Divergent Views on Measure M

By Derrick Deane

While the Hawthorne City Council voted to officially endorse Measure M, a heavily debated half cent tax increase and extension of the current existing Measure R tax, Councilman Nilo Michelin took a staunch position against it.

“It’s a forever tax,” Michelin said in his opposition to the Measure. “There’s no sunset, it’s not forty years and it is discriminatory against poor people because they’re the ones that are buying items and have to pay the sales tax. I understand that we get bond funds for our city, but we need to have a reasonable plan. We need to have priority for the freeways and for the South Bay.”

Mayor Alex Vargas responded in support of the Measure saying that the city of Hawthorne relied heavily on the funding that currently comes from Measure R.

“Our city depends heavily on this,” Vargas said. “If we want to continue beautifying our roads, we have an immediate benefit from this. We’ve been benefiting from it. We need this diversified money to continue to do what we do for the city.”

Measure M would add a half cent tax increase to purchases and increase to a full cent in 2039. Meanwhile, the ballot measure would also extend Measure R to what Michelin referred to as a “forever tax,” although residents would be able to repeal it if there was enough support to do so in the future.

“It’s a long range plan to address mobility needs in the county over the long term,” Mark Dierking, community relations manager for the MTA in the South Bay area said of the measure. “It’s a funding plan with a mix of a lot of local, state, and federal funding sources including local voter approved sales taxes.”

Dierking says that Metro annually provides

450 million rides a year on their buses and train lines and opened two new rail lines this year. MTA will be adding three additional rail line extensions in the near future as well as “several highway improvements.”

The long range part of Measure M includes a potential $17 billion project in the Sepulveda Basin which proved to be a main part of Michelin’s argument against the measure. The councilman sought to see more of the Measure M money being spent locally in the South Bay, rather than what he believed would help fund massive projects outside of the region.

“Our city depends heavily on this ... We’ve been benefiting from it. We need this diversified money to continue to do what we do for the city.”

“The region has many more unmet critical transportation needs than there is money to meet them,” Dierking said. “Los Angeles County is projected to grow by 2.3 million people in the next 40 years and Metro is planning now for that growth with a proposed plan to raise money to meet current and future transportation needs.”

“Built in to Measure M is an independent oversight process to take a look at local sales tax revenues and then an assessment every ten years to make sure the funds are,” Dierking said. “

Measure M, which has been in development for more than a year, but City Manager Arnie Shadbehr explained that some of the South Bay cities that are against the measure are opposing it because “it’s in their own interest.”

“Torrance and Carson are fighting this because the Green Line extension to the Del Amo Mall and the Carson Mall is not going to happen until the next fifteen years,” Shadbehr said. “They have a direct interest in this. The fight that we have here is that our General Fund is not able to fund our street maintenance.”

Shadbehr, who formerly worked for the City of Torrance, says the city has excess funds every year.

“With all due respect for my colleagues in Torrance, we’re using the General Fund to do public improvement projects, something that is unheard of in Hawthorne in its whole history,” Shadbehr said. “When Hawthorne cannot have a General Fund to use for patching streets, and we’re using restricted funds and MTA funds, this is what is important for us.”

Vargas added that the reason the other cities are opposed against the Measure is because, “they don’t have the transitory pathways through their cities like we do that depend on this money.”

Shadbehr also touched on the delay is improvements to the 405 Freeway, another issue that Michelin pointed out as a reason he opposed the measure. Shadbehr said there reason there aren’t any plans to work on the freeway in the next 20 years is because the MTA is putting a lot of focus on rail.

“In the next twenty years, we don’t only have 405 or 105 improvements, we have complete infrastructure expansion and improvement to rail transit that is going to be accessible to everyone,” Shadbehr said. “

Councilwoman Olivia Valentine added that one of the reasons that the South Bay Cities Council of Governments (COG) is voting against the Measure is, “because they believe we should get a higher return.”

