City Council Authorizes Franchise for ExxonMobil to Operate Pipeline

By Cristian Vasquez

The Inglewood City Council approved Ordinance No. 15-12 to allow ExxonMobil Oil Corporation to operate and maintain an underground, crude oil pipeline in the city for the next 20 years.

Approval for the 20-year franchise is the result of negotiations between the City of Inglewood and ExxonMobil, which began on July 27, 2011 when the city received a notification request from ExxonMobil to extend the operation of Pipeline M-70. The pipeline in question runs across the city from La Cienega Boulevard and Industrial Avenue and ends at Inglewood Avenue and Century Boulevard.

This is not the first 20-year franchise that ExxonMobil obtained to maintain the "16-inch diameter, 11,050 lineal feet underground transmission pipeline." On June 30, 1992 the council and mayor approved Ordinance No. 92-07 a franchise to allow the oil company to operate the pipeline, which transports crude oil from Central California to the Mobil refinery in the City of Torrance.

The staff report indicates that in-line inspections are performed every five years in order to ensure the safety and integrity of the pipeline, with the most recent inspection having taken place Feb. 21, 2013 and the next scheduled inspection due on Feb. 21, 2018.

"The operation and maintenance of Pipeline M-70 is subject to the provisions of Pipeline Safety Act of 1981, the American National Standard Code for Pressure Piping, The American Petroleum Institute Standard 1104 and other applicable federal, state and local standards," indicates the staff report presented. "Available information indicates that ExxonMobil has operated Pipeline M-70 in accordance with the applicable regulations since its construction in 1993."

Since the approval of Ordinance No. 92-07 in 1992, ExxonMobil committed to paying the city an annual franchise fee at a rate of $3.75 per lineal foot of pipeline. The fee is subject to adjustments, which must be authorized by "producer price index for all commodities" as they are established and defined by the Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The fees received by the city during the past four years are as follows: the year 2010, $65,465.67; the year 2011, $72,259.95; the year 2012, $71,587.50; the year 2013, $72,259.95; and the year 2014, $73,604.65. The city and ExxonMobil agreed to a reduction in the lineal footage of the pipeline from 11,050 feet to 11,001 feet.

"Available information indicates that ExxonMobil has operated Pipeline M-70 in accordance with the applicable regulations since its construction in 1993."

Since the public hearing hosted by the city council to introduce the new ordinance [No. 15-12], and with its approval, the city will now receive an annual fee of $41,253.75, which will be adjusted based on producer price index.

COUNCIL SAYS YES TO MOU WITH LEGAL AID FOUNDATION OF LA

The mayor and council approved a Memorandum of Understanding between the City of Inglewood and Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles, Los Angeles

Law Library and Palmdale City Library in order to provide additional access to comprehensive legal services for low- and very-low income persons throughout the county.

"The purpose of this program is to increase access to legal services for very low and low-income people who would have difficulty traveling to a LAFLA [Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles] office to get assistance," states the staff report. "Applicants for LAFLA services and existing LAFLA clients will use the Chromebooks at one of the partner libraries to remotely link with a LAFLA staff member."

It is expected that through such interface communication, applicants will be allowed to participate in LAFLA workshops and presentations or communicate with LAFLA lawyers without being required to commute.

"By incorporating GoToMeeting interface and the use of printer/copier/scanner devices, clients will also be able to exchange and execute documents remotely, thus increasing the efficiency of the remote exchange," concluded the staff report.

LAFLA is dedicated to increasing access to comprehensive legal services for poor and low-income Los Angeles County residents. For more than 85 years LAFLA has been the first place for thousands of people to approach when in need of legal aid when a crisis threatens their source of "shelter, health and livelihood."

