IPD and SBWIB Host Teen Dialogue

The Inglewood Teen Center hosted its first Student-Police Dialogue Program August 19, 2015, for area youth, ages 13-18. The goal of the dialogue was to provide youth with a better understanding of law enforcement by answering questions that students were curious about. The discussion also centered on student rights, responsibilities, appropriate police/youth interaction, policies, and current events. Pictured is a group of students listening to Inglewood Police Officers at one of several tables during a small informal breakout session during the event. ## Host Agency Agreement Reached Between City, SER-SCSEP

By Cristian Vasquez

Through the recommendation of the city's Parks, Recreation and Library Services Department, the Inglewood City Council approved a host agency agreement with SER-Senior Community Resource Employment Program [SER-SCSEP] that will provide subsidies and senior citizen workers for a wide-range of positions until June 30, 2016.

In order for the City of Inglewood to receive, and continue receiving Title V workers [define Title V workers], it is mandated that a renewal of the existing agreement be approved. Furthermore, the city is responsible for any training that is required, as well as the supervision of all program participants.

"As host agency, the City will utilize senior workers to provide services to senior citizens, youth, and families through Parks, Recreation and Library Services Department," states the staff reported presented to the council and signed by Parks, Recreation and Library Services Director Director Sabrina Barnes. "Job development and placement, payment of salaries, and contributions to the State Worker's Compensation Fund are the responsibility of SER-SCSEP."

In 1975 the City of Inglewood entered various agreements with Los Angeles County's Project Ayuda and SER-SCSEP in order to better provide employment opportunities for the city's senior citizens. Each agency is financed through federal funds obtained though Title V of the Older Americans Act. The Older Americans Act was enacted to "foster and promote" useful part-time employment opportunities for all individuals older than 55 years of age and in great economic need. The City of Inglewood is one of many agencies, including public and non-profits, which enter host agency agreements in order to provide adequate and meaningful training opportunities for senior workers. As of the renewal of the agreement, there were a total of nine SER worker placed in within the city's Parks, Recreation and Library Services Department.

State Non-Profit To Provide Free Meals To Local Youths

The Inglewood Mayor and City Council approved the adoption of a resolution granting One Hundred and Eighty Degrees and Still Standing [180SS] the ability and authority to provide free suppers and snacks to kids in the city 18 and younger, during out-of-school time programs.

The meals, which would be provided through the Parks, Recreation and Library Services Department, will be funded through a provision of the Child and Adult Care Food Program [CACFP] from Aug. 24, 2015-June 9, 2016.

On Sept. 9, 2014 the mayor and council adopted a resolution [No. 14-110] in order to allow 180SS to provide free suppers through the same provisions of CACFP from Sept. 15, 2014-June 19, 2015. The meals benefited every resident younger than 18 under the City's After School Recreation Program [ASRP] sites, Darby and Rogers Parks, as well as the Crenshaw-Imperial and Inglewood Main Libraries.

"The CACFP has been a successful operation throughout this time and hundreds of Inglewood children and their families benefit from the program," states the staff report signed by Parks, Recreation and Library Services Director Sabrina Barnes. "Since 1997 the city has provided thousands of children free nutritious summer and after-school meals during out-of-school time, and thousands have been educated about eating healthy and physical activity habits in parks and recreation sites that provide healthy environments."

With permissions granted, it is expected that 180SS will provide an estimated 480 free suppers and 480 snacks from Monday through Friday. As of Aug. 24, and through June 9 of next year, CACFP will also operate the city's ASRP located on the following Inglewood Unified School District campuses: Bennet-Kew, Centinela, Highland, Hudnall, Kelso, Oak and Worthington Elementary Schools, as well as La Tijera Middle School and Frank D. Parent K-8 School.

The agreement will require 180SS to prepare the suppers and snacks by using menus that have been approved by the California Department of Education [CDE], as well as to deliver meals to each of the sites throughout the city. 180SS provides its own staff, equipment and transportation in order to carry out the obligations set by the food program.

"Both the City an 180SS will be subject to monitoring by State and Federal agencies," indicates the staff report. "By providing nutritious meals and nutritional education on healthy food choices coupled with our existing fitness activities, the City increases awareness and improves the health of the children we serve." •

The Delightful and Sharp Fun of Mistress America

By Ryan Rojas for CINEMACY

In some ways, director Noah Baumbach's third latest film also serves as the winning cap to a lovely themed trilogy of films – that of millennial-modern romantics figuring out life in lush and cinematic New York cityscapes. Following 2012's Frances Ha and last year's While We're Young, The New York born director returns with Mistress America, once again set to simultaneously explore, praise, her fiancé's own out-of-school-age daughter who lives nearby. Enter Brooke (Gerwig), who immediately and literally embraces her new step-sister and opens Tracy's eyes to a world of spontaneous adventures.

