New Senior Center a Major Hit

City of Inglewood’s Business and Recycling

Each day the average American throws out 4 1/2 pounds of trash. In the past, most of this trash was buried in landfills. Today, our landfills are filling up quickly. Recycling is one of the easiest ways that we can reduce the amount of waste sent to landfills.

The Environmental Services is responsible for implementing various programs to meet state mandated waste reduction goals. California law, Assembly Bill 939, which states that all cities in the State must divert 50 percent of their waste stream by 2000 and maintain this diversion rate. In response to Assembly Bill 939, the California Integrated Waste Management Act, Inglewood has continued to work to provide economical and efficient ways for residents and businesses to recycle.

Each year, the City diverts more than 50,000 tons of trash from landfills, enough to fill 5,000 trash trucks. End to end, these trucks would span nearly 35 miles.

Through grants from the CalRecycle, and the California Department of Conservation, the Environmental Division administers a Used Oil Recycling program to promote the recycling of used oil, latex paint, car batteries, anti-freeze, and used oil filters, and a Litter abatement and bottle recycling program.

Mandatory Commercial Recycling for Multi-Family and Commercial Businesses

Businesses are required to recycle on and after July 1, 2012. To ensure that your business is doing its part in “Going Green” and that your practices are in compliance with the new mandatory commercial recycling requirement, please follow the following link to the CalRecycle site to obtain more information.

Businesses Make a Difference

Inglewood generates more than 120,000 tons of solid waste every year and more than half of that amount comes from businesses. The Solid Waste Management Act of 1989 (AB 939) requires that each municipality reduce the amount of waste sent to the landfills 50 percent by the year 2000.

The Public Works Department’s Environmental Services Division is working to develop programs to help businesses recycle. Your business could reduce disposal costs and protect natural resources by recycling and practicing waste prevention. Together we will make a difference!

Reduce Waste

Waste prevention is something your business can do today that can significantly reduce the amount of waste that is disposed at local landfills. Waste prevention is any practice that causes a reduction in the generation of waste. Here are some simple and inexpensive ideas:

- Make double-sided copies
- Email or post information on an announcement board
- Use ceramic mugs for coffee
- Reuse large envelopes, boxes and packaging materials
- Use scrap paper for notes
- Buy products that can be recycled

Please contact the Public Works Department, Environmental Services Administrator, for more waste prevention ideas for your business.

Recycle Recycle Image Green

A representative from the City’s waste hauler, Consolidated Disposal Service (CDS), will be happy to assist you in the development of a program for your business to recycle. CDS recycling experts will analyze the amount and type of recyclables in your waste stream. CDS will recommend a recycling program that meets your needs, based on the results of the waste audit. Recycling services are provided at no cost to CDS customers and may result in lower trash collection costs.

After you have decided to participate in the recycling program, CDS can help you to implement it. Your business will be provided with printed materials and CDS staff will be available to present the new recycling program to your employees.

Close the Loop

It is equally important is to purchase recycled content products.

When you purchase goods with recycled content, you help to create a demand for the materials collected in our recycling program. Buying recycled content products is important to develop and maintain markets for the materials diverted from landfill disposal. A wide variety of recycled content products are available. Look for this symbol when purchasing them.

Questions

If you need assistance starting a recycling or solid waste reduction program at your business or have any other solid waste and recycling questions, simply contact the Environmental Services Division and/or CDS at 800-299-4898.

- Construction and Demolition
- Special Events
- Electronic Round up - Unwanted Computers and small electronics are collected at scheduled events throughout the year.
- The collected material is salvaged for beneficial reuse.

School Threat Reported by Inglewood Police Department

On Monday, Feb. 19 at approximately 10 p.m., the Inglewood Police Department became aware of a social media communication indicating that students attending a specific Inglewood school were at risk of being targeted by a shooter.

