

Happy Tails

Steve with Emma (aka Patches).

Animals Rule would like to thank the many families and caring individuals who have given some of our “pets without partners” loving homes. With the continued support of the Herald Publications and the fantastic number adoptions at the Manhattan Beach Fair, “Happy Tails” abound. So if your “Happy Tail” hasn’t appeared yet, keep watching! This week’s “Tail” comes via Patches’ new family.

“Hi, thank you for your email. Patches is doing well for her first week with a new family in a new home. We have gone through a long list of possible names and have settled on Emma. Attached are some photos of her with my husband Steve and our son Charlie. Everyone likes her and she seems happy too! She is affectionate and a quick learner, and she tries to please; I am working with her every day and can see the progress she and I are making. We go on lots of neighborhood walks!

She isn’t completely housebroken and is generally submissive, but twice she has shown some aggressive behavior toward other dogs. (Marilee mentioned this possibility to me.) I am keeping her home with me until she feels more secure.

You can see from the photos she gets lots of love and attention. One of her favorite spots is sleeping in Steve’s lap! She is a great little companion dog. Becky.”

When you help or adopt a “pet without a partner”, you will forever make a difference in their life and they are sure to make a difference in yours. •

Pets Without Partners

Gubandy

Libby

Big or little, each one of these “pets without a partners” is sure to bring happiness and lots of love to your home.

Gubandy is a stunning little dog with a beautiful blue merle coat, two differently-colored eyes, and a docked tail. She is a 13-pound, three-year-old mini-Aussie who was bred for her puppies and then dumped at the Downey shelter by her owners. Gubandy is very unique-looking and is a true Aussie inside and out with all the character traits a regular-sized Aussie has. She is one of the most alert, attentive dogs you will ever meet. She watches your every move almost like she is waiting for a job to do or is just tracking you. This little girl is obviously a working dog and would make a wonderful agility dog. She knows how to sit and stay, is wonderful on a leash, walks right by your side and stops when you stop—waiting, again, for direction. Gubandy is sweet, friendly and wants to be playful, but it’s almost like she does not know how to play with toys, so we are working on that. She would be best placed in a home with older children who can assure her safety in the house with doors and gates. Gubandy is completely housebroken with a doggie door or an open door, and she is mostly indifferent to other dogs in the home. She is very aloof around them and instead really wants to be where people are. She can be a little shy when she first meets strangers, but she does come around. Gubandy is current on her vaccinations, microchipped and spayed.

Ty is a beautiful purebred Tibetan Mastiff who is as sweet as he is big. He is three years old and weighs over 120 pounds. Ty is very friendly and affectionate with people, great on a leash and a very go-with-the-flow kind of dog. He has had some obedience training and can sit, shake and lay down on command. With his thick coat, Ty would not do well in the heat, unless he can be inside in the air conditioning. Everyone who comes across Ty instantly loves him. He has a very calm and endearing personality and is a true gentle giant. He can get silly too sometimes. Ty would do best in a home by himself or with a female dog. He is completely housebroken, but he is not cat-safe. Ty is current on his vaccinations, microchipped and neutered.

Libby was found as a stray sitting at the freeway onramp. Her owners were never located. Scared at first, she has since settled in and is a very sweet, silly little Chihuahua. Libby weighs around nine pounds. She is fully grown and her age is estimated to be around one year old. She is fine with other dogs, is cat-safe and loves to be in your lap or roll over on her back for belly rubs. She is wonderful on walks and is a total kissing fool! She would be best placed in a home with kids over 10 years old. We need to assure she is safe this time around with doors and gates. Libby is wonderful—you will be smitten when you meet her. Libby is housebroken, current on her vaccinations, microchipped and spayed.

Laramie is a four-month-old Terrier who weighs about five pounds. He was found in front of a grocery store begging for food one late afternoon. Little Laramie would approach people, look up at them, and then go back to his little corner with whatever had been given to him; he had been doing this all day. Finally he was picked up, fixed up, and now he’s ready for a new home! Laramie is wonderful with people, children, dogs, and cats. He is neutered, vaccinated, de-wormed, and is being housetrained. Laramie is waiting for a loving home with someone special. Could that be you? Laramie is fostered by one of our fellow rescuers. You can fill out an application on our website and we will forward it to him or contact Terrell directly at tc2806@hotmail.com.
