Inglewood Morning Sessions with NBA and Local Great Paul Pierce

Director/producer Jay Gerren announced that he is completing the final edit of his documentary Inglewood Morning Sessions with the recently retired NBA superstar and former Inglewood High School standout Paul Pierce. Inglewood Morning Sessions tells the true story of Lt. Scott Collins and his early morning mentoring program to keep young men off the streets. Lt. Collins started as an assistant baseball coach at the age of 15. He always knew that he wanted a career that involved helping people and became an officer at the Inglewood Police Department at the age of 22. It was there that he noticed that many of the troubled youth that he came into contact with shared a common thread -- no real father figure to guide them. Lt. Collins decided to fill that void and became a volunteer coach with the Inglewood Police Athletic League (PAL) and later started his Inglewood

Morning Sessions when a young Paul Pierce wandered into his life. The early morning sessions were rigorous workouts, but filled with enthusiasm and sports talk. Pierce noted recently, "I want to thank Scott for not just being a father figure to me, but for the city of Inglewood."

Lt. Collins went on to guide and mentor other notable athletes including Stais Boseman (USC basketball), Lawrence Jackson (NFL) and Jason Hart (USC assistant basketball coach). While mentoring and giving so much of himself, Lt. Collins had to endure the greatest hardship that a father might experience. During that period, he was conflicted with being able to reach so many other youth through his coaching and mentoring... but was also concerned if his own son might fall victim to the streets. In 2005, Lt. Collins' son was shot and murdered in North Las Vegas. Only now is he ready to talk about his overwhelming worries during that time about his son

"Something that I have learned in my life, as a result of becoming a parent, is that my one of my greatest joys was experiencing the birth of my kids and raising them," Lt. Collins said. "My greatest pain has been the death of my son, Steven Joshua Collins. But I am a person who loves life, and I love living. My son's death has given me the ultimate courage and strength to carry on in my life with him as my guardian angel above."

This is Jay Gerren's second documentary feature. His first, entitled Searching for Mentors, can now be seen on Amazon. "We are in the final edits of the film and we hope to have it in front of the viewing audience soon," Gerren said.

My Brigadista Year Buoys No Bromides About Cuba

Reviewed By Tommy Vinh Bui, MLIS, Associate Librarian, Inglewood Public Library

With all the commotion and cacophonous current events centering upon Cuba as of late, I thought it appropriate to cover a young adult book that approaches this Caribbean country in a positive light. It serves as a timely reminder that this charming island nation is much more than just the center of entrenched historical turmoil of missile crises, embargos and frayed diplomatic ties. There're positives too. And those positives are ably accentuated in Katherine Paterson's well-crafted and unconventional Cuban coming-of-age bildungsroman My Brigadista Year.

The writer inveigles us to reconsider preconceived perceptions of Cuba with this highly readable and enriching historical novel. The narrative follows teenage Lora as she submits to her patriotic vigor and volunteers to leave Havana to teach literacy in the impoverished villages of Cuba. Against the wishes of her family, she enlists in a small brigade of youth educators whose unwavering mandate is to promote learning and a love for reading. Often in the most remote and far-flung of jungle locales. My Brigadista Year deftly delves into notions of courage in the face of self-doubt and daringly delivers a tale of newfound resoluteness that should prove inspirational to young readers. It should especially appeal to readers interested in the feats of this little-known legion of life-long learners that stalwartly champion the power of words and empower vulnerable communities. It is history roundly resuscitated and revivified to retell an endearing story of self-discovery.

Profoundly personal and primed with pathos, this story parries convention and pulls no emotional punches.

This well-researched Cuban chronicle just drips with authenticity and accuracy. The narrative sheds light on an exceptional moment in history with a country at a critical crossroad of transition and revolutionary flux and change. The Cuban Literacy Campaign managed to raise the national literacy rate from a nadir of 60 percent to a remarkable 96 percent. It was no small feat and one that was effusively heartening for the future of the Cuban people.

The narrative is compelling and produces plenty of thrills and flutters of the heart. Young Lora wrests with her own insecurities and inner conflicts throughout the novel. A plot peppered with true travails that are seemingly insurmountable test her resolve. It's a fish-out-of-water story and she must adapt quickly to the harsh demands of rural living and her new role as an educator seeking to abolish illiteracy. She wobbles slightly at first, but really undergoes a considerable transformation as the novel progresses. Her determination and grit win out resoundingly. We follow along and experience every high and low as Lora does. We watch her mature and collect hard-won wisdom and really come of age before our eyes. She taught, yes, but also learned sage life lessons herself. It amounts to a riveting reportage of self-realization. The story is equal parts The Motorcycle Diaries, Jane Eyre and The Dead Poet's Society. It's an enthralling combination.

