Public Hearing Set To Discuss Towing Referral Services

By Cristian Vasquez

Inglewood's City Council and mayor approved a public hearing to take place on Feb. 9 at 2 p.m. during the regular city council meeting, to discuss and receive public input regarding the applications from Bryant's Inglewood Service, Inc. and B & H Inglewood Tow, Inc. to obtain permits for referral towing services in the city.

"The Inglewood police Department along with the Parking Enforcement section requests numerous calls for tow services for both private and City vehicles," states the staff report signed by Chief of Police Mark Fronterotta. "These calls that are initiated by the City are referred to as City referral. A tow truck operator must first obtain a Referral Towing Service permit for the privilege of receiving said referral."

Furthermore, each applicant is to pay the city the equivalent to seven percent of the portion of the permittee's total receipts developed from the business referred by the city. The Inglewood Municipal Code [IMC] details in chapter eight, article six, how the city processes the act of granting referral towing service permit. All applicants are required to turn in a form provided by the Inglewood Police Department, in addition to providing fingerprints and a picture.

"The applicant shall furnish the City a policy or certificate of liability insurance in which the City is named as an additional insured," states the staff report. "The City also has the right to inspect the storage garage to ensure that all terms and conditions of the IMC are being met."

Bryant's Inglewood Service, Inc. and B & H Inglewood Tow, Inc. submitted applications for a Referral Towing Service permit to the Inglewood Police Department in August of 2015. After conducting thorough background checks on both applicants, the police department didn't discover any irregularities. Also taking into account the years of "excellent service" provided by both companies, when needed, the city recommends that both companies receive an opportunity to be granted a Referral Towing Service permit.

"Inglewood is one of the few cities in which the permit holders operate their respective storage garages within the City limits. This allows for faster retrieval of a towed vehicle," states the staff report. "The IMC [Inglewood Police Department] also caps the rates that can be charged to tow a vehicle to equal the average of the maximum rates permitted by the jurisdictions served by the Los Angeles Police Department, the Los Angeles County Sheriff, and the California Highway Patrol in the greater Los Angeles metropolitan area."

The granting of the permit will make it possible for both companies to obtain city referrals for a 36-month period, if all city and state requirements for towing are met and followed in a strict manner.

"The City's FY 2015-2016 budget contains a revenue estimate of $50,000 in General Fund monies from tow referral fees," states the staff report. "Granting of the requested permit will facilitate the collection of these referral fees."

City Attorney Appointed as Alternate to Governing Board of Independent Cities Risk Management Authority

Inglewood's City Attorney Kenneth R. Campos was appointed to the Governing

Board of the Independent Cities Risk Management Authority [ICRMA] as an alternate representative.

The City of Inglewood is a charter member of ICRMA and is required, as are all members, to appoint a delegate representative, alternate representative, as well as a substitute alternate representative to the ICRMA governing board. On Oct. 26, 2004 the city appointed former Deputy City Administrator Jeff Muir as the alternate representative.

"[Muir] would serve as in the stead of Councilmember Eloy Morales who was appointed as the City's delegate representative," states the staff report signed by Campos. "The City must replace Mr. Muir as a representative because he is no longer employed with the City."

The ICRMA consist of 20-member cities, within the Los Angeles and Orange counties areas, that pool their resources under a Joint Powers Agreement [JPA] in order to support their individual self-insurance programs. Since 1980, when ICRMA was created, members of the Independent Cities Association [ICA] attempted to capitalize on the opportunity to reduce liability insurance costs by unifying cities in order to increase their purchasing power.

