Memo the Mailman: Preparing to Deliver His Final Piece of Mail in El Segundo

By Duane Plank

Usually, approaching the candidates for these profiles is a fairly simple process. Get their email address and cell phone number, then set up a convenient time for a phone interview.

Not so with El Segundo mail carrier Guillermo "Memo" Paredes. Rich Negrete suggested him as a candidate, who wrote to the paper: "I have a suggestion for a profile article on our mail carrier 'Memo.' He is well loved in the community, has served the City of El Segundo for 40 years, 20 on the east side and 20 on the west," Negrete emailed. "He told me recently that he has delivered to every section of town. Memo is retiring in April. I posted the same info on a local Facebook page a couple of weeks ago, and dozens chimed in about what a great and consistent individual Memo is."

With no contact info, I had to leave the comfort of my domicile and do a little leg-work. Traveled down to the USPS building on Mariposa Avenue, but was told Memo had already started on his daily delivery route. I returned a few days later to see if I could meet him and was told he had that day off work. I returned, only to be politely told that I had to clear it with his supervisor to speak with him.

Luckily, Memo was informed that a scribe from the Herald wanted to speak with him, and he quickly contacted me. It was well worth the extra effort.

The Memo Paredes backstory: Here is part of it, told [mainly] in his own words: "Grew up in Venice, California in a religious household, my mother raised all seven of us always to show kindness and personal concern for others and a work ethic that stayed with me throughout my career in the Postal service."

How did he land the post office gig? "I remember a good friend who was a postal worker," he said, "and thinking to myself... What a great job, you are outside in the sunshine and blue sky, and you get to wear shorts!"

"I came to El Segundo not even knowing that this city existed. Before getting hired, I drove around the town and streets, the very same streets where I would be delivering mail."

He spoke of "so many friends, so many memories over the years, I will truly miss all my friends, I call them friends because you are able to forge close friendships and get to know them and their families, and they welcome in the mailman in as part of their family, that is so beautiful."

"I remember when I married my wife Dina 18 years ago," he said. "I was on the east side of town. I did not tell anyone except my friend Henry. I took the month of October 2004 off work, [and] my customers were wondering where I was. They found out I got married, and you know, they went around the neighborhood [and] collected a contribution as a gift for me and my new bride."

"Forty years of couples that married, that had children, and those children grow up and have children of their own. I tell the story of a picture I have where I am holding a baby in my arms and [have] a picture of the same girl when she graduated from El Segundo High School."

He shares the experience of "families driving by honking the horn, waving and yelling out my name, children running up to me and giving me a hug. How beautiful is that!!"

"So much love I have received over the years," Paredes continued, "not to mention the gifts, cakes, zucchini bread, cookies, tamales, smoked brisket, moonshine, and beer... I can go on and on."

Many, many folks wanted to chime in on what Memo Paredes has meant to them and their families over the years.

Florida Woman by Deb Rogers

By Roz Templin, Library Assistant

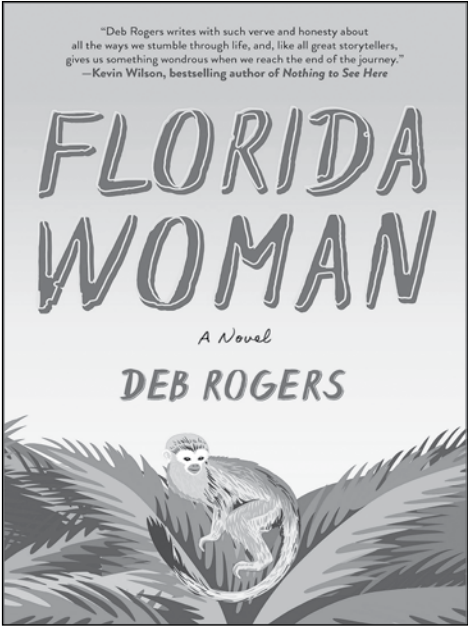

Jamie Hawthorne has found a bit of luck in all her recent humiliation. After she was duped into robbing her place of employment (the Tiki Hut) by co-workers, Jamie became the “Florida Woman” who (mistakenly) was also responsible for burning the place down! Actually, a pelican knocked over burning candles and ... well, anyway, the security footage went viral, Jamie was arrested (but she saved the pelican, doesn’t that count for something?) and faced some serious jail time. What’s lucky? Her pro bono lawyer has finagled her into community service at an animal refuge!