On Tuesday, Feb. 20, investigators from the Inglewood Police Detective Bureau have identified not only the original generator of the threat, but also those involved in forwarding it as well. The investigation thus far does not indicate the threat to be credible. The original generator of the threat is being detained by the Inglewood Police, who are in consultation with the District Attorney’s Office in an attempt to ascertain what, if any, criminal statute(s) have been violated. The department maintained a high-profile presence at the identified school sites and an increased presence throughout the Inglewood Unified School District.

Anyone who has information concerning this incident is asked to call the Inglewood Police at (310) 412-5240, or the 24-hour anonymous hotline number, 888-412-7463. •

Sprawling Annihilation Explores Humanity from the Cellular Level

Ryan Rojas for www.cinemacy.com

It's fun when sci-fi is combined with grandly ambitious ideas. Here, director Alex Garland explores what it means to be human by understanding our own cellular division at the most microscopic level – but Annihilation is less of a coherent vision than it is a familiar flick of a fight-to-survive with some psychedelic flair.

In Annihilation, the threat to humanity isn't so much that of humans being wiped from the face of the Earth by extraterrestrials, but rather extinction through mutations to DNA in which humans either cross-evolve with other life forms, or be killed by those very creations. This wildly ambitious and heavily conceptual sci-fi flick begins with a crash course in explaining cellular make-up at its most basic level: as taught to us in a collegiate course setting by biologist Lena (Natalie Portman). She explains how the activity of endless division within the body – one becoming two, two becoming four, and so on and so forth – shows a fundamental error in our own evolution, in that we are programmed to divide rather than unify.

It's a somewhat cynical premise, but as Lena's military husband Kane (Oscar Isaac) has been gone for a full year since being deployed on a covert mission, we concede that Lena has rightfully become hardened. That is, until Kane stumbles his way through the front door of their home one unexpected night, to Lena's shock. From a military pop-up base that she and her husband are immediately whisked away to, Lena is informed by Dr. Ventress (Jennifer Jason Leigh) that her husband was part of an infantry unit called upon to enter a mysterious site called "The Shimmer." At this location, evolution of all living matter refracts up to its bubbly orb and then back down on itself, making for crazy cross-pollinating life forms that include beautiful floral families and mutated killer bears. With Kane lying comatose, Lena decides to join a new unit who is prepping to enter The Shimmer to discover its origin. Of course, early scientific study turns into an all-out fight for survival as the team soon learns what threatens them inside.

We've seen this sort of alien expedition mission movie before in films like Prometheus and even in Arrival, but this cast brings another dimension. Portman returns from her Oscar-winning turn in 2016's Jackie to re-assert herself as a big screen action star -- and while it may be more likely to believe Lena is an academic biologist rather than seven-year army veteran, Leigh as Dr. Ventress is commanding all the same, lending more pathos than bravado in her position of power. And one of the most welcome points of the movie is the all-female crew that moves into The Shimmer, comprised of Anya (Gina Rodriguez), Josie (Tessa Thompson), and Cass (Tuva Novotny).

Garland (Ex Machina) is among the more ambitious sci-fi storytellers to bring challenging material to the big screen, and Annihilation offers a closer reading for those who read into it. The fact that teams of soldiers continue to enter The Shimmer, knowing that nobody has come back alive (the exception being a comatose Kane) is actually a comment about the flaw in human design. Lena also discovers a shared characteristic in the crew: they are all escaping vices and addictions that await them at home. Garland makes the connection that perhaps humans are destined to be self-destructive creatures.

Of course, this is a deeper reading that may penetrate audiences, and the rest of the film offers enough serious and interesting world-building that it becomes a unique movie-watching experience. Annihilation ends with a wordless sequence that is stirring and captivating. While Garland expands on bringing his philosophy into action and grander visual storytelling, Annihilation is ultimately more exciting for the ideas that it brings forward than its execution.

