School District's State-Appointed Administrator Leaves for Position in San Francisco Area

By Cristian Vasquez

In another change to its leadership since 2012, Inglewood Unified School District [IUSD] has lost its state administrator Dr. Vincent Matthews who was selected to serve as the superintendent of the San Francisco Unified School District (SFUSD). Appointed to oversee Inglewood Unified by State Superintendent of Public Instruction Tom Torlakson in 2015, Dr. Matthews accepted the position offered by SFUSD and will begin in his new role next week.

"Dr. Matthews is an outstanding educator who has done a fantastic job of turning around the Inglewood Unified School District. He built great working relationships with teachers, staff, administrators and the local community," Torlakson said via a press release. "It's a loss for Inglewood, but I know he will do the same great things for San Francisco. I wish him the best."

Due to the budgetary woes that bankrupted IUSD back in 2012, the state took control of operations at the district's request. State control included a $55 million loan in order for IUSD's financial obligations to be fulfilled. Part of the state-funded bailout required that Torlakson "assume all legal rights, duties and powers of the governing board of the district and appoint a state trustee." Since the takeover, Torlakson has appointed four different administrators to run the district--all of whom have either been asked to leave or volunteered to vacate the position.

"We are really concerned with how all of this is playing out. This is a real setback. Even though we had questions regarding Matthews, he was a consistent person in there and we were hoping he was learning the system and would make for a better school district," said Classified Employees

Union Representative Christopher Graeber. "This is a very peculiar situation because there is no model as to who should be hired in this district."

Dr. Matthews, who was selected for the San Francisco position on March 29, began his career in education 30 years ago as a teacher and has served as a principal before becoming a superintendent. The San Francisco native is a product of that city's public school system and stepped in to fill the position left vacant by former State trustee Don Brann, who stepped down last year after more than two years with IUSD.

"I am extremely proud of the hard work on the Inglewood staff," Dr. Matthews said. "I am also appreciative of the assistance given by Tom Torlakson and the entire California Department of Education (CDE) team. This was an extremely difficult decision, but I needed to take this opportunity to be closer to my family while returning to the district where I began both my student and teaching career."

Dr. Matthews first managed a school district under a takeover in 2003 when Oakland Unified surrendered to the state due to a $37 million deficit. From there, he took his talents to lead the San Jose Unified School District for five-and-a-half years. He also served as an area superintendent for the San Diego Unified School District.

However, a report published by Southern California Public Radio indicates that IUSD's financial stability and operations have not demonstrated significant improvement under state administration. During a public hearing hosted back in March 2016, Deputy State Auditor Ben Belnap stated that deficit spending has continued since the State takeover. "We want more resources from the state to help us," added Graeber. "I am willing to testify in Sacramento to tell them how state takeovers don't work. This system needs to be better."

Furthermore, the California State Auditor's Office released a report in January 2016 expressing concern regarding the district's recovery and the state's ability to ensure said recovery. "Since assuming control just over three years ago, the state superintendent has appointed three individuals to serve as state administrator, not including an interim administrator, and the district has yet to demonstrate significant improvements to its finances or operations," indicates the report signed by State Auditor Elaine M. Howle. "However, our ability to fully evaluate the appointment process was limited since the California Education Code does not require the state superintendent to document the basis for his appointment decisions."

While the auditor's report indicates that the superintendent has appointed qualified individuals to lead the district, it was noted that the state superintendent has "great discretion on who" is appointed. Graeber has been a vocal advocate of having Torlakson present at the IUSD's board meetings at least once a month, but said the request has yet to be fulfilled.