The City of Inglewood, along with partner libraries, will store and safeguard project equipment; provide space for clients videoconferencing and assist LAFLA clients. Outreach efforts will take place and the agreement will be valid until Dec. 31, 2016. •

News for the ‘City of Good Neighbors’

From City Clerk Norb Huber

5K RUN AND HAWTHORNE HEALTH FAIR – SATURDAY MAY 9

The Hawthorne Education Foundation’s Health Fair and 5K Run allows hundreds of kids from our local schools the opportunity to participate in a health promoting event. The event will be held on Saturday, May 9th this year. The kids and their parents run or walk in the 5K event early in the morning and then the health fair has many booths that are set up at the Memorial Park distributing health information to those in attendance. There are a lot of “freebies” given out to promote healthy lifestyles. I’ll see you at the starting line for the 5K run. I will be in the 60+ age group.

9K COMMUNITY DINNER – THURSDAY MAY 21

The Hawthorne Police Department uses every means available to them to protect and serve us. We have a great helicopter above, we have new squad cars racing to respond to 911 emergency calls, we have the latest in technology to fight the bad guys. But, one of the most valuable weapons at the disposal of our team are the K9 dogs who are highly trained to search and seek out suspects hiding, or they may find evidence of a crime. Each year the Presidents’ Council of Hawthorne sponsors a community chicken dinner to raise funds in support of the HPD K9 program. Over the year, thousands of dollars have been raised to keep the program going. It is one of the best police/community events held in our city annually. This year the dinner will be held on Thursday, May 21 from 5 to 6:30 p.m. at the Memorial Center. Tickets are $5 and only $2.50 for children. There is a big raffle and the dogs are there to meet the community. Make plans to support our Hawthorne Police Department by attending.

WORRY, WORRY, WORRY

We have a lot to worry about. The newspaper or television brings us much to get anxious about. Here are just a few: It’s not “if” but “when” the “Big One” hit Southern California, the riots in Baltimore remind us of our past and how quickly it could happen again here, our drought could last for many years and our water could be rationed. Cancer is all around us. We hear of friends being diagnosed with the disease. With all of this to worry about, we get stressed out with our day to day worries. Some times we just want to move to an isolated place and hide from it all. Through all of this stuff, I believe that there is a supreme being that is in charge of things. It’s not that we don’t prepare and try to prevent bad things from happening, but bad things do happen and bad things happen to good people. After doing our best to be prepared, we should relax and rely on God to take care of the big things. Worry really doesn’t help us too much. It only brings more anxiety. The best advice is to kick back, have a cold one and watch the Dodgers, if you have Time Warner.

23 YEARS AGO

The looting and violence in Baltimore this week reminded many of us of the Rodney King Riots that took place this very week 23 years ago. On the morning of May 1, 1992 I was awoken by a phone call from then city Planning Director, Mike Goodson, informing me that the Lutheran High School’s Thrift Shop located at the corner of 132nd and Prairie Avenue had been fire bombed the night before and it was pretty well destroyed. Since I was the principal of LHS, I kind of had a stake in the wellbeing of the store since it supplied us with much needed income. Our shop was the only building in Hawthorne to be totally destroyed in the violence. My neighbor and I drove over to sift through the ashes of what was left of the crowded store that had wall to wall clothing and other very flammable items. All that was left were the outside block walls of the building. We were blessed to find another building two blocks north on Prairie and we had our shop back open by mid-summer. This week’s riots just reminded us of how quickly things can happen and change for a model city like Baltimore and it certainly can happen any where, including Hawthorne.

Early Planning Before Alzheimer’s Strikes

By R. Christine Brown

You never know what the future holds, so early planning for late-in-life health issues is essential.

For instance, you may notice that a loved one seems more disorganized than usual. Bills may pile up. The loved one may have difficulty remembering names and fumble for the right words. See a doctor if there are concerns. Alzheimer’s and most forms of dementia are progressive. This means it will get worse over a few years.

Even before a diagnosis, it is important for people to discuss with their families how they would like to be helped. This includes who will be the primary caregiver and who will help with finances. According to a recent USA TODAY article, titled “Financial planning for dementia,” a person with dementia often feels insecure that he or she will lose control and everyone else will tell him what to do, but conversations can help a person feel more independent and help families avoid misunderstandings.

Everyone should have a will, power of attorney and medical directive, and some find it helpful to have revocable living trust. Without these documents, a court may be required to appoint someone. This can be expensive, frustrating, and time-consuming.

