United Way Hosts Literacy Event

A young participant at the "Fall Into Literacy" Book Festival, held on October 10, 2015, at the Banning Museum, receives a copy of Abuela by Arthur Dorros. The event was hosted by United Way of Greater Los Angeles (UWGLA), and more than 4,000 books were donated to low-income families in an effort to raise awareness about the importance of reading. For more information about UWGLA's "Fall Into Literacy" book festival initiative contact Evelyn G. Aleman at (818) 881-7976 or via e-mail at evelyn@mipr.net. Photo by Pablo Aguilar.

Common Core Results Explained During Recent School Board Meeting

By Cristian Vasquez

On August 2010, the California State Board of Education adopted the new K-12 California Common Core Standards. Finally, the new testing standards designed to provide a more detailed and accurate description of achievement, have been implemented and the results made available to districts across the state, including the Hawthorne School District.

"This is something we have waited a long time for, which is to identify our starting point or baseline on the assessments aligned to the Common Core State Standards," Hawthorne School Assistant Superintendent of Educational Services Dr. Brian Markarian said. "We are almost five years into an initiative of preparing for the standards, learning about the instructional shifts, designing and implementing professional development and classroom activities, and developing teacher and parent guides addressing the Common Core. We are still in, however, the beginning phase of what is going to be a decade, decade and a half, or more of this new form of teaching and assessing in the State of California."

During a recent school board meeting, Dr. Markarian presented members of the board with the Common Core results as well as an explanation of the new testing mechanisms, tests scores and what it translates to for the district and its students.

"What we saw on this initial round of results from the new assessments is that a large population of our students "nearly met" the standards," Dr. Markarian said. "We know that we can move all students forward, but this group of students in particular can meet the standards with just a little extra support. We expect our schools to demonstrate growth every year and although the new state accountability system is still being constructed, I would imagine that it will hold the same expectation."

One of the many differences in state testing is that achievement on the tests within the new California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (CAASPP) system is reported along two lines: broad achievement on the subject area test is reported as either Standard Exceeded, Standard Met, Standard Nearly Met, or Standard Not Met. Second, achievement on more specifics topics [referred to as claims] within the subject area test is reported as being either Above Standard, At or Near Standard, or Below Standard.

In the Hawthorne School District, a majority of students scored within the standard exceeded to standard nearly met range, with some students falling in the standard not met category.

"With the increase in rigor found within the Common Core Standards and the demands of the new assessments that make up the CAASPP system, intervention and support efforts are extremely critical," Dr. Markarian said. "While the state does not provide specific guidance to districts as to how they can support struggling students, but a variety of resources designed for this purpose can be found within our adopted programs and in the California Department of Education's Digital Library, an online tool that has been made available to all teachers."

While the state imposes these new testing standards, they offer few guidelines as to how to assist students who fall below the established standards. The responsibility to elevate students who do not meet or exceed testing expectations falls on the district, which gives them autonomy to determine the best approach.

"We, for instance, employ intervention teachers to provide differentiated instruction in areas of demonstrated need, offer academic support periods within the regular school day, and provide a broad array of extended day supports to ensure that students have access to the help that they need," Dr. Markarian said. "The examples shared are in addition to the differentiated support that our classroom teachers already provide to all students to ensure that they are receiving instruction targeted to their current ability level with the goal of steadily increasing that level over time."

New to the state testing approach is that with CAASSP, which tests for English language arts/literacy and math among third through 11th grade students, is test-taking on a computer that gives the student a follow-up question based on their answer. This is a significant departure from the multiple-choice, paper-based test used for the STAR testing, which had been the norm since 1998. Despite having to prepare students for the new technological aspects of Common Core testing, district officials are resolute in having each student meet the state's academic requirements by aligning their instructional practices to the new testing standards.

"Increasing the rigor of the content standards, moving the assessments online, and placing a heavy demand on keyboarding proficiency are all good things, but I don't think that anybody expected that they would result in a narrowing of historical achievement gaps," Dr. Markarian said. "We work each and every day to close those gaps by providing our students and their families with every support that we possibly can."

Through the previous assessments it was common for students in more affluent districts to score proficient percentages "at a rate of about 1.5 times those of districts serving large numbers of students deemed by the state as being economically disadvantaged," said Dr.