After months of research and studies by a great deal of entities [actuaries, brokers, underwriters, and risk management consultants], the City of Inglewood, along with the cities of Arcadia, Downey, Huntington Park and Manhattan Beach purchased excess liability coverage. The cost of the insurance was one-third the cost of the prior year's fee, while obtaining twice the coverage limits of their individual prior year's purchases. •

Three Standout Films From the Sundance Film Festival

By H. Nelson Tracey

CINEMACY is excited to be returning to Park City, Utah to cover the 2016 Sundance Film Festival, kicking off a new year in cinema! After seeing so many diverse films, here are three that stood out to us. For more Sundance coverage, visit www.cinemacy.com.

boxer, it isn't surprising to hear that his father does not care for his son's chosen career path (or his sexuality). The resulting drama is about being true to yourself and following your passions while keeping relationships in your life. While the film meanders at times, it thankfully finds enough of a storyline to finish extremely strong and leave the audience emotionally moved. These performances will light on the African evangelical invasion in God Loves Uganda. Openly admitting he needed to do something a little more light-hearted for his next film, his latest documentary, Life, Animated, is an entirely different project.

At the age of 3, Owen Suskind completely shut off from the world and became unable to communicate. His parents soon discovered that he had autism and may never be able to speak again, and were heartbroken at the thought of how the relationship they had dreamed of may never fully exist. After trying many tactics with professional help, eventually Owen learned how to communicate by watching scenes from Disney animated movies such as Aladdin, The Jungle Book, and The Little Mermaid. The exaggerated character movements and expressions became a tool for Owen to learn his language skills, describe his emotions, and gain an understanding of how to express himself in situations he will experience. Life, Animated is not only a touching film, it also successfully widens the understanding of an often mysterious mental state that so many people are affected by.

Viva

While the film is Ireland's official Oscar submission due to director Paddy Breathnach's home country (and source of financing), Viva is a film set entirely in Havana, Cuba, and serves as a window into the unique world of Cuban drag performers at a local nightclub.

Our protagonist, Jesus (Héctor Medina), barely survives off meager wages and temporary work, but dreams of being a drag star like his mentor Mama (Luis Alberto García). His road to local stardom starts out extremely well as he has plenty of potential, but hits a major hurdle when his father, a convict, comes home unexpectedly from prison. As a former be the film's calling card and what makes it so memorable. As both a father-son drama and an introduction into a world foreign to many of us, Viva is a success all around.

There is rich enough texture in his new film, Belgica, to truly marvel at the craft and storytelling. A festival programmer introduced this film, one of Sundance's opening night selections, with the following statement: "For the last few years, we have been trying to get the World Dramatic category as top-tier as our US Dramatic. This year, thanks in part to this film, I think we finally reached that."

The title comes from the bar in which the film takes place. Two brothers come together to expand what was previously a hole-in-the-wall bar into a full-on destination with a massive remodel. As their dream version of Belgica comes into fruition, so do added layers of conflict that arise with the massive growth: trouble with the new crowds, women, drugs, and differences in opinion on the bar's future. The standout is the photography, which utilizes a broad variety of motifs and themes to display the strife that the two brothers are experiencing. At the beginning when the bar is small, the film carries a red hue with intimacy and fun themes, and as the bar expands beyond their control the color schemes shift toward a harsh and cold blue. That may be the largest visual shift but throughout there are numerous deliberate lighting decisions made to subtly enhance the viewer's understanding of these characters. For the experience of vicariously owning and living at a bar, which includes both raging fun and slamming comedowns, Belgica is a compelling piece that visually stands above the crowd. •

Board Approves Agreement to Provide Occupational Therapy Services

By Cristian Vasquez

Members of the Hawthorne School Board voted to approve and ratify an Individual Service Agreement between the Hawthorne School District and Gallagher Pediatric Therapy that will provide occupational therapy services.

Gallagher Pediatric Therapy [GPT] is a private pediatric practice that provides services via its multidisciplinary staff of occupational therapists [OTs], certified occupational therapy assistants [COTAs] and physical therapists [PTs].