What makes Mistress America so fun (and it really is) is its intelligentsia-tinged hilariousness that here, channels screwball-styled comedy, showing how finely Baumbach and Gerwig have their fingers on this culture's hipster-pulsed and ponder the aimless intellectual wanderers of Generation Y in, a refreshingly hilarious screwball comedy.

On the whole, Mistress America feels more like the sister film to Frances Ha than the director's others, not particularly because the film is actually about a girl who becomes step-sisters with a very "Frances Hallowsay-like" character. Considering America was co-written by Baumbach and real-life girlfriend Greta Gerwig (who also co-wrote Frances Ha), it's no surprise that the film is charged with similarly clever observations and comedic rhythms about characters so creative and cultured, and yet so incompetent and existentially clumsy.

Two characters share these qualities. Relative newcomer Lola Kirke (Gone Girl) plays Tracy, an incoming Freshman Lit major with more creative writing ideas than friends. Her introduction to school is a lonely one, prompting her recently engaged mother to encourage her to meet up with zeitgeist. As While We're Young also explored the self-aware character study of studying the hipster-bohemian lifestyle (young and aging alike), America's Tracy, being all perceiving in her own right, looks at Brooke with empathy, channeling her new adventures and sister into her creative writing. Brooke's fun yet unrealistic and equally fleeting goals, such as intentions of opening a restaurant, excite an encourageable Tracy, but Brooke the character is ultimately filtered through Tracy's own writing, revealing a person whose tragic romance is at both times invigorating and unsustainable.

Mistress America contains whip-smart intellectual musings and dialogue, further enhanced by a deft use of quick-cut editing to mine real laughs and poignancy. Whether or not audiences are familiar with Baumbach's past work, Mistress America is a smart film that will entertain those looking for a riotously funny and understated comedy that counts among the director's most entertaining. Mistress America is now playing in select cities. •

NEXTDOOR – YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD CHAT POSTING SITE

Remember the days when you had two choices to contact someone. Call them up or send them a letter through the US postal service. Now, we can text them, we can send a message through Facebook or Twitter, we can facetime them on our phones, we can send an email, or we send a group posting. It's really not cool to use a landline phone and call someone on their home phone. Most likely they are screening their calls and your name and phone number will show up on their television. If you have not joined Nextdoor, you may want to check it out. It's a great way to know what is going on in your neighborhood. Once you join, you can post a question, tell your neighbors about a danger, or ask about a stray dog. It's a fun way to stay informed. You don't have to go next door to find out what is happening, you can just look at your phone or computer.

FAMILY

We all have one. Some of us have large families. Some of us come from a smaller family. But, no matter how many people are in our family, we all are part of a family. They come in different flavors. Close families, distant, dysfunctional, blended, extended, and multicultural families, they all make us related by blood, love or marriage. Some times our relatives are a challenge to get along with. Sibling rivalries and many times divorces create big divisions within the family structure. God has put us in a particular family unit to be part of that group to help and support one another. I'm flying up to Seattle this week to visit my sister and brother. Miles have separated us and our lives have been busy raising our kids and making our own livings. The years have passed and not as much communication has taken place to keep us very close. It will be good to reconnect, recount some of our past memories, and see how much each has aged. Families are a gift, we should cherish our time together.

Leuzinger, Morningside Gridders Begin Season Friday

By Joe Snyder

The 2015 prep football season kicks off Friday at 7 p.m. between Leuzinger and host Morningside at Coleman Stadium in Inglewood. Last season, both teams finished 4-6 overall with the Olympians going 1-4 in the highly competitive Torrance-school studded Pioneer League and the Monarchs going 0-5 in the rugged Bay League after a 4-1 non-league slate.

Leuzinger should have a mostly experienced line but its skilled positions face rebuilding. Perhaps the top returning starter for the Olympians is senior defensive lineman-tight end Semesi Lauaki, who was a first team all-Pioneer selection. Lauaki is being scouted by several Major Division I colleges, including UCLA, University of Utah and Boise State.

“He did real well in summer competitions and we’ll see how he does in the fall,” Leuzinger head coach Damian Porter said of Lauaki.

Also back is senior linebacker Adrian Galera, a third year starting varsity player, along with another all-leaguer in senior offensive lineman-defensive end Amad Taylor. Another all-Pioneer player is senior running back Lionel Smith.

According to Porter, sophomore outside linebacker Loren Bowen and junior offensive lineman Bethel Perez had a very good offseason. Porter is also impressed with senior middle linebacker Edgar Mijares, who started seven games for Leuzinger last year.