In the course of the disease, a person may need help with a few acts of daily living and may have trouble communicating. At this point, someone else should take care of all financial matters, and it might be time to look at assisted living as the next step.

Healthcare costs for dementia patients can be substantial. It is very important to provide for the financial security of a healthy spouse. That is why it is a good idea to speak to an elder law attorney—he or she may be able to help a family protect some (or even most) assets and income for the healthy spouse.

You should also consider the financial challenges associated with Alzheimer’s disease and dementia, which can be substantial. Also, the choices for care can be overwhelming. An elder law attorney is a helpful resource to help you and your families manage costs and find the right care for your parent or relative.

Please visit our website for information on elder law and estate planning issues, and sign up for our free monthly e-newsletter. The archive on our website contains numerous blog posts on these legal areas as well. You can also “friend” us on Facebook (R Christine Brown) to receive periodic posts on elder law issues. •

Purrrfect Companions

Anastasia

Springtime is the purr-fect time to bring home a new feline friend. Kitties of every color and size are waiting to meet you.

Anastasia is a very sweet, cuddly, playful little girl who enjoys the simple things in life, like wet food, mouse toys, and strings. She was rescued from a shelter after her owner passed away, leaving behind Anastasia and 14 of her playmates. She's great with dogs, kids, and other kitties. Can you help her find her forever home?

Margot is a sweet kitten full of sugar and spice and everything nice. With her beautiful tuxedo coat and round golden eyes, she is growing into a lovely little kitty. Margot has a sweet disposition and enjoys being on your lap to have her back and shoulders rubbed while she resonates a continuous purr. She is an active girl who will jump in the air for her favorite toy on a string and enjoys batting the ball in her blue "donut" toy. Margot will lie at your side, and then paw gently at you, so happy to just to be with you. She is submissive with other cats and makes friends easily at her foster home. Margot has excellent litter box manners and loves to use her cardboard scratching post.

Figaro is a very handsome, four-year-old boy. Just look at his subtle, dark gray spots and wild-cat face which may come from Bengal cat genes. Figaro has a lot of energy, and loves to play! He's also a smart, gentle, nice guy who would love nothing more than to snuggle with you in bed when you wake up, and when you come home! He will always greet you when you get home—ask about your day and tell you all about his. He loves giving hugs, and knows how to do it just like a person, wrapping his paws gently around your neck and rubbing his face against your neck and shoulders. All Figaro wants to do is have someone to love, and someone who will love him back.

Bosco is a devilishly handsome boy who is waiting for a special someone! He would do well someone who has experience with kitties and maybe also be male. Bosco came into foster care with a very classic case of "solo and neglected kitten syndrome," which unfortunately means he did not know the difference between a "nip" and a bite. But with encouragement and patience, he has learned the error of his ways! This sweet boy is very loving, but lacks proper feline social skills so he tends to intimidate other cats who take his in-your-face approach as aggression. He actually does very well with crabby older females who won't let him get away with anything! He is not afraid of dogs at all. Bosco thinks its fun to whack the dogs on the side as they pass by, so he would be fine with a confident dog who would ignore his silly antics. The best way to describe Bosco is "socially awkward" - we think that makes him just a touch more endearing.

Mimi is so very sweet and gets along with all the people and other animals in her foster home. She has two awesome brothers, "Zachary" and "Rufus" who are good kitties just like her. As a young teenager (in cat terms that's about 10 months old), Mimi is super playful, but she also likes to chill out and cuddle. Come meet Mimi; she's hoping she'll be your purr-fect match.

These kitties (and puppy) are available for adoption through Kitten Rescue, one of the largest cat rescue groups in Southern California. All of our kitties are spayed/neutered, microchipped, tested for FeLV and FIV, dewormed and current on their vaccinations. For additional information and to see these or our other kittens and cats, please check our website www.kittenrescue.org or email us at mail@kittenrescue.org. Your tax deductible donations for the rescue and care of our cats and kittens can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to Kitten Rescue, 914 Westwood Blvd. #583, Los Angeles, CA 90024.