“Our occupational therapy and physical therapy practitioners specialize in the evaluation, treatment and management of children, including infants, youth and adolescents, with a variety of developmental, sensory, motor, neuromuscular, educational and psychosocial disorders, who may experience functional performance limitations,” states GPT’s website. “Our mission is to create opportunities for children, including infants, youth and adolescents, to master developmental tasks, increase performance capacity, and achieve independence in their home, school and community.”

The agreement with the Hawthorne School District is for GPT to provide occupational therapy services to a kindergarten student,

[A.A.], who attends the Special Day Class at Eucalyptus School. The agreed-to services include once-a-week sessions, for 30 minutes a session. The hourly rate for these services is for $88 and will total cost of $1,364. The agreement will also include occupational therapy services for a preschool student, [A.D.]; the student attends multiple disabilities program provided through Los Angeles County Office of Education Division of Special Education. This student will also receive once-a-week sessions, for 30 minutes each session, at the same rate and as the previous student but at a total cost of $1,452.

GPT’s therapists provide their services by working in a variety of settings, including clinical environments, schools and homes throughout the Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties.

“We provide direct service as well as consultation with families and educators to serve children with special needs across multiple settings,” states the GPT homepage. “These services include structured and unstructured assessment by means of skilled and functional observations or assessment via the administration and careful interpretation of formal [standardized] and informal [non-standardized] tests and measurements.”

Other services to be provided through the agreement include occupational therapy services to a kindergarten student, [D.G.], who attends the autism program through Los Angeles County Office of Education Division of Special Education. Services will also be provided once a week in 30-minute sessions. In addition, nine sessions of compensatory services will be provide at an hourly rate of $88, for a total cost of $1,496.

Through its clinical and school-based practice, GPT’s goal is to provide quality services that include “the evaluation and provision of treatment in collaboration with the child, family or other relevant individuals” as well as to fully develop, enhance, maintain or reestablish sensory, motor, perceptual, neuromuscular or oral-motor functioning skills. The same goal is established for the organization of behavior, adaptive behavior or psychosocial components of performance.

“Our staff is committed to providing services to children in combination with their primary care and specialty care providers, school(s), and other involved community-based service agencies,” states the GPT website. “The staff at GPT works closely with the child’s family to address the family’s needs and concerns, and to incorporate the goals of the family in developing and implementing their child’s treatment program.” GPT staff intervenes directly in order to develop, enhance, maintain or reestablish daily living skills such as play or leisure skills, social skills, academic skills, self-help skills and prevocational skills. These efforts include educating the child, the child’s family or any other relevant individuals in order to implement adequate interventions.

One preschool student from Prairie Vista South Campus will also receive occupational therapy services once a week, at one-hour sessions, and will include an additional three, one-hour sessions per month. The hourly rate will also be $88 but the total cost will be $3,960. Lastly, occupational therapy services will be provided to a kindergarten student, [S.H.], who attends the Resource Specialist Program at Jefferson School. The student will receive services once a week, 30-minute sessions, in addition to consultation services six times a year, 30-minute sessions, at an hourly rate of eighty-eight dollars $88. The total cost of the student’s services will be $1,232. The agreement for these services will be funded via non-public agency funds.

News for the ‘City of Good Neighbors’

From City Clerk Norb Huber

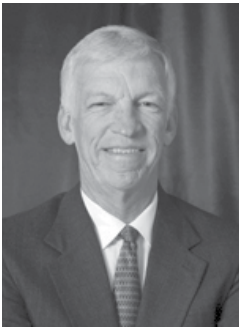

FEBRUARY

The second month of the year has always been a little different. It’s the shortest month, so every four years we add an extra day. 2016 is one of those years. The month is full of holidays and observations also. It’s not too early for us guys to start worrying about what to get our honeys for Valentines Day on the 14th. Schools usually take at least two days off in observance of our Presidents’ birthdays. February has been designated Black History Month in the USA also. Super Bowl Sunday has become the biggest party day of the year. More guacamole is consumed on that day than any other throughout the year. More money is wagered and lost on the game than any other. If El Nino is coming with its predicted force, then February will be it. Finally, topping all of these holidays is the biggest one of all, Ground Hogs Day on February 2nd.