“I expect big things from him,” Porter said of Mijares. “He’s stronger and faster.”

The Olympians will be rather young and inexperienced at skilled positions. Juniors Jeremiah Smith, a part-time starter last year, and Antonio Haygood, a transfer from Los Angeles Jefferson High, are top candidates.

Leuzinger will be inexperience in the receiving positions.

“It’s a mixture of youth and experience,” Porter said of the team. “We should be very good up front but young and inexperienced in the skilled positions.”

The Olympians start Pioneer play at defending league champion and Western Division semifinalist West Torrance on October 9 at 7 p.m.

FLETCHER HOPES TO BRING MONARCHS BACK UP
After the last two seasons with Derwin Henderson, Lafayette Fletcher returned to head coach Morningside High’s football team.

Fletcher spent a total of 25 seasons as head and assistant coach for the Monarchs before leaving in the 2010 season after a 1-9 record. His best as head mentor was in 2003 when Morningside advanced to the CIF-Southern Section Northwestern Conference final where it lost at Lompoc.

The Monarchs should have a respectful offense with six returning starters but did lose running back Christian Williams to graduation. Last season, Williams rushed for 1,840 yards and 15 touchdowns.

Leading Morningside’s offense will be senior quarterback Travian McGee, senior center Jose Mejia, senior all-Bay League wide receiver Darren Morgan, junior wide receiver Patrick Jeune and senior athletes Adarrus and Charles Akanno.

The Monarchs also hope to get some help from Jaylin Wright and six-foot-four senior Jerome Roseborough, who transferred from cross town rival Inglewood. On defense, Morningside will be led by Akanno and speedy senior defensive back Aaron Berry, both all-Bay Leaguers. Berry is also a standout track and field athlete for the Monarchs. Jeune and Wilson are also key defensive players.

Fletcher feels that the Monarchs figure to contend in the Bay, a league led by league power and defending Southern Section Western Division Palos Verdes, Redondo (which returns most of its top starters from last year’s league runner-up and Western Division quarterfinalist squad) and Manhattan Beach Mira Costa.

Morningside begins the Bay at Peninsula in Rolling Hills Estates on October 9 at 3 p.m.

SKYLANDERS GO UNBEATEN
The Skylanders finished the Hawthorne Parks and Recreation Youth Basketball League Division I (ages 6-7) with an unbeaten 10-0 record after topping the Matadors 18-12 Saturday at the Betty Ainsworth Gymnasium.

Zi Williams sparked the Skylanders with five points. Sarnay Matthews added four points and Joseph James chipped in three. Ryan Hendrix and Neal Smith shared the Matadors’ high scoring honors with four points apiece.

ROCKERS EDGE KNIGHTS; HARD WORK WINS DIVISION

The Rockers finished second in the Hawthorne Parks and Recreation Division I play with a 7-5 win over the Knights on Saturday. Jordan Edwards led the Rockers with a game-high four points. Williams Wright sparked the Knights with three points.

The Hard Work won the Hawthorne Parks and Recreation Division IV (ages 12-13) regular season title at 7-3 after downing Shut Em Down 50-36 on Saturday. Amir Mayied led Hard Work with 12 points, followed by Kevin Elleby with 10. Kevin Hamilton led Shut Em Down (2-8) with 12 points and Dorian Paymore finished with eight.

WARRIORS TOP SHUT EM DOWN
The Warriors held on to defeat Shut Em Down 53-48 in Hawthorne Parks and Recreation Youth Basketball Division IV action Saturday. Garry Harris led the Warriors’ balanced scoring attack with nine points. Tayay Hope had six points. Anthony Thompson and Michael Harron each put in five. Nile Alredge led all scorers with 21 points for Shut Em Down. Andy Alvarez tallied 18 points. •

PETSPETS Pets PETSPETS

Purrrfect Companions

Beanie acts sassy but is sweet and loves to cuddle.

Looking for your purr-fect match? Kitties of all colors and sizes are ready for the forever home with you.

Espresso Bean (or Beanie as his friends call him) is a tortoiseshell cat. He was named after his stunning markings. He also has a unique meow which sounds like a chirp and he uses it in asking to be petted, which is his favorite thing. Like most tortoiseshell cats, Beanie has plenty of sass! But you will quickly find out that he's really just a big softie. Beanie would love to play with you and then cuddle up and watch a movie while you pet him. His ideal forever home would be a quiet one in a home with just adults, but he is okay around older children too. Beanie would also love a home where he could be the only cat or with other cats who leave him alone.