Atlas Wildlife Refuge rescues macaque monkeys (also known as rhesus monkeys, native to Asia) and the leadership team there uses community volunteers to assist them in their mission to enlighten the world about the monkeys’ “spiritual power” and also environmental issues such as reduction of waste, preservation of flora and fauna, etc. Where does Jamie fit into this?

Delivered to Atlas by Cole, her house arrest officer (and yes, she is fitted with an ankle monitor) Jamie is introduced to Sari, the refuge’s leader/owner, Dagmar, the Danish veterinarian and Tierra who seems to chiefly be cook, gardener and intermediary between the other two.

The Quiet Girl is a Heartbreaking Irish Drama

By Ryan Rojas, Cinemacy.com

Being neglected and denied affection and love is a tragedy that can keep a person from becoming, or even knowing, their best self. But having the fortune of receiving love is a gift that allows us to grow tall and full like a beautiful forest of trees.

Those themes form the story of The Quiet Girl (now playing in select theaters). Ireland’s official submission and nominee for Best International Feature Film at this year’s Academy Awards (spoken in Irish with English subtitles), The Quiet Girl is a tender, sensitive, moving film about a young girl who experiences care and affection for the first time in her young life.

Set in rural Ireland in 1981, The Quiet Girl tells the story of Cáit (Catherine Clinch), a quiet girl whose dysfunctional family sends her away for the summer to live with relatives she has never met.

The couple—quiet themselves, middle-aged and middle-class—look after her in their modest, tidy home. Eibhlín (Carrie Crowley) lends affection to Cáit instantly, brushing her hair and dressing her with the family’s extra clothes when she’s left without her suitcase.

Initially uneasy (as wetting the bed always indicates), Cáit slowly begins to feel more comfortable in the house. She helps prepare meals and do simple chores alongside Eibhlín, who smiles affectionately at her.

ESGS League Opening Day a Party Atmosphere

Story and Photos by Gregg McMullin

It’s only February, but it is time for those Opening Day festivities and parades for youth softball and baseball leagues. The El Segundo Girls Softball League held its Opening Day a week before the skies opened up and forced the El Segundo Little League to reschedule its Opening Day.

many successful all-star teams do well in tournaments leading up to Nationals. The 10u and 12u teams advanced to the Nationals last season.

The festive atmosphere the ESGS League put on for the nearly 220 girls in the league, resembled a huge party. There was a face painting station, a giant blow-up slide, and Charlotte Groendal sang the National Anthem before ESGS Opening Day festivities.

The ESGS League celebrates its 57th year and with it the knowledge of a successful outlet for young girls to play softball. It is a recreational league with the primary goal of providing a venue for players to have fun, learn and compete. They offer programs for girls ages five through twelve in 2023. The league acts as a feeder system to the high school softball program. The league has had a fun DJ playing music that players danced to before assembling for their entrance onto the field.

The teams marched onto the infield between archways of balloons. The team names are made up of the girls on their respective teams. Some names are unique like Snappy Turtles, Base Burglars, Pythons, Red Dragons,

A WELL DESIGNED SHOWER EXPERIENCE

(BPT) - The bathroom has become a multi-functional space - a place to create daily experiences that cleanse, relax and rejuvenate. Designing this space provides the opportunity to select features and fixtures that bring both art and function to the bathroom. The shower, especially one with a unique waterflow, can act as a living art piece, creating an immersive experience that feels as amazing as it looks.

To maximize the shower experience, incorporate technology that brings water to life and transforms a shower from a mundane task to a serene and reviving part of the day. Carefully look at every feature when selecting a shower head - from the spray to the coverage. Each element should come together to create a shower worth looking forward to each day.

The new 14" Raincan Shower Head from the Brizo® Essential™ Shower Series features an H20kinetic® Drenching Spray that utilizes water-sculpting chips to create thousands of large droplets that pour down in alternating patterns. The shower head provides rich volume and full coverage that replicates water found in a tropical rainforest, thus creating a uniquely recharging shower experience.

To elevate the bath space and achieve a look and sense of heightened relaxation, mix textures, unexpected tile patterns and earthy colors. Select fixtures with simple, clean details that bring the space together and create a cohesive, lavish design, to provoke a feeling of serenity. Look to shapes that complement the space and bring a sense of beauty to function. The 14" Raincan Shower Head is available in a Linear Round style, bringing new refinement to timeless simplicity. It is also available in a Linear Square style that elevates the shower through striking clean lines and geometric angles. Either shape creates a breathtaking statement that can live beautifully in any bathroom.

