Hawthorne Community and Police Department Celebrate First-Ever Taco With A Cop

By Cristian Vasquez

It was a stronger smell of tacos that radiated from the corner of Imperial Highway and Condon Avenue that warm and sunny Saturday; there was a larger crowd than usual at the El Tarrasco parking lot, but there was also a jumper for kids, an old Hawthorne Police Department patrol car and the city's first-ever Taco With A Cop.

The new community event designed to connect the city's residents with the police department in a relaxed and fun environment is a unique and creative twist on the world-renowned Coffee With A Cop event.

"We treated this a lot like coffee with a cop because it is a barrier free communication event except that tacos are the mechanism for conversation instead of coffee," Hawthorne Police Department Sgt. Chris Cognac, who is responsible for the original Coffee With A Cop, said. "It has been a huge success and El Tarrasco has been here for quite some time; I actually eat here. It's a nice day to come and eat lunch so it is good all around."

Hosted in the north side of Hawthorne, which has a strong Latino presence and is home to El Tarrasco, was an ideal combination for the family that owns the business to reach out to the community to organize the day's event.

"It was something new and a way to get the community together," Monique Palomo, whose parents own El Tarrasco and who reached out to the community to organize the event, said. "There are things in the area that people don't really speak on and this is hopefully a chance for people to be able to speak about it with a cop."

While the success of Taco With A Cop is far from that of the event that inspired it, the impact that barrier-free communication events have between community residents and their police departments have been felt by more than just the Hawthorne community.

Hawthorne Police Department Lt. Swain, USC student Chanele Zopp, Sgt. Chris Cognac, Chief of Police Robert Fager and Sam Asuga were just some of the day's attendees who got to enjoy tacos and casual conversation. Everyone involved in its organization considered the turnout for this first-time event good, and there are high hopes that there is a second taco-based event between the community and police department.

"Coffee With A Cop is now the largest community policing program in the world: it is in seven countries and thousands of police departments," Sgt. Cognac said. "We still go out and teach it and hear about all of the offshoots. So we teach the philosophy of Coffee With A Cop and encourage people to put their own twist on it."

For several years many police departments have embraced the philosophy of community policing as a way of building trust between residents and their local police department. For the Hawthorne Police Department, the idea of Coffee With A Cop was kicked off in 2011 at a local McDonalds. Detective John Dixon and Sgt. Cognac brainstormed and decided that the best way to ease tensions between the residents and officers was to sit directly in front of people over a cup of coffee.

"It is amazing to think that the world's largest community policing program started at McDonald's in Hawthorne," Sgt. Cognac said. "We never thought it would have the impact that it did."

At its core the intent that Sgt. Cognac and the police department had for these events was to engage the community on a long-term basis, but it was never imagined that Coffee With A Cop would grow in popularity the way it has, nor that it would inspire other similar events.

"When you think about the successful police programs around the world, you think they come from a big police department and not a small police department like Hawthorne," Sgt. Cognac said. "You have to keep this simple because it is about people having access; no barriers or radio calls, no problems and this is what you get; the establishment of trust. It is the establishment of trust between the community and the police, and that is huge."

With the desire to continue having these barrier-free, communication events, both Palomo and the police department look forward to other local restaurants stepping up to host the next Taco With A Cop.

"I do hope that we could do this more often and get the community together to be able to watch out to one another," Palomo said. •

addition to your family. If you are interested in Colton, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

Hi there, I'm Dolton and you've already been introduced to my pal, and possible littermate, Colton. I too am a 2-year old, male Miniature Schnauzer mix. I wholeheartedly agree with Colton when it comes to our parentage because I'm also only 12 pounds of affection. I was rescued from the LA county shelter after being surrendered, however, I have no idea what I could have done to warrant such treatment. I mind my manners get along well with other dogs and would be the perfect companion. I have to admit that my appearance wasn't the best but all it took was a little TLC and some grooming to reveal my adorable, handsome self. If you are interested in Dolton, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

They call me Linus but I don't carry a blanket. I'm a 1-year old, male, Miniature Schnauzer mix who got lost and ended up at a LA county shelter as a stray. I had some folks interested in me and even had a family that was scheduled to adopt me. Sadly, they must have changed their minds at the last minute because they never came to make it official. The MSFR folks literally came to my rescue and I am so very thankful to them. They always tell me that I'm super sweet and what a great little (only 14 pounds) guy I am. If you're looking for a real people dog, that's me. I would love to be your

Linus

We are looking for volunteers to help with our pet adoption fairs which are held every Saturday at the Petco located at 537 N. Pacific Coast Highway Redondo Beach 90277, from noon-3:30 p.m. If you are interested in volunteering and can commit to at least one Saturday a month, please contact us at info@msfr.org. You can also visit all of our Miniature Schnauzers & Friends rescues at the adoption fair or check out our website, www.msfr.org. If you have any questions about a particular dog's availability you can email us at info@msfr.org. Schnauzers! Bet you can't adopt just one!