LAWNDALE, CA 90260 Assessor's Parcel No.: 4081-006-009 NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage of deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 888-988-6736 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet Web site http://www.qualityloan. com , using the file number assigned to this foreclosure by the Trustee: CA-08-177618-BL. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation if any shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Sale. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. If the sale is set aside for any reason, the Purchaser at the sale shall be entitled only to a return of the deposit paid. The Purchaser shall have no further recourse against the Mortgagor, the Mortgagee, or the Mortgagee's Attorney. News for the 'City of Good Neighbors'

From City Clerk Norb Huber

LAST OF THE CANDIDATES FORUMS - TONIGHT

The last opportunity for voters to hear the candidates will be tonight, Thursday, October 22 at Ramona School starting at 6:30 p.m. with refreshments. This forum is sponsored by the Ramona Neighborhood Association. Make sure to get out and vote on Tuesday, November 3rd or mail in your absentee ballot. Every vote will make a difference in these low-voter turn out elections. Who ever is elected mayor will serve four years this time.

BOOK READING AND SIGNING THIS SATURDAY

You are invited to a really neat event coming up this Saturday, October 24. William Snyder, a Hawthorne native, will be reading and signing his recently released book entitled, "How 'bout them Apples". It's shorts stories from his 29 years in the teaching biz. He is a graduate of Hawthorne High School and will be returning to his hometown for this event which begins at 12 noon with an informal reception. The program will begin at 1 p.m. and run until 3 p.m. Food and some Beach Boys music will also be on the schedule that day at the Hawthorne Museum.

SHREDDING EVENT

Republic Services is offering to shred your personal documents for free at the city hall parking lot on Saturday October 24 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. At the same time you can help yourself to free compost for your garden or lawn. Bring your small truck or large plastic bags to haul the good stuff away.

WATER HARVEST

The Water Harvest Festival will be held this Saturday, October 24, 2015 Time: 10 am - 2 pm Place: Edward C. Little Water Recycling Facility 1935 S. Hughes Way, El Segundo, CA 90245

"BASEBALL IN HAWTHORNE"

Our next meeting will be Monday night, October 26 at 6:30 p.m. Our speaker will be Jerry Florey, who has been involved with baseball and softball in Hawthorne for over 50 years. The discussion will be related to "Baseball in Hawthorne". It should be interesting to hear just how many famous players have come out of our area.

FREE RAIN BARRELS

Come on down to the City Hall parking lot on Saturday, October 31st and you will be able to pick up a free rain barrel. The barrels are designed to catch valuable water run off from your roof or just from the down pours that we expect to have this winter. You do need to pre-register. The number is 310-371-4633. 270 of the 400 have been reserved. If you come down without preregistering, then you will have to wait until the end of the event. Former Mayor Danny Juarez is coordinating the event.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST AT RAMONA PARK

The Ramona Neighborhood Association will be hosting a pancake breakfast on Saturday, October 31 starting at 8 a.m. Any kids dressed up for Halloween will receive a free pancake.

ODDS AND ENDS

Not much to cheer about these days if you follow the local sports teams. The Dodgers, Bruins, and Trojans have lost big recently. I guess the Kings and Ducks are doing okay for the start of the season. The NFL is waiting until the end of the season to tell us whether or not a team will move to Carson or Inglewood in the near future. The NBA is about ready to begin, we shall see soon if the Lakers can improve. It's so depressing that LA sports fans will really need a few "cold ones" to get them through the wet winter ahead. Morningside Loses First Game to Redondo

By Joe Snyder Photos by Joe Snyder

Morningside High's football team from Inglewood had a great six-game run but it was faced with a very stiff test in a key Bay League game at Redondo, which entered the game as the second ranked team in the CIF-Southern Section Western Division.

The Monarchs entered the game rated eighth in the division but played mostly a weaker schedule than the Sea Hawks, who played the likes of Mission Viejo (their only loss to a team that is top rated in the Southern Section West Valley Division and seventh in California) and North Torrance, which Redondo handed its only loss at the start of the season. The Saxons, led by highly-regarded all-around player Mique Juarez, are third in the Western Division and won six straight since their loss to the Sea Hawks that included an impressive 35-17 victory at cross town rival West Torrance last Friday.