"The response is, 'That is why we have a state trustee,' and my response is, 'Yeah, but look what has happened,'" said Graeber. "They thought Brann was going to save the district until his plan started unraveling and he left. We don't see him [Torlakson] that much. This isn't an assignment that he asked for since the legislators gave it to him after the state takeover, but he was given an assignment and he needs to be fully pledged in monitoring his employees out here." •

News for the City of Good Neighbors from an Old Guy named Norb Huber

OUR SOUTHERN NEIGHBORS

I always wonder who reads this stuff each week. Now, low and behold, I find out that I have a few loyal readers just south of our border. No, my column is not printed in Spanish and smuggled through the virtual wall down by Tijuana. I am talking about South of Rosecrans here, our friendly neighbors in Lawndale Acres. Since there seems to be a shortage of news reporters in both of our communities, I guess they settle for anything that comes into of my head and onto my computer to fill copy space. Hawthorne has always felt superior to Lawndale. We have always been bigger, meaner, had far more celebrities grow up in our city, and survived more political scandals than our cute, little neighbor to the South. Being a Good Neighbor, I am here to speak up for Lawndale. The city once known for junker cars in driveways and shanty houses, has cleaned up its act. The city leaders like to keep a quiet, confident style of leading the city around any small controversy. For decades Lawndale has been financially solid with a reserve fund close to its operating budget. Lawndale is home to the largest performing arts center on any high school campus in CA. It has the CIF Girls basketball champions over at Leuzinger. Roy Rogers hung out in Lawndale for a few years before heading to the open spaces out in the desert. Years ago, one of Lawndale's civic leaders proposed building a replica of the leaning tower of Pizza as a tourist attraction. Instead, they constructed one of the tallest and brightest electronic signboards along the 405 freeway that everyone ridiculed. It's funny, now Hawthorne has not one but two of the similar type signboards up along our busy streets. Around 1910, land was being sold in the new settlements of Lawndale and Hawthorne for $75 a lot. Financing was offered. The lots were very conveniently located on the rail car line that led to Redondo. Oh, how things have changed. My column just wouldn't sound right if we named it "Lawndale Links", people would think I was a lunatic. Anyway, greetings to our southern neighbors. You are welcome to cross the border, spend your money here, and then go back to your quiet little outpost.

EASTER EGG HUNT

This Saturday, April 8 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. the North Hawthorne Homeowners Association will be hosting an Easter Egg Hunt at Eucalyptus Park located at Inglewood Avenue and 122nd Street. Kids of all ages are invited to attend. If the eggs are full of candy, then I am there!

HISTORICAL SOCIETY'S HALL OF FAME BANQUET

The Hawthorne Historical Society is sponsoring their annual Hawthorne Hall of Fame banquet on Friday, May 19th at the Ayres Hotel. The 2017 inductees include: Mr. John Baker, founder of "Cougartown.com", The 100 year-old Womens Club of Hawthorne, Mihaly "Michu" Meszaro, longtime resident of Hawthorne, was a circus performer/entertainer and stuntman and is best remembered as a performer with Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus and for his role in the NBC sitcom ALF. He was 2 feet 9 inches (84 cm) tall. The shortest street in Hawthorne is named after him. Eddings Brothers has been selected as the business honoree for their long time service to the community. Tickets to the banquet are now on sale. For more information regarding this festive evening, please contact the Historical Society at 310-643-9157.

"STAND YOUR GROUND" SYMPOSIUM

The Hawthorne community is invited to attend a symposium entitled, "Stand Your Ground"- Fighting Sexual Assault Together. The non-profit, Resolve to Rise, has partnered with the Hawthorne Police Department to bring the community this first annual symposium. It is scheduled to take place Saturday, April 15th at 10:00 in the Hawthorne Memorial Center. Resolve to Rise is a nonprofit in the city of Hawthorne dedicated to stopping and preventing sexual assault by raising awareness, education, empowerment and prevention. Many topics will be covered in this very informative symposium. Sexual assault and human trafficking are on the rise. We all need to be aware and help prevent these crimes from happening.

SERVICE PROVIDER FAIR

Councilmember Angie Reyes English and the City of Hawthorne presents the annual Service Provider Fair at Memorial Park this year on April 22nd. There will be many vendors giving out great information. Lunch and prizes are always a big hit with the attendees each year.