So all in all, it's a whole-hearted recommendation for this shrewdly structured story of strength, persistence and social awakening. This is a book that instills a sense of pride and moral responsibility in the very act of cracking open a book. So quick-march on down to the local bookery and foment an incisive insurrection via the radical act of reading. •

Tommy Vinh Bui.

News for the City of Good Neighbors from an Old Guy Named Norb Huber

HAWTHORNE PARKS FOUNDATION GOLF TOURNAMENT

Just a little wind didn't prevent us from having a great day of golf out at Industry Hills Golf Course this past Monday for the 29th Annual Hawthorne Parks Foundation Golf Tournament. The results are in: Team Huber: 4th Place, Team Bare Elegance: 3rd Place, Team Miller: 1st Place and Team HPD: Last Place. The takeaways: Me and my team members are working too many hours and have no time to practice. The strip club guys were distracted by their employees. Miller always wins. And the men in blue are better shots with their guns than their clubs. It was a fun day and we raised $10K for the refurbishing of the Hawthorne swimming pool's locker rooms.

UPCOMING EVENTS ON HAWTHORNE'S CALENDAR

April 21: Earth Day/Service Providers Fair at Memorial Park; April 22: Volunteer Appreciation Day at Memorial Center – 2 p.m.; April 28: Relay for Life 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Hawthorne HS Track (12 hours only this year); April 28: Resolve to Rise Workshop; May 12: Hawthorne 5K Run and Health Fair at Hawthorne HS Track; May 19: Hawthorne Hall of Fame Banquet – Ayres Hotel; May 24: K-9 Community BBQ Dinner. This Saturday at our Memorial Park will be our annual Service Provider Fair and Earth Day Celebration. Exhibitors, entertainment and food will all be on the agenda for that day. Councilwoman Angie Reyes English has sponsored this event for the past nine years. As always, there will be bikes raffled off to the kids.

VETERANS BENEFITS DAY

The Hawthorne Veteran Affairs Commission is sponsoring their 2nd Annual Veterans Benefits Day on Saturday, April 28th from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Hawthorne Memorial Center located at 3901 W. El Segundo Blvd in Hawthorne. There will be presenters from the DAV, UCLA Family Therapy, US Vets, WLA VA Hospital and many more. There will be exhibitors from many organizations that are there to help vets. Lunch will be provided to the first 250 people who register.

Look them up on Facebook and register early.

NATIONAL NIGHT OF PRAYER

The Hawthorne/Lawndale Ministerial Association invites you to attend their annual National Day of Prayer Service on Thursday, May

3 at the South Bay Celebration Assembly beginning at 7 p.m. The theme for the service this year is Unity in faith based on Ephesians 4:3: "Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace."

HALL OF FAME BANQUET

The Hawthorne Historical Society will be holding their fourth Hawthorne Hall of Fame Banquet on Saturday, May 19th at 6 p.m. at the Ayres Hotel located at 14400 Hindry Avenue in Hawthorne. The class of 2018 inductees include: Joe Contestabile, The Hawthorne Kiwanis Club, Phillips Plumbing and Heating, Chet Pipkin, and Emitt Rhodes. The MC for the evening's program will be Christina Pascucci, KTLA anchor. It looks like another great event for the residents of Hawthorne to celebrate the accomplishments of some great people and organizations. For more information: hawthornehistorical@gmail.com.

BITTERSWEET, MIXED EMOTIONS OR JUST ENJOYING THE FINAL STRETCH?

A friend asked me if my final days of teaching were bittersweet? I think anyone who has worked at a career for any length of time goes through a period of mixed emotions. I really have enjoyed my time in the classroom. I look back at how much the kids have given back to me. They have kept me young, at least I feel younger than my looks. Yes, there have been "pains" along the way. There have been stress filled, outright disasters of days, and days that I have hurt people with my words. But through it all, maybe a few young minds have been inspired. Teaching has allowed me to be me. I try to be real. High school students can see right through you and know if you are a phony. As all 14 of you know, I like to have fun. I like to laugh and maybe get others to laugh with or at me. I guess I can say the same thing about you folks. Most of you have figured out that my self degradation is simply a way of amusing, entertaining and setting the hook for you to keep reading until I can drop the God loves you and have a cold one line. I'm blessed. Blessed by God to have friends, family and cold ones in my garage refrigerator ready to pop open when life gets tiring.