On Saturdays, we have adoptions from noon to 3:30 p.m. in Westchester at 8655 Lincoln Blvd. just south of Manchester Ave. and also in Mar Vista at 3860 Centinela Ave, just south of Venice Boulevard. Our website lists additional adoption sites and directions to each location. •

Happy Tails

Handsome Landau was adopted at an area shelter and then returned 4 months later because he didn't sit on his adopter's lap at the times she wanted him to accommodate her. However, going back into the system, Landau was re-assigned his original entry date which indicated he had been there for months (not true) thus putting him at the top of the euthanasia list. Kitten Rescue swooped him out of there and waited until the purr-fect match was found for this adorable Maine Coon boy.

Landau was initially a little too rough with his new family, not quite sure what this new transition would bring. But with every passing day and his family's patience, he is settling into his true self, letting go of his built-up anxiety from being shuffled around and having to be around so many different cats. His family loves him and are so incredible in working with him! When Landau got excited, he would sometimes stalk and attack them. But they found just blowing in his face or throwing a toy to distract him, it immediately dissipated his energy, settling him right down into a normal kitty. Each day, Landau continues to unwind more and more. His family truly loves him to pieces. Congratulations, Landau on your purr-fect match! •

Landau has found the perfect new family to help him adjust.

Perez Walkoff Hit Lifts Cougars

Hawthorne pitcher Carrie Ludman winds up as she throws to a Culver City batter during last Thursday's Ocean League softball game. The Cougars host Santa Monica in a key league game today at 3:15 p.

A walkoff single by Vanessa Perez helped Hawthorne High's softball team to a 4-3 win over Culver City in a key Ocean League game last Thursday at Hawthorne. With one out in the bottom of the seventh inning, Perez singled home Fa Leilua from second base that helped the Cougars even their league record to 2-2.

"It was a nice walk-off hit," Eduardo Perez, Hawthorne assistant coach to head mentor Jerry Contreras, said. "It will only make us better."

With one out in the bottom of the seventh, Leilua walked. Elizabeth Cortez, then, hit to the Culver City shortstop but her throw was dropped by its second baseman and both runners were safe. Perez then singled to right, bringing home Leilua.

The Centaurs were leading 3-2 entering the bottom of the fifth but Hawthorne (12-4 overall) tied the game when Natalie Rocha's sacrifice fly to left field brought home Leilua, who began the inning by being hit by a pitch.

Culver, which is 5-6 overall and 2-2 in Ocean play, took an early 2-0 lead in the top of the first on a two-run double from Melody Rodriguez, but the Cougars quickly tied the game in the bottom of the inning on a two-run home run by Leilua. A run-scoring single from Sabrina Perez gave the Centaurs a 3-2 lead in the top of the third.

The winning pitcher for Hawthorne was Carrie Ludman, who came in the third inning in relief of starter Alyssa Casillas. Ludman pitched five innings allowing no runs on three hits. Casillas gave up all three runs (one earned) in two-plus innings for the Cougars.

At Hawthorne on April 21, the Cougars took a very good El Segundo team to nine innings before falling 3-1 in league play. Last Saturday, Hawthorne played in the El Segundo Tournament and began with a 12-10 victory over Village Christian from Sun Valley.

The Cougars got things going with five runs in the top of the first and led 12-5 entering the bottom of the sixth before Village

Christian made it close with five runs. The contest was marred by a combined total of 10 errors, three by Hawthorne and seven from Village Christian.

After visiting Ocean rival Lawndale last Tuesday, the Cougars will host Ocean power and defending CIF-Southern Section Division III champion Santa Monica in another key league game Friday at 3:15 p.m. Hawthorne plays in the El Segundo Tournament Saturday before resuming Ocean at home against Beverly Hills next Tuesday at 3:15 p.m.

LEUZINGER FALLS TO NORTH

Leuzinger High's softball team lost to North Torrance 11-3 in a Pioneer League game last Friday at Leuzinger. Amaya Eubanks sparked the Olympians by going three-for-three with two runs batted in. Abby Alexander sparked the Saxons, the top ranked team in the CIF-Southern Section Division IV, by going two-for-two and driving in four runs. Leuzinger fell to 4-10 overall and 0-4 in league.

