A Day in the Life of a City Clerk: Lawndale's Bernadette Suarez

By Nancy Peters

Lawndale can only count back about 46 years to incorporation as a city, but many people who live in the two square miles can date back several generations to family living there many more years than Lawndale became a blip on the Los Angeles County map. The Suarez family is actually working on the fifth generation of Lawndale natives. The current elected City Clerk, Bernadette Suarez, knows that her maternal and paternal grandparents were/are natives, her Mom and Dad are natives, and her generation is following in those footsteps with her nine siblings, some of whom have begun their own Lawndale natives with her nephew and niece.

"One set of grandparents moved here in 1951, the other in 1955. My Mom and Dad grew up on Freeman Avenue and know each other since they were children. They married and began to have our family, and nearly 40 years later, have 10 children, many of the younger ones still living at home," related Bernadette. "I am in the middle, along with my next oldest brother, and our family ranges in age from the oldest male at 36 to our youngest sister who is 15 and attends Leuzinger High."

Bernadette and her older siblings, and a few younger who already graduated, along with their Mom, Sandra, are all Leuzinger alumni. Bernadette is also a graduate of University of California at Santa Barbara where she studied English.

Taking a cue from her mother who was an elected member of the Centinela Valley Union High School District Board of Trustees from 2007 to 2011, Bernadette decided in 2014 to run for the position of City Clerk. Her mother encouraged her, and actually all the children, to serve the community whenever possible. Even at 23 years of age, Suarez had little apprehension for seeking an elected office.

"I made a major life decision at the beginning of 2014 that it would be 'my' year. When my Mom mentioned that the incumbent City Clerk was not seeking reelection, she suggested I run for the position. I agreed it was a good thing to do.

"I walked the city with two other candidates, door-to-door for about two weeks, which was a great experience. I enjoyed meeting the citizens and hearing their questions of the candidates (Pat Kearney and Daniel Reid, who was running for mayor at that time) and listening to the answers. I learned a lot on those walks," continued Suarez.

"It was exciting on election night when I knew I had won! I actually garnered nearly 10 percent more of the votes than the other candidate. Then the real fun began. Since being elected I am reading past minutes of City Council meetings. Many items come back around after many years. I am becoming more familiar with resolutions and especially ordinances and various amendments passed over the years.

"I have a regular full-time job in real estate administration, but twice a week, since my first week in office, I go to City Hall and work closely with Pam Giammaro, the Assistant City Clerk, and Maria Guerra, the Deputy City Clerk, who have been working at their respective jobs for approximately 20 years. They are so knowledgeable. Both of them have helped me a lot to familiarize myself with processes and various laws governing the office of City Clerk, as well as the functions of the City Council, and the city in general.

"It was such an honor to perform my first oath of office when Daniel Reid was appointed to the City Council in 2014. Giving oaths of office to all the commissioners who are appointed has become my favorite part of the position," Bernadette said with a huge smile on her face.

As the City Clerk, Bernadette Suarez calls the roll at each City Council/Agency meeting; verifies the minutes of all meetings of the Council and agencies; she affixes her signature, attesting to the signature of the mayor, on all resolutions, ordinances, amendments, and any other official documents; and she verifies and announces every vote at each City Council meeting.

In April 2016, Suarez will run the first election to be held in Lawndale since she was elected as the City Clerk in April 2014. That election will be for mayor and two seats on the City Council.

"I have already begun training through our election consultant, Martin and Chapman. Since we conduct stand-alone elections, the County Registrar's Office has advised that perhaps in 2020 we may have to consolidate our Lawndale elections with the November election since legislation in the works may eliminate stand-alone elections. We have four precincts and I will train poll workers on some new procedures that may be in effect by that time. Also, the electronic voting counts all votes cast on election day, but machine accuracy will be checked when we conduct a random count by hand of votes in one of the machines. I am really looking forward to being hands-on during the election.

"I feel it is such a privilege to serve my community in this capacity as the City Clerk. The position is important in many ways and I am looking forward to hopefully continuing my community service for a few more terms."