Coco was rescued from a shelter with her kittens, who have all been adopted. With her tiny face, lithe body, and gorgeous ticking along her sides, Coco is definitely an Abyssinian mix. Not only does she look the part, but she has the personality to match! She is super smart, very inquisitive, outgoing, and loves to climb. Coco will perch on your shoulders if she can, always wanting attention and love for as long as you can give it. She needs a home where she will be challenged mentally and given lots of playtime to keep her from getting bored. This fabulous little lady loves people and with the correct introduction and personality, is ok with other cats. She is very energetic and playful, but also loves to lounge around and stare out the windows. Coco has the most precious meow ever, not super loud, just a little chirp when she's got something exciting to say.

Finn is an orange tabby and there's no denying he's a handsome cat with a cute white mark on his nose. He still loves to play like a kitten and is an explorer cat who loves to climb. One of his favorite things to do is keep lookout from the top of a cat tree. Finn would love to keep you company and follow you around, staying on top of all the action! He is looking for his forever home with his sister and best friend Karma. They've been a bit confused after their owners gave them up for adoption. But if you give them a little time and a lot of love, Finn and Karma will settle right in! Because they grew up together, they can be nervous around other kitties, so Finn and Karma need a home where they can be the only cats.

Coco is an Abyssinian mix, and is smart and inquisitive.

Karma is sweet and loves to be petted.

Karma is a beautiful brown tabby with striking markings that makes her look a bit like a baby tiger! However her personality is definitely more of that of a lap cat. She loves to snuggle and would be so happy curling up with you and watching TV - in between naps, of course! Karma will even let you pick what you watch together! She can be a bit shy at first, but you will quickly see that she is just a sweet cat who loves to be petted. A forever home with her brother and best friend Finn would be the best for Karma. Growing up together, Karma and Finn are not used to other kitties and need a home where they will be the only cats.

These kitties are available for adoption through Kitten Rescue, one of the largest cat rescue groups in Southern California. All of our kitties are spayed/neutered, microchipped, tested for FeLV and FIV, dewormed and current on their vaccinations. For additional information and to see these or our other kittens and cats, please check our website www.kittenrescue.org or email us at mail@kittenrescue.org. Your tax deductible donations for the rescue and care of our cats and kittens can be made through our website or by sending a check payable to Kitten Rescue, 914 Westwood Blvd. #583, Los Angeles, CA 90024.

On Saturdays, we have adoptions from noon to 3:30 p.m. in Westchester at 8655 Lincoln Blvd. just south of Manchester Ave. and also in Mar Vista at 3860 Centinela Ave, just south of Venice Boulevard. Our website lists additional adoption sites and directions to each location. •

*Be kind. Save a life.
Support animal rescue.*

Finn is an explorer.

THE YELLOW DOG PROJECT.com

If you see a dog with a YELLOW RIBBON or something yellow on the leash, this is a dog who needs some space. Please do not approach this dog with your dog. Please maintain distance or give this dog and his/her person time to move out of your way.

There are many reasons why a dog may need space:
HEALTH ISSUES
IN TRAINING
BEING REHABILITATED
SCARED OR REACTIVE AROUND OTHER DOGS

THANK YOU!

Spring Toasted Almond Fruit Salad

Yield: 8 servings
Prep time: 15 minutes
Cook time: 12 minutes

Ingredients

- 1 1/4 cups sugar, divided
- tablespoons lemon juice
- teaspoons grated lemon zest
- cup (4 ounces) Fisher Chef's Naturals Sliced Almonds
- teaspoon dry ginger
- Pinch of salt
- 2 pints blackberries
- 2 pints raspberries
- 2 Granny Smith apples, cored, quartered and cut into 1/2-inch slices
- 1 pint raspberry sorbet
- 1/4 cup small basil leaves

Preparation

- 1. Make the syrup: In a small saucepan, bring 1/2 cup water and 1/2 cup of the sugar to a simmer and cook until the sugar dissolves, two to three minutes. Remove from the heat and transfer to a small bowl. Add the lemon juice and zest. Refrigerate.
- 2. Caramelize the nuts: Rinse out the pan used to make the syrup and dry well. Add the remaining 3/4 cup sugar and enough water for it to look like wet sand. Cook over medium heat until the sugar caramelizes and browns, approximately five to eight minutes. Add the almonds and carefully stir to coat the nuts with the caramelized sugar. Season with the dry ginger and a pinch of salt. Transfer to a baking sheet to cool and harden. When hard, break into bite-size pieces.
- 3. Assemble the salad: Toss the blackberries, raspberries and apple slices with the lemon syrup in a large bowl. Refrigerate until ready to serve. The colder the fruit, the better. When ready to serve, top with the almond brittle, a 1/4 cup scoop of raspberry sorbet and the basil leaves. Serve immediately.
