Bonuses, Bigger Checks Promised to Workers

By Rob McCarthy

A message from the taxman can usually be summed up in two words: Pay up. So it's a pleasant surprise when the Internal Revenue Service announces that many taxpayers have more money coming their way soon.

Tax season, which opened on Monday, puts the IRS in a giving mood and this year is no different. When Congress approved a tax code overhaul in late December, the changes included lower tax rates for individuals. The IRS has posted the new tax tables on its website, and expects employers to begin using them in February.

"Many employees will begin to see increases in their paychecks to reflect the new law in February," the IRS said, without giving an estimate about how many U.S. workers' take-home checks will rise.

Congress' new law won't affect current tax returns for 2017, though it did raise the standard deduction for individuals to $11,000, heads of household to $18,000, and married couples to $24,000. For people with simpler tax situations, the new tables are designed to produce the correct amount of tax withholding. The revisions aim to avoid a common taxpayer mistake: over- or under-withholding of income taxes.

The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act passed by Congress last December is predicted to deliver modest tax cuts to middle-income people. The Tax Policy Center in Washington, D.C., estimated an average tax cut of $1,200 for all households in 2018, which won't be seen until next year's income tax returns are filed. But, the larger paychecks don't have to wait that long.

The time it will take for employees to see the result of tax cuts legislation on their paychecks will vary, according to the IRS. Those hikes in take-home pay depend on the employers and how quickly they calculate federal withholdings using the 2018-revised tables. "Employers should begin using the 2018 withholding tables as soon as possible, but not later than Feb. 15, 2018," the IRS said.

Whether taxpayers really see any extra money depends on whether they read their pay stubs. A finding by the Electronic Payments Association suggests that any slight change could go unnoticed by the majority of U.S. workers. The association reported that 82 percent of U.S. workers use direct deposit instead of a paper check. If they read their electronic pay stubs, they'll see a difference.

There's an added bonus in the tax rate change for workers. Employees do not have to do anything at this time, though the IRS is revising the standard W-4 withholding form that each employee fills out at time of hire. "The new withholding tables work with the Forms W-4 that workers have already filed with their employers to claim withholding allowances. This will minimize burden on taxpayers and employers," the IRS said.

The tax code changes took effect on Jan. 1, just days after the House and Senate approved the biggest tax reform legislation in decades. Companies since have announced bonuses for employees because Congress did away with the previous corporate tax rates and created a new rate of 21 percent.

Several airlines are among the employers who are passing along the corporate tax cuts. Alaska, American and Southwest Airlines all pledged $1,000 bonuses to their employees. Alaska went a step further and offered $118 million in incentive bonuses to its 23,000 workers nationwide.

Other companies and entities that do business in the South Bay that have promised tax cut bonuses include:

- Bank of America: $1,000 bonuses to about 145,000 of its workforce.
- FedEx: $200 million in raises, about two-thirds of which will go to hourly team members. The delivery service giant also plans to contribute $1.5 billion to its pension plan.

- Home Depot: Gave one-time cash bonuses of $1,000 for hourly associates before Jan. 1.

- Honeywell: Increased the 401(k) match for employees in the U.S., Canada and Puerto Rico.

Financial institutions and banks, including Wells Fargo and Washington Federal, raised staff salaries and bumped the company minimum wage to $15, using the corporate tax savings. Verizon gave employees, excluding its top management, 50 shares of the telecom company's restricted stock. Apple was even more generous, handing out $2,500 in stock to most of its employees.

Not everyone will enjoy a tax reduction under the new law. While most taxpayers will pay less, some taxpayers will pay a slightly higher tax rate for 2018, according to Executive Director Kathy Pickering with The Tax Institute. High-earners with a marginal tax rate of 35 percent (up from 33 percent) will be most affected.

Even if you didn't receive a celebratory bonus, the IRS said that 70 percent of taxpayers are expecting refunds this year. The tax season opened Monday and runs Jan. 29 through Tuesday, April 17. The filing period is five days shorter than last year, putting added pressure on tax preparers and self-filers to make the deadline.

The IRS says 90 percent of refunds are issued in under 21 days, but to expect delays with returns that claim the Earned Income or Additional Child Tax Credits. The Earned Income Tax Credit is for working people with low to moderate income. To qualify for this refund, you must file a tax return, even if you do not owe any tax. According to the agency, "The IRS expects the earliest EITC/ACTC related refunds to be available in taxpayer bank accounts or on debit cards starting on Feb. 27, 2018, if they chose direct deposit and there are no other issues with the tax return."

For the second consecutive year, April 15 falls on a weekend -- so the tax return filing deadline falls two days later on a Tuesday. •

A Cup Of Tea Can Be The Best Solution For Everyday Wellness

(BPT) - Before medicine and pharmaceuticals filled our remedy box, food and food ingredients were considered healing agents. Hippocrates was wise in his understanding of the special powers of food, beyond satisfying our appetites: "Let food be thy medicine and medicine be thy food."

There are many cultures that rely on herbal remedies and natural foods for everything from soothing an upset stomach to lifting our spirits when we're down, to calming jittery nerves and even fending off colds and flu. Many of the best cosmetics tout ingredients to smooth skin, prevent aging, block the sun, reduce inflammation and minimize puffiness. There are four common herbs that have been used by many cultures and that are found in many of our kitchens.

