighting and Santa arrival event. I guess Santa went back to the North Pole to start preparing for his big night. •

Film Review

The Letters is a warm, albeit underwhelming, biopic about the work of Mother Teresa

By Morgan Rojas for Cinemacy

Mother Teresa’s 50-year epic journey from a cloistered nun to a renowned and iconic humanitarian is brought to the big screen in the drama The Letters. Director William Riead assembles a powerful cast to bring the letters Mother Teresa wrote to her spiritual advisor, Father Celest van Exem, to life. Her story is truly a fascinating one but, unfortunately,

The story jumps from past to present day, as the priests push her canonization into sainthood after her death in 1997. As far as performances go, Juliet Stevenson transforms into Mother Teresa, adopting her frail mannerisms and gentle soul. She exudes confidence and heroism as the driving force behind the story. The biggest critique comes from the film’s pacing. The beginning was so rushed that, in a state of confusion, I actually had to rewind and watch the first few minutes a second time the film can’t quite match the totality of the narrative, lacking enough passion and vigor to keep our interest for the duration of its 114-minute runtime. In the beginning, Sister Teresa was just another one of the many cloistered nuns living in the impoverished city of Calcutta, India’s capital. One unsuspecting afternoon, she believes to have heard the voice of God call her to leave her current teaching position within her convent and serve the poorest of the poor in the slums. This “call within a call”, she writes in one letter, was the beginning of her true life’s passion- becoming a voice for those in dire need of help and love. In 1950, she was given the title of “Mother” after her self-started congregation- Missionaries of Charity- was recognized by the pope and the church. In a similar narrative style to The Notebook, Father Celest van Exem acts as a narrator using Mother Teresa’s letters as the script.

to get a better understanding of the story. The second act- where Mother Teresa overcomes a hasty unwelcoming from the Hindus within the slums who distrusted her presence in their community because of her Catholic beliefs, to finally gaining their acceptance- takes it’s time to build and develop. This is the crux of the story, so the attention paid here is expected, but then the third act again rushes by too quickly. In the last few minutes of the film, Mother Teresa has accepted a Nobel Peace Prize, becomes a globally recognized and worshiped name, and has enlightened the world on her “call within a call”. Were it not for the inconsistent pacing, The Letters had the potential to be a powerful, emotional, and laudable film definitely worthy of attention come awards season. Instead, what it the viewer will find is a fair, melodramatic biopic of the truly great work Mother Teresa accomplished. •

Lawndale Girls Capture Redondo Tournament

Inglewood High's Cristal Welch shoots a basket in last Thursday's Redondo Battle at the Beach Girls' Basketball Tournament against Marlborough. The Sentinels lost to the Mustangs 44-15.

Lawndale High's Taylor Hall dribbles the ball down the court in last Thursday's Redondo Battle at the Beach Girls' Basketball Tournament action. The Cardinals downed the Gauchos 51-35, then defeated Torrance 37-34 for the Gold Division championship on Saturday.

It was six years ago that current head coach Anthony Gipson took over the Lawndale High girls' basketball program. The Lady Cardinals went through a rough season with a 2-20 record but Gipson pledged that he would bring Lawndale to the top. Last season, the Cardinals finished third in the Ocean League and advanced to the CIF-Southern Section Division IIAA playoffs losing in the first round.

This year, Gipson and the team have high hopes of a successful year after capturing the Gold Division of the always tough Redondo Battle at the Beach Tournament by edging Torrance 37-34 last Saturday. "It was a long time coming," Gipson said. "I've been waiting for this. It's been a six-year process."

In a defensive battle against the Tartars, Lawndale (4-1) led most of the way but the game was close. The Cardinals played a strong defense and were very good at the boards with 55 team rebounds. Lawndale also totaled nine assists, seven steals and five blocked shots. "Defense is our key," Gipson said. "We put our pride on D."

After losing their non-league opener at Raboe Academy in Glendale 47-37 on November 28, the Cardinals began the Redondo Tournament by rolling over Rolling Hills Estates Peninsula 56-30 on December 1. Last Thursday, Lawndale downed CIF-Los Angeles City Section power Narbonne 51-35, before defeating Cerritos Valley Christian 48-34 on Friday to go unbeaten at 3-0 in pool play.

