

SHELLBACK TAVERN

The Shellback Tavern came to life as The Knothole and then The Surf after World War II. During the 70's, 80's and 90's the business became known as the Shellback Tavern or just Shellback's. Since the change of the century, this legendary establishment has been referred to as the Shellback Surf Tavern. Shellback has been famous for their Fish and Chips, Bloody Mary's, Baja Philly Cheese Steaks and Pizzas, along with their Tuesday Night

N.Y. Steak dinner and reasonably priced drinks. Happy Hour runs Monday through Friday 3pm until 7pm. Domestic bottles beers $2.75 along with many other drink specials. Appetizers are off 4pm-6pm. Breakfast is served weekends at 9am. All sporting events are shown and the Juke Box is known as the best in the South Bay. Stop in enjoy the casual, goodtime, old school feel of years gone by. Our location is "Lands end" at the Manhattan Beach pier in Manhattan Beach. This is truly the place of No Bad Days and fun filled nights!