Make design choices that are as sustainable as they are aesthetically beautiful to create a bath environment that is both functional and intentional.

Select fixtures with water-saving features and high-functioning, eco-friendly products that merge technology with design. Use H20kinetic® Technology to control the shape, velocity and thermal dynamics of water, creating the luxurious feeling of a high-flow shower, using only a fraction of the water.

An ideal shower experience is one that is both relaxing and kind to the environment - the epitome of luxury in the bathroom. *

Tigers, and the ever-popular Iron Maidens. Charlotte Groendal, who plays in the league, sang the National Anthem after the 21 teams surrounded the infield before announcing last year's all-star teams.

The Tigers are introduced on Opening Day.

Games are played on Saturdays before Spring Break, starting at 8:00 a.m. and ending around 9:00 p.m. at the Rec park softball field and Richmond Street School field. After Spring Break, games are 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. on Wednesday and Thursday and all day long on Saturdays. With a fully stocked menu of snack bar items, why not attend a game, support the girls, and have a meal?

Field to hold their annual parade marking the start of the league's sixty-ninth season. Albeit the modified Opening Day Parade was rescheduled a day later than usual, it didn't dampen the players' spirits. The games rained out will be rescheduled when Brett Field is playable. When games start-up, they'll run through May 14, with the league holding Championship Saturday, most likely on May 20. If you get the opportunity, attend some games and cheer on today's youth who could be tomorrow's stars. With an expanded snack bar, ample free parking, and a new scoreboard to get all your game info, this would be an excellent opportunity to support Little League Baseball.

Sienna Mayer was 2-for-3, including hitting this pitch for a triple in the Eagle's 4-2 win over Notre Dame.

Swim Team Preview

The Eagles enter the season trying to repeat a strong run in the CIF Southern Section Division 2. Last season the Eagles sent five boys and five girl athletes to CIF last year, and many of them return this year. The boys look to take League after a surprise second-place finish last year to West Torrance. The girls' team looks to compete for a Pioneer League title after a second-place finish. Additionally, the boys look to win The South Bay Invitational after a runner-up finish to Mira Costa last year. The girls look to improve upon their fourth-place finish last year in the prestigious meet. The boys' team has four core returnees, including senior standout, multi-school record holder, and distance specialist Alexander Cole.

CIF qualifiers last season. The team will be bolstered by returning stars Ciara Schnauer and Ava Albertson. The program is joined by freshmen phenoms Ava Bao and Sora Koike, who look to add until the weather and fields are manageable. The Eagles were hoping to get in games earlier in the week, with games being played at the high school on Monday and North Torrance on Tuesday. Today's game and the rest of the depth and help improve the roster this year and add to CIF qualifiers.

Baseball Team Wins a Cool Victory

The Eagles started play in the 57th El Segundo Tournament (now the Stevenson Tournament) on a winning note. The game was played in frigid temperatures with winds in the 30-mph range. After giving up a three-run first-inning lead to Culver City, the Eagles eked out a 6-5 victory. On a night when ground balls were a challenge and pitchers were dealing with control tournament were TBD. Softball Team Scores Impressive Win Over Notre Dame The Eagles scored an impressive 4-2 win over Notre Dame (Sherman Oaks). The Knights are loaded with talent, including two who are committed and have college scholarships to Division I schools. Oklahoma recruit Ella Parker hit a solo home run in the first inning to give Notre Dame a 1-0 lead. The Eagles responded with a run of their own in the half of the first inning. Sienna Mayer tripled and scored on an error.

issues, the Eagles gave up three first-inning runs. The Eagles matched the Centaurs with a three-run inning in their half of the first. With runners on first and second with one out, Lucas Bonham hit a fly ball to right field that the wind carried over the fence for a three-run home run. With the Eagles trailing 5-4 in the sixth inning, they scored two runs on RBI doubles by Dylan Immel and Bonham to take a 6-5 lead. Dylan Alcala, who relieved Colby Sutherland in the fifth inning, shut down the Centaurs in the seventh inning, and El Segundo improved to 3-0. With the rainouts making the schedule questionable, the Eagles are in a holding pattern

