Hawthorne Residents Express Concern on Crime and Proposed City Developments at Council Meeting

By Derrick Deane

Crime and proposed commercial developments took center stage at Tuesday’s Hawthorne City Council meeting.

Early on in the meeting, residents addressed the council to discuss criminal activity in their neighborhoods.

“I’m thankful to the Hawthorne Police Department for cleaning up 129th Street. When I initially moved in there was open drug deals, drug usage, and open containers,” Dolores Ramos Castianos said before telling the council about a neighbor who lives in a storage unit.

Castianos said that the black Jamaican male brings back groceries and women while homeless males have keys to the storage unit.

“Code enforcement has been called out and management just gives me attitude,” Castianos said. “No one cares.”

Castianos said that the male threatened to kill her after she called the police to which she said, “then it’s my time to die, but I’ll never stop reporting the wrong that they do.”

She added a separate incident in which her driveway was blocked. Castianos was told to “give the illegally parked driver a little more time.” Three hours later, the car was moved from driveway.

“Why should I be inconvenienced? If I don’t pay my rent, would the owners say, ‘Take all the time you want?’ No, I’d be evicted,” Castianos said. “I have to tolerate crackheads, alcoholics, drug dealers, drug users, but as long as nobody cares, where does that leave me?”

“People, if you want to call them that, are the reason certain parts of the city are called ghetto,” Castianos added. “I will continue through my efforts to keep my street decent but a little enforcement would be nice.”

One Hawthorne resident, Joy Cannelli, started a neighborhood watch program after crime began to creep closer to her neighborhood.

“There were a lot of car burglaries, just a lot of different things and I don’t come from that environment and I didn’t want it anywhere near me so we did start a neighborhood watch group,” Cannelli said.

Cannelli asked the council in light of Prop 47 and AB 109, two state legislative measures that would ease sentencing time for convicts, if the Council was doing anything to increase the police force.

“I’ve enjoyed hearing the positive things that are happening in the city, but reality is this [city] has far more crime than any other city in the South Bay.”

“We have less police than Manhattan Beach and we are a far more crime-ridden city,” Cannelli said. “I’ve enjoyed hearing the positive things that are happening in the city, but reality is this [city] has far more crime than any other city in the South Bay.”

“I think we’re being soft on crime when it comes to sentencing,” Mayor Vargas said who directed Police Chief Robert Fager to look in to what the city was doing to submit legislation to oppose Prop 47 and AB 109.

The other major topic of the evening centered on the continuing development of the Hawthorne Mall area. Residents addressed the Council to express their concerns with the proposed project that was announced at the previous Council meeting.

“When we talk about the mall, we have to look back at our city’s history,” resident James Raddick said. “When we had Northrop, we said, ‘We have to build apartments,’ because of Northrop employees. Northrop left, apartments stayed. The mall, we say, ‘We have to build townhouses and condos for Space X.’ What happens when Space X moves?”

Raddick also expressed concern about low-income high-density housing being proposed along Rosecrans adding that, “Hawthorne is the fifth poorest city in the area. If we keep building, we will become number one in something and that is the poorest.”

Raddick continued by urging the Council to stop building low-income housing in the city stating that, “when big businesses want to open in our city they look at the income of the community. We have to really look at what we’re building and where we’re going to go. Is this Council going to be the one that drives us into the ground?”

While the Council later touted the various new restaurants opening up in the city, Mayor Alex Vargas addressed resident’s concerns about proposed developments in the city.

“What we’re trying to do is not what was happening in the 60s and 70s when people who had real estate businesses sat up here and zoned for condominiums, without consideration of city services,” Vargas said. “Whatever future developments that take place in the city are intelligent and take the city in a positive direction. Our first priority is to the residents, not the developers. If it’s a good idea, we’ll allow it.”

He continued using an analogy to describe development plans that seemed luxurious and wonderful on paper but in reality didn’t make much sense for the city.