Junior Rajinae Crandall led the Cardinals with 10 points and 16 rebounds as she was named the tournament division's Most Valuable Player. Taylor Hall was also on the all-tournament squad as she led in scoring with 12 points. "Rajinae has been consistent in the last two games," Gipson said. "She had no rest in all five of our games."

Against Narbonne, Crandall sparked Lawndale with 25 points and 16 rebounds. Talia Jones added nine points, four steals and three assists. Kamsi Metu, younger sister of former Lawndale High boys' basketball standout and now University of Southern California freshman Chimeze Metu, contributed seven points, 17 rebounds and seven blocks. "It's exciting to defeat Narbonne," Gipson said. "It's always a pleasure to win against one of the best coaches in Southern California (head Gaucho mentor Vicky Sanders)."

After the big showing, the Cardinals won't play until December 28 when they travel to San Francisco for the West Coast Jamboree.

Winning the Platinum (Elite) Division was Troy High from Fullerton which defeated Gardena Serra 70-62.

INGLEWOOD STRUGGLES

Inglewood High's boys' basketball team lost all three of its pool games in last week's Redondo Battle at the Beach Gold Division Classic. The Sentinels (0-4) opened with a 56-33 loss to Cerritos Valley Christian on December 1. Two days later, Inglewood fell to Los Angeles Marlborough 44-15. Last Thursday, the Sents fell to Redondo High's junior varsity squad 46-31. Against Marlborough, Inglewood, head coached by first year mentor Charles Cain, was led by his daughter, Cheyene, with seven points. Christel Welch added five points. Rowan Smith led all scorers with 26 points for the Mustangs.

Leuzinger Wins Three of Five

Last week, Leuzinger High's girls' basketball team opened its season in the Brentwood Tournament and won three of five games there. The Olympians started out well with wins over Venice and Bel Air Marymount before taking losses to Saugus and Santa Monica St. Monica. Leuzinger closed the classic with a 65-51 victory over Inglewood St. Mary's Academy last Saturday.

In the Olympians' opening win over the Gondoliers on November 30, junior Brooke Scott led with 20 points and seven steals. Sophomore Prescious Onwuku finished with 17 points, 10 rebounds, 10 steals and five assists. Sophomore Cheyenne Tannan had 14 points and seven steals, and senior Rebecca Oderola recorded 11 points and six assists. Scott tallied 21 points, including three three-pointers in Leuzinger's 52-50 win over Marymount on December 1. Tannan chipped in 11 points and Onwuku totaled seven points and 10 rebounds. Michaela Keefe led the Sailors with 19 points. The Olympians gathered a total of 47 rebounds in the contest.

A day later, Leuzinger lost to Saugus 50-44. Tannan led the Olympians with 16 points and six steals. Scott tallied 11 points. Onwuku had nine points and 10 rebounds. Last Friday, Leuzinger fell to St. Monica 63-50.

HAWTHORNE SPLITS IN DOWNEY

Hawthorne High's girls' basketball team split its four games in the Downey Tournament for a 13th place finish last week. After losing the first two games to host Downey (52-34) on November 27 and Lakewood (47-31 on November 28), the Cougars bounced back with a 37-31 overtime victory over Van Nuys Fulton 37-31 on December 1 and held off Fullerton Sunny Hills 44-42 on December 2.

Tianna Grant was named Player of the Game as she led Hawthorne (2-2) with 11 points, including three three-pointers, against Sunny Hills. Khari Holmes finished with nine points and five rebounds. Dyemond Cooper chipped in six points. Brianna Anderson and Kierra Miller gathered nine and six rebounds, in order. •

WINTER WATERING TIPS FOR OUTDOOR LANDSCAPING

Golden State Water Company thanks you, our customers, for the steps you have taken to reduce water use during the drought, and is offering these tips to help you maximize your water-use efficiency this winter.

- ❖ Install water-efficient sprinkler heads, and check to make sure your sprinklers are positioned to irrigate the lawn and not your sidewalk, driveway or gutters.
- ❖ Survey your lawn irrigation system and fix any sprinklers, valves and lines that may be damaged or leaking water.
- ❖ While hand watering your lawn, focus on dry spots and pay close attention to avoid runoff.

