Wiseburn Board Covers Much Ground Despite Brief Meeting

By Duane Plank

Bereft of special presentations, last Thursday evening’s meeting of the Wiseburn School Board may have set a meeting record for brevity, with President JoAnne Kaneda calling the open-session to a close at the 30-minute mark. As is the norm, Board member and administration reports were near the top of the agenda. Dr. Neil Goldman noted that he had met with the teaching and learning advisory council to begin the Wiseburn Unified School District’s strategic planning process. “We spent four hours together and it went well,” he said. “The group was engaged.” Goldman added that “it was really fun to have representatives from every school site intermingling and deliberating what the big pillar contributions, the value-drivers” would be. He mentioned that meetings will be held with different constituent stakeholders that will hopefully align all concerned, implementing their vision for the District.

Wiseburn is in the beginning process of developing the extensive strategic plan, the implementation being led by Goldman. According to District-provided notes, the plan will involve matching all stakeholders’ interests to “create a vision through their feedback, opinions and ideas.” The idea is for the community outreach to provide a “roadmap” that will assist staff to refine, improve and implement new programs that will support all students to become either college- or career-Ready.

Member Nelson Martinez shared that he had recently had the opportunity to attend District sporting events, mentioning the Wiseburn High School soccer and volleyball teams. Vice President/Clerk Roger Banuelos thanked the Dana Middle School staff for hosting a recent special event. Kaneda, in her remarks, commented, “I am both happy and sad that we don’t have a lot of community members here tonight,” which she said she would take away as a positive. “Everything must be going quite well.” She also thanked the gathered Board members and administrators, as well as District staff. “There is a lot to keeping all of our kids educated, our families satisfied, our staff satisfied. I don’t want to take that for granted.”

Chief Business Official David Wilson addressed a recent Board member query regarding the District’s expenditures of so-called “one-time revenues,” and how those expenditures are calculated on the financial balance sheet. He summarized recent expenditures and how the District was spending “carryover” available money accrued from past fiscal years.

Assistant Superintendent, Educational Services Dr. Aileen Harbeck said that 23 staff members were to participate in a Project Lead the Way (PLTW) training session on Jan. 26, with a follow-up session slated for Feb. 9. Harbeck said the instructors were “on fire” to participate in the training sessions. She added that after the second training session, “we will be able to discern how PLTW will look in our elementary schools.”

Wiseburn elementary teachers will participate in the training days to facilitate them in becoming certified PLTW instructors. Grants bestowed by Chevron have allowed local school districts to not only train teachers, but help them guide students in improving in problem-solving skills and critical and creative thinking, as well as bolster their scholastic and outside-the-classroom teamwork and perseverance. “PLTW is such a wonderful program -- I just want all of our students to have the opportunity to be a part of the science-and-technology based program,” Banuelos said.

Superintendent Dr. Blake Silvers then reported out, noting his recent excursion to Ontario to participate in the Governor’s preschool services program. “We got good information,” he said, and noted that he and other District personnel had made the Ontario road trip during the recent spate of inclement weather -- but that it was well worth it and provided “bonding time” for Silvers and Wiseburn attendees.

Silvers also noted that the Wiseburn High gymnasium was now hosting events and “coming to life.” He said he perused a portion of a recent boys varsity basketball game and that the well-attended event created “energy and a buzz in the room that was incredible.” Added member Israel Mora, “It is a beautiful gym.”

Silvers wrapped up his report, stressing how there has been a landscape change in education initiatives in the state and that the District is creating a “slow and steady pathway so that we can make sure that we are addressing the areas that we need to.”

Action items were dealt with next, which included construction change orders, service agreements and construction contingency funding as the District churns forward buttoning up details regarding the high school facilities construction.

The Board also approved a fiscal action item to add another school crossing guard who will be stationed at the intersection of Isis and 135th. The contract, with All City Management Services, will run until June 13

We Are Growing! by Laurie Keller

This week, I'm reviewing one of the best early reader stories that I've come across recently: Laurie Keller's We Are Growing! Full of puns, laugh-out-loud antics and relatable struggles, my kids and I thoroughly enjoyed this story that is literally about grass growing. Sounds boring, I know, but I promise it's anything but.