The Eagles took a 3-1 lead in the second inning when Hailey Wantz singled and scored on an errant throw. Maiya Anderson singled and came around to score on Jaz Ramos' RBI single. Mayer was aboard on an infield error in the third inning and later scored on Allie Stevenson's RBI single. The Knights would score a run in the sixth inning, but the Eagles held on for the victory. Jacy Lindsey was sharp in the circle giving up two runs on four hits in five-plus innings. Hailey Wantz took over and pitched the final five outs for the save. With the win, the Eagles improved to 2-0 and were in the midst of rescheduling games rained out by the recent storms. •

Stephanie Rodriguez was a standout on the water polo team and will look to help lead the Eagles' swim team.

for close to 10 years. He was first introduced to our Abdelshife family by my younger brother Hamzah, who would stop Memo and start to talk about sports, favorite beverages, work, and things to look forward to in the future.

“I personally love talking to Memo because he’s involved in every aspect of our family history and El Segundo,” Abdelshife said. “He has been there in the highs and lows; he was there for my younger brother’s passing in June last year. Memo is also a very good listener, Memo and I are passionate about good food, so we talk about it. We also discuss each other’s families and ensure everyone is healthy and happy. Memo always asks about my daughters, Nylah and Camila. The girls always run out of the house when they see him and yell, “hey, Memo,” and he always responds ‘hey, beautiful girls.’

“After all these years of knowing Memo, it’s sad to know we won’t see him throughout our day delivering mail. I am excited that he gets to enjoy his time after all the hard work he has put into this city.”

“Memo, we want to thank you for being a part of our Abdelshife family life. You will always have a place in our home. We love you!”

Linda Goodrich: “We have known Memo since he started delivering mail here on Acacia. We can always hear him coming when I was no longer working, because he had his radio going,” she said, “always smiling and always engaging. I always felt guilty stopping him because that meant it would take him longer to finish his route, but he never made you feel like he was in a hurry,” she said.

“He remembers everything you last talked about, birthdays, sickness, travels, and celebrations,” continued Goodrich. “He always has a kind word to say and stands so interested in what you have to share. We first started chatting when his predecessor retired, and I wanted to know who was going to replace him. We immediately became like friends, and although at that time I normally saw him mainly on Saturday, after retirement, we would note, “Memo is on his way up”; Open the garage door, and one of us would wait for his arrival. You meet people in life that somehow make you feel immediately comfortable sharing all sorts of things, and he is one of those people. We have already exchanged numbers to stay in touch after he retires. We love him, and he will really be missed, but we wish him the very best in his new chapter of life.”

Cris Ferrier: “My wife Erin and I moved to El Segundo 19 years ago, and for at least the last 15 or so of those years, our regular and I always go out to greet him and have a quick chat. We would always bring him a cold bottle of water and an Otter Pop on hot days. He really liked that. Memo never misses an opportunity to ask the kids about school and their sports activities. He really, truly cares, and he is like a family member to us.

“In a town as unique as El Segundo, it is fitting to have a mail carrier who is a throw-back to a simpler time when people enjoyed establishing relationships with the people they interact with daily. Memo truly exemplifies this role.”

Jan Burkhard added that “Memo is a gem. He was our postman when our children were young. He was always so kind, so personable. He knew everyone’s names, even the children’s names. When our oldest daughter was in second grade, and the class assignment was to make ‘a community service member,’ she decided her project was to make a construction paper Memo. Seeing Memo would put a smile on everyone’s face!”

Because of space limitations, I had to edit some of the locals’ praiseworthy comments about the beloved Memo. And, if I had not edited them, they would have run for another five hundred or so words. You get the picture, right?

Final words from Memo Paredes; “I am just a mailman. We all know that El Segundo is Spanish for ‘The Second,’ well, my dear friends, I look forward with eager anticipation for ‘the second’ part of my life.”

Memo Paredes: Much, much more than “just a mailman.” •

As Jamie adjusts to her new surroundings, she is alternately attracted to and suspicious of the three women. Sari suggests that Jamie may help with the Atlas website, Tierra teaches her about their vegan lifestyle and Dagmar ... well, maybe Dagmar doesn’t want her there at all.

