There are countless numbers of homeless dogs and cats waiting for someone to love them. Adopt a pet without a partner. In return, you receive a forever stream of love and gratitude.

Abby was named after the country singer Abby Parks and she is the mother of the "country singers" litter. She is two years old and a lovely Beagle mix--maybe a "Puggle." Abby is a great dog full of personality, friendly with everyone and an excellent mother to her eight puppies. She loves walks, is good on a leash, is completely housebroken, and is a spectacular all-around dog. This little gal is engaging, always happy with a wagging tail and lots of fun to be around. She will make an easy transition into any home situation. She will be able to go home anytime after June 13, 2009 after fully nursing her litter. Abby is current on her vaccinations, is microchipped and will be de-wormed and spayed when she is finished nursing.

Meet two of Abby's pups, Chesney and Darius (named after the famous country singers Kenny Chesney and Darius Rucker). You can also view their "country" siblings, Cash, Urban, Alan, Brooks, Dunn, and Dwight on our website. They were born on April 17, 2009 and are available for pre-adoption at this time. Chesney, Darius and their brothers will be able to go home on June 13, 2009 or anytime after that. This is a great litter of puppies, each with their separate personalities. They are all healthy, happy, playful, silly, cute, cuddly and absolutely adorable, good-natured puppies. Some look very Beagle-ish and others look very Shih Tzu or Spaniel-ish. We are sure there were at least two fathers involved in the making. If you are interested in meeting any of the puppies, you must first fill out an application and be given an appointment in order to meet them. If you just show up uninvited to be a "lookie loo," you will be out of luck.

Serious inquiries only, please. These puppies are current on their vaccinations, have been de-wormed, microchipped and will be neutered when of age.

Noah is our sweet little fox of a dog. He is five and a half pounds and his age is estimated to be five years old. He is such a super sweet guy with a spectacular little personality; he is always happy! Noah is friendly with all the other dogs here at the rescue. His tail is always wagging and he loves people. He loves to go for walks, be carried around or hang out in your lap. Noah is housebroken and cat-safe. He would do best in a quiet home--a retired couple, a single person, an older person or a widowed person looking for a companion would be ideal for Noah. He has low to moderate energy and is a total love of a dog. His personality is very captivating and in a five-second greet, you will be smitten with him. Noah is definitely your man. He is not destructive in the house, and he does not chew or bark. He is just a little lounge lizard. Noah is current on his vaccinations, neutered and microchipped.

Sandy is a very affectionate and playful girl. She is an extremely sweet, good-natured Staffie mix who is about a year and a half old. Sandy loves to fetch and she avoids conflicts with other dogs. She just wants to be friends with everyone--even with the cats. If you are looking for this breed, don't adopt until you meet our girl Sandy. She is fabulous! Sandy is spayed, current on her vaccinations, and is microchipped. If you would like to meet Sandy, please check under "Private Adoptions" on our website. She is fostered with one of our fellow rescuers, and we encourage you to meet his dogs.

Happy Tails

Friendly, affectionate, uniquely beautiful, smart, loves to fetch and give kisses...what more could you ask for in a dog? Nothing! When they adopted Miley, the Douglas family found that she was everything they were dreaming of and more:

"I believe Miley is the most perfect dog on this planet! I have had dogs before, but Miley is a super dog. Super sweet, Super intelligent, Super beautiful, Super mellow... Superbly perfect! From the moment Rebecca left Miley with me, I think Miley knew she was "forever" home! I made a bed from a cozy fleece blanket and she went right to it and rolled on her back legs up in the air and enjoyed a long belly rub.... instantly we became lifelong buddies! She stayed next to me for the rest of the evening and when it came time for bed, we put the fleece blanket next to my side of the bed on the floor. When I got into bed she crawled right onto her blanket and slept through the entire night. When the alarm went off the next morning, we looked at each other and I swear she smiled at me! I was saying, "I love you" only after the first night!

We feed her twice a day, but she never finishes her dish in one sitting - instead she grazes throughout the day. Miley loves hanging outside on the balcony watching for any kind of action...a bird flying by, a neighbor returning home, the wind blowing the palm trees. She's not a barker, but will whisper a whine when the neighbor's cat sits inside their screened door. It becomes a stare down between the two. Miley's tail starts to wag then she'll run into the house to do a quick lap - like she's counting to 10 to try and calm herself down. It's pretty entertaining to watch and just so you know, there is no possible way that the cat can get to Miley or vice versa.

Miley sits next to me while I work on the computer, but we take several breaks throughout the day to go for long walk/runs. We introduced her to the beach and the dog park and she likes them both. She is funny about the other dogs - it's either all or nothing. At the dog park, she either runs back and forth with the pack 100% of the time or is aloof and could care less if another dog is in her presence. She is outstanding at fetch and we purchased a Frisbee to try

Miley's manners are exceptional. She doesn't jump on people, she is fully housebroken, doesn't beg at the kitchen table, barks once when someone is at the door, she knows how to sit and shake on command and we are working on getting her to crawl. I know I owe this to Rebecca and you, so thank you very much for raising a lady. Kyle and I are teaching her to tell us when she needs to go outside to potty (FYI...no accidents have occurred, but we want to understand her needs). We have shown her to get her leash, but my brother suggested we keep a bell on the door handle for her to ring. Either way, knowing what we know about Miley, this smart cookie will show us before the weekend is over what works for her.

As far as her name, it will remain Miley. She responds to it and I think it suits her, besides we couldn't come up with anything better and she is the only Miley at the dog park. We cannot express how fortunate we feel that Miley has joined our family. From the moment I saw her photo posted on your bulletin board, I just knew she was for us. I am grateful that my husband was able to visit her while I was out of town and that you made an accurate judgment that we would provide her with permanent home filled with love, loyalty, and companionship. It truly is a perfect match. A big thank you to Rebecca for saving Miley's life and fostering her for all these months. Another big thank to you, Shannon! For all your time, effort, hard work, and love it takes to maintain Animals Rule Rescue and to keep the organization a success."—Sincerely, Heather, Kyle and Miley•