Valentine says that it looks like the region would 16 percent of the funds whereas the South Bay COG sought 25 percent. •

Hawthorne Happenings

News for the City of Good Neighbors from City Clerk Huber

REPUBLIC SERVICES OFFERS FREE EVENT

Thanks to our friends at Republic Services we have a special event on tap for this Saturday, October 29th from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at the East parking lot of the Memorial Center. They are offering to the residents of Hawthorne the following services: shredding, e-waste roundup, and free composting. You can bring your paper documents to get shredded. You can bring in your old computer, printer, television or any other electronic gadget to get properly disposed off. And finally, you can bring in a large container or small truck in to load up on free composting material for your winter gardening. Republic Services is our trash collection agency and they are very supportive of the community by helping to sponsor civic events. So, bring your stuff down to the parking lot behind the Betty Ainsworth Center this Saturday morning. Shred some waste and pick up some waste.

RAMONA PANCAKE BREAKFAST

The Ramona Neighborhood Association is sponsoring their 2nd Annual Pumpkin Pancake Breakfast this Saturday, October 29th at Ramona Park from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. You really can't beat the prices. Members of the RNA are free, non-members pay a whopping $2 for a plate of hot cakes. So, go spend $5 on your java at Starbucks and then stop by 136th Street for a hearty breakfast outside in the fresh air. Forecasts call for the rain to stop on Saturday morning. Come out and breathe some clean air.

A DAY WITHOUT

A 2004 movie entitled, "A Day Without a Mexican" was released and shown mostly in SoCal movie theaters. It depicted, in a somewhat funny way, what California would be like if all Mexicans left the state. The movie was not a political ad to encourage a vote for a political candidate. It was simply meant as a humorous way of looking at our culture. Picking up on this theme, I started wondering what it would be like if we had a day without Germans? No Oktoberfest? No cold ones? How about a day without coffee? Wow! That would put a lot of people on edge. How about a day without electricity, like we experienced in Hawthorne when we had a day without power on Christmas Day? I thought of this movie the other day when we had a cyber attack on several large websites on the East Coast. What would happen if we had a day without the internet? We have become so dependent upon communications from our electronic devices that life as we know it would suddenly stop. It would be a major hardship for many of us who cannot live without our cell phones. Have we put all of our trust into our man-made cyber infrastructure? Ecommerce would stop. Government agencies could not do their job. The DMV was a mess the other day. I may be more anxious about the 'big one' hitting our cyber cloud than the big shaky one. Whenever the worries of this world strike me, I think of one of my favorite scriptures that I have committed to memory. Philippians 2:6-7 says, "Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be known to God and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." Is this election season getting you down? Are the upcoming holidays already making you anxious? Even after having a cold one, do those nagging, negatives still keep you from getting a good night's sleep? I find my peace in a faith that God has given me. Whatever way you find yourself using to cope with today, we are all in this thing together. Life will go on no matter who is elected on November 8th. As we used to say back in the day, "Peace out" my friends. Just don't let the battery on your cell phone die. That would be the end. •

METRO'S PLAN MEANS MORE FOR LA COUNTY.

Metro Briefs

SOUTH BAY

Metro Proposes Measure M

On November 8, 2016, LA County voters will be asked to authorize a Los Angeles County Traffic Improvement Plan called Measure M. Angelenos spend an average of 81 hours a year stuck in traffic. Currently, there are 10.2 million people living in LA County, and we are projected to grow by 2.3 million people in the next 40 years. Traffic congestion and air pollution are expected to get worse with more growth, and the measure is intended to raise money to meet those needs. Get educated before you vote at metro.net/theplan.

Go Metro to LA Football

The Bruins take over the Rose Bowl, and the Rams and Trojans share the Coliseum this fall – and Metro wants to get you there. Metro provides frequent bus and rail service to both stadiums, so you won't get caught in traffic or miss a minute of the action. To plan your trip and find the route that's best for you, visit metro.net/gameday.

Airport Metro Connector Final EIR Nearing Completion

Metro is planning a new station that will connect the Los Angeles International Airport (LAX) to the regional transit system. The Final Environmental Impact Report (EIR) for this project is almost complete. Please visit metro.net/laxconnector for more information.

Metro Launches Off Peak Podcast

Off Peak celebrates the true tales and secret stories that happen between Point A and Point B in Southern California and beyond. Challenging the traditional car-centric narrative of Los Angeles, Off Peak explores the rich history and future of rail, bus, cycling, walking and all modes of getting around in LA. Listen to episodes of the podcast at metro.net/offpeak.

