Wiseburn Board Gets Dashboard Update, Aquatics Center Numbers

By Duane Plank

Last Thursday evening, the Wiseburn Unified School District was privy to one special presentation regarding the mandated implementation of the California Dashboard Local Indicator Report, which attempts to give accountability to how districts track continuous improvement. It also provides information about how local educational agencies and schools are meeting the needs of the state's diverse student population, based on a "concise set of measures."

The Dashboard is in year two of utilization and is considered an efficient way of reviewing the performance of school districts by displaying state and local measures to assist in identifying strengths, challenges and areas in need of improvement.

District Assistant Superintendent, Educational Services Dr. Aileen Harbeck's presentation, required to be reported to the Board at this time in the school year, featured seven local indicators of how Wiseburn serves student needs. Speaking of implementing the data culled from the Dashboard, Superintendent Dr. Blake Silvers had said that "what we are trying to do is to figure out where our gaps are, figure out which areas are strengths, which areas are challenges. We are doing a lot of work right now. The teachers are working hard -- working on certain curricular issues that we have."

Harbeck said that surveys were taken by leadership teams at each District campus to help with the acquisition of the required Dashboard information. Said Superintendent Silvers: "We are responding to areas that we need to help support...including principal work groups, to provide and strengthen goals for the year, with the idea of promoting continuous improvement." He emphasized that from the District to the site level, the Dashboard is utilized as the framework, but is not the "nitty gritty" of the numbers.

Harbeck summed up the presentation, noting that the review of local indicators "points up a continued focus on initiatives that promote student safety and learning as well as the continuing need to promote parent participation and student connectedness on all campuses."

Board comments were brief, with members Roger Banuelos and Nelson Martinez unable to attend. Dr. Neil Goldman mentioned that he planned to make school site visits, a sentiment echoed by member Israel Mora. Board President JoAnne Kaneda said that no news is good news, because that meant there was no bad news, adding, "Everything is going well, and I appreciate the efforts on everyone's part."

Chief Business Official David Wilson reported that the new Aquatics Center is tracking to come in under budget. Post-meeting, he emailed that the numbers were as follows: Wiseburn had pledged to invest up to $6 million and approximately two acres of land; the City of El Segundo pledged $1.8 million; the group South Bay Sports and Health and Recreation were pledging up to $6 million; and El Segundo Unified School District also pledged significant financial support towards the joint project.

Director of Facilities Planning Vince Madsen, who had his contract extended until the middle of November, made his report and gave kudos to City of El Segundo officials for helping bring the Aquatics Center project come to fruition and talked about the moving parts that have been fine-tuned to parry down the stakeholder costs. "We believe that we are going to come in under budget," Madsen said. He added, "We did something that no one has done in California" and did so with "really good numbers."

Goldman had noted how Wiseburn was responsible for implementing financial resources for the Aquatics Center. "What this means, for the community, is our commitment was $6 million, and our highest priority was to be fiscally prudent," he said.

Madsen next reported that construction is moving forward as the District works to get the pool, gymnasium and turf field online. He noted health department approvals being sought, the installation of final accessories surrounding the pool, and ramping up facility landscaping -- as well as the Nov. 15 date for the beginning of the project architect "punch list," which is a document that is prepared near the end of a construction project listing work not conforming to project specifications that the general contractor must complete before receiving final payment. Emailed Madsen after the meeting: "We are very hopeful to have City staff onsite Nov.15 for equipment training, staff orientation trainings and other prep activities getting ready for the opening of the pool."

In his comments, Silvers talked about safety and traffic challenges as students enter and exit the new Wiseburn High School. Madsen added that the District is working with the City of El Segundo to develop plans to increase safety around school sites. Silvers also spoke about revamping Wiseburn's website saying, "We are pretty much there, almost at 100 percent," he said. He also mentioned that the District was conducting interviews with master plan specialists as it forges ahead in developing the document. He said he was confident that whatever group is selected would engage with the community, seeking their input. Prior to the meeting, Silvers expressed that he is eagerly awaiting the opening of the sports complex, with the crown jewel being the gymnasium facilities that could possibly debut in December. "The gym is just such an unbelievable structure," he said. It is just beautiful."

The Oct. 25 meeting was the final regularly scheduled session prior to the Nov. 6 mid-term elections, which should prove to be a low-key affair in Wiseburn. The District floated a $29 million bond ask in June, but the measure did not receive the necessary 55 percent of yes votes. And while three School Board seats are up for election (Mora, Banuelos and Martinez), the incumbents are running unopposed for their next terms.