PETSPETS PETSPETS Precious Pooches

Billie

We are looking for volunteers to help with our pet adoption fairs which are held every Saturday at the Petco located at 537 N. Pacific Coast Hwy., Redondo Beach 90277, from noon to 3: 30 p.m. If you are interested in volunteering and can commit to at least one Saturday a month, please contact us at info@msfr.org. You can also visit all of our Miniature Schnauzers & Friends rescues at the adoption fair or check out our website, www.msfr.org. If you have any questions about a particular dog's availability, you can email us at info@msfr.org. Schnauzers! Bet you can't adopt just one.

"Hi there! I am Billie, a 2-year-old, male Miniature Schnauzer mix who was homeless and living on the streets of Tijuana. My companion Holiday -- who could possibly be related to me -- and I decided to take a trip with friends and ventured south of the border for a weekend of fun. Unfortunately, we missed our ride home. without any place to stay, we ended up living on the street. Holiday has quite a voice, so we made our living as street entertainers until a rescue group rounded us up and returned us to the USA. They contacted the folks at MSFR, who were kind enough to take us in and are helping us find our forever homes. It has been decided that my mix could be Doxie because I have a longer, trim, 14-pound body with legs that are very sturdy but a bit short. I'm still very playful and have retained my puppyish charm that endears me to people and other dogs. I guess that's why I get along well with everyone."

If you're interested in Billie, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

"I've been named Flora, which is of Latin origin, and means flower. It's absolutely the perfect name for a tiny 10-pound gal, as I continue to bloom under the care of my foster folks. I have to tell you that when I was found by animal control and taken to an LA county shelter, I was nothing short of a mess. I had to be placed in the medical building because of a disgusting and painful skin condition. I won't get too graphic, but the sores and inflammation were so bad that I didn't even want to be touched. I certainly was not adoptable in that condition and that's when the big-hearted MSFR folks rescued me. They took me straight to their veterinarian where several different skin tests were performed and the final diagnosis was that my condition was called demodectic mange. Plus, I also had an ear infection. Thankfully, the mange wasn't contagious. So I just spent a few days at the animal hospital receiving treatment. Amazingly, I responded so well that I was looking and feeling much better after only one treatment and a medicated bath. It has been a bit of a rough road for this 4-year old, female, purebred Miniature Schnauzer -- but I know the best is yet to come! If you're looking for a petite youngster to share your life, I'm definitely the gal for you. I will admit that children are not my favorite people and I would be best in a home without them. That said, I get along great with other dogs. However, I also do just fine by myself."

If you're interested in Flora, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

"My name is Fritz and I was truly living the good life - until recently. You see, my human mom had rescued me from the Laguna Beach shelter when I was a year old and for 10 years we had the most wonderful, happy, loving life. Then my mom passed away and now I'm a senior dog looking for a guardian angel to adopt me. I'm a small Dachshund mix who is in good health and my medical records are readily available to see. I had spinal surgery from one of the top docs in Orange County California, but now I can run and walk with the best of them. Since my surgery, I do need to wear a harness and can't be pulled by a collar/leash around my neck. I recently fractured three teeth and had to have them extracted, but I'm still on my same diet of kibble hydrated with water and can eat nutritious snacks. I am really a sweetie who gets along with children, but am not real enthusiastic about living with them. My favorite things in the whole world are to snuggle and go places with my family. While I prefer to sleep in bed with my humans... if that doesn't work for you, I'm happy sleeping in my own cozy bed. You can see that I would be a great addition to any family and I'm looking for my forever family to share all of the love and companionship I have to give."

If interested in Fritz, please contact Lynne of Whisker & Tails Foundation at amano@ whiskerstails.org. •

> Saving one animal won't change the world, but the world will surely change for that animal.

Congratulations to Ryan, now named Duke, and his new family.

Congratulations to Ryan and his new family, brothers, his mom and dad and a couple of They recently lost their Miniature Schnauzer to cancer and their other dog Tootie was really lonely. The dog they lost and Tootie are both MSFR alumni, so it's no surprise they came to us to find the perfect new addition to their family. Ryan, now named Duke, joins Tootie, two human