VOLUNTEER APPRECIATION DAY

The volunteers of Hawthorne will be honored once again with a special event hosted by the Hawthorne Presidents Council on Sunday, April 23rd at the Memorial Center.

PALM SUNDAY

Holy Week begins this Sunday with Palm Sunday. The people of Jerusalem welcomed Jesus as their king and savior, but little did they know that by week's end he would be nailed to a cross and die. But their sorrow gave way to joy, death led to life for all. The cross is a sign of joy for Christians who remember what Jesus did for them on that Good Friday.

Inglewood Library, SBESC Free Energy Workshop

Is your home cold and drafty in the winter? Is your home hot and stuffy during heat waves? Are you wondering how to better manage your energy usage? Information on ways to finance energy and water efficiency projects will be available.

The South Bay Cities Council of Governments, in collaboration with the City of Inglewood, will present this free workshop on Tuesday, April 18 from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the

CERT Training Coming to Hawthorne

The Los Angeles County Fire Department is providing free Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) training classes at the Hawthorne Memorial Center (3901 W. El Segundo Boulevard) on April 8 and 9, with a location to be announced for April 15. The program provides basic training in safety and life-saving skills for the public—given the fact that police, fire and medical personnel may not be able to fully meet demand for their services after a major disaster. April 8 courses will cover Disaster Preparedness, Disaster Fire Suppression, and Disaster Medical Ops 1. April

9 features Disaster Medical Ops 2, Light Search and Rescue, and CERT Organization. The April 15 class will discourse on Disaster Psychology, Terrorism, and Course Review and Disaster Simulation Exercise. Class size is limited and requires registration (online at www.fire.lacounty.gov/cert) or via email (LWalters@fire.lacounty.gov). Students must complete all hours of the course to receive a certificate of completion. Those who miss any units can make them up anywhere CERT is taught. All students must be at least 18 years old. •

Lawndale Baseball Swept by Santa Monica

By Adam Serrao

There is a certain aptitude for teams to begin to show their true colors right around the time that league play begins. No matter what the sport and no matter what has happened at the beginning of the year, inter-division battle either bring out the best in a ball club, or expose a team that just might need a little bit more work before it begins competing for a league championship. Unfortunately for the Lawndale Cardinals baseball team and head coach Robert Dempsey, the latter seems to be coming true this season. After two straight losses to their division rivals, the Santa Monica Vikings, it looks as if the Cardinals' hopes of competing for a top spot in this year's Ocean League standings have all but flown away.

When Lawndale's baseball team has won this season, it has won big. A 27-1 rout over Hawthorne Math and Science Academy to open the season, followed by an 8-0 shutout over Leuzinger, are key examples of that fact. Unfortunately for Dempsey and his team, those two wins are the only victories of the year so far for Lawndale. Since the Cardinals' last victory, the team has lost four games in a row, culminating with a two-game, back-to-back sweep at the hands of the Vikings. Playing against Santa Monica is never easy. After all, the Vikings are competing for first place in their division this season. Key losses to divisional opponents are always hard to overcome, however, and now Lawndale has an uphill battle waiting as the rest of the season progresses.

In the first contest of the two-game series last Tuesday afternoon at Lawndale High, Santa Monica got off to a hot start in the second inning against junior pitcher Julian Diaz. Diaz gave up four runs (three earned) in the inning as the Vikings opened the game up almost immediately after it had gotten started. Lawndale's uphill battle to get back into the game began in the bottom of the second when senior third baseman Jesus Sanchez knocked in Jayce Dempsey for the team's first run of the afternoon. Diaz settled in on the mound before Leo Cervantes came in and pitched two scoreless innings. In addition to his pitching, Cervantes knocked in a run in the bottom of the sixth, but it wasn't enough to get the Cardinals over the hump. Ultimately, the team took a 4-3 loss in the first of two.