Make Costumes! For Creative Play

By Priscilla Hershberger

El Segundo Library Staff Book Reviews and Recommendations

For this week's review I will be discussing a few books that will help get you ready for Halloween. Finding the perfect Halloween costume can be a struggle but with the help of these two books you will be able to DIY anything from a pirate to a princess or even the floor of a movie theater.

The first book, How to Create Spectacular Halloween Costumes by Louann Brown and Jason Nemeth is the perfect place to look for some inspiration for creative last minute costume ideas. My personal favorite is a costume named "Walk all over me" This inexpensive costume idea allows the wearer to transform themselves into the floor of a movie theater in seven simple steps! I am a huge fan of DIY costumes and this book lays out some simple ideas that can be used as the foundation to create a variety of spooky and frightfully fun costumes. There are other "How-to" titles in this set including building haunted houses, carving cool pumpkins and making frightening decorations.

How to Create Spectacular Halloween Costumes by Louann Brown and Jason Nemeth.

Next up is Make Costumes! For Creative Play by Priscilla Hershberger. This is another excellent book that is packed with costume ideas. The best part is that most of the materials needed to make these costumes can be found at home! Hershberger includes classic costumes like ballerinas, pirates, vampires and robots. The costumes shown in this book are perfect for Halloween costumes but that's not all. They are exactly what the doctor ordered to encourage creative play at home. If your little one loved to play dress up or act out stories these costumes, props and accessories are sure to be welcome additions! The book has step by step instructions with photos making it easy to follow and it is broken up into categories such as tops, armor, hats, and accessories and so on making it easy to create new costumes using various pieces from throughout the book.

The El Segundo Public Library offers access to its collection of titles in a variety of formats, including traditional hardback, e-books and books on CD. To check out How to Create Spectacular Halloween Costumes by Louann Brown and Jason Nemeth and *Make Costumes! ## Film Review

'Moonlight' Shines Light on a Chorus of Exciting New Voices in American Cinema

By Jasper Bernbaum
for www.cinemacy.com

In an age of franchises and blockbusters, it's funny that a film like "Moonlight" feels so monolithic. It is a coming-of-age story that is both expansive and yet so personal— not only to the filmmakers and talent involved but personal to everyone occupying a theater seat. It is a necessary and vibrant depiction of race and sexuality in America during a divisive time in this country, yet the film does not feel political, rather, like a chorus of exciting new voices in American cinema. A quiet, patient feature, this is a film that feels like a landmark, for not only this moment but will maintain relevance for years to come. In its own unique way, "Moonlight" is a blockbuster in its own right.

The story follows a young African-American man named Chiron on his journey to discover young men cast evoke the same personality through more subtle details of speech and body language. But in a sense, it feels almost fitting that the three manifestations of Chiron feel so eerily similar, yet look distinctly separate. The power of director Barry Jenkins' character study is that, through Chiron, he is not telling the story of one young black man growing up in America, but thousands. Chiron is a character who deals with some similar tribulations that often limit people of color in film, however, in "Moonlight" these struggles are depicted with much more angst as the character is forced to deal with misgivings about his masculinity, sexuality, and family. The powerful portrayal of these universal themes of struggle are the makings of not just a great film, but an essential one.

Jenkins continues the conversation that he started in his first and only prior feature, the definition of manhood. Framed as a triptych, the film portrays a different actor playing Chiron in three key moments of his youth. As a young kid, Chiron confides in a drug dealer whom he considers a father figure, while his mom's own addiction escalates. Years later, as a high school student, Chiron struggles to understand his sexuality after developing feelings for the only classmate that shows him respect and friendship. Later, as a young adult, Chiron has established a tough persona as a dealer, yet finds himself struggling with his masculinity after reconnecting with the classmate.

One of the most apparent successes of "Moonlight" is the casting of Chiron in all three stages of his life. Despite not particularly resembling each other, each of the three "Medicine for Melancholy." Charming as it was, his debut was conversational and frequently ham-fisted for a film that didn't fall far from the early 'mumblecore' movement. In form, "Moonlight" could not be more different. Operatic in its scope, yet gentle in its expression, "Moonlight" is Jenkins' butterfly. There is an intimacy to how Jenkins and cinematographer James Laxton follow their characters without interfering with their reactions to the environment. As filmmakers and dramatists, this guidance proves to be their greatest gift; it results in a film both refined and poetic, while staying raw and pure.