FIREFLY TAKES FLIGHT IN HAWTHORNE

Did you know that we have another space rocket company doing research and development right here in Hawthorne? Dr. Thomas Markusic is a co-founder of Firefly and his resume includes time spent at SpaceX and NASA. He thinks that there is plenty of room for more companies to provide economical ways to launch satellites. Firefly is located virtually in the shadow of SpaceX on Jack Northrop Avenue. The company has testing sites in Texas just like SpaceX.

CORRECTION: THOSE ARE NOT TENNIS COURTS BEING INSTALLED AT MEMORIAL PARK

The project over at Memorial Park is the construction of three futsal/soccer fields not tennis courts as I reported last week. The Hawthorne Police Department and the Hawthorne Recreation & Community Services Department in partnership with the LA Galaxy and Chevrolet have done the work to bring soccer to a Hawthorne park. There will be an opening event on Friday, January 29th from 3:30 to 7:30 p.m. There will be clinics and games for the kids.

DEATH AND TAXES

The old saying goes like this, “There are two sure things in life, death and taxes”. As the month of January draws to a close, we start receiving 1099’s and W-2’s for our tax preparation. The dreaded tax season is about to be upon us. Going to our tax preparer or CPA is like going to Vegas, you never know if you are going to come out a winner or a loser. Death is similar, a lot of people don’t know if they will come out a winner or a loser. For me, when that day comes, I know that I will be a winner. In fact, by God’s grace and Jesus’ death and resurrection, I’m a winner already. Jesus has paid all of my debt in full. After my tax appointment, I may go home and have a cold one. After my death, I will have a great feast waiting for me. It will be great to have a cold one or two with all of my fellow saints up there in heaven. Hope to see you at the party.

WINTER WATERING TIPS FOR OUTDOOR LANDSCAPING

Golden State Water Company thanks you, our customers, for the steps you have taken to reduce water use during the drought, and is offering these tips to help you maximize your water-use efficiency this winter.

- ❖ Install water-efficient sprinkler heads, and check to make sure your sprinklers are positioned to irrigate the lawn and not your sidewalk, driveway or gutters.

- ❖ Survey your lawn irrigation system and fix any sprinklers, valves and lines that may be damaged or leaking water.
- ❖ While hand watering your lawn, focus on dry spots and pay close attention to avoid runoff.

Tough Luck Leuzinger Falls Short to North

Leuzinger High's Damani Washington attempts basket under pressure of North Torrance's Saeed Galloway in last Friday's Pioneer League boys' basketball game. The Olympians host West Torrance Friday at 7:30 p.m.

By Joe Snyder
Photos by Joe Snyder

Despite youth, Leuzinger High first year head boys' basketball coach Arturo Jones had hopes that the Olympians would be strong contenders for their second consecutive Pioneer League title and, maybe, go far in the CIF-Southern Section playoffs. Instead, the Olympians are 1-3 in league play losing two of those games by one point, including a 68-67 defeat to host North Torrance last Friday.

The game was close all of the way. The Olympians held a slim 19-18 lead after the first quarter. The contest was tied at 36 at halftime and Leuzinger (9-9 overall) took a 51-46 after three periods. The Olympians continued to lead throughout most of the fourth quarter but a big three-point basket from Isaiah Holmes gave the Saxons (3-1 in league) a 64-63 lead with about 1:30 left in the game which proved to be pivotal. From there, North continued to have the edge and held on.

Jones blamed poor free throw shooting and lack of defensive rebounding on the loss. "Poor free throw shooting killed us," Jones said. "We dropped two games by one point and they were on baskets from offensive rebounds in the final seconds." The Olympians' other one-point league loss was in their opener at West Torrance 52-51 on Jan. 13 when the Warriors pulled it out after an offensive rebound that resulted into their winning basket.