Hello, my name is Colton and I'm a 2-year old, male Miniature Schnauzer mix. If you ask me, my Dad was the Miniature Schnauzer and my Mom was the mix. No one is clear on what I'm mixed with but Mom must have been a tiny thing because I'm only 12 pounds! My buddy, Dolton, and I were rescued from a LA county shelter after our previous owners surrendered us. I don't even know why they didn't want us anymore. I know I was a matted mess but once I was groomed, TA DA the cutest little guy emerged! While I'm a bit shy upon first introductions, I do make friends very quickly. I'm well behaved, get along great with other dogs and I'd be the perfect only dog but I can get along, with some patience and a little work, with smaller, female dogs. I'm not exactly a non-shedder because I'm a mix but you could call me a low shedder because it's not very much. The best news is that when I get groomed I can get a Schnauzer cut or you can just let me go au naturel! If you are interested in Linus, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

It's true that good things come in small packages and I'm here to prove it. My name is Maddie and I am a 1-year old, female, Miniature Schnauzer mix that is nothing but 13 pounds of sweetness. I was rescued from a LA county shelter just a couple of days before Halloween and that was no treat. It was a very intimidating place and I'm not very outgoing, actually I'm kind of shy, so it's no surprise that no one was interested in adopting me. I get along great with other dogs, and I'm pretty quiet and reserved but I do love my people. Come to adoptions and see if you aren't just mad about Maddie. If you are interested in Maddie, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

Pets can get loose or lost through mishaps and travel quickly. Microchip: it works!

Congratulations to Tippy, our rescue from late September, and her new family. Her family had a Schnauzer that they loved and cherished for 15 years before it went to Rainbow Bridge. They decided to wait until they retired to adopt a new family member and Tippy was the one that they couldn't resist. She now enjoys the good life living in San Pedro. Wishing everyone NVDIIBXOFTTr

THE YELLOW DOG PROJECT.com

If you see a dog with a YELLOW RIBBON or something yellow on the leash, this is a dog who needs some space. Please do not approach this dog with your dog. Please maintain distance or give this dog and his/her person time to move out of your way.

There are many reasons why a dog may need space:

- HEALTH ISSUES
- IN TRAINING
- BEING REHABILITATED
- SCARED OR REACTIVE AROUND OTHER DOGS

THANK YOU!
Those of us who own these dogs appreciate your help and respect!

Apple, Gouda and Farro Salad

Makes 6 servings as a side dish, or 4 servings as a meal

Ingredients

FOR THE SALAD

- 1/2 cup roughly chopped walnuts
- 6 cups mixed greens
- 1 large apple, core removed and thinly sliced
- 6 ounces Arla Dofino(R) Gouda cheese, cut into cubes
- 1 cup cooked farro
- 1/3 cup dried cranberries

FOR THE APPLE CIDER VINAIGRETTE:

- 1/4 cup olive oil
- 1 1/2 tablespoons apple cider vinegar
- 2 Teaspoons honey
- 1 Teaspoon Dijon mustard
- 1 Teaspoon minced shallot
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper, to taste

Preparation

1. First, toast the walnuts in a small skillet over medium heat, stirring frequently. Cook until the walnuts turn brown and smell toasted. This will take about 5 minutes. Transfer to a small bowl to cool.
2. Place the greens in a large bowl. Top with sliced apples, Gouda cheese cubes, farro, dried cranberries and toasted walnuts.
3. To make the vinaigrette, whisk together the olive oil, apple cider vinegar, honey, mustard and shallot. Season with salt and black pepper, to taste. Drizzle the salad with the vinaigrette and gently toss. Serve!

Note: Honeycrisp or Granny Smith apples are great options, but any apple variety will work.