Game two of the doubleheader was played in Santa Monica this time and followed much of the same script. The Vikings jumped out to an early 2-0 lead in the second inning against starting pitcher Michael Zambrano. Zambrano gave up one more in the bottom of the fourth as Lawndale fell into a 3-0 hole. An RBI by freshman Armando Osorio and runs scored by Cervantes and Zambrano were too little, too late, as the Cardinals lost their second game in a row by just one run--this time by a final of 3-2.

There's no doubting the fact that Lawndale has the team to stay close in games. It's simply beginning the games by playing well on defense that has been the problem for Dempsey and company. The Cardinals (2-9, 0-3) will move on to play against their rivals from Culver City before a two-game set against their divisional foes, the Beverly Hills Normans.

HAWTHORNE HIGH

The Hawthorne Cougars share the Lawndale Cardinals' struggle of being in an extremely difficult Ocean League with opponents that are perennially elite. The Cougars got an up-close and personal look at one of those opponents when last Monday afternoon at Hawthorne the team took on the same Santa Monica Vikings that eventually wound up sweeping Lawndale as well.

The Cougars are known to be a team to start off hot, but fizzle away down the stretch of games because of insufficient pitching depth. In the first game against Santa Monica, that was precisely the case. Hawthorne scored first, getting out to a 5-0 lead behind junior Johnny Pacheco's two hits and four RBIs in the game. Unfortunately for the Cougars, it was the pitching that unraveled late as Bernardo Robles gave up four runs in the third and Carlos Jacobo gave up three in the fifth. Ultimately, Hawthorne took a 9-8 loss in extra innings by being outscored 9-3 from the bottom of the third inning on.

Game two got much more out of hand as Santa Monica led 5-1 early and eventually opened things up for a 12-4 win. The Cougars received nice contributions from Danny Villarreal and Carlos Jacobo. Villarreal had a home run and Jacobo added a triple, as each player finished with an RBI and a run scored. Hawthorne (4-7, 0-2) will look to keep the bats swinging as the team moves on to battle against Beverly Hills and Culver City in the middle portion of the league schedule.

INGLEWOOD HIGH

The Inglewood Sentinels boys' baseball team is quietly putting together an excellent start to their regular season. So far, the Sentinels and head coach Kewatta Wade have won four of their first five games and have outscored their opponents by a combined 67-36. The real test, however, lies in the month of April when Inglewood will leave its non-league schedule behind and take on some of the Bay League's elite. The Sentinels (4-1) will look to prove themselves this week as they begin league play with back-to-back games against the Palos Verdes Sea Kings. •

Dodgers Officially Begin New Season

By Adam Serrao

In honor of what is now the new, ongoing Major League Baseball season, it has become time to take a look at how the 2017 Los Angeles Dodgers will fare in their quest for the team's first World Series appearance since 1988. Obviously, 162 games make for quite a long season. For that reason, instead of breaking down how the team has done in their first few games of the season against the San Diego Padres and the Colorado Rockies, we'll take a look at a few fun storylines to keep your eye on as a new season of Dodger baseball gets it start.

The one thing that will stick out like a sore thumb to baseball fans everywhere this season is the absence of the golden voice of Vin Scully up in the press box. This past Monday, the Dodgers played their first opening day since 1950 without Scully calling their games. Scully had previously said that he wouldn't even attend the game either. "It's a day game," Scully remarked. "I'll probably have things to do." At least the 89-year-old ex-announcer who spent 67 years calling games for the Boys in Blue is keeping busy. "Sure, after 67 years, you bet I'll miss it," Scully continued. "But heck, I miss the guys I hung out with when I was in school." One thing is for sure; baseball fans everywhere will certainly miss Vin this year.