BEVERLY HILLS SWEEPS HAWTHORNE

Hawthorne High's mostly young and inexperienced baseball team fell to 0-4 in the Ocean League by losing two games to Beverly Hills last week. At Beverly Hills on April 21, the Cougars lost to the Normans 3-2. At Hawthorne last Thursday, the Cougars lost to Beverly 7-1.

In the first game, Hawthorne began with a 2-0 lead in the top of the second but went scoreless the rest of the game. The Normans went on to score one run apiece in the bottom of the third, fourth and sixth innings. Freshman Daniel Sanchez went one-for-three and drove in a run for the Cougars, who had just two hits in the game. Junior Jamal Evans and sophomore Charles Phelps each scored for Hawthorne.

Phelps pitched six innings allowing three earned runs on four hits. Last Thursday, Beverly Hills started fast with five runs in the top of the first inning and never looked back. The Cougars scored in the bottom of the seventh inning on a hit by Jamal Evans, bringing home Max Riley. Relief pitcher Sanchez, who took over from Garcia, pitched five and two-thirds innings allowing two runs on four hits. He struck out five batters and walked one.

Things will not get any better as Hawthorne plays two games against powerful El Segundo, ranked fourth in the CIF-Southern Section

Division III, this week. After hosting the Eagles last Tuesday, the Cougars visit El Segundo at Stevenson Field today at 3:15 p.m. The Eagles are coming off two wins over Culver City last week. Hawthorne hosts Culver City next Tuesday at the same time.

LEUZINGER FALLS TO TORRANCE

Leuzinger High's baseball team lost both games to defending CIF-Southern Section Division IV champion Torrance in Pioneer League games last week but the Olympians should be proud of their second game. Leuzinger only lost to the Tartars, who are rebuilding after their 2014 CIF championship and are 5-17 overall, 3-1 last Friday at Leuzinger.

The Olympians took a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the first inning; only to see Torrance (2-2 in league) tie the game in the top of the second and add two in the sixth. At Torrance's Kendall Field on April 22, Leuzinger was shut out by the Tartars 13-0. Leuzinger has home games against South Torrance Friday and North Torrance next Wednesday, both at 3:15 p.m. •

Hawthorne High's Natalie Rocha leads off first base during last Thursday's Ocean League softball game against Culver City. The Cougars edged the Centaurs 4-3.6.

Learn About This Home Improvement That Can Save You Money

(BPT) - For many homeowners the biggest utility bill is electricity. Heating and cooling the home makes up nearly half of electricity costs, but the next biggest source is the water heater. Water heaters can account for up to 25 percent of total household energy use. Taking steps to improve the energy efficiency of a home with better insulation and more efficient furnaces and air conditioners can reduce energy costs significantly, as can making sure water heaters are operating properly.

However, purchasing a high efficiency water heater does little good if the environment in which it operates is not right. The main culprit in reducing the efficiency of water heaters is hard water. Nearly 90 percent of American homes have hard water which contains high levels of calcium and magnesium. These minerals cause scaling, a buildup that clogs waterlines and plumbing forcing appliances to work harder and operate less efficiently.

Hard water can reduce the efficiency of water heaters and increase electricity costs by as much as 48 percent according to the Battelle Memorial Institute.

The problem can be particularly severe with electric water heaters. These can accumulate up to 30 pounds of calcium carbonate, a rock-like scale, eventually damaging the heating element which will have to be replaced. The cost of hard water is not higher just because of reduced energy efficiency and higher electric bills; hard water also damages appliances like water heaters, dish washers, shower heads and faucets. These must be repaired and replaced more often as a result.

To determine if you have hard water, look for spots and scale build-up on fixtures. “A less obvious indication is the lack of that luxury feeling of a hot shower you get at a nice hotel,” says Michael Mecca of Performance Water Products. “That feeling is not because of the nice towels and soaps. It’s because nice hotels use soft water not only for their guests’ benefit but also to protect their investments in boilers, piping and fixtures.”