Leuzinger managed to have balanced scoring with four players in double figures. Kavon Fair led the Olympians with 13 points, followed closely by Terrell Williams and Anthony Hamilton with 12 apiece. Damani Washington added 11 points. Despite Fair's team leading scoring effort, he made just one of eight free throw attempts. Leuzinger made 17 of 30 from the charity line. North was led by Holmes and Tyler Johnson with 15 points apiece. Johnson scored 14 of those points in the first half.

At Leuzinger on January 20, the Olympians made just 10 of 35 free throw attempts but managed to defeat South Torrance 53-45. Williams led Leuzinger with 17 points, followed by Washington with 13.

The Olympians visited Lawndale in a cross town rival non-league game last Monday then resumed Pioneer play at Centennial in Compton on Wednesday. Leuzinger hosts West in hope to avenge one of their one-point losses Friday at 7:30 p.m. The Olympians visit league leading Torrance (4-0 in league and 13-7 overall) next Wednesday at the same time.

MORNINGSIDE WINS TWO

After losing its first two Bay League games on the road to Rolling Hills Estates Peninsula and Redondo two weeks ago, Morningside High's boys' basketball team got on the right track returning home to defeat Palos Verdes and Mira Costa last week. The Monarchs held off the Sea Kings 65-59 on January 20, then slipped past the Mustangs 70-66 last Friday.

Against Mira Costa, Patrick Jeune sparked Morningside with 21 points and 10 rebounds. Brandon Anyanwu added 16 points and 10 rebounds. Kameron Khalbeer and Charles Wright chipped in 14 and 10 points, in order.

Two days earlier, Anyanwu led the Monarchs (13-7 overall and 2-2 in league) with 19 points and 10 rebounds. Jeune contributed 17 points, eight rebounds and five steals. Arkel Lord had 10 points. Khabeer dished out eight assists.

With the victories, Morningside moved into a four-way tie with Inglewood, Mira Costa and Peninsula for second place at 2-2. Redondo, one of the top teams in California, leads at 4-0 and Palos Verdes is 0-4 in league.

The Monarchs were at cross town rival Inglewood last Tuesday and host Peninsula Friday at 7:30 p.m. Morningside also has a home game against Redondo next Tuesday at the same time. The Panthers helped force the four-way deadlock for second place with a come-from-behind 68-62 victory over the Sentinels last Friday. The Sea Hawks had little trouble at Palos Verdes with a 77-28 victory on Friday.

INGLEWOOD SPLITS

Inglewood High's boys' basketball team played two away Bay League games last week. The Sentinels started out by topping Mira Costa 55-47, but fell to Peninsula 68-62 on Friday.

Last Friday, Inglewood had trouble containing the Panthers' leading scorer Mickey Bebeck who scored a game-high 33 points. The Sentinels held a 51-47 edge after three quarters before Peninsula outscored Inglewood 21-11 in the final period. Terrell Gomez led Inglewood (14-6 overall and 2-2 in league) with 21 points.

Gomez sparked the Sents with 15 points, seven assists and five rebounds in their win at Mira Costa on January 19. Jordan Bell finished with 14 points and nine rebounds and Chance Hunter tallied 11 points and nine rebounds.

After hosting rival Morningside on Tuesday,

North Torrance High's Makanna Enonto dribbles as she is being defended by Cheyenne Tannan from Leuzinger in last Friday's Pioneer League girls' basketball game. The Saxons downed the Olympians 65-44. North visits Centennial in Compton Friday at 6 p.m.

Inglewood will have its second Bay showdown at Redondo Friday at 7:30 p.m. The Sea Hawks (16-3 overall) slipped past the host Sentinels 58-53 on January 13. Inglewood visits Palos Verdes next Tuesday at the same time.