“People put this notion out there that it’s going to be great, but if you put a diamond in a pile of rocks, is it going to make it worth more? We are the first line of defense for the city,” Vargas said.

Later in the evening, City Attorney Russell Miyahara was confirmed by the council for another term of employment.

The meeting ended with a moment of silence in honor of the victims of the Brussels terrorist attack that happened earlier that day.

“May God bless their souls,” Vargas said as he closed the meeting. •

News for the ‘City of Good Neighbors’

From City Clerk Norb Huber STATE OF THE CITY – TODAY

Mayor Vargas will give his first State of the City address on Thursday, March 24th at the Memorial Center. Registration begins at 11:30 a.m. with the program beginning at 12 noon. There are many neat things happening in our city and we will certainly be there to celebrate them with other business and civic leaders.

HAPPY EASTER

What is there to be happy for at Easter? With so much bad news all around us locally, nationally and in most every part of our planet, is there anything we really can be happy about? The Bible tells us many things and one of the big things it says is that there is and always will be sin in our world. We all sin. We all do things that hurt others. Everyone who has ever lived in this world has done things wrong. From the very start, we were born into sin and continue to sin daily, hourly, even minutely. You get the idea that we all are poor, miserable sinners who are helpless in regards to making things right with God. That is where Jesus comes in. Jesus took upon himself all of our sins. He suffered an excruciating death on Good Friday, but arose from the grave on Easter. Because He lives we too can live. That is the good news. We have eternal life simply by the grace of God through Jesus Christ. That is the HAPPY in Easter. We were dead, now we are alive! Even in this crazy, sin-filled world we can be happy. Am I outwardly happy every day? No, but this Easter happiness is inside of me and I rely on it every day of my life. Why not be happy?

HISTORICAL SOCIETY MEETING

The next open meeting of the Hawthorne Historical Society will be held this Monday, March 28th beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Hawthorne Museum. We will have a guest speaker and refreshments. Plan to attend and get to know more about the history of Hawthorne along with getting to know some of your good neighbors.

CLEANUP DAY AT HOLLY PARK

Local residents are invited to help keep their park looking good on Saturday, April 2 beginning at 9 a.m. at Holly Park located at 120th Street and Van Ness Avenue. This special effort is being organized by Jordan Riedel, a concerned Hawthorne neighbor. He can be contacted at jriedel44@gmail.com. This will be a great time to meet some of your neighbors and do a service project at the same time.

OLD TRAILER COMPANY

If you know of someone who worked at or has any information regarding the motor home trailer company that manufactured trailers on Hawthorne Blvd. at about 117th Street in the ’50’s and ’60’s please email me. I received a call from a man in Green Bay, WI who is restoring a “tear drop” shaped trailers who is anxious to know more about our Hawthorne company.

GOLF TOURNAMENT

The 27th Annual Hawthorne Parks and Recreation Foundation Golf Tournament will be held on Monday, April 11th at Coyote Hills Golf Club in Fullerton. Annually, this tournament raises a lot of money to provide programs and services to the residents of Hawthorne. We are always looking for additional golfers and sponsors. If you wish to have your company sponsor a foursome, or if you simply wish to join up with another foursome you are welcome to participate and support a great cause. For more information please contact, Dick Huhn at 310-643-9157. Lunch and dinner are both included with your entry fees.

Lawndale Dominates Leuzinger

Article and photos by Joe Snyder

A sweep over cross town rival Leuzinger last week is a potential confident builder for Lawndale High’s baseball team. At Lawndale on March 15, the Cardinals had little trouble in a 19-1 rout of the struggling Olympians. At Leuzinger last Thursday, Lawndale continued its dominance by shutting out the Olympians 16-0.

At Leuzinger, the Cardinals started quickly with seven first inning runs. From there, Lawndale never looked back. The Cardinals, who improved to 3-3, were led by senior third baseman Michael Zembrano. Zembrano had three hits in four at-bat. He drove in three runs and scored twice. Jacob Dempsey was three-for-four with two runs batted in. Senior Tyler Bonskey, a returning all-Ocean League player, had two hits and drove in two runs. Winning pitcher Jim Gregory went the distance with a two-hitter.