When not working or performing her duties as the Lawndale City Clerk, Bernadette is an expert-level knitter. As a child, she and her siblings were encouraged to express their creativity and each of the 10 Suarez siblings plays an instrument or two. In Bernadette's case, she played the violin for six years in the South Bay Youth Orchestra. In high school she played the baritone horn in the marching band. And, in the Leuzinger High School Drumline, she uniquely played the electric fiddle.

Bernadette Suarez is not just the Lawndale City Clerk. She is a fan of Lawndale, carrying her family legacy proudly, as she serves the city, finding her own path with the complete support of her family and friends, her staff in the City Clerk's office, and the City Council. •

After Forfeits, Lawndale Pulled off Playoff Berth

By Joe Snyder

Entering last week, Lawndale High's football team was in a big position of winning its first Ocean League football championship in 40 years with a perfect 4-0 league record and 8-1 overall mark.

That was until Monday, November 2 when the Cardinals received stunning bad news. Reports were made by the Lawndale High administration, who claimed that a player who transferred to the school from Fairfax High in Los Angeles on the residency was not valid. The administration reported it to the CIF-Southern Section, who had cleared that player (sophomore Josh Pittman) five weeks earlier, and the administration, led by Principal Paula Hart, and the CIF-SS agreed that the Cardinals would have to forfeit in four of their wins he participated in.

Claimed was that the false statement was filled in by Pittman's parents. Lawndale head coach Travis Clark, however, was uncertain of the case.

"I don't know if that's the case," Clark, whose team ended up 5-5 overall and 3-2 in the Ocean League that tied Lawndale for second place with El Segundo and Hawthorne after the Cardinals shut out the host Cougars 45-0 last Friday in their Ocean finale, said. "The CIF cleared him to play. I don't know how we can forfeit the games the kid played in. There was no appeal, no process nor communication. We did nothing wrong."

According to Clark, Pittman started out playing his freshman year at Santa Monica at the start of last season, then transferred to Fairfax before the 2014 football season ended. Over last summer, Pittman transferred to Lawndale.

Pittman touched the football just six times and never scored, according to Clark. He was not cleared in the Cardinals' season opener against South Torrance (Lawndale lost that game 33-21.), but had one play in the Cardinals' 35-19 win over Encino Crespi before getting injured and being out three weeks. He returned in Lawndale's final non-league game against Torrance and was involved in the Cardinals' first two Ocean League games against Culver City and Santa Monica. Lawndale had to forfeit to Crespi, Torrance, Culver City and Santa Monica.

"The CIF cleared him," Clark said. "The CIF comes back five weeks later and he is redeemed ineligible."

Clark put the blame on his former high school, Santa Monica, that he thought reported the case with Pittman on the following Monday (on October 19) after Lawndale's 62-0 rout of the host Vikings on October 16. Clark head coached the Vikings from 2010-14 and played football for Santa Monica, where he graduated in 1984.

Clark said that he received threatening text messages and e-mails from the incident.

"He's an innocent human being," Clark said of Pittman. "I'm disappointed."

Clark says that Lawndale is the Ocean League champion that finished 9-1 overall and 5-0 in league. He plans to appeal the ruling. "It will be corrected," Clark said.

Meanwhile, with the Cardinals currently placing second in Ocean play, behind now official champion Culver City (7-3 overall and 4-1 in league), they will open the CIF-Southern Section Western Division playoffs at Buena High, the second place team behind cross town rival Ventura in the Channel League, Friday at 7 p.m. That could change if Clark wins the appeal well enough before the contest against the Bulldogs.

Lawndale was not the only local team to forfeit games. Morningside was forced to forfeit three of its win and Inglewood forfeited its first league win against Bell, due to use of ineligible players. The Sentinels recorded a forfeit win over Peninsula on October 30 since the Panthers dropped their varsity football team for the final three games of the season due to a high risk from lack of players.