After Scully, there may be no one person who is more important to the Dodgers than Clayton Kershaw. This season, it will be fun to watch a presumably healthy Kershaw dominate opposing hitters like he has always done. Kershaw should be back to full form and is certainly the top candidate in the league to bring home yet another Cy Young Award and maybe even another pitching Triple Crown (league lead in wins, ERA and strikeouts). There's no doubting the competitive streak that runs deep down in the blood of Kershaw. He has been known to challenge his fellow pitchers on the team to competitions similar to the one he had with former Dodger Zack Greinke to see who could swing the bat better at the plate. This year, look for Kershaw and Rich Hill to compete to see who can throw the filthier curveball.

The Dodgers have been very diligent with their farm system--and so far, it has been somewhat unclear if that diligence has fully paid off. All signs are beginning to point to "yes" because of the All-Star ability of Corey Seager. Seager should be due for another fantastic year to follow up his 2016 National League Rookie of the Year award-winning season. What should be even more fun, however, is to watch him play alongside Joc Pederson. Some might say that Pederson has underperformed so far in his career, and some even go so far as to call him a bust. This season should be when Pederson finally breaks out in a major way. With Seager and Joc up the middle, the Dodgers will have a young core that should even rival the 2016 World Series champs, Chicago Cubs.

When is it not fun watching Kenley Jansen come into a game? He and Justin Turner turned down bigger offers from other teams to come back and play for the Dodgers. There may not be any one thing that makes a player more fun to watch than knowing that they want to be there. For Jansen, though, his cut fastball may just take the cake. Even though hitters know that Jansen is coming with the heat, they still swing and miss entirely all the same. The velocity and spin rate on Jansen's cut fastball both rank top two in all of baseball. Jansen's estimated .438 OPS (on-base plus slugging percentage) is the best in the Majors. The 29-year-old is one of the best closers in the league and with a cut fastball like the one that he puts on display, Jansen may just be able to put his name up there with the likes of Mariano Rivera by the time all is said and done.

One thing that is always fun about watching a new baseball season is becoming familiar with the names on the team that aren't necessarily fully recognizable yet. You may have heard of Hyun-Jin Ryu, but the pitcher is back nonetheless and is said to be looking healthy and impressive just in time for a 2017 campaign. Familiarize yourself now with the name Logan Forsythe. The Dodgers' new second baseman came over from the Tampa Bay Rays and may just be the piece that the Dodgers have been missing all of these years. Andrew Toles came out of nowhere late in the season for L.A. last year. He should make an impact in left field and at the top of the order for the Dodgers this year. Don't sleep on Alex Wood or Ross Stripling in the rotation. Although neither player made the starting five, both will be looking to prove themselves this season and have a huge impact on the pitching staff in what is always a long and trying season. Jansen steals all of the headlines coming out of the pen, but Adam Liberatore and Grant Dayton will make names for themselves. They'll certainly have the opportunity with how much Dave Roberts likes to use his relief.

Baseball is back and is now officially in action. Could this be the year that the Dodgers finally get over the hump and make it into the World Series? It's too early to tell, but while you're in the process of finding out, there will certainly be plenty of fun to take part in out at Chavez Ravine. •

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call, 916-939-0772 for information regarding the trustee's sale or visit this Internet Web site, www.nationwideposting.com, for information regarding the sale of this property, using the file number assigned to this case, T.S.# 9636-0549. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the internet Website. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. NBS Default Services, LLC 301 E. ## Wowser Schnauzers

Lester
 We are looking for volunteers to help with our pet adoption fairs which are held every Saturday at the Petco located at 537 N. Pacific Coast Highway in Redondo Beach, from noon-3: 30 p.m. If you are interested in volunteering and can commit to at least one Saturday a month, please contact us at info@msfr.org. You can also visit all of our Miniature Schnauzers & Friends rescues at the adoption fair or check out our website, www.msfr.org. If you have any questions about a particular dog's availability, you can email us at info@msfr.org. Schnauzers! Bet you can't adopt just one!