Kitchens benefit from soft water as well because soft water is up to 12 times more effective at cleaning dishes than increasing the amount of detergent used. Researchers also found that for washing machines, the most important factor in removing stains from clothing was water softness. Reduction of water hardness was up to 100 times more effective at stain removal than increasing the detergent dose or washing with hotter water. In fact, soft water can reduce soap use by as much as half.

Many water treatment companies offer free tests to homeowners to measure the degree of hardness in the water and offer appropriate systems that fit. “Hardness in water can vary widely in some parts of the country and pipe size, number of bathrooms, number of people in the house, types of showerheads and intended use all need to be considered for the right system,” says Mecca.

The only way to truly remove the calcium and magnesium from household water systems is with a salt-based water softener. These remove the scaling in the pipes entirely by running the incoming hard water through a resin filter that traps the calcium and magnesium in the water - as well as any iron, manganese or radium ions. It then replaces them with sodium ions.

A salt-based water softener is one home improvement that will not only pay for itself but add value to a home. A properly sized quality water softener appliance can save a homeowner thousands of dollars over its life in reduced soap and detergent costs, electricity, efficiency and extended life for expensive appliances. •

Earth-Size Telescope Expands to South Pole to See Black Holes in Detail

Based on press release from University of Arizona, provided by Bob Eklund

Astronomers building an Earth-size virtual telescope capable of photographing the event horizon of the black hole at the center of our Milky Way have extended their instrument to the bottom of the Earth—the South Pole—thanks to recent efforts by a team led by Dan Marrone of the University of Arizona.

Marrone, an assistant professor in the UA's Department of Astronomy and Steward Observatory, and several colleagues flew to the National Science Foundation's Amundsen-Scott South Pole Station in December to bring the South Pole Telescope, or SPT, into the largest virtual telescope ever built—the Event Horizon Telescope, or EHT. By combining telescopes across the Earth, the EHT will take the first detailed pictures of black holes.

The EHT is an array of radio telescopes connected using a technique known as very long baseline interferometry, or VLBI. Larger telescopes can make sharper observations, and interferometry allows multiple telescopes to act like a single telescope as large as the separation—or “baseline”—between them. “Now that we’ve done VLBI with the

SPT, the Event Horizon Telescope really does span the whole Earth, from the Submillimeter Telescope on Mount Graham in Arizona, to California, Hawaii, Chile, Mexico, Spain and the South Pole,” Marrone said. “The baselines to SPT give us two to three times more resolution than our past arrays, which is absolutely crucial to the goals of the EHT. To verify the existence of an event horizon, the ‘edge’ of a black hole, and more generally, to test Einstein’s theory of general relativity, we need a very detailed picture of a black hole. With the full EHT, we should be able to do this.” The prime EHT target is the Milky Way’s black hole, known as Sagittarius A* (pronounced “A-star”). Even though it is 4 million times more massive than the Sun, it is tiny to the eyes of astronomers. Because it is smaller than Mercury’s orbit around the Sun, yet almost 26,000 light-years away, studying its event horizon in detail is equivalent to standing in California and reading the date on a penny in New York. With its unprecedented resolution, more than 1,000 times better than the Hubble Space Telescope, the EHT will see swirling gas on its final plunge over the event horizon, never to regain contact with the rest of the universe. If the theory of general relativity is correct, the black hole itself will be invisible because not even light can escape its immense gravity.

First postulated by Albert Einstein’s general theory of relativity, the existence of black holes has since been supported by decades’ worth of astronomical observations. Most if not all galaxies are now believed to harbor a supermassive black hole at their center, and smaller ones formed from dying stars should be scattered among their stars. The Milky Way is known to be home to about 25 smallish black holes ranging from five to 10 times the Sun’s mass. But never has it been possible to directly observe and image one of these cosmic oddities.

Weighing 280 tons and standing 75 feet tall, the SPT sits at an elevation of 9,300 feet on the polar plateau at Amundsen-Scott, which is located at the geographic South Pole. The University of Chicago built SPT with funding and logistical support from the NSF’s Division of Polar Programs. The division manages the U.S. Antarctic Program, which coordinates all U.S. research on the southernmost continent. •