"Moonlight" is rated R for some sexuality, drug use, brief violence, and language throughout. 110 minutes. Now playing at the Landmark. •

Culver City Offense Too Much for Hawthorne in Loss; Lawndale falls to El Segundo

By Eric Ramos

Hawthorne could not overcome four turnovers in a 62-35 Ocean League loss to Culver City last Friday at Halcap field. Quarterback Marte Mapu threw a 37-yard touchdown pass to Justice Powers to cut the Centaurs' lead, 42-35, with 10 minutes remaining in the fourth quarter.

Culver City responds with a 10-yard touchdown run by quarterback Jonathan Martin. A 5-yard touchdown reception by wide receiver Deven Osbourne gave the Centaurs a 55-35 lead and put the game out of reach with six minutes left in the game.

Hawthorne falls into a four-way tie for first place with Culver City, El Segundo and Lawndale. The Cougars (3-5, 2-1) have two game remaining and will look to finish the season strong.

Culver City got off to a fast start as Martin connected with Mekhi Ware on a 20-yard touchdown to give the Centaurs an early 7-0 lead. Hawthorne marches down the field on the ensuing drive and scores on a 2-yard touchdown run by Mapu to even the score, 7-7, in the first quarter.

Culver City comes right back as Alex Smith returns the kickoff 95 yards for a touchdown. Hawthorne opened the second quarter with a 2-yard touchdown run by Mapu to even the score, 14-14.

Running back Brandon Oum added an 8-yard touchdown run to extend the lead, 21-14. After a Hawthorne turnover, Martin hits Kevin McGuire for a 41-yard touchdown to give the Centaurs a 22-14 lead at halftime.

Mapu finished the game with 265 yards passing and two touchdowns while adding 125 yards rushing and three touchdowns.

Taz Tauaese slips by the Lawndale defense for a first down. Tauaese gained 89 yards and a touchdown on just 11 carries against Lawndale. Photo by Greg McMullin Powers had 13 receptions for 201 yards and two touchdowns. Martin completed 14 of 16 passes for 222 yards and five touchdowns for Culver City. Oum rushed for 110 yards on 10 carries.

Hawthorne will host El Segundo Friday at 7 p.m. for a key matchup in the Ocean League.

LAWNDALE VS. EL SEGUNDO

Lawndales' high-octane offense was shut down as they were held to 181 yards of total offense in a 14-7 Ocean League loss to El Segundo last Friday. The Cardinals fall to 4-4 overall on the season and 2-1 in league play.

After a scoreless first half, the Eagles got on the board with a 1-yard quarterback sneak by Jake Palmer. Lawndale answers with a 14-play, 80-yard drive capped by Jalen Hamler's 9-yard touchdown pass to Hunter Williams, tying the score, 7-7, in the fourth quarter.

The Eagles game-winning drive was capped by running back Taz Tauaese's 31-yard touchdown run with 6:43 left in the game. Lawndale was unable to muster anything on offense the rest of the game and explosive running back Jordan Wilmore was held in check by a tough Eagles' defense.

Lawndale will look to rebound from the loss when they visit Beverly Hills Friday for a 7 p.m. kick off.

LEUZINGER VS. TORRANCE

Leuzinger rolled up 542 yards of total offense in a 39-3 Pioneer League win over Torrance last Friday. The Olympians are in a two-way tie for first place with West Torrance and remain undefeated in league play.

Leauzinger got off to a slow start with a 6-0 lead at halftime. The Olympians scored 21 points in the third quarter and were able to shut down the Torrance offense. Quarterback Kaymen Cureton completed 16 of 27 passes for 254 yards and a touchdown with an interception. Junior running back Elijah Myles added 90 yards rushing on 11 carries for the Olympians. Tariq Culpepper had seven receptions for 103 yards and a touchdown.

The win sets up a showdown for first place with West Torrance on Friday at 7 p.m.

INGLEWOOD VS. MIRA COSTA

Inglewood was held scoreless through three quarters and could not recover in a 35-7 loss to Mira Costa last Friday. The Sentinals remain winless in the Bay League and fall to 3-5 on the season. The Sentinals' defense gave up three touchdown passes to backup Reed Vabrey while running back Justin Goring added two touchdowns in the first half.