The next regularly scheduled Wiseburn School Board meeting is set for the open session to commence at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 15. •

Congresswoman Waters on GOP Plan to Cut Social Security, Medicare & Medicaid

WASHINGTON – Congresswoman Maxine Waters (CA-43) issued a statement on GOP efforts to slash Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid due to the exploding federal deficit that was created by Donald Trump's tax scam law:

"Like so many Americans across this country, I was utterly appalled to learn that Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell is once again proposing devastating cuts to Social Security, Medicare and Medicaid. It is a testament to their moral depravity and endless greed that the Republicans and Donald Trump would once again attempt to break the social safety net to pay for their GOP Tax Scam law. Through their actions and words, the Republicans and Trump have made it abundantly clear that they are willing to break the backs of working families and America's seniors to serve and enrich powerful corporations and Wall Street banks.

"Social Security is a bedrock of American society. Signed into law by President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1935, the Social Security Act has provided economic stability and retirement security to millions of hard working Americans. Prior to the passage of this landmark law, many American seniors were forced to live in abject poverty, and many slept on the streets. Social Security is financed by the payroll taxes seniors paid during their working years, and it provides financial security to more than 50 million seniors and disabled workers. Social Security keeps a roof over their heads and food on their tables.

"Like Social Security, Medicare and Medicaid are landmark programs that changed millions of lives since they were created by legislation signed into law by President Lyndon Johnson in 1965. Today, Medicare serves more than 55 million seniors and disabled workers, ensuring that they can see a doctor and pay for prescription drugs and costly medical procedures. Medicaid serves more than 70 million Americans, including more than 5 million low-income seniors, 10 million people with disabilities, and 28 million children. Medicare and Medicaid save lives, help people live longer, and provide the peace of mind that comes with affordable health care that is there when you need it.

"Republicans have tried cutting Social Security, Medicare and Medicaid before, and the American people have always stood up to oppose them. In 2005, President George W. Bush proposed to privatize Social Security and allow Social Security funds to be invested in the stock market. If this plan had succeeded, seniors would have lost millions in the stock market crash a few years later. One would think by now that Republicans would have learned that the American people will not tolerate cuts to these essential programs. Yet most Republicans still care more about their wealthy friends and campaign donors than the middle class families that depend upon the benefits they have earned.

"Last year, Donald Trump and Congressional Republicans slashed taxes for the wealthiest one percent and large corporations knowing full well that doing so would explode the federal deficit, cause millions of Americans to lose their health insurance, and jeopardize the economic well-being of hard working Americans. After the tax scam became the law of the land, Trump and his allies paraded around the country peddling false promises of more jobs that have not been created, raises that have not materialized, and tax cuts for working families that are modest at best and were temporary from the onset of this scheme.

"Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell even had the audacity to predict that the tax cuts did not need to be paid for because they would pay for themselves. However, ten months later, the federal deficit has skyrocketed 17 percent to an astonishing $779 billion – due in large part to the GOP tax scam – and Majority Leader McConnell has stated that the rising federal debt is 'very disturbing,' but is 'driven by the three biggest entitlement programs that are very popular: Medicare, Social Security and Medicaid,' implying a need for sharp budget cuts to these vital programs.

"This is a shameful and unconscionable proposition from one of the so-called leaders of a Republican-controlled Congress that has repeatedly sold out working families to do the bidding of Donald Trump.

"I am outraged by McConnell's announcement, and I intend to fight with every breath I have to protect seniors, veterans, children, and working families across our country. When the President of the United States, Mitch McConnell, and their Republican allies decide to risk the lives, health, and well-being of millions of hard working Americans and their families in order to subsidize the extravagant lifestyles of millionaires, billionaires, and powerful corporations with a tax scam, they must be held accountable." •

Film Review

The Manic, Feminine Mystique of Suspria

By Ryan Rojas for www.cinemacy.com

A remake of the 1977 technicolor art house horror flick Suspria follows an all-female dance academy where mysterious things are thought to occur inside the compound's walls. There's certainly danger in the politically-charged 1980s in East Berlin where this movie takes place, with the compound itself film, where powerful thrusts and quick choreographed moves are set to the ebb and flow of inhalations and exhalations, building to a symphony of senses and an orchestration of evil. But it's the time in between these moments—a politically uninteresting side story and a barely motivated Dr. Josef Klemperer (look closer at "his" makeup and re-look at sitting just on the other side of the oppressive Berlin Wall. The dance academy has been around for decades and is run by Madame Blanc (Tilda Swinton) and her legion of ladies. The women not only maintain order in violent and unstable times, but also run one of the most prestigious dance academies in the world. It's where American transplant Susie (Dakota Johnson) arrives from her small town in Ohio – coincidentally, as several lead girls crumble under the academy's pressure (imagined or real?) – and impresses them all by dancing the lead solo on her first day of auditions, which results in everyone questioning who she is.