115 min. Annihilation is rated R for violence, bloody images, language and some sexuality. Now playing. •

News for the City of Good
Neighbors from an Old Guy
Named Norb Huber

HAWTHORNE HAPPENINGS GOLF ANYONE?

There is nothing like the game of golf. Really, there ain't nutin' like it, old guys like me riding around in carts and hitting little white balls into a cup with a flag stuck in it. That sounds exciting. Believe it or not, it really is a blast. Like most things, you have to try it to experience the thrill. Well with that being said, I would like to invite you to the Hawthorne Parks and Recreation Foundation's 29th Annual Golf Tournament on Monday, April 16th. This year's tournament is being held at the Industry Hills "Babe Course". The schedule is as follows: 10 am Registration, 11 amBBQ Lunch,12 noon shotgun start, 5 pm dinner. If you are interested in playing or your company would like to be a sponsor, please contact Dick Huhn at 310-643-9157. All proceeds goes to the improving of our parks.

GOOD NEWS: HAVING A COLD ONE AND COFFEE CAN HELP YOU LIVE PAST 90

Here it is folks, here is proof: A study out of the University of California-Irvine has revealed that consumption of moderate amounts of alcohol and coffee is linked to living a longer life. The key word is "moderate," of course. The study, called "The 90+ Study," started in 2003 and examined "the oldest-old" age group - about 1,700 nonagenarians - to determine what is key to living to your 90th birthday and beyond. The study has found, among other things, that people "who drank moderate amounts of alcohol or coffee lived longer than those who abstained," and that "people who were overweight in their 70s lived longer than normal or underweight people did." "I have no explanation for it, but I do firmly believe that modest drinking improves longevity," Dr. Claudia Kawas, a key researcher for the study. Wow! There it is, proof of all that I have been saying. Having a cold one not only helps you relax and takes the stress off of your heavily burdened mind and body, but it allows you to live well past the average age expectancy for us baby boomers. So, don't give me any heck about my "have a cold one" advice. Don't tell me I'm an old drunken city clerk who says the same crap every week.

If it takes an academic study to shoot back at you critics who want to toss me under the bus and throw away the key I'll shake my blogery mumbo jumbo in your face. The bottom line is this: I'll have the last laugh.

COMMON SPACE BREWERY TO HOLD WEEKEND LONG GRAND OPENING

Hawthorne is becoming the place to go to find a great cold one. Our second brewery will be opening this week at 3411 W. El Segundo Blvd. Common Space promises to offer more "lager" brews, the kind that I like. I'm a lighter guy not the darker ale type. I hope to see some of you over at the start of the grand opening weekend on Thursday at 4 p.m. for the formal ribbon cutting.

HAWTHORNE'S "HOMETOWN PANCAKE BREAKFAST"

Mark your calendars. Tell your cell phone to send you a reminder. Make a point to get out of bed early and come on over to the Hawthorne Museum on St. Patrick's Day morning, Saturday, March 17 between the hours of 8 a.m. and 11 a.m. The Hawthorne Historical Society will be holding our 4th Annual Hawthorne Hometown Pancake Breakfast. How much better can it get than hot cakes, bacon, sausage, orange juice and coffee? Bring your friends and family. The price is right, $5 is all that you pay.

THE "STATE OF THE CITY" LUNCHEON

Mayor Alex Vargas promises to keep his speech shorter than President Trump when he delivers his annual "State of the City" address on Wednesday, March 21st over at the Memorial Center. Tickets to the luncheon are $50 per person and can be obtained by calling the Chamber of Commerce office. •

Anza Presentation, School Safety Highlight Wiseburn Meeting

By Duane Plank

Last Thursday evening's meeting of the Wiseburn School Board, called to order by Board President JoAnne Kaneda, was a dichotomy to the assembled attendees. It featured discussion of Wiseburn Unified School District programs, as well as a necessary lock-down mentality which has to be implemented to protect all in the wake of recent events.