Nonprofit, L.A. Kings Hosts 23rd Annual Holiday Program To Benefit Victims Of Violence

Bailey, the Kings' famous mascot, was part of the afternoon's fun and charitable activities. The Kings' Ice Crew and a KROQ music booth added to the high spirits among those present to donate to the cause.

Lines of families and cars filled the Toyota Sports Center during the 23rd Annual Adopt A Family Program organized by Friends & Helpers. With the support of the Los Angeles Kings, the nonprofit dedicated to providing support and encouragement for the women, teens, children and sometimes men trying to escape a violent or hurtful situation hosted its annual holiday program.

“It is one of those things where Kevin and Melissa are friends of ours, this has meant a lot for them for years,” President of Business Operations for the Los Angeles Kings Luc Robitaille said. “This is one of those events where we want to work together. It is such a great cause and we understand that the families that are being touched by these efforts will be helped. Any time that we have an opportunity to make a difference, we try to get involved.”

Melissa Ryder, who is a survivor of domestic abuse from her first marriage, founded Friends & Helpers in 1992. Alongside her husband Kevin Ryder, cohost of the Los Angeles based Kevin and Bean Show on KROQ, Melissa has been organizing the holiday program in order to provide gifts, stuffed stockings, gift cards and everyday items for people living in local domestic abuse shelters.

“When we say that five dollars make a difference, it really does make a difference,” Melissa said. “There are people who don’t eat and five dollars mean that they will eat that day.”

In addition to accepting on-site donations, people can contribute via the Adopt A Family Gift donation where the donor can indicate the size of the family they are interested in adopting. Friends & Helpers will send an interested donor a family's wish list so that all of the adopted family's needs are met during the holiday season. In addition, persons interested can Adopt A Stocking through which a $25 donation will provide a child or teenager a stocking with treats and a gift card. To help women, there is the Adopt A Women's Bag donation where a bag is filled with toiletries, feminine products, dental hygiene products and other items.

"The kindness of people is really overwhelming," Melissa said. "People show up just to be kind, with great things, with handfuls of gift cards, or with toys just because they know that there is a kid that needs one. It touches my heart in such a way, that I am just truly moved."

In addition to helping people in need, Kevin and Melissa are committed to raising awareness about domestic violence through their outreach.

"It's really important and it's also very difficult because it is a subject that is so heinous," Kevin said. "People don't naturally want to talk about issues that are that sad."

The State of California Department of Justice's Office of the Attorney General reported that in 2014, the City of Los Angeles alone registered more than 8,000 calls for assistance for domestic violence.

"It is in your own neighborhood. It is in everybody's neighborhood; it is wherever you are and it is happening in the teen world," Melissa said. "It is amazing to me that there are so many formats to discuss bullying yet this topic never gets discussed."

"One of our goals is education; we want people to realize that abuse is real. The only way that we are going to end it is by getting a dialogue out there," Melissa said. "If people are aware that we are trying to make changes and talking about it, then we will affect change. Everyone in my crew is very young because the young people are the next chance at this so that is why we are doing this. We are going to keep fighting.”

Being proactive in the community is something the Kings' organization is known for and this was an opportunity that was not to be taken lightly.

“Sometimes there are a lot of things that aren’t good that we don’t want to talk about but if we have an opportunity to spread the message that it is out there, then we have to make a difference,” Robitaille said. “As much as this is about delivering the message, it’s about making a difference with the kids that are a part of those families and that we can help them.”

Despite being in its 23rd year of existence, the task at hand never gets easier for Melissa; yet, it reaffirms that the work being conducted can not be abandoned.

"I fall apart constantly but it is very rewarding. I am forever overwhelmed by the kindness of people," Melissa said. "I have people come up to me and tell stories that touch my heart, or write me notes, and I am so grateful that people will drive for an hour-and-a-half in traffic to bring things for a family that they don't know. For that, I am forever going to be thankful." •

Hockey legend and President of Business Operations for the Los Angeles Kings Luc Robitaille shared a moment with young hockey fan Will Fuhrman during Thursday's holiday event. Robitaille and the L.A. Kings have had a long-standing relationship with Kevin and Melissa Ryder [big Kings' fans] and have known about Friends & Helpers for years. Using the team's practice facility's parking lot was a perfect opportunity to collect items for people in need, and a convenient way to bring attention to the issue of domestic violence.