As Susie rises higher and higher, fellow dancer Sara (Mia Goth) grows highly suspicious of the oddities that seem to occur during the former's lead performances. Luca Guadagnino, who last year directed Timotheé Chalamet in Call Me by Your Name, makes this movie an art house exercise that operates with more mystery than on pure horror. He builds an atmosphere of unease into the academy's walls, not unlike the eeriness of The Shining. Because of this, at best Suspria will be polarizing and at worst underwhelming.

What separates this remake from the 1977 version directed by Dario Argento is Guadagnino's filming of the dance at the center of the movie. Guadagnino is certainly one for understanding how senses play to the audience. Here, he fully orchestrates evil with a primal and animalistic expression compared to the ballet scene of the original Tilda Swinton's credits in the film) -- that had me wishing Suspria would've left me even more breathless.

Suspria is an overall fascination for the senses with its details and artful moments, but it lacks some of the core ingredients that make horror movies fun. It's undeniably expertly crafted, and when it goes off the rails in the film's head-spinning (or head-exploding) ending, it's quite simply one of the most bizarre moments in movies this year. But even with that, Suspria is not as shocking as it could be, making me think these ladies may not be entirely satisfied.

152 min. Suspria is rated R for disturbing content involving ritualistic violence, bloody images, and graphic nudity, and for some language including sexual references. Now playing in theaters. •

Hawthorne Happenings

News for the City of Good Neighbors from an Old Guy Named Norb Huber

LAZY

- ON VACATION - RETIRED

Where was I last week? No HH. No Huber Happenings. No meanderings. No stupid stuff to laugh at. No talk about cold ones and God. Okay, admit it, a few of you missed me. The rest of you were up all night watching the Dodgers win and then lose and then lose. I promised not to say anything about the Dodgers. But, you all deserve a cold one after that roller coaster ride of a World Series. One minute the men in Blue are looking like champions and then all of a sudden the Red Stockings are knocking the LA pitchers around. I just wish the president would keep his tweets out of sports and sports guys would stop making political statements. Why ruin my fun by bringing politics in. It's just a game. I'm sure glad I'm not a stupid politician like I was in my younger days. Anyways, I got lazy, was up in North Lake Tahoe at a friend's timeshare resort last week and I'm, as you all know, retired so I didn't get around to writing this stinkin' blurb last week. I missed you guys. Hope you all are doing well.

VETERANS CELEBRATIONS

November is here and the holiday early in the month is Veterans Day. The Hawthorne Veterans Commission will be hosting their 4th Annual Veterans Day Celebration on Saturday, November 10th at 7 p.m. at the Hawthorne Memorial Center. This year they will be recognizing all of the veterans who are employed by the City of Hawthorne and all the veterans who serve us in the Hawthorne Police Department. Each year this event has been a very popular and fun event. Music and refreshments will be part of the night's agenda. We really do owe our veterans a lot of recognition for serving us. This event is a great way to show our appreciation.

VETERANS DAY CELEBRATION

The Hawthorne VFW Post 2075 will be honoring our veterans, families, active duty military and District 4 auxiliaries by hosting a Family Freedom Festival on Sunday November 11th from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the post located at 4563 W. 131st Street in Hawthorne. The event will include Fun-Food-Raffles, Silent Auction, Activities for Kids.

Long-time civic volunteer and VFW member, Carol Steinhauer sent me an email asking me to please let everyone know that this event is open to the public and will be a great way to celebrate Veterans Day on the 11th.