The Board heard a special presentation by administrators and teachers at Anza Elementary, which delineated some of the success stories occurring on the campus located on Hindry Avenue.

The Board also discussed, in the wake of the massacre that took place two weeks ago in Parkland, Fla., the need for all school districts to continue to ramp up campus security and deal with the hard questions about protecting students, teachers, administrators and support personnel during the school day. The District had scheduled, prior to the carnage of innocents at the Florida high school campus, an active shooter exercise and "critique" of current security measures that will take place on March 1.

Said Superintendent Tom Johnstone, regarding the murder of innocent children and the resultant protests by the under-20s: "It is sad in a society that is really governed by adults, that it takes the death of our kids to bring this matter to a head. How long are we going to put up with this? We are the joke of the world."

Principal Alberto Paredes and four of his staff at Anza Elementary made their presentation, entitled "Off to Great Places." Rather than focusing on data and number-crunching, the presenters celebrated the strides being made at the elementary school: Implementing a supportive school culture with a positive behavior support program, utilizing 3D printing, and making progress with the Project Lead the Way course offerings.

Paredes handed off the initial part of the presentation to Jorge Paz, Anza counselor, who talked of the school team currently in place to implement the Positive Behavior Support (PBS) program. Paz spoke of one of the main problems in 2018 American schools -- an epidemic, he said, of "social isolation" that causes some students to feel that they are being left out or left behind, thus causing them to feel "lonely and invisible." He noted that this feeling of isolation causes some students to "pull away" from society and stunt their social development. This can result in students hurting themselves, or others, similar to what occurred in Parkland two weeks ago. Paredes spoke of the PBS program goals, which include the attempt to develop a culture of "inclusion and connectedness" by creating positive incentives.

The second part of Anza's presentation featured third grade teachers Suzanne Guidi and Jordan McKenna, who touted the school's "Genius Hour." This program encourages creativity in the classroom through Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) immersion. Funded by a Wiseburn Ed Foundation grant, the tools used to facilitate learning during Genius Hour include propagating public speaking, revving up the engineering process, and exposing the students to the magic of 3D printing.

Next, the Board was treated to a "share-out" from four students who participate in Anza's program. They purveyed some of their 3D printing success stories and adroitly answered questions.

The final component of the Anza presentation was made by fifth grade teacher Candyse Crow and delineated the successes of the Project Lead the Way program. She spoke of pairing kindergartners with older students (fifth graders) to delve into "peer collaborations-tutoring," citing studies that have found that "students are more positive toward subject areas when assisted by an older student."

Action items included approval of the mandated Single Plan for student achievement at Anza, Burnett, Cabrillo and Dana campuses, as well as an agreement with Board Docs to provide an online agenda for services and support that will make the agenda accessible to Board members via their tablets or smartphones.

Next up was discussion about the ongoing construction at Wiseburn High on the westside of Douglas Street. The Phase II work, which is expected to be completed in early September, includes the pools, gym and sports field. Vince Madsen, the District's point man on the Wiseburn High project, emailed after the meeting that "we have finally finished the rough earthwork under both of the pools and have started working on concrete forming and the pool circulation piping. The equipment building which will house the pool equipment has received the first of its deep footing concrete/rebar, and is starting to take shape. We have electrical, plumbing and mechanical contractors working in the larger section of the gym building and will soon start working on the ancillary rooms on the north and south side of the gym. Punch list activity is still ongoing for Phase 1, and we will continue to work on final close-out and State certification of that scope of work."

In other District-related news, the Board was scheduled last weekend to interview the remaining candidates for the position of superintendent, which opened up because of the pending retirement of Johnstone, who reported, "By the end of the weekend, we should know who the next superintendent is."

After the meeting, Johnstone noted that there would probably be a bond finalization that may occur at the next School Board session. "We are going to do it," he said. "We are not going to ask a new superintendent to go out for a bond. We have things to do, and if they want to do them, we will do them -- and if they don't want to do them, we won't...and that's just how it's going to be."