Part of the Elephant & Piggie Like Reading series, Mo Willems fans will enjoy the similar dialogue style, exaggerated reactions and included commentary from beloved Willems characters Elephant and Piggie. My kids also love finding the character Pigeon, another Willems favorite, who is usually hiding out somewhere in the front or back pages. Other titles we enjoyed from the Like Reading series include The Cookie Fiasco by Dan Santat and The Itchy Book by LeUyen Pham. Willems' original Elephant & Piggie series is also not to be missed as the beloved friends go on adventures, discover new experiences and work through big emotions that all kids (and their parents) can relate to these days.

Film Review

Native Son and Honey Boy Prove Riveting Watches at Sundance 2019

By Ryan Rojas for www.cinemacy.com

Native Son*, directed by Rashid Johnson

Adapted from the classic 1940 novel, Native Son is the story of a young, low-income African American male, who, after securing employment in the world of a wealthy white family, finds himself at the center of an accidental death that puts him in the direct crosshairs of cultural tensions. Adapted from the classic 1940 novel, first-time feature rehab. It's here where, through therapeutic sessions with his probation officer, he is forced to remember his childhood. This is where the film alternates between present and past lives.

As young Otis, Jupe (A Quiet Place) is put into very adult situations – drugs and booze and older women (FKA Twigs) are very much present at the extended stay motel where he is being raised. Throughout this film, Jupe maintains a strength and innocence film director Rashid Johnson (along with Pulitzer Prize-winning screenwriter Suzan-Lori Parks) have made this updated version entirely their own. By highlighting the story's underlying social issues and wrapping them up in his polished punk aesthetic, it's a tale that feels as timely now as it must have been then.

It's undeniable that Rashid Johnson is a flourishing visual artist and one who we should all be watching to see what he does next. The biggest obstacle holding Native Son back from being even more impactful is in the jumps in its tonal shifts, which happen when the story plays on and the stakes are raised. The story's pivotal and climactic plot point is surprising, but this hard crank of the wheel feels a bit disorienting. The fallout of this moment leads the movie to make a statement that we didn't know it would have to make. Yet for this slight distraction, it would be wrong to not also acknowledge the number of complex ideas, all stylized through Johnson's artistic formats. It's no wonder why HBO bought the film from A24 hours before the movie made its world premiere at the Sundance festival. Native Son will be available to stream on HBO later this year.

Honey Boy*, Directed by Alma Har'el

As the movie portrays in its very meta ways, Honey Boy started as a therapeutic tool when Shia LaBeouf was in rehab for alcohol abuse. For an artist so taken by post-modern art performance, how else would that person, who spent his life at the center of the entertainment industry, channel his pain but by confronting issues in the form of writing a screenplay that features his life's story? i chronicles two moments in the life of this Shia-surrogate, Otis. There's the child star (Noah Jupe) and the action star (Lucas Hedges) 10 years later. A life of physically demanding action stunts ("trauma reminders," as his therapist later classifies), mixed with a propensity towards alcohol abuse fueled by familial addiction, Otis inevitably lands in that makes his performance both solid and moving. Hedges channels everything from the screenwriter's manic instability to his trademark combat boots. And portraying his former rodeo clown father, Shia as James embodies the character so fully that it's more than just pretending – he's channeling something real in himself and it's his most lived-in and best role in a while.

What lifts Honey Boy to even greater heights is how the film integrates the vaudeville choreography of James' rodeo clown life. What's seen in some scenes as hokey, in other parts is set to music to create magically mimed moments. Har'el captures this and all of the scenes between young Otis and his father so intimately. But it's LaBeouf who gives himself over so completely to this emotionally gutting process, putting his singularly pained childhood onto the big screen in what feels like an act for emotional salvation. And while he said during the film's Q&A following the screening that this was a "selfish" work, to make a movie for his own personal catharsis, Honey Boy is so raw and risk-taking that it provides a very personal experience for anyone who sees it.