ELECTION DAY - NEXT TUESDAY

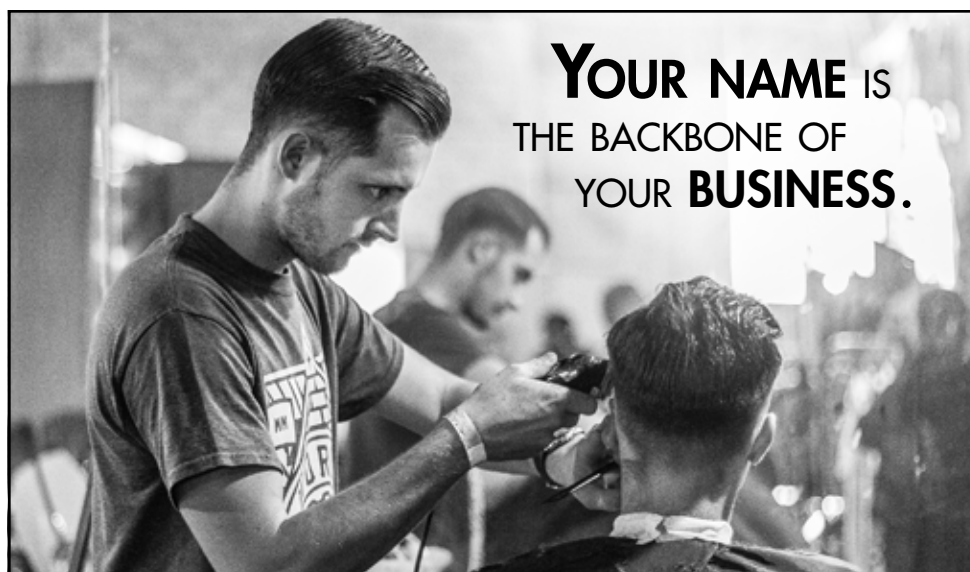

If you have not mailed in your ballot yet, then get to the polling place next Tuesday and vote. Your vote matters not only for our City Council members, City Clerk and City Treasurer, but for all of the California measures. Do you like the way our state is headed? Do you like paying the 12 cent gasoline tax? Do you think we need change in our city council or have the incumbents done a good job? There are all kinds of questions to be asked and our democratic system will allow the citizens to determine what direction we will go. No matter who is elected or which measures pass or not pass, I know that we are directed to show respect to those in authority and to obey the civic laws that are put in place. We read in Romans 13:1 "Let everyone be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God." God does not tell us to send pipe bombs to people we disagree with. He doesn't tell us to insult and form mobs to disrupt the lives of those who have different views than us. The greatness of America is that we are diverse, we can disagree, we are not forced to worship the same God or prescribe to a certain teaching. We believe that everyone has the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Now, go vote and then come home, crack open a cold one and forget about the fact that you voted for all the losers and every measure passed that you voted against. If I ran again, I would promise a "cold one in everyone's fridge". I might even get 18 or 19 of you to vote for me. No I'm not running, I would rather let God use me in other ways, like telling you that you have nothing to worry about because God promises to be with you no matter what you are going through. Cold ones get stale, my column gets sorry, we're all getting older, but God's Word and his promises never fail, never get stale or sorry. Have fun, enjoy the life God has given you.

Dated: 10/24/2018 THE MORTGAGE LAW FIRM, PLC Adriana Durham/Authorized Signature 27455 TIERRA ALTA WAY, STE. B, TEMECULA, CA 92590 (619) 465-8200 FOR TRUSTEE'S SALE INFORMATION PLEASE CALL (800) 280-2832 The Mortgage Law Firm, PLC may be attempting to collect a debt. Any information obtained may be used for that purpose. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property.

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (800) 280-2832 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet Web site - www.Auction.com - for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case: 139043. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. A-4674253 11/01/2018, 11/08/2018, 11/15/2018 Lawndale Tribune Pub. 11/1, 11/8, 11/15/18 HL-26233

Rainbow Sheet Pan Veggies with Eggs

Recipe provided by Brandpoint
Servings: 6

Ingredients

- 6 Eggland's Best Eggs (Large)
- 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/2 teaspoon dried oregano
- 1 teaspoon sea salt
- 3 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil
- 1 orange bell pepper
- 1 red bell pepper
- 1 cup grape tomatoes
- 1 cup radishes, halved
- 2 carrots, peeled
- 1 yellow pepper
- 1 yellow squash
- 1 cup broccoli florets
- 1 zucchini
- 1 cup radicchio, chopped

Preparation

1. Preheat oven to 400 F.
2. While the oven is preheating, chop all of the vegetables into bite-size pieces to ensure they will roast quickly and evenly in the oven.
3. Arrange the chopped vegetables in a single layer onto the sheet pan in rainbow order: red bell pepper, grape tomatoes, radishes, carrots, orange bell pepper, yellow squash, yellow bell pepper, broccoli, zucchini, radicchio.
4. Drizzle the olive oil over the vegetables and sprinkle the salt, pepper and oregano evenly on top.
5. Using your hands, lightly toss the vegetables on the sheet pan while keeping the rainbow order intact until they are all evenly coated.
6. Place the sheet pan in the oven and roast for 15 minutes or until all vegetables are slightly tender.
7. Remove baking sheet from oven but leave oven on. Create room throughout the sheet pan for six eggs and then crack the eggs over the vegetables.
8. Return sheet pan to oven and bake until whites are set and yolks are still runny, about 10 minutes.
9. Remove from oven and scoop vegetables and one egg into bowl or on top of your choice of rice, quinoa or greens.