The next Wiseburn School Board meeting is scheduled for March 8. •

Vanilla Ice

Every second of every minute of every day, a helpless animal is put to death just because no one was there to take them home. Give one of these kitties a second chance for a lifetime of love in a new forever home.

Vanilla Ice is cool and calm. He takes everything in stride. Playful and sweet, he will be a laidback, but loving dude. Vanilla Ice is one of four siblings that include his sister Spice Girl and his two brothers Don Ho and Honey Bear (who are also available for adoption). He needs to be adopted into a home with a young, playful cat/kitten or along with one of his siblings. He lives with other cats and a small, cat-friendly dog. Vanilla Ice would do well in a variety of situations as long as he has another playful cat to bond with there.

This adorable litter of kittens are ready for their furr-ever homes. Come and meet Pearl, Amber, Onyx, Silver and Crystal! They love to play with their foster mom's dog, are great with other cats old and young, and enjoy socializing with other humans. If you have a heart big enough for two, they would very much love to get adopted with one of their siblings.

Pearl is a little love bug. She loves to cuddle, kiss and snuggle with you. Once you hold her and hear her soft purrs, you will have a sweetness meltdown. She loves to talk and just be by her special person. This darling baby will make you feel happy inside as she sticks her chin out for you to rub and nuzzle. She is a sweet little girl who loves to play as well. Pearl's favorite sibling is her brother Silver and she absolutely adores following him around.

Amber is an extremely adorable little kitten. She is so curious and smart and loves to prance around with her brothers and sisters. She is a playful kitten who loves to get your attention. She will never leave a feather or mice toy unattended. As a great multi-tasker, Amber can cuddle, play with a toy and make you give her belly rubs all at the same time. She loves to talk to you while you're sitting down and cuddling her at the end of each day.

Опyx

Silver

She also loves getting kisses on her cheeks.

Onyx is lovable and the most unique, sweetest kitten. He likes to explore new places and loves getting attention from his human – and especially belly rubs! This fun and energetic little boy loves to climb on top of cat trees and run around with his siblings. If you are tired and cannot play with him, it's okay. Onyx will just set up right next to you and bring one of his favorite toys and toss them to you to make you play with him.

Silver is an explorer who enjoys running and playing with his brothers and sisters. He is absolutely the most affectionate kitten. He is always there to greet everyone and is the sweetest little boy when you need cuddles. You have the best of both worlds with Silver. You get a playful, joyous kitty and the endless love from him to match. Silver is also the ultimate lap kitty. He even nursed his foster mommy back to health with all his cuddling when she was down with the flu. With his great energy, everyone adores him.

Sugar and spice and everything nice is what little Crystal is made of. Crystal is such a sweet and thoughtful kitten with lots of energy and spunk to back it up! She is a bit timid at first, but warms up to you and starts purring when you hold her in your arms. Crystal is not afraid of anything. She has scaled all the cat trees at her foster mom's house and has even conquered her dog! Crystal is always running around with her brothers and sisters planning what mischief they will get into next.

These cats and kittens are available for adoption through Kitten Rescue, one of the largest cat rescue groups in Southern California. All our kitties are spayed/neutered, microchipped, tested for FeLV and FIV, dewormed and current on their vaccinations. For additional information and to see these or our other kittens and cats, please check our website www.kittenrescue.org or email us at mail@kittenrescue.org. Your tax-deductible donations for the rescue and care of our cats and kittens can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to Kitten Rescue, 914 Westwood Blvd. #583, Los Angeles, CA 90024.

On Saturdays, we have adoptions from noon to 3:30 p.m. in Westchester at 8655 Lincoln Blvd., just south of Manchester Ave.; and also in Mar Vista at 3860 Centinela Ave., just south of Venice Boulevard. Our website lists additional adoption sites and directions to each location.

Saving one animal won't change the world, but the world will surely change for that animal. •