It was a match-up between two very talented and athletic squads with good speed. Redondo (6-1 overall and 2-0 in league) quickly got off the starting gate and went on to soundly defeat the Monarchs (6-1, 1-1) 49-20 in the Morningside ballcarrier Jaylin Wright runs upfield with the ball in last Friday's Bay League football game against Redondo. The Monarchs will attempt to rebound from their first loss of the season as they host Palos Verdes at Coleman Stadium Friday at 7 p.m.

Morningside's Jonathan Hill carries the ball in last Friday's Bay League football game against Redondo.

Sea Hawks' homecoming game.

The Sea Hawks wasted no time on Morningside. On just their fourth play from scrimmage, senior quarterback Jacob Silvera found six-foot-five junior wide receiver Warren Jackson for a 39-yard touchdown for a 7-0 lead. After holding Morningside on downs, sophomore running back Jermar Jefferson sprinted 50 yards for a TD and Redondo already held a 14-0 advantage with 7:50 left in the first quarter.

Only 1:15 later, though, Silvera threw an interception to senior cornerback Aaron Berry who went 38 yards for the score. Senior Marcus Turnage brought in the ball for a two-point conversion giving the Monarchs hopes to rally from an early 14-0 hole for the second straight game, as it did a week earlier at Peninsula in

The Sea Hawks, though, came back for a 21-8 lead with 1:35 remaining in the first period on a 36-yard touchdown run from senior Jerone Jackson.

That would start Redondo's string of 35 unanswered points. The Sea Hawks added three second-quarter TDs on a blocked punt recovery in the end zone by junior lineman Dan Zimmerman, a four-yard run from junior running back Dallas Branch and a 20-yard quarterback keeper by Silvera for a 42-8 halftime lead.

Jackson scored his second touchdown of the game on a 15-yard run to give Redondo a 49-8 lead with 7:42 to go in the third period. From there, Morningside went to its big play offense starting behind senior quarterback Travion Magee's TD passes of 71 yards to senior wide receiver Darren Morgan and 56 to senior wide receiver Adarrus Wilson.

Penalties and mistakes plagued both teams including preventing further scoring.

"We were star struck early," Morningside head coach LaFayette Fletcher said. "We'll be ready next week. We can still win league. We got to get better each game."

The Monarchs come home to Coleman Stadium and face defending four-time league champion and last year's Southern Section Western Division champion Palos Verdes Friday at 7 p.m. Last Friday, the Sea Kings won their 25th consecutive Bay game over host Inglewood 49-6.

LAWNDALE CRUSHES SAMO

Lawndale High head coach Travis Clark was looking forward to coaching against his former team and alma mater. He was happy about the Cardinals' 62-0 rout of hapless and winless Santa Monica (0-7, 0-2) last Friday at Santa Monica City College but he might have felt sorry for them, as well.

Fourth-year starting senior quarterback Chris Murray continued to dominate his foes. He completed eight of 14 passes for 98 yards and three touchdowns and rushed for 69 yards and one TD.

Zach Cooper ran for 130 yards and three touchdowns on nine carries. Reserve quarterback Erick Willis passed for a TD and, as a defensive back, returned an interception for a score. Defensively, Lawndale held the Vikings to just 75 total offensive yards. The Cardinals come home to face another winless squad from Beverly Hills (0-7, 0-2) Friday at 7 p.m.

HAWTHORNE WINS SECOND STRAIGHT

For the first time since 2004, Hawthorne High's football team won more than one Ocean League game after outlasting Beverly Hills 42-35 last Friday at Hawthorne. Quarterback Marte Mapu threw for three touchdowns, including a winning one of 48 yards to Jaylen Morgan with 2:35 remaining in the game.

Carlos Jacobo caught two of them from 20 and 30 yards out. The Cougars improved to 2-0 in league and are tied atop the Ocean with El Segundo and Lawndale. Hawthorne is 2-5 overall. Hawthorne visits El Segundo Friday at 7 p.m. The Eagles (7-0 overall) are coming off a 42-31 home win over Culver City last Friday.

LEUZINGER ROLLS OVER TORRANCE; PV ROUTS INGLEWOOD

Leuzinger High's football team recorded an impressive 60-0 home rout of Torrance to even its Pioneer League record to 1-1 last Friday in the Olympians' homecoming contest. Leuzinger will host South Torrance Friday at 7 p.m.

