Words from the Past

From City Manager's Newsletter, December 29, 1967

A taxpayer is the most important person to enter this office, in person, by mail or telephone.

A taxpayer is not dependent upon us—on the contrary, we are dependent on him.

A taxpayer is not an interruption of our work—he is the purpose of it.

We are not doing him a favor by serving him—he is doing us a favor by giving us an opportunity to do so.

A taxpayer is not an outsider in our work—he is part of it.

A taxpayer is not a cold statistic—he is a flesh-and-blood human being with feelings and emotions like our own.

A taxpayer is not someone to argue or match wits with. Nobody ever won an argument with a taxpayer.

A taxpayer is a person who brings us his problems. It is our job to handle them in such a way as to be beneficial to him and to ourselves.