The macaque monkeys are extravagantly provided for and even looked to as prophets. Jamie feels the pull toward them and soon finds herself sitting on the “bonding benches” near their enclosure, carrying on covert conversations with them. She begins to recognize them individually: there’s motherly Colette, Curious Georgia O’Keefe, Meaty Joe, Mr. Nilsson and her favorite, sweet-faced Bee. Maybe after Jamie completes her summer months of service here ... maybe she could be hired on here permanently?

As she daydreams about gainful and spiritually rewarding employment, doubts begin to enter her mind. What’s up with some of these volunteers? Some of them seem TOO attached to the monkeys. Why do the monkeys scream at night? Surely Sari and company aren’t hurting them ... are they? Are some of the plants and food allergens? Maybe that’s why she feels nauseous and dizzy? And ... what’s with these rituals they are performing?

There’s some plodding moments and maybe too much set-up, but this story is a satire of our crazy social media climate mixed with New Age cultism with a dash of crime lurking in those razor-sharp palmettos. If you stick with it, you’ll have some entertaining and suspenseful moments in the last pages. But the thing that bothered me most? Those aren’t macaques on the book cover! Those are squirrel monkeys!

You can find this and other interesting reads at the El Segundo Public Library. Our staff will be happy to help you find what you’re looking for. •

Film Review

Soon after, the formerly despondent Seán (Andrew Bennett) warms to Cáit, bringing her to work with him on their dairy farm, and their connection grows as well.

It’s a newfound world of care for Cáit, the family making her feel safe by telling her, “There are no secrets in this house.” Except, Cáit learns about a large secret the family keeps (why do the clothes she was initially given fit so coincidentally well?), forcing her to learn more about the world.

The above plot point might make The Quiet Girl instantly sound like a mystery or thriller, but I ultimately found it to be a modest domestic drama. Writer-director Colm Bairéad adapts the film from the short story “Foster” (by Claire Keegan) with devoted patience. Bairéad and editor John Murphy match the film’s slow pace to that of Cáit’s slowly absorbing learning of the world.

Director of photography Kate McCullough sets Cáit in a dark, drab, colorless world early on. But when she moves to the new home surrounded by healthily flourishing nature, greens overpower and show the life Cáit begins to live.

Newcomer Catherine Clinch makes her feature film acting debut here in the lead role of Cáit. Clinch has the essence of a quiet girl, taking in the world through her large eyes and silent, unimposing behavior.

As Eibhlín, Carrie Crowley (Vikings) is aptly heartfelt. And Andrew Bennett (God’s Creatures) is able to grow into the role, surprisingly taking over the main parental role of affection.

Some of the best moments of the film are the sequences in which Cáit runs down the driveway to get the mail with Seán, a moment of “father-daughter” connection. Looking up to see she’s underneath a forest of highly grown trees, it’s clear that she is also blooming while being here, how tall she’s grown when she must return home to her biological family.

The film reminded me of other quiet films about childhood, particularly Céline Sciamma’s Petite Maman and Lukas Dhont’s Close, the latter being nominated for Best International Feature as well.

At one hour and thirty-four minutes, The Quiet Girl isn’t long by any stretch. However, it’s about an hour until the film reveals its climactic plot point, and the film doesn’t exactly build toward this moment with scenes that made it pay off for me in too big of a way. But the film speaks volumes to the point that we should all give our love and affection so that we can help each other live our lives loudly. •

PUBLIC NOTICES

Notice of Availability
Draft Environmental Assessment for Proposed Phase 2 Parking Structure Los Angeles Air Force Base
Space Base Delta 3 (SBD 3) announces the availability of a Draft Environmental Assessment (EA) for the proposed Phase 2 Parking Structure at Los Angeles Air Force Base (AFB). The current parking supply at the base is inadequate. While existing telework policies – enacted September 2022 for civilian employees – have limited existing parking demand, with a current workforce exceeding 4,500 personnel and only 2,212 total parking spaces, addressing the existing parking ratio is a top priority prior to a full return to work scenario. Implementation of the Proposed Action would include the expansion of the existing parking structure, utility tie-ins, minor changes to pedestrian and vehicle circulation, and other associated landscape and hardscape improvements. Pursuant to the Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) regulations and in accordance with the National Environmental Policy Act (NEPA), this Draft EA serves as a concise public document that provides evidence and analysis for determining whether a Finding of No Significant Impact (FONSI) is appropriate or an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) should be prepared. The Draft EA presents the purpose and need for the action, the proposed action and alternatives, a description of the affected environment, and an analysis of environmental consequences. The Draft EA also documents cumulative impacts from projects which are proposed, under construction, recently completed, or anticipated to be implemented in the near future. No significant environmental impacts have been identified in the Draft EA. The public is invited to review and make comments on the Draft EA, which is available online at <https://www.losangeles.spaceforce.mil/>. Comments must be received no later than March 31, 2023. Purrrfect Companions