Honey Boy is currently awaiting distribution. •

Hawthorne Happenings

News for the City of Good Neighbors from an Old Guy Named Norb Huber

THE BEST PLACE TO BUY A HOME IN CALI?

If you guessed Hawthorne, yes Hawthorne, you are right. According to an article recently posted, the City of Good Neighbors is not just a good or great place to buy a home, it is the BEST place to purchase a home in the country's most populous state! Wow! This is huge. I should never have moved away. Compared to other surrounding cities, Hawthorne is a bargain. It is close to everything. With most houses in nice areas in CA going for well over one million, the average home price in Hawthorne is a measly $650k. Where else can you invest in a house that is expected to increase in value 9 to 10% each year for the next few years? So, there you go. Forget about moving to a nicer community. Forget about the OC or SD or the Bay Area or even Orangevale, stay put and watch your house value grow!

GROUNDHOG DAY

The big day is almost here. This Saturday, February 2nd is Groundhog Day. This great holiday derives from the Pennsylvania Dutch superstition that if a groundhog emerging from its burrow on this day sees a shadow due to clear weather, it will retreat to its den and winter will persist for six more weeks, and if it does not see its shadow because of cloudiness, spring will arrive early. While the tradition remains popular in modern times, studies have found no consistent correlation between a groundhog seeing its shadow or not and the subsequent arrival time of spring-like weather. The Groundhog Day ceremony held at Punxsutawney in western Pennsylvania, centering around a semi-mythical groundhog named Punxsutawney Phil, has become the most attended.

CONGRATULATIONS TO CHIEF MICHAEL ISHII

I know it's old news, but the Hawthorne City Council has appointed Michael Ishii to be Chief of the Hawthorne Police Department. Michael is an outstanding choice to take command of one of the best police departments in the LA area. The innovative programs that have been started right here in Hawthorne will continue under Chief Ishii's guidance. He is a very personable, humble leader who really cares about the men and women that work with him. I know that his style of leadership will continue the excellence we have seen in the past decade during the tenure of Chief Fager. I knew our new chief when he was Captain Ishii. For many years as he was in charge of the IT program for both the HPD and for the City of Hawthorne. As always our prayers go out for protection and safety for all the HPD force who put their lives on the line for the residents each and every day. Too many cops are being targeted these days in America. Law enforcement in 2019 is the most dangerous and most challenging of jobs in our country. If you get a chance to thank them for protecting us, make that effort. I know they would appreciate any word of encouragement.

MO BETTER BURGERS HAWTHORNE

If you didn't hear, one of the best burger places in the LA area just opened over on Crenshaw Blvd. Mo Better Burgers was pretty well known up in the mid-city district of LA before closing. Their grand opening is scheduled for next Monday, February 4th from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. It is located at 12734 Crenshaw Blvd. Their phone number is 323-531-1749. Look at the great looking burgers on their website. Wow! Nothing better than a big, fat, greasy burger, except for maybe a cold one to go with it.

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the sale is set aside for any reason, including if the Trustee is unable to convey title, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the monies paid to the Trustee. This shall be the Purchaser's sole and exclusive remedy. The purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Trustor, the Trustee, the Beneficiary, the Beneficiary's Agent, or the Beneficiary's Attorney. TWEEN ALLIED WASTE SERVICES OF
NORTH AMERICA AND THE CITY OF HAWTHORNE.
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on Tuesday, February 12, 2019, at 6:00 P.M., a Public Hearing will be held in the City Council Chambers, 4455 West 126th Street, Hawthorne, California, 90250 to consider Resolution No. 8045, approving an amendment to the franchise agreement between Allied Waste Services of North America and the City of Hawthorne. This amendment will affect the rates Allied charges to its customers in the City for solid waste and recyclable collection and for other services. The proposed amendment will make the following changes to the franchise agreement: 1) The portion of Allied's rates that are currently indexed to the CPI for All Urban Consumers as well as PPI and tipping fee will instead be indexed only to the CPI for Water, Sewer and Trash Services; 2) Allied will be authorized to charge the City for certain services to City owned facilities that had previously been provided without charge for a limited term; and 3) Allied will provide additional free bulky item pick-ups up to 20 items per year to residential and multi-family customers upon proper notification. Other provisions of the Allied Agreement will remain in effect.
The proposed amendment does not involve any significant changes to manner of providing solid waste and recyclables collection service. As a result there will be no changes to the impacts evaluated in the August, 2012 Mitigated Negative Declaration. Operations under the franchise agreement will continue an overall reduction in vehicular emissions, reduction in truck traffic on City streets, and reduction in noise associated with refuse pick-up activities and vehicular traffic.