An angry Cardinals team proved dominant against Hawthorne (3-7, 3-2) in a must-win situation last Friday. Senior Santa Monica transfer Zach Cooper proved dominant against the Cougars. He rushed for 255 yards and four touchdowns on 21 carries. On the first play from scrimmage, Cooper sprinted 73 yards for a TD. Cooper added scoring runs of 22, 14 and four yards.

Quarterback Chris Murray rushed for 77 yards on 10 carries that included a 32-yard touchdown run. He passed for only 42 yards but one of those went for a TD to wide receiver Bryant Perkinson late in the fourth quarter. In the game, Lawndale rushed for 384 yards.

For the Cougars, who will not make the playoffs despite its best league record since their Ocean championship team from 2004, quarterback Marte Mapu passed for 120 yards with one interception. Hawthorne, though, mustered just 14 yards on the ground. It was the Cardinals' sixth shutout of the season.

LEUZINGER WINS LEAGUE FINALE; MORNINGSIDE ROUTS INGLEWOOD

Leuzinger High's football team finished in third place in the Pioneer League after shutting out host Centennial 39-0 last Friday in Compton.

The Olympians, who ended their season at 5-5 overall and 3-2 in league, did not get invited to the CIF-Southern Section Western Division playoffs due to six leagues and 16 berths that allowed only four third place squads to advance. Co-champions North Torrance and West Torrance advance to the Western Division playoffs.

Morningside High's football team finished its season in the same way it played in winning its first six games (three of those forfeited after reports by the CIF-SS last week) when it routed cross town rival Inglewood 50-12 last Friday at Coleman Stadium. The Monarchs were 7-3 on the field and 2-3 in the Bay League, but 4-6 overall after the forfeits. The Sentinels finished at 1-9 overall and 1-4 in league but were 2-8 on the field. Champion Palos Verdes, runner-up Redondo and third place Mira Costa all advanced to the Western Division playoffs which start on November 13. •

a way to track those programs and ensure that the money spent leads to positive results.

Calling it the "best anti-crime program" as well as the "best employment program," Napolitano stressed that it is also critical to support early child education. "We're facing shrinking resources and need to look at prioritizing prevention through early childhood education in addition to diversion for long-term success," he said. Napolitano additionally pledged to continue Knabe's efforts in supporting the Safe Surrender program and keeping up the fight against sex trafficking.

Napolitano explained that he applies certain values to all of his decision-making--first and foremost putting people and communities first by solving problems, keeping citizens safe, supporting non-profits and always being accessible. "We need to make LA County more business-friendly and jobs-focused," he said. "I want to continue to find ways to reduce costs and regulations to get businesses running and keeping them running."

Napolitano emphasized the need to protect the environment by reducing air and water pollution, creating more open space, recycling/reusing, and taking the lead on water conservation. Other focuses include fiscal responsibility by making sure the County does not spend more money than it has; not approving taxes without a vote of the people; and making government smarter, more open and accessible. "Dealing with the County should be as easy as dealing with Amazon," Napolitano said. "We need to use technology to better engage the public and measure our programs and adjust for improvements."

Next fall's election will include no less than races for President, State Senate, Congress, and Governor. While Napolitano acknowledges that citizens will have huge choices to make across the board, he believes that the vote for Supervisor will be the most important one for those living in the Fourth District. "They'll be electing one-fifth of the governing body of the nation's largest county with over 10 million people, a $27 billion budget, and the 19th largest economy in the world," he explained. "No other level of government has a bigger impact on people's daily lives than LA County—from public safety to transportation, from education to the environment, from the local economy to healthcare, to the arts and beyond. LA County does it all, and the politicians and special interests are scrambling to create a supermajority to take over the Board and its budget. That's why it matters who gets elected next. This isn't a job you inherit. It's one you have to earn. I'm not a politician. I'm a problem-solver with 25 years of experience in local government who wants to keep LA County working for all of us..." •

Wowser Schnauzers

Harper is in need of a kind family of his own.

