

Pets Without Partners

Delilah

Farley

Check out one of these wonderful "pet without partners." Remember...don't shop--adopt!

Ty is a beautiful purebred Tibetan Mastiff. He is a very handsome boy with his lion-esque red coat and is as sweet as he is big. Ty is three years old and weighs over 120 pounds. This handsome, gentle giant is very friendly and affectionate with people, great on a leash and a very go-with-the-flow kind of dog. He has had some obedience training and can sit, shake and lay down on command. With his extremely thick coat, Ty would not do well in the heat unless he can be inside with the air conditioning. Everyone who comes across Ty instantly loves him. He has a very calm and endearing personality, yet he also has his silly side. Ty would do best in a home by himself or with a female dog; he is not cat-safe. Ty is current on his vaccinations, microchipped and neutered.

Delilah is a darling little Italian Greyhound/Chihuahua. She is around two years old and weighs eight pounds fully grown. She is sweet and gentle and loves all people. Delilah is good with other dogs, is cat-safe and is an all around good-natured dog. Her tail is always wagging and she loves to run and play. Due to her small size and for her safety, she would be best placed in a home with doors and gates and one with older children. She was the mother of three puppies and now it's time for Delilah to have a home of her own. Come on down and meet Delilah. She is simply delightful! Delilah is current on her vaccinations, microchipped and will be spayed.

Moose is a very special guy who we pulled out of the LA County Shelter system because he was in great danger. We have found out he is a Bull Mastiff, bought from a breeder, and he was born in April of 2007. He loves people and connects with everyone he meets instantly. He has a very soft, gentle, mushy, people-loving personality. He is very affectionate with people and absolutely loves children. He lived with three children until they lost their house, so Moose landed in the shelter. He is passive (he will roll over on his back for you to scratch his belly) and a big love of a dog. Moose knows how to sit, lay down, roll to his back, walks great on a leash, is wonderful in the car, responds to corrections well, and does it all with his tail wagging. Moose had bilateral cherry eyes in these pictures, but has since had surgery to correct this. We will update his pictures on our website on August 15; his eyes now look wonderful. If you like and understand this breed, you will love Moose! He will do best if he is placed as an only dog in your home; he is not cat-safe. Moose is current on his vaccinations, microchipped and neutered.

Farley is a strikingly handsome chocolate and white Boston Terrier. He was bought from a breeder by a teenager who recently left home for college. Farley could not travel away to college, so he was tearfully owner-surrendered. Farley is one and a half years old and weighs 10-12 pounds fully grown. He is a very sweet, friendly little guy who is confident, fine with children and good with other dogs, too. Farley is housebroken, knows how to use a doggie door, walks well on a leash and loves to play with his toys. Farley is current on his vaccinations, microchipped and neutered.

Happy Tails

Thanks to the El Segundo Herald, Noah found his forever home with Marie. Noah is a total little love who was just waiting for his special companion. Thank you, Herald Publications; another dog was adopted because of you! Here is an update on how Noah is doing...

"Hi! Noah and I are great. Yes, I have fallen in love with him! He is an absolute angel. We have been on a few walks. He can move! We went to the beach this morning and he did quite a bit of socializing.

I heard his little bark last night for the first time when he was barking at my reflection in the window. Too cute. I won't say he is eating heartily. I have to coerce him quite a bit, but he is getting what he needs. I have noticed he doesn't like to step into the kitchen or bathrooms. It could be the surfaces are too slippery, so I have put his bowls just beyond the carpet. He has a little bed under my coffee table, and I decked out the crate for him and put both in my bedroom. He preferred the crate and slept both nights without a peep. He likes anything with a roof!

Noah hasn't had one accident. He tried to mark in the hallway when we first arrived. I stopped him, we went outside, and no problem thus far. We take a walk in the morning and evening and go outside for a few minutes at a time throughout the day. He sniffs here and there, but seems to have a preference for being inside. He is my sweet little shadow. I am thrilled with him and he seems to like it here. I appreciate everything you have done to take such good care of him and make it such a smooth process. I'll keep you guys posted...--Marie"

When you adopt a "pet without a partner," you will forever make a difference in their life and they are sure to make a difference in yours.

Purrfect Companions

Tofu

Ninja

Shiva

Shakti

Thinking about adopting a cat or kitten? You've come to the right place. Kitten Rescue has kitties of all ages, shapes, colors and sizes. One is sure to be your "purr-fect" match.

Ninja is a gorgeous black Bombay mix kitten. His fur is so soft, sleek and shiny that he looks like a little panther! Ninja is super sweet and loving. He purrs and purrs as he loves to sit on your lap and cuddle at night. This wonderful boy is the explorer of his family. He's so curious about the world. Expect him to meet you at the door when you get home! Ninja also likes to play with his littermates and his toys. He's just a baby, so he needs a feline friend/playmate at his new home.

Shiva is a tan, tiger-striped boy with a creamy white underbelly and alluring olive eyes. He is incredibly mellow and likes nothing more than to snuggle up against you and quietly purr. Shiva is up for adoption along with his sister Shakti. Shakti is a black, long-haired beauty with olive green eyes like her brother. She is a talkative and frisky girl. Remarkably friendly, she will come to greet you and purr as soon as you touch her. Both have very sweet and gentle temperaments and have proven to be extremely adaptable and easygoing, patiently tolerating the affections of the nine-year-old twin daughters at their foster home. This pair endlessly snuggles and frolics together and will win your heart.

Tofu is looking for a lively "fur-ever" home in which to settle. He's a young boy who has lots of energy and loves having lots of people around to play with him. Tofu especially likes impressing you with his fetch skills. Just toss one of his toys around and watch him give any dog a run for its money! He loves to be around people no matter what they are doing--from hanging out in the kitchen at breakfast time to lounging on the couch over a late night movie. Tofu always wants to be where the action is. Sometimes he gets a little sad and restless if he's left alone all day, so it would be great for him to have another kitten to play with while you're gone. If you're looking for a loyal friend with a lot of love to give, Tofu could be the purr-fect kitty to bring a little fun and excitement into your home. Think you'd like to take him home? Tofu can't wait to meet you!