“We feel very confident,” Zembrano said after Lawndale’s easy victory. “We have a lot of weapons.”

Two days earlier, Lawndale was led by Dempsey, who had four hits and drove in six runs.

“We’re still struggling,” Leuzinger head coach George Pech said. “We have young players coming up. This time we have more players. I feel that in a couple of years, we should pick up.”

The Cardinals have a pair of stiff non-league tests this week. Last Tuesday, Lawndale hosted Bay League power Palos Verdes. The Sea Kings figure to be in thick of the Bay race with Lawndale batter Jimmy Gregory swings at a pitch in last Thursday’s non-league cross town baseball rivalry against Leuzinger. Gregory also pitched the Cardinals to a 16-0 shutout of the Olympians. The Cardinals visit North Torrance in non-league play today at 3:15 p.m.

defending CIF-Southern Section Division III champion Redondo (also the top ranked squad in the division with an 8-0 record this year), Manhattan Beach Mira Costa and Rolling Hills Estates Peninsula. The Cardinals visit North Torrance today at 3:15 p.m. Lawndale, then, is at home against Morningside of Inglewood next Tuesday at the same time.

Leuzinger hosted rival Hawthorne last Monday. The contest is a make-up from the March 1 rainout.

HAWTHORNE SWEEPS DOMINGUEZ

Hawthorne High’s baseball team improved its unbeaten record to 4-0 after sweeping Dominguez High from Compton last week. At Hawthorne on March 15, the Cougars pulled away for a 16-5 win. At Dominguez, the Cougars downed the Dons 11-6.

In the first game between the two squads, Hawthorne led 6-5 entering the bottom of the fifth inning. That’s when the Cougars scored five runs, then added five more in the bottom of the sixth for the final score. Junior Kealoha Noguchi, senior Andy Monarrez and sophomore Danny Villareal each drove in three runs. Noguchi went three-for-five and scored three runs. Monarrez was two-for-four and scored twice. Villareal collected two hits in four at-bats and scored three runs. Junior Peter Girgis went two-for-three with two runs and one run batted in. Junior pitcher Charles Phelps pitched five innings, allowing two earned runs on two hits. He struck out six batters and walked one.

Last Thursday, Hawthorne also had a balanced offensive attack. Phelps was three-for-four with two runs. Brandon Brown and Andres Cordova each had a hit, drove home two runs and scored once. Cordova had a double. Noguchi and Monarrez each had run scoring hits. The winning pitcher was Bernardo Robles. He pitched five innings, allowing three runs (none earned). He struck out six and walked two. The Cougars trailed 3-2 through three innings before taking the lead for good with four runs in the top of the fourth. Hawthorne added two more runs in the fifth and three in the seventh.

Hawthorne had two non-league games against Morningside this week. After hosting the Monarchs last Tuesday, Hawthorne visits Morningside today at 3:15 p.m.

MORNINGSIDE SPLITS WITH CENTENNIAL

Morningside High’s baseball team is 2-2 after splitting a doubleheader at Centennial High on March 12 in Compton. After being routed by the Apaches 13-2 in the first game, the Monarchs came back with a 5-3 win in the night cap.

Morningside hosts Hawthorne today at 3:15 p.m. The Monarchs have two games against Lawndale next week. Morningside visits the Cardinals next Tuesday and hosts Lawndale next Thursday. Both of these contests also begin at 3:15 p.m.

ANIMO HUMILIATES AVIATORS

The Animo Leadership High baseball team improved to 3-4 by rolling over host Hawthorne Math and Science Academy 26-4 in Mulholland League play last Thursday at Holly Park in Hawthorne. Already leading 15-4 through four innings, the Aztec-Eagles exploded for 11 sixth inning runs. Animo was led by senior Adam Miranda who went four-for-six with eight runs batted in and three runs scored. Junior Steven Franco was three-for-three with five RBI’s and five runs. Senior Cesar Rocha collected three hits in five at-bats, driving in three runs and scoring four. Senior Ernesto Lucas was three-for-four with four runs and three RBI’s.