LADY OLYMPIANS TOP SOUTH; LOSE TO NORTH

Leuzinger High's girls' basketball team enjoyed an impressive home win over defending CIF-Southern Section Division IIA champion South Torrance 64-52 on January 20, but found last year's Southern Section Division IIIA champion North Torrance too much in a 65-44 loss last Friday at North.

Against the league leading Saxons, Leuzinger (2-2 in league) fell behind early and was trailing by double figures margin throughout most of the contest. Brooke Scott led the Olympians with 14 points. Kaylin Brown put in nine points, all of those on three three-pointers. North (4-0 in league and 12-8 overall) was led by Brendy McPherson and Makenga Ecomoto with 15 points each.

After visiting Centennial in Compton on Wednesday, the Olympians host West Torrance, which won CIF-Southern Section titles the past two seasons and is off to a 15-5 start this year, Friday at 6 p.m. Leuzinger visits Torrance next Wednesday at the same time. •

Leuzinger High's Christopher Williams goes up for a basket in last Friday's Pioneer League boys' basketball game against North Torrance. The Saxons edged the Olympians 68-67.

You can also visit all of our Miniature Schnauzers & Friends rescues at the adoption fair or check out our website, www.msfr.org. If you have any questions about a particular dog's availability you can email us at info@msfr.org. Schnauzers! Bet you can't adopt just one!

I'm doing great with healing and adjusting well to the challenges. I'm 16 pounds of sweetness and I get along splendidly with other dogs. I'm truly hoping that 2016 will be the year I find the forever family who will love me and want me to share their lives. If you are interested in Neo, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

2016 didn't start out as the best year for a dog named Campbell (that's me) but I know that things are now going to be awesome. My previous owners dumped me at a LA county shelter the day after New Years and never even said good-bye. I was such a matted mess that the shelter workers had me listed as a "Westie mix". In reality I am a 2-year old, male, Miniature Schnauzer mix with a lovely natural tail. Due to my appearance and the fact that I was pretty timid, there wasn't much interest in adopting me. The MSFR folks spotted me when they came to rescue another dog and decided to give this pathetic looking fellow a chance. After living with my foster family for a couple of days, I became curious and decided to make friends with them. The best part is that I realized that I really like living indoors and being part of a family. Since I have spent most of my life living outdoors, I do need some leash training and a little help in the housebreaking department. My legs may be a bit shorter than a purebred Schnauzer but my head and face, which will look at your adoringly, is all Schnauzer. I'm 12 pounds of love and affection that is looking for a family to call my own. If you are interested in Campbell, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

I'm hoping that 2016 will be less stressful for me than the previous year. My name is Halo and I'm a 9-year old, purebred, female Miniature Schnauzer looking for a forever home. My previous owner developed a serious health issue and had to move to San Francisco for treatment and couldn't take me along. Although I understand why

Swanee

I had to remain in the South Bay, it still was a heartbreaking good-bye. A family member had been caring for me but reached out to MSFR for help when I developed a health issue. One trip to the Vet and they found I've had bladder stones. They are pesky little things and first we tried to dissolve them by prescription diet. When that didn't work the Vet performed surgery to remove the stones and ta-da they're gone. Although I'm currently asymptomatic and feeling fine, my blood work revealed that I have some elevated liver values and could be borderline Cushings. I'm a 25 pound senior who has lots of love to give and I adore my people. I know that I'd be the perfect companion for someone who wants a loyal and affectionate friend, could it be you? If you are interested in Halo please email info@msfr.org for more information.