SUPER BOWL SUNDAY

Super Bowl LIII will be played this Sunday in Atlanta. Our Los Angeles Rams take on the New England Patriots. Game time is 3:30 p.m. Let the party begin. Let us gorge ourselves on any finger food we can get our fingers on. Let the cold ones roll. The time is approaching where Super Bowl LV is scheduled for our very own Inglewood/Hawthorne stadium in 2021. Just two years from now, we will be in the spot light. Over $300 million is expected to be spent by out of town visitors in our fine area during the week leading up to the big game. With the price of Super Bowl tickets increasing each year, you may want to have your big, flat screen ready for you and your guests to watch or you could take out a home equity loan to go travel up Prairie Avenue to Century to view the game in person.

STATE OF THE CITY

Want to know what is really happening in

Hawthorne? Well, you won't find it here in my column, but you will find out what's happening if you attend the Hawthorne Chamber of Commerce's State of the City Luncheon to be held this year on March 7th. Mayor Vargas will be giving his 3rd update to the residents and stakeholders of Hawthorne. The Citizen of the Year Award will be announced at the event also. Tickets can be obtained by calling the Chamber office at (310) 676-1163. Nominations are now being accepted for the Citizen of the Year Award that is presented annually at the State of the City Luncheon featuring Mayor Alex Vargas. The deadline for nominations is Tuesday February 19th. You may write a letter nominating someone and either send it or drop it off at the Hawthorne Chamber office, 12519 Crenshaw Blvd, Hawthorne. Or you may email it to the Selection Committee Chairman Tom Quintana at quprs@aol.com. Past Citizen of the Year recipients will meet to make the selection.

WHAT'S WRONG?

Some of you will be disappointed in my efforts this week. You'll wonder if I'm feeling okay. I just made a couple of minor references to cold ones. No mention of my old lady or God or relaxing or guessing how many loyal readers I have or how my extended family still calls me the mule or how stupid I am for writing this crap or how I used to be a phony politician but now I'm just a former city clerk with nothing but stupid stories to tell about the good old days in the City of Good Neighbors. I know some of you actually skip all the way down to this paragraph. Is that why you read this stuff, just to see the dumb stuff I try to come up with each week? If laughing at me or with me or simply smiling about something brightens your day, then great. If you find no humor in nothing, then just stop reading, you probably hate beer and wine and don't have an old lady to keep you humble. If laughter is the best medicine and cold ones make you laugh, then pop one open and enjoy. Life is short, so many cold ones. We can either enjoy life or die. What's your choice?

Bentley

Every second of every minute of every day, a helpless animal is put to death just because no one was there to take them home. Give them second chance for love when you adopt one of these precious kitties. You can also check out their friends on our website – www.kittenrescue.org

Simba

Laynie is one of the best kittens her foster mom has ever had. This four-month-old cutie loves the kitty toy box and tries to empty it daily. Then Laynie waits for her foster mom to pick her up and give her Eskimo kisses. That’s Laynie’s thing; she loves doing it. She also likes to snuggle with the other cats, but also loves to get on your lap. Laynie will need another young kitten or cat to play with. she can’t be adopted by herself. Besides, two is always better than one, right?