Inglewood High's football team fell to 0-2 in the Bay League and 1-6 overall after falling to Palos Verdes 49-6 last Friday at Coleman Stadium. Mahleek Gordon had a 67-vard touchdown run for the Sentinels. Inglewood visits Mira Costa in Manhattan Beach Friday at 7 p.m. •

Morningside quarterback Travion Magee prepares to throw in last Friday's Bay League football game against Redondo. The Monarchs lost their first game of the season to the Sea Hawks 49-20.

Hawthorne Hosts Annual Free Shredding and Compost Event at City Hall

By Derrick Deane

It doesn't have to be spring in order for you to clean up clutter.

The city of Hawthorne will once again host their annual free paper shredding and electronic waste collection event on Saturday, October 24 from 9 a.m. to noon at City Hall.

"What we do is we provide a truck where we shred your secure documents and all those bills and bank statements you have at home," Sam Pena, a representative of the Public Works Department said.

There is no limit to the amount of paper residents can bring. Last year, more than two tons of paper was collected and recycled. Every ton of paper that is recycled saves 7,000 gallons of water, between 17 and 31 trees, 4,000 kilowatts of electricity, and 60 pounds of air borne pollutants from being expelled into the air.

Of course, the biggest incentive to shredding documents is to prevent identity theft which affects 11 million people a year at a cost of almost $54 billion.

"We don't want you to throw secure documents away with your regular trash because we know there are people out there looking for commodities that are in the waste and recycle stream," Pena said. "They look for aluminum cans, cardboard, and they look cell phones, and similar devices for recycling. for your identity."

So which papers should you keep and which ones can you get rid of?

As a general rule, you should save tax returns for seven years in case you get audited. The IRS website states that it generally only goes back three years for an audit, but that "additional years can be added if a substantial error is identified," that can stretch the process as far back as six years.

Anything with bank account numbers that you no longer need should be shredded, including monthly paper bank statements. You can also take an extra step in security by switching to emailed paperless statements. The same goes for utility bills as most now have a paperless billing option.

Credit card offer forms and "convenience checks" as well as outdated pay stubs and canceled checks are also items that should be shredded. ATM receipts, address labels from junk mail, outdated resumes, travel itineraries, used airline tickets, and paid utility bills also make the list for paper items that you should shred.

In addition to shredding secure documents, the event will also be accepting electronics such as computers, tablets, TVs, DVD players,

"This is one of the ways we like to help out the residents in the city of Hawthorne. If you bring your documents that you have laving around at home we shred them for you for free," Pena said. "The cost of this to residents, like I said, it's free, but if you were to go to a document company to shred these papers, they usually average $25 a box to have them shredded."

As if that wasn't enough, residents can also pick up free compost courtesy of Republic

Compost will enrich soil and help conserve water, a welcome benefit as some residents have seen their water bills skyrocket during the past few months after the City Council enacted Stage 2 water conservation protocols.

"I think this is the third time we've done this, is that we're going to be giving away free compost. This is not cheap, bad compost, this is fertilizer and you can bring a truck or some bags and you can take as much as you want," Pena said.

Composting also helps ward off plant diseases and increases soil nutrients helping plants to grow. Recent research shows that soil treated with compost tends to produce plants with fewer pest problems.

"We will have what we call a 20-yard rolloff container filled with compost," Pena said. "I think last time we had a little bit left over so we were able to donate over to the Parks and Recreation Department so they could spread on their fields and grass."

Interested residents should bring their own bags or containers to be filled with as much compost as desired. Compost will be available on a first-come, first serve basis.

"These things usually cost $20 or $30 at Lowes or Home Depot if you go and buy a few bags of fertilizer or compost, so come prepared and take as much as you want,"

For most vegetable and flower gardens, 1 to 3 inches of compost is ideal while lawns need only about a half of an inch of compost. For trees, 2 to 4 inches should be applied, but not at the tree base. Rather, compost should be placed 4 to 6 inches away from the trunk.

The city will also be giving away free emergency supply containers while supplies last. The containers are durable, water-tight containers that can store vital emergency supplies.