My friends call me Swanee and I am just one of three little old men who were rescued from a LA county shelter last week. I'm probably a tad older than 10 years of age and like all folks who are seniors I have a few physical issues. I had some cataracts, which left me blind in one eye, I'm missing a few teeth and I have a heart murmur. That said I'm also a super sweet, well-mannered, gentle, little Spaniel mix. You can't really tell by my picture because they shaved me but I have gorgeous, fluffy golden fur. If you just check out my tail in the picture you can see for yourself how fluffy it is. Although I get along with other dogs, my favorite past time is just being held and hanging out with my family. My perfect home would be with an older person who would appreciate a calm and sweet companion. I would also be a great addition to a family with a little extra room in their hearts and home for a needy soul. If interested in Swanee email southbaydoggie@hotmail.com •

Hooray for Bubbles and her new family. She is the little “Schnoodle” gal that was rescued last October from a LA county shelter. Bubbles had a terrible case of demodex mange that we treated for several months. She’s healed and looking beautiful with a glistening white coat. Her new family includes MSFR 2011 alumni Indie, formerly known as blossom. They are living in Santa Monica and looking forward to having many happy adventures. •

Bubbles is healed and all smiles!

If you see a dog with a YELLOW RIBBON or something yellow on the leash, this is a dog who needs some space. Please do not approach this dog with your dog. Please maintain distance or give this dog and his/her person time to move out of your way.

There are many reasons why a dog may need space:

- HEALTH ISSUES
- IN TRAINING
- BEING REHABILITATED
- SCARED OR REACTIVE AROUND OTHER DOGS

THANK YOU!
Those of us who own these dogs appreciate your help and respect!

Life Insurance Can Mean More Than Protection For Your Loved Ones

(BPT) - Most people who own life insurance don't think about it often. It's something they pay for under the assumption that the benefit will be received when they are no longer around. But when you own life insurance, you can go to sleep at night with the confidence that you're helping to protect the ones you love. And with certain forms of life insurance, you can also rest easy knowing that your policy is working for you in another way: growing your cash value.

Are you asking yourself how this is possible? It's simple. When researching life insurance options for you and your family, be sure to look at "participating" policies. These types of policies are designed to offer the potential to earn dividends for eligible participating policyowners. While not guaranteed, a policyowner's dividend typically reflects the portion that each specific policy has contributed to the surplus of the issuing life insurance company. Policyowner dividends can be received in a number of ways. Eligible participating policyowners may use dividends to purchase additional coverage, to help pay life insurance policy premiums, to repay policy loans and policy loan interest, or they can be paid in cash. With the option of using dividends to purchase additional paid-up life insurance coverage, the policy's total death benefit and cash value increases and the "paid-up addition" insurance is eligible to earn dividends in subsequent years.

A number of leading life insurance companies have strong track records of paying policyowners dividends, including Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (MassMutual), a company that is run for the benefit of its members and eligible participating policyowners.

"The commitment we've made our policyowners is brought to life through our annual dividend payout," said Roger Crandall, MassMutual Chairman, President and CEO. "Through nearly our entire history, our policyowners have received an annual dividend regardless of what is happening in our world - whether it's through world wars, pandemics, market crashes, and most recently, a historically low interest rate environment where even three-month Treasury bills are yielding zero percent." •

Grilled Butterflied American Lamb Leg with Mint-Pistachio Pesto

Serves: 6-8

Ingredients

- 3 pounds boneless leg of American lamb, butterflied, salt and pepper (to taste)

FOR MINT-PISTACHIO PESTO

- 1 cup shelled pistachios
- 1 cup fresh mint (leaves only)
- 1/2 cup fresh Italian parsley
- 1/4 cup plus 2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
- 2 tablespoons red wine vinegar
- 1 tablespoon lemon juice (to taste)
- 1 teaspoon lemon zest
- 1/2 teaspoon sea salt (to taste)
- freshly ground black pepper (to taste)
- pinch red chili pepper flakes

Preparation

1. Heat oven to 350 F. Lay lamb leg open on a cutting board. Trim off visible fat. Season lamb generously with salt and pepper; allow to sit at room temperature for 30 minutes prior to grilling.
2. Toast pistachios by placing in single layer in shallow dish or pan and baking 8 to 10 minutes.
3. In food processor, add pistachios, mint, parsley, oil, vinegar, lemon juice, lemon zest, salt, pepper and chili flakes; blend until somewhat chunky.