Kitten Rescue rescues cats and kittens from a variety of situations. Most live in our volunteers' homes and those volunteers foster them until we can find permanent homes for them. Young or old, tabby or calico, we care for orphaned and abandoned kittens the victim of a hit-and-run and was sadly hospitalized due to a brain injury. Charlie is still missing him but is ready to find his new forever family. This angel face is a little hesitant of new humans at first and is still learning to trust people. Although he may out in pairs, especially when they are still so young, have grown up together and need the companionship of another kitten to help their development.

Forrest is a sweet, friendly kitty with soft fur and a very fluffy tail. Born with appointment at the Kitten Rescue Adoption Center. To virtually browse our adoptable cats, please visit our Adoption Gallery where you can find photos and profiles of all the cats and kittens we have up for adoption from our network of foster homes and from the

that need to be bottle-fed around the clock, moms with litters, cats that need socialization, and sick or injured animals. When they are finally ready for their forever home, we will help match you with the purr-fect one. When you adopt, you save a life... and in turn enrich your own.

Floppy is an adorable teenage Russian Blue mix. He is a mellow kitty who is also very active and playful. Floppy may be a tad shy at first, but once he warms up to a new person, he is very affectionate and loving. This friendly boy also gets along well with other cats. Floppy is looking for a safe and loving home with another active cat who will play with him

Charlie is a silly, sweet boy who is the epitome of a true cartoon character! He will provide hours of entertainment just for you. Although he is not an over-the-top, high-energy kitten, he still loves to play and enjoys his evenings by chasing the laser light or playing with the cat dancer toy. One of Charlie's previous humans was recently not sit on your lap, Charlie always wants to be always right near his human. Charlie has formed a beautiful friendship with his best bud, Jalapeño. Jalapeño has helped Charlie cope with his recent loss, and he has done wonders for his confidence. These two purrrfect lads do everything together and would love to be adopted as a pair.

Sandy is currently residing in the kitten room at our sanctuary with his sister, Windy. They are the last two remaining kittens from the 'Nature' family who was rescued by a good Samaritan. One of our supporters won an auction to name the family, hence the 'Nature' theme. Their four siblings and mama have been adopted; now Sandy and Windy are waiting for their forever home. Sandy is a gorgeous light orange kitten and Windy is a beautiful torbie like their mom. They are a typical plug and play kittens who like to play hard yet are also super sweet and very social. This is a very bonded pair who must go home together – no exceptions. We always prefer the kittens to be adopted

Forrest

Cerebellar Hypoplasia (CH), aka wobbly Kitten Syndrome, Forrest does not let that hold him back. With the aid of stairs, he will come up to you and snuggle. He loves snuggling while being petted. With his soft meows, Forrest will let you know that he is looking for your attention. He gets along well with other cats, loving to wrestle no matter the size of his opponent. He also loves playing with his toys. Although he can be by himself at times, he does prefer a playmate or human companion who has the time to play with him.

These cats and kittens are available for adoption through Kitten Rescue, one of the largest cat rescue groups in Southern California. All our kitties are spayed/neutered, microchipped, tested for FeLV and FIV, dewormed and current on their vaccinations. For additional information and to see these or our other kittens and cats, please check our website www.kittenrescue.org.

Please check our website for the schedule of weekly adoption events or to make an

Sanctuary. At the end of each cat's profile is a link to the email address of the foster parent or adoption counselor, and you may reach out directly with questions or to arrange a virtual meeting.

The donations and support we receive from individuals like you, who share our love and commitment to helping cats and kittens in Los Angeles, are the sole reason we are able to do what we do. We are grateful for your financial help. By making even a small donation today, you can touch the lives of the many deserving, wonderful animals in our care. There are many ways you can donate and help, and every dollar means so much. Kitten Rescue is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit. Your tax-deductible donations for the rescue and care of our cats and kittens can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to Kitten Rescue, 3519 Casitas Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90039.

Saving one animal won't change the world, but the world will surely change for that animal. •