Winning pitcher Erik Lopez pitched six innings, allowing one earned run on three hits. He struck out one batter and walked four. •

NASA Targets May 2018 Launch of Mars InSight Mission

By Bob Eklund

NASA’s Interior Exploration using Seismic Investigations, Geodesy and Heat Transport (InSight) mission to study the deep interior of Mars is targeting a new launch window that begins May 5, 2018, with a Mars landing scheduled for Nov. 26, 2018.

InSight’s primary goal is to help us understand how rocky planets—including Earth—formed and evolved. The spacecraft had been on track to launch this month until a vacuum leak in its prime science instrument prompted NASA in December to suspend preparations for launch.

InSight project managers recently briefed officials at NASA and France’s space agency, Centre National d’Études Spatiales (CNES), on a path forward; the proposed plan to redesign the science instrument was accepted in support of a 2018 launch.

“The science goals of InSight are compelling, and the NASA and CNES plans to overcome the technical challenges are sound,” said John Grunsfeld, associate administrator for NASA’s

Science Mission Directorate in Washington. “The quest to understand the interior of Mars has been a longstanding goal of planetary scientists for decades. We’re excited to be back on the path for a launch, now in 2018.”

NASA’s Jet Propulsion Laboratory in Pasadena, California, will redesign, build and conduct qualifications of the new vacuum enclosure for the Seismic Experiment for Interior Structure (SEIS), the component that failed in December. CNES will lead instrument level integration and test activities, allowing the InSight Project to take advantage of each organization’s proven strengths. The two agencies have worked closely together to establish a project schedule that accommodates these plans, and scheduled interim reviews over the next six months to assess technical progress and continued feasibility.

The cost of the two-year delay is being assessed. An estimate is expected in August, once arrangements with the launch vehicle provider have been made.

The seismometer instrument’s main sensors need to operate within a vacuum chamber to provide the exquisite sensitivity needed for measuring ground movements as small as half the radius of a hydrogen atom. The rework of the seismometer’s vacuum container will result in a finished, thoroughly tested instrument in 2017 that will maintain a high degree of vacuum around the sensors through rigors of launch, landing, deployment and a two-year prime mission on the surface of Mars.

“The shared and renewed commitment to this mission continues our collaboration to find clues in the heart of Mars about the early evolution of our solar system,” said Marc Pircher, director of CNES’s Toulouse Space Centre.

The mission’s international science team includes researchers from Austria, Belgium, Canada, France, Germany, Japan, Poland, Spain, Switzerland, the United Kingdom and the United States. •

During this time, all Bidders shall guarantee prices quoted in their respective Bid Proposals.

The foregoing notwithstanding, the Bidder to whom the Contract is awarded shall have thirty (30) days following action by the District's Board of Education to award the Contract to such Bidder to submit its written request to the District to permit the substitution of securities for retention. The failure of the Bidder to make such written request to the District within said thirty (30) day period shall be deemed a waiver of the Bidder's rights under California Public Contract Code §22300. Waiver of Irregularities. The District reserves the right to reject any or all Bid Proposals, or to waive any irregularities or informalities in any Bid Proposal or in the bidding. Award of Contract. Greatness lives in Hawthorne.

In quiet neighborhoods off El Segundo Boulevard.
In homes where reading lights stay on past midnight and TVs lose the battle against homework. Where part-time jobs take the place of Saturday night parties.

Greatness lives in the kids who dare to believe,
kids inspired by families who believe in them.

We recognized these young men and women from Hawthorne, out of tens of thousands of high school seniors from around the world, and we made them an offer of admission we hope they can't refuse:

Join us this fall.

Take your place within a community of scholars, Nobel Prize winners, and barrier-breaking alumni.

At a place, just up the 405, built for realizing your potential.
Your greatness.