Inglewood running back Tyaire Dunlap finished with 97 yards rushing on 27 carries. Goring rushed for 107 yards on nine carries for Mira Costa. The Sentinals (3-5, 0-3) will travel to Redondo Union High School Friday for a 7 p.m. kick off. •

How Technology Is Simplifying Relief of Chronic Pain

(BPT) - Doctors hate seeing patients suffering from chronic pain, and not just because their instinct is immediately to want to help their patients to feel better. One of the primary challenges doctors confront is that even though chronic pain is common, it can be extremely difficult to diagnose and treat. The condition can be debilitating for patients and frustrating for the doctors trying to help them.

"Chronic pain is a multi-faceted condition," says Dr. Ahmed Raslan, assistant professor of Neurological Surgery at Oregon Health and Sciences University in Portland. "The causes are varied, and each person experiences chronic pain differently. The sheer number of variables in play can make effective treatment extremely complex. It's not unusual for doctors and patients to try multiple types and combinations of treatment before finding something that provides at least partial relief, and that process can take months and even years."

More than 11 percent of American adults suffer from chronic pain, according to a recent National Institutes of Health study. People who live with chronic pain report numerous negative effects on their lives, including damage to personal relationships, decreased productivity at work, disruption of their daily routine and even depression. The Institute of Medicine has estimated the medical costs and lost productivity associated with chronic pain could cost as much as $635 billion per year.

"Many chronic pain patients face barriers to effective treatment, including the need for continual doctor visits to adjust aspects of their treatment, and difficulty traveling to meet with their physicians," Dr. Raslan says. "Conditions such as intractable back pain, nerve injury, neck pain, pain after hernia operations, spinal cord injury pain, post herpetic neuralgia, complex regional pain syndrome, and pain after failed back surgery can force patients to try multiple treatments. Once they've tried a number of options and still have not achieved the desired comfort they may become a candidate for spinal cord stimulation therapy."

Spinal cord stimulation (SCS) therapy treats chronic pain by interrupting pain signals before they reach the brain. According to Dr. Raslan, the therapy works by "flooding the gates of the spinal cord so it cannot allow unpleasant pain signals to pass through the gates. Depending on how fast and regular the therapy is being delivered, patients may feel a slight tingling sensation in the area of the body associated with their pain, and in most cases patients report that sensation replaces the feeling of pain, which corresponds to pain relief."

Though SCS has been around for years, recent advances from St. Jude Medical have made the proven effective treatment simpler for patients and doctors to use successfully. St. Jude Medical recently launched the Proclaim Elite SCS System, which is the most advanced SCS system the company has ever developed, and which includes a new, innovative platform that enables patients to adjust therapy with an Apple iPod Touch mobile device. The application is easy to use which the company hopes will enhance patient experience and delivery optimal results for patients.

The company does note that implantation of a spinal cord stimulation system can involve risk, such as painful stimulation, loss of pain relief and surgical risks, such as paralysis, during the implantation procedure. Patients should talk to their physician to determine if spinal cord stimulation therapy is right for them and their particular pain condition.

For many patients the therapy can deliver pain relief leading to dramatic improvement in quality of life. "Before I tried SCS, managing my chronic pain was very difficult," says Ronald Seeling, 50, of Warren, Oregon, a patient of Dr. Raslan. "For many years, I was taking a lot of pain medication and my quality of life was diminished. I could barely walk and couldn't do things around the house or visit with my grandkids."

Seeling says SCS has provided him with more predictable and consistent chronic pain relief.

"Best of all, I was able to 'test drive' the treatment before I committed to it," Seeling says. "Just a few months later, my pain is under control and I'm able to attend the grandkids' ball games and birthday parties and even help with the dishes."

"I'm encouraged by the convenience and freedom that my patients experience with this cutting-edge treatment," Dr. Raslan says. "It has helped people like Ronald take control of their chronic pain and experience a better quality of life."

Raslan cautions that SCS may not be right for everyone, so talk to your doctor about treatment options for your chronic pain. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF:
JASON A. SAWAL
CASE NO. 16STPB05159
To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of JASON A. SAWAL.
A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by LOIDA C. SAWAL in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.
THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that LOIDA C. SAWAL be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.
THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act with limited authority. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.
A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 11/17/16 at 8:30AM in Dept. 5 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012-3117
IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.
Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.
YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250.