3 Steps to Help Manage Depression

(BPT) - Sadness and grief are normal human emotions. These feelings can often last for a short period of time. However, when these emotions last for many days or weeks, depression becomes a concern.

According to the American Psychiatric Association, depression is a common and serious medical illness that negatively affects how you feel, the way you think and how you act. Fortunately, depression is among the most treatable of mental disorders. Between 80 percent and 90 percent of people with depression eventually respond well to treatment. Almost all patients gain some relief from their symptoms.

According to the National Institute of Mental Health, an estimated 16.2 million adults in the U.S. have had at least one major depressive episode in a given year. In fact, according to a report from the National Center for Health Statistics an estimated 8.1 percent of adults age 20 and older had depression in a given 2-week period during 2013-2016. Of those affected by depression, 80 percent reported having at least some difficulty managing work, home and social activities.

In the past, stigma surrounding depression caused some people to avoid seeking help. As celebrities, musicians, and even politicians speak out about their own struggles with depression, people have felt empowered to take the steps to find the help they need.

Symptoms of Depression

It can be difficult to know when feeling down is turning into something more concerning. According to the Anxiety and Depression Association of America, a major depressive episode may include some of these symptoms:

- Persistent sad, anxious or "empty" mood
- Feelings of hopelessness
- Feelings of guilt, worthlessness or helplessness
- Restlessness, irritability
- Loss of interest or pleasure in hobbies
- Decreased energy
- Difficulty concentrating, remembering or

- making decisions
- Insomnia, early-morning awakening or oversleeping
- Low appetite and weight loss, or, overeating and weight gain
- Thoughts of death or suicide
- Persistent physical symptoms that do not respond to treatment (such as headaches, digestive disorders and pain for which no other cause can be diagnosed)

Three Steps that Can Help

People experiencing some or all of these symptoms can take action by following these three steps.

Step 1: Get screened by a qualified mental health expert. Depression can only be diagnosed by a health care professional who has special assessments and tools to make the appropriate diagnosis.

Step 2: Talk to your healthcare provider about a treatment plan. Depression can be managed with the right treatment options. A healthcare provider can determine the strategy that works best for you. Common treatment plans may include psychotherapy and medication.

Step 3: Follow a treatment plan closely and take medications as prescribed. Abruptly stopping medications may cause withdrawal symptoms that could worsen depression. If you are uninsured or your health insurance doesn't cover the medications you need, there are programs that can help. For example, the Inside Rx program is a free prescription savings program that could save an average of 40 percent off select brand-name medications and 80 percent off retail price on generic medications. You can check the price of medications, and terms and restrictions like eligibility requirements, at InsideRx.com.

Depression doesn't discriminate. It impacts all races, ages and genders. Take these first steps to help manage your symptoms. Keep in mind, if you are ever feeling suicidal thoughts, call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-8255 immediately. •

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF: CLEMETHA "CLEMETHA" MARIE DILLARD

CASE NO. 18STPB02478

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of CLEMETHA "CLEMETHA" MARIE DILLARD. A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by ALEX R. BORDEN in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that ALEX R. BORDEN be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 12/14/18 at 8:30AM in Dept. 67 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

THOUSANDS OF OUR PAPERS ARE DELIVERED WITHIN MILES OF YOUR HOME OR BUSINESS.

OPEN LETTER TO THE CITIZENS OF CALIFORNIA'S 43RD DISTRICT:

Dear Fellow American:

Though Maxine Waters may only represent the citizens of your district, her nationally-publicized, rabid attacks against President Trump and his allies are tearing apart America.

She is bountied and determined to continue to fan the fire of division in America; pitting blacks against whites, women against men and Democrats against Republicans.

In 27 years, Maxine Waters has only passed three bills and her family has made over a million dollars in revenue from her government connections.

She lives in a $4.5 Million home outside the district. Have you ever wondered how she can afford that on a congressional salary of approximately $170K a year?

Perhaps it has something to do with her involvement in business deals that earned her the label from C.R.E.W. as the most corrupt member in Congress for 2005, 2006, 2009 and 2011.

I sincerely ask you, Is this what you really voted for? Don't you deserve better?

Please, on behalf of your fellow Americans, this November retire Maxine Waters!