If interested in the event, residents may contact Hawthorne Public Works at 310-349-2987 for more information. •

Inglewood Director Earns DiLA Award

Dr. Dyke Redmond, Creative Director of the Heart & Soul Design Communications Center, is the 2015 winner of a Digital Innovation in Learning award. Dr. Redmond designed a project called CHIME, where counselors assist students in after school programs in creating video/film, digital photography and graphics that not only make a difference, but provide a unique and productive medium in which they can express themselves. Dr. Redmond knows the value of and the need for knowledgeable, proactive teachers. Their role in the lives of children is imperative and can have a lasting – negative and positive – impact. Dr. Redmond's goal is to have more of the latter and less of the former.

Skechers Friendship Walk

On Sunday, October 25th, California's largest charity event will kick off at 9am in Manhattan Beach with a special performance by the Clippers Dance Team. Over 12,000 people will join together for SKECHERS' 7th annual Friendship Walk supporting children with special needs and education!

Since its inception in 2009, over $4 million has been raised for The Friendship Circle (www.gotfriends.com), a non-profit organization that assists children with special needs and their families, as well as education foundations. The funds raised have been used to implement free programs at The Friendship Circle and has helped save teachers' jobs, preserve critical academic programs, and enhance libraries and school technology. This year we're on track to raise $1.2 million! For more information visit http://www.skechersfriendshipwalk.com.

El Camino College DUI Awareness Fair

El Camino College will sponsor its 15th Annual South Bay DUI Awareness Fair, featuring displays and interactive demonstrations that convey the dangers of driving under the influence of alcohol and/ or drugs. The event will run from 10 a.m. to 1: 00 p.m. Oct. 29, near the ECC Library Lawn, 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, Torrance.

The DUI Awareness Fair is designed to increase community awareness about the dangerous consequences that can come from driving under the influence, or getting into a car that is operated by someone under the influence.

New this year, the El Camino College Police Department will sponsor a "Coffee with a Cop" event in conjunction with the DUI Awareness Fair. Coffee with a Cop brings together students, ECC employees, community members and police to discuss issues and learn more about each other. For more information, call the El Camino College Police Department at 310-660-3100. The DUI Awareness Fair is free and open to the public. On-campus parking is $3. •

Markarian. For the Hawthorne School District, an estimated 90 percent of students fall into the state's economically disadvantaged category. Through the CAASPP assessments, that gap has grown to about 2.5 times the percentage of students meeting the new standards based on the first batch of test scores. Furthermore, school districts with a higher population of Englishlearning students struggled with the assessment and registered only an estimated 10 percent of said students meeting the English-language arts and mathematics standards throughout the state.

"This year's results serve to establish an individual baseline against which districts will measure their future growth," Dr. Markarian said. "Our achievement on this initial administration of the assessments was consistent with that of most districts with similar student populations."

For districts throughout the state, the students' transition from 5th to 6th grade presents a challenge on its own. Middle school represents the first time that students will interact with multiple teachers in a day; combined with new instructional programs and a range of social factors, the impact this change has on each student is sometimes reflected in the academic performance of the child.

"We saw in our data that we need to better support students as they transition to middle school in hopes of sustaining the academic gains demonstrated in the elementary grades," Dr. Markarian said. "To assist with this effort, we have developed a support system for parents, called the Hawthorne Parent Academy, which is designed to provide targeted assistance to parents of sixth grade students."

Prior to the new Common Core Tests, each assessment was so different, that districts across the state struggled to track student achievement. Under the new requirements, assessments are so closely aligned that it is easier to analyze a student's achievement throughout their academic career. In addition, the district's teachers and staff have been working nonstop for the past three years in order to better prepare themselves to teach students and have them test ready.

"During that time, we have been shifting instructional practice, adopting new materials, providing professional development, and communicating with all stakeholders," Dr. Markarian said. "All of that work, however, has only gotten us to the starting point in a long-range effort involving the adoption of new content standards and assessments, as well as major reforms to the state's accountability, and fiscal support systems.

"We are learning new terminology, reconciling reporting levels, and figuring out how it all meshes together," Dr. Markarian said "As for the new tests, they do far more to assess genuine understanding of subject matter than the old ones ever did. We want our students not only to acquire knowledge and skills that are relevant in today's world, but also to be able to apply that knowledge and those skills in productive and meaningful ways." •