Who says all teenagers are moody, constantly text, and roll their eyes at their parents’ comments? Not this adorable teenager: meet Simba. He is always upbeat, never texts and promises to never do the eye roll! Simba is a sweet and funny kitty whom we call the Energizer Bunny because he just keeps going... and going...and going. He would be happiest if he can have a feline buddy who has the same energy level as he does. Simba is such a lovable guy and we promise you will never have to say to him, “Please stop texting.” Isabel is a sweet and playful kitty. She can be shy at first and a little bit skittish, but that’s just because she wants to be sure she can trust you. Once she’s comfortable, she opens up and shows her more energetic side. Isabel loves belly rubs, running around and playing with toys. This young girl would do best in a quiet home where she can receive lots of love and attention and build a close, special relationship with her forever family.

Bentley is a friendly, fluffy kitty who likes to spend his days napping, playing with his cat toys and wrestling with his foster siblings. He has a gentle personality and is such a joy to have around. Cuddle sessions on the couch? Bentley is your guy! Binge watching your favorite show in bed? Bentley will keep you company. Bentley will show off his hunting skills when you bring out the laser pointer or the feather wand. He is a very social kitty and needs to be adopted together with one of his foster siblings or into a home with an existing kitty.

Smokey Moe loves people and other cats. Playing with other cats is his favorite thing. Wait, wait...maybe being petted by people is his favorite thing! It’s difficult for Moe to decide, but he does know he would love a great home with at least one other playful kitty. Smokey Moe loves his foster dad, but he has lots of other cats and can’t give Moe all the love and attention he deserves. So please adopt him and Moe promises to be the best you could ever wish for in a cat.

Shakespeare is snuggle machine and will purr you up a sonnet! He is big guy, but his bashful gaze is nothing short of heart-melting. He loves to be held, hugged and have his little face rubbed. He can be a little mischievous playing with water and needs lots of attention and entertainment. Shakespeare is talkative, friendly and gentle. He would be great partnered with a relentless kitty friend who needs mellowing or big cat family. His sensitive stomach requires a strict raw food diet.

These cats and kittens are available for adoption through Kitten Rescue, one of the largest cat rescue groups in Southern California. All our kitties are spayed/neutered, microchipped, tested for FeLV and FIV, dewormed and current on their vaccinations. For additional information and to see these or our other kittens and cats, please check our website www.kittenrescue.org or email us at mail@kittenrescue.org.

Your tax-deductible donations for the rescue and care of our cats and kittens can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to Kitten Rescue, 914 Westwood Blvd. #583, Los Angeles, CA 90024.

Isabel

On Saturdays, we have adoptions from noon to 3:30 p.m. in Westchester at 8655 Lincoln Blvd. just south of Manchester Avenue, and also in Mar Vista at 3860 Centinela Ave, just south of Venice Boulevard. Our website lists additional adoption sites and directions to each location.

Saving one animal won’t change the world, but the world will surely change for that animal. •

at an additional cost not to exceed $6,253. There was Board unanimity on the need for another security guard to bolster student and staff safety. Silvers called it “money well-spent.” Martinez echoed the sentiment, saying the expenditure was “well worth it” after noting a recent contentious driving experience that he had near a school site. Kaneda said that “people do pay attention to crossing guards,” while they may not pay as much attention to streetlights or people gathering on a corner ready to cross the street. In other District news, Cabrillo Principal Lisa Baggio emailed prior to the meeting that her school has some “amazing learning initiatives going on,” including “sustaining our CGI math practices,” as well as again partnering with the Cotsen Foundation, which had donated another $8,000 this year to bolster Wiseburn. Baggio also noted that Cabrillo has ramped up its “small differentiated reading group instruction.” Teachers, she wrote, are garnering and utilizing multiple forms of data and analytical information to formulate lessons that will benefit students at their current reading levels. She said the program is proceeding “wonderfully” and that Cabrillo instructors are looking forward to receiving more training in that subject area. The next regularly scheduled Wiseburn School Boar open meeting is on the docket for Thursday evening, Feb. 21. •