1) Turmeric is a commonly used ingredient in Ayurvedic practices. In Hindu, the bright yellow color of turmeric is associated with the sun. In India, turmeric is used in wedding and religious ceremonies and is thought to bring good fortune. Not only is it said to brighten our spirits, but it has also been found to have some anti-inflammatory properties, which are healing for the body

2) Ginger, a relatively inexpensive and easy-to-find root, is considered a very healthful spice in the same family as turmeric. It is rich in many healthy components and has a strong aroma caused by the compound gingerol. Ginger has a long history of use in traditional and alternative medicine. It is most commonly used to soothe a stomach ache and combat nausea, and is frequently used by women to prevent morning sickness during pregnancy.

3) Another popular spice is cinnamon, which is known for its healthy antioxidant properties and delicious sweet taste. It may help to reduce inflammation and be heart healthy. It may also be helpful in regulating blood sugar levels within the body, and even have some protective effect against developing colds.

4) Chamomile is a flower that has historically been associated with relaxation and calming. Many different cultures have used it alongside lavender as a soothing beverage to enjoy before bedtime.

Many of these ingredients can be found in our pantries, and including them in our diets is as simple as incorporating them into recipes or brewing up a delicious cup of tea. Herbal teas are a delicious and probably the easiest way to introduce these ingredients into our daily lives. Sipping tea throughout the day provides a natural break.

Tea itself (from the plant Camellia sinensis) contains many healthy compounds such as polyphenols, which are great antioxidant compounds. Studies with this phenomenal beverage are linked to many areas of health and wellness.

Bigelow Tea has long understood the art of blending top-quality ingredients in their teas and has recently introduced a new line called Bigelow Benefits, which takes the concept of herbal tea one step further by carefully crafting a tea bag with an enticing mix of beneficial herbs, flowers and fruits that supports your daily health.

So next time you are looking to have a more healthful lifestyle, or just a good night's sleep, look no further than your tea cup. •

PETSPETS Pets PETSPETS

Purrrfect Companions

Chloe

Many of the teenage and adult cats we rescue have been abandoned, neglected, abused or dumped at the shelter and find themselves in a terrifying, lonely new world. They are supremely deserving, and appreciative, of a second chance at life. Kitten, teenage or adult cat, when you adopt, you save a life... and in turn, enrich your own.

Chloe is an energetic, dainty kitty with a petite body and huge green eyes. Chloe will melt your heart. She was surrendered by her owner for unknown reasons and spent over a month at the shelter before she was fostered through Kitten Rescue. Despite this rough time, Chloe adapted almost immediately to being in a home with a loving caretaker and several cat "siblings." She is a friendly girl who will chirp when she sees you and rush over to give you a head butt. She makes great eye contact and is very responsive. If you call her, Chloe comes running. She can amuse herself, but also gets along well with other cats. Chloe is ready for a forever home and will be forever grateful.

Marlowe is a tiny little tigress full of energy. She's a gorgeous, playful and petite little cuddle bug who loves to snuggle after fun play time with her human parent and cat friends. She would be happiest with at least another kitty to keep her company for all that fun. Marlowe loves all toys and loves to hide behind house plants like she's in the jungle. She's quite the purr machine -- letting you know she's happy -- and gives lots of affection, including little cat kisses.

You are going to love having a little Magic in your life. This amazing kitty was adopted out with her sister and somehow wound up at a pound in Texas. Why? We have no idea, but what we do know is that it was through no fault of her own, because she is a perfect kitty. Thanks to her microchip, Magic found her way back to the Kitten Rescue sanctuary. Magic is outgoing, friendly, loving, affectionate and playful. She would be happy in an active home or a quiet one, as long as she receives lots of attention.

Cameron is a wonderful little boy. He gets many compliments on his gorgeous looks from every single person who meets him. Besides being a very handsome, classic buff tabby, Cameron is also loving and playful. He enjoys getting petted, especially having his back scratched, and will purr loudly to show you his appreciation. He loves playing with his siblings, kitty friends and his toys. After a good play session, Cameron likes to lounge and receive a good petting.

Leo was found by a Good Samaritan. He was in pain, dehydrated and not able to walk after he was hit by a car. He was brought to the Kitten Rescue Sanctuary and given fluids, food, flea medication and lots of love and attention. He is now fully recovered and ready to find his purr-manent home! Young Leo is a very playful kitty and loves other cats. He enjoys getting love, pets and attention from humans. He prefers to have all four paws on the ground and is not fond of being picked up. Leo's ideal home would have a buddy for him to play with and loving and attentive humans who would dote on him.

Zuri's snow-white coat makes her the fairest kitty of them all. She may be a princess, but she'll treat you like a king or queen. Don't let her delicate looks deceive you. She's no damsel in distress. Zuri will climb the tallest tower and leap into the biggest bunk beds just for a chance to snuggle up with you. She loves basking in the warmth of your lap or the next best thing: your blanket. For the most part, Zuri is the small and silent type until you hear her purr...and you will hear her purr.

Puffin is 100 percent the cutest little purr machine. A sweet gentleman, he will melt you with his piercing green eyes. He's a gentle little guy and will come give you attention when you need it the most. Puffin loves to jump on your lap and snuggle next to you in bed at night. Super playful, he loves to chase balls, string and laser pointers, and to play with his foster sister. So affectionate, you can often find him grooming her and giving her kisses one minute... and then the next, chasing her around the room playing hide and seek behind the curtains. Needless to say, Puffin makes a great friend to other cats and is a great companion.