Chicken and Grape Arepas

Makes 4 servings

Ingredients

- 2 cups arepa flour (pre-cooked masa, also called masarepa, which can be found online and in Latin specialty grocers, as well as some supermarkets)
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 3 tablespoons safflower or grapeseed oil (divided)
 - 1 cup shredded cooked chicken
 - 1/2 teaspoon smoked paprika
 - 2 scallions, thinly sliced
 - Salt and pepper
- 1 cup sliced red and green California grapes
1/2 cup crumbled feta

Preparation

1. Preheat an oven to 250F. In a large bowl, combine the arepa flour and salt. Stir in 2 1/2 cups warm water and stir until smooth. Let stand five minutes.
2. Knead the dough lightly and divide into eight pieces. Roll into a ball and then flatten to 1/2-inch thickness.
3. Heat 1 tablespoon of the oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add half the arepas, cover and cook until golden (about six to eight minutes.) Turn and cook uncovered, another six to eight minutes, adding more oil if needed.
4. Transfer to a sheet pan and put in oven to keep warm. Repeat with the remaining arepas.
5. Once the arepas are cooked, heat the remaining tablespoon of oil in the skillet over high heat.
6. Add the chicken, paprika, scallions, salt and pepper to taste and cook until chicken is slightly crispy and browned, about 5 minutes.
7. To serve, split the arepas and stuff with chicken, grapes and feta.

Subcontractors shall be licensed pursuant to California law for the trades necessary to perform the Work called for in the Contract Documents. Each bid must strictly conform with and be responsive to the Contract Documents as defined in the General Conditions.

Prevailing wages are applicable to the Project. These per diem rates, including holiday and overtime work, as well as employer payments for health and welfare, pension, vacation, and similar purposes, are available from the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations. Bid Security. Each Bid Proposal shall be accompanied by Bid Security in an amount FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS Failure of any Bid Proposal to be accompanied by Bid Security in the form and in the amount required shall render such Bid Proposal to be non-responsive and rejected by the District.

No Withdrawal of Bid Proposals. No Bidder shall withdraw its Bid Proposal for a period of ninety (90) days after the award of the Contract by the District's Board of Education. During this time, all Bidders shall guarantee prices quoted in their respective Bid Proposals.

Substitute Security. In accordance with the provisions of California Public Contract Code §22300, substitution of eligible and equivalent securities for any monies withheld by the District to ensure the Contractor's performance under the Contract will be permitted at the request and expense of the Contractor. The foregoing notwithstanding, the Bidder to whom the Contract is awarded shall have thirty (30) days following action by the District's Board of Education to award the Contract to such Bidder to submit its written request to the District to permit the substitution of securities for retention. The failure of the Bidder to make such written request to the District within said thirty (30) day period shall be deemed a waiver of the Bidder's rights under California Public Contract Code §22300. Waiver of Irregularities. The District reserves the right to reject any or all Bid Proposals or to waive any irregularities or informalities in any Bid Proposal or in the bidding.

Award of Contract. The Contract for the Work, if awarded, will be by action of the District's Board of Education to the responsible Bidder submitting the lowest responsive Bid Proposal. If the Bid Proposal requires Bidders to propose prices for Alternate Bid Items, the District's selection of Alternate Bid Items, if any, for determination of the lowest priced Bid Proposal and for inclusion in the scope of the Contract to be awarded shall be in accordance with this Notice and the Instructions for Bidders.

Inquiries and Clarifications. The Bidder is advised that all inquiries and clarifications about the Bid Documents, Drawings, Specifications, etc., shall be submitted to the District in writing at least seven (7) days before the bid opening date. The District will respond at its earliest possible opportunity. Verbal communication by either party with regard to this matter is invalid. Inquiries shall be sent in writing to Aneska Ines Kekula at ikekula@hawthorne.k12ca.us or (310) 675-9464 by December 28, 2015, at 4:00 PM.

Alternate Bid Items. The selection of Bid Alternates for determination of the lowest Bid Proposal will be based upon the Base Bid Proposal alone or a combination of the Base Bid Proposal and one or more Bid Alternates as selected by the District. The District reserves the right to use the "blind bidding" procedures.