"If I didn't believe that things happen for a reason, I would have given up by now. My name is Lester and I'm a one-year old male Miniature Schnauzer mix who is finally ready to find my forever home. Just before Thanksgiving 2016, I was out searching for a turkey and not paying attention to where I was going had dire consequences. I got hit by a car and what a mess I was when I arrived at an LA city shelter! I had a broken jaw, broken pelvis, broken femur and a dislocated hip. The angels at MSFR took pity on me--I think it's because I'm such a cutie pie--and rescued me. They never gave up on me even though it took four surgeries to repair the broken bones and the medical bills were piling up. Then it was discovered that my urethra had been damaged, so two more surgeries were performed to try and correct that problem. I'm not sure if it will take more time for my urethra to heal, but it's a good thing that bellybands come in such great styles because they may become permanent attire for me. The road to recovery was an uphill battle with urinary tract infections, but I have proved to be a real trooper and I believe that there is a wonderful family waiting for me. I'm 21 pounds of personality and I'd be a great companion and addition to your family." If you're interested in Lester, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

"If you're looking for a petite little gal to bring you lots of love and loyalty, you can stop looking. The perfect gal for you is moi--Josie! I am one-year old Toy Poodle/Schnauzer mix whose short life has not been an easy one. All of my misfortunes haven't dampened my spirit or my optimism in my quest for my forever home. I ended up at an LA city shelter as a stray after getting lost in a terrible rainstorm. I was trying to find shelter when I think I may have been hit by a car. I can't exactly remember--possibly doggie amnesia. However; I do know that I arrived at the shelter with a broken femur, in pain and a horrible mess. When the MSFR folks rescued me, the first thing on the list was a trip to their veterinarian. He examined me and concluded that surgery was the only answer to repair my femur. I had my surgery in January followed by two months of rehab and then my two-month post-surgery x-rays. The conclusion is that I'm doing splendidly, but would greatly benefit with some walking therapy to strengthen my muscles. Thank goodness I'm only 10 pounds, so there's not much weight to put on my leg...but I'm thoroughly enjoying being able to play again. I'm truly a good-natured young lady who gets along great with small dogs who also love to play. Because of my size and being slightly fragile, a home without young children would be best for me." If you're interested in Josie, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

"Have you ever seen a two-year-old, 60-pound, male Catahoula mix dog? If you'd like to meet one, just ask for Earl. I was rescued from an LA county shelter where they called me a stray, but I was just lost. I'm very intelligent and would be a great addition to your family. I have fine leash and car manners, I'm housebroken, plus crate and doggy-door trained. I aced my leadership-based obedience classes--but like many large-breed adolescents, I can be stubborn. I would do best with an "alpha" handler who has experience and time to help me fulfill my potential. In fact, I thought I had found my forever home, but unfortunately I was returned after just a few months. My over-scheduled adopter decided that she did not have time for a young, very active dog who's a happy, playful, affectionate boy. I absolutely love people of all ages, sizes and genders." If you are interested in meeting Earl, please email Emread@verizon.net for more information.

Happy Tails

Congratulations Sunny, now named Lucky Lola!

Congratulations to Sunny, our rescue from early February with the inguinal hernia, and her new family. Sunny, who is now named Lola, met her new mom recently at our adoption fair and it was love at first sight. Lucky Lola, who now lives in Palos Verdes, has a 12-year-old human sister and a 10-year-old human brother to lavish her with love and attention. This little gal is their very first family dog, so they'll have lots of fun, happiness and adventures to share. Have a wonderful life filled with love! •

THEYELLOWDOGPROJECT.com

If you see a dog with a YELLOW RIBBON or something yellow on the leash, this is a dog who needs some space. Please do not approach this dog with your dog. Please maintain distance or give this dog and his/her person time to move out of your way.

There are many reasons why a dog may need space:

- HEALTH ISSUES
- IN TRAINING
- BEING REHABILITATED
- SCARED OR REACTIVE AROUND OTHER DOGS

THANK YOU!

Those of us who own these dogs appreciate your help and respect!