We are looking for volunteers to help with our pet adoption fairs which are held every Saturday at the Petco located at 537 N. Pacific Coast Highway Redondo Beach 90277, from noon-3: 30 p.m. If you are interested in volunteering and can commit to at least one Saturday a month, please contact us at info@msfr.org. You can also visit all of our Miniature Schnauzers & Friends rescues at the adoption fair or check out our website, www.msfr.org. If you have any questions about a particular dog's availability you can email us at info@msfr.org. Schnauzers! Bet you can't adopt just one!

My name is Harper and I'm the whole package if I have to say so myself. I'm a good-looking five-year old male purebred Miniature Schnauzer who is quiet and well-mannered. I get along great with other dogs and I met quite a few at the LA county shelter where I ended up as a stray. The MSFR folks rescued me and I have a really great foster Mom but I need a family to call my own. I only weigh 16 pounds so I'm a little on the thin side but I'll look even more handsome when I add a couple of pounds to my lean frame. If you are interested in Harper, please email info@ msfr.org for more information.

Hi there I'm Esmeralda and I think the perfect family will agree that I've had a rough couple of months. First my owner dumped me suddenly at a LA city shelter. Then I was going to be adopted by a family but that fell through when the shelter Vet discovered that I had tumors on my uterus when he was going to spay me. That's when the MSFR people rescued me and took me to their Vet. They took x-rays and found that I was pregnant and the tumor was really a puppy. A week after that revelation I started feeling pretty bad so we went back to the Vet and found that the puppy was no longer alive so the Vet had no choice but to immediately spay me. When they were doing the procedure they found that my uterus had burst – no wonder I was feeling so crummy – so I had to stay with the Vet for three days before I was well enough to go home. However, now I'm completely healed and ready to resume the best life ever for a six-year old female purebred Miniature Schnauzer. Aside from being a stunning, parti-colored lady, I'm a petite gal at only 12 pounds. I get along fine with other dogs but will be just as happy with a people only family. If you are interested in Esmeralda, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

They call me Pinky – but don't worry, I'm not pink. What I am is an adorable one-year old female Terrier mix. Folks wish they knew what I was because I'm so darn cute they want to clone me. I'm just a bit of gal, only eight pounds and I was rescued from a LA county shelter where they said I was a stray. I do shed some but what are a few hairs among friends? Especially when I have so many other things going for me. I'm friendly, good with other dogs, outgoing, quiet and just too sweet to be real. I'm tired of living alone and am ready to share my life with my forever family. If you are interested in Pinky please email info@msfr.org for more information.

Thorin ready for fun!

Hello, my name is Thorin, which is Scandinavian for Thunder. I'm a three-year old male German Shepherd who was rescued from the San Bernardino City shelter the end of June. I currently weigh 66 pounds but when I was found and turned in to the shelter, I was very thin and filthy – a total mess. My ideal weight should be around 80 pounds so you can imagine how emaciated I was. I get along with other dogs and I'm very friendly with people – even those I've just met. I'm learning all kinds of skills – leash manners, sit and I even ride calmly in the car. I keep hearing about something called cats and another called children but since I'm not acquainted with those terms, I'm not sure how I would do with those. Thorin can be seen anytime at Yellow Brick Road Doggie Playcare in El Segundo Call 310-606-5507 or email southbaydoggie@hotmail.com for appointment. •

Roasted Pumpkin With Sweet Onions And Bacon

Ingredients

- 1 medium pumpkin
- 1 diced red onion
- 1/2 pound of bacon
- 1/4 cup olive oil
- 2 tablespoons of butter
- Salt and Pepper

Preparation

1. Peel the pumpkin skin off of the pumpkin. Remove seeds and the stuff inside.
2. Dice the pumpkin into 1-inch pieces.
3. Season with salt and pepper.
4. Add 1 diced red onion, 1/4 cup olive oil, and mix together.
5. Spread out on a baking sheet and bake at 375 for 20 to 30 minutes or until golden brown and soft to the touch separately.
6. Cook the bacon until crispy. Chop bacon and mix with the pumpkin.
7. Heat the mixture with 2 tablespoons of butter check and make sure you have seasoned it enough with salt and pepper.

This is a great side dish with seafood chicken or lamb.
