Area High School Teacher Gets A Helpful Honda Classroom Makeover

While Hawthorne High School teacher Ivan Flores and his students were on a field trip earlier this month, The Helpful Guys in Blue crashed their classroom to give it a complete makeover with new furniture, accessories and supplies as part of SoCal Honda's Teacher Appreciation Surprise. Flores runs a program for students with moderate to severe learning disabilities with a main focus on functional skills. The classroom requires supplies the school isn't always able to subsidize, so Flores covers most of the expenses out of his own pocket. (Photo provided by SoCal Honda)

Inglewood Courthouse, City Hall Evacuated After Bomb Threat

By Cristian Vasquez

Firefighters and the L.A. County Sheriff's Department responded to a bomb threat made to the Los Angeles County Superior Courthouse in Inglewood located at 1 E. Regent Street. The threat was received in an email at 1:20 p.m. on Tuesday, prompting a bomb squad to respond and evacuate the courthouse, along with City Hall. The Sheriff's Department stated that the threat identified the courthouse and the school across the street (Crozier Middle School) but students had already been dismissed from class at the time of the evacuation.

As a safety precaution the courthouse and City Hall were evacuated, but no bomb was found and no reports of damaged property have been released.

Agreement Will Bring Community Impact Arts Grant to City

Mayor James T. Butts and the Inglewood City Council on Tuesday unanimously approved an agreement with the Los Angeles County Arts Commission for $10,200 through the Community Impact Arts Grant. Through the Parks, Recreation and Library Services Department the City applied for the one-year funding through the Community Impact Arts Grant (CIAG). The grant is designed to provide support for artrelated services and activities in any setting or situation considered "outside a traditional arts" environment. As a result of the application, the City was granted the funds in support of the Inglewood Senior History Artist in Residence (I-SHAIR) project.

I-SHAIR is described by the staff report as a community arts project that combines "resources, memories, and stories of Inglewood area seniors with contracted artists to realize a senior history arts project for the new Senior Center."

Inglewood's new Senior Center is halfway through the construction phase on the corner of Locust and Queen streets (111 N. Locust) and will provide 35,000-square feet of space within the two-story building and its two-level, underground parking garage. Through this new state-of-the-art facility, Inglewood seniors will be provided a wide range of programming after 10 years of senior center services being made available through scattered locations across the city. In addition, services will be expanded and incorporated using the latest technologies. Part of Inglewood's "Percent for Art Program" requirement, there will be an art component that will appear throughout the inside and outside of the building. Through the grant provided by the Los Angeles County Arts Commission, seniors attending the Senior Center will be provided the opportunity to participate in a community art project.

"In planning for the new Senior Center, the Mayor and Council members authorized the establishment of the Senior Center Advisory Committee (SCAC) in 2013 to advise on all matters related to the development of the new Senior Center," states the staff report signed by Parks, Recreation and Library Services Director Sabrina Barnes. Hawthorne Happenings

News for the City of Good Neighbors from an Old Guy named Norb Huber

A REGULAR GUY

Every year a few of us from the Historical Society gather to discuss who we would like to honor by selecting them to be inducted into our Hawthorne Hall of Fame. There are a lot of famous people who have lived in Hawthorne. They may have grown up here and started performing in Hawthorne. Yes, we know of the Beach Boys, Chris Montez, Marilyn Monroe, Jim Thorpe, and even Gorgeous George who all have called Hawthorne home. Our criteria for selection includes what the individual has done for their community. We ask what they have contributed back to their hometown. Sometimes we wish we were as talented and famous as these celebrities. Our lives would be so much better if only we could sing or dance or play a sport as well as our idols. As we all should realize, being famous is not always as great as it seems. God has given all of us unique talents and abilities. It's how we use those gifts that really matter. Don McIntire was just a regular guy. He was born in Inglewood and graduated in the first senior class at Hawthorne High School in 1955. He went to work at a local motor company and met his wife there. He worked for the City of Hawthorne in the Public Works and Parks departments for over 32 years. He volunteered to coach his kids' youth football and baseball teams for 16 years. Following retirement he worked at the Hawthorne Museum as a docent giving anyone and everyone an ear full of Hawthorne history. Don was just a regular guy who loved to talk, loved his family, and loved his city. Don McIntire was not a celebrity. He wasn't famous but in his own special way he made a difference in many peoples lives. If we are just a "regular guy or gal" we think that we are not that important. We go to work, we come home, do our chores and raise our kids. We do the regular stuff that most every parent does. Nothing that exciting. We may not be famous, but every working mom and dad who give of themselves to nurturing respectful, God-fearing children are special.

Being a parent who stays home and loves their children have done a much harder job than performing on stage or out on the field. It's that parental love that makes all the difference in a young person's life. All parents deserve to be inducted into their own hall of fame. Celebrate your victories, celebrate being just a regular. Have a cold one!

He was 2 feet 9 inches (84 cm) tall. The shortest street in Hawthorne is named after him. Eddings Brothers has been selected as the business honoree for their long time service to the community.

LESD Board of Trustees Appoints a New Leader

The Lawndale Elementary School District (LESD) Board of Trustees has announced the selection of Dr. Betsy Hamilton as the District's new Superintendent starting in the 2017-18 school year. Dr. Hamilton has served as LESD's Assistant Superintendent of Educational Services for the past seven years, and from the onset, her vision to serve as an agent for change was clear. Her daily work has focused on supporting all students' needs and she strives to ensure that Lawndale students receive access to a rigorous instructional program with effective differentiated supports. Under Dr. Hamilton's direction, the Lawndale Educational Services team has added a contingent of teacher leaders who focus on coaching and supporting instruction for all students.

Dr. Hamilton is a dedicated professional who has devoted her life to improving the lives of others through high-quality education. Recently, The Association of California School Administrators (ACSA) Region XIV selected Dr. Betsy Hamilton as the Assistant Superintendent of Educational Services of the Year. The award is presented annually to recognize an individual's outstanding performance, achievement, and commitment to the public-school system.

"Everyone in our district, from staff to stakeholders to students, admires and respects Dr. Hamilton. Her passion and drive to raise the bar and close learning gaps for students in the public education system have been a source of inspiration for colleagues. Dr. Hamilton believes all students have unlimited potential and she has done an outstanding job in developing educational programs that create the opportunities and challenges that will elevate our scholars to the next level. The students and staff of the Lawndale Elementary School District will be fortunate to have Dr. Hamilton at the helm of the District," said Dr. Ellen Dougherty, LESD's current Superintendent, who will retire at the end of June.

Dr. Hamilton's work will focus on student achievement and on the District's commitment to closing the achievement gap—continuing Dr. Dougherty's legacy and working from the foundations she has set in place in the District over the past eight years. •, •

PETSPETSIEDETSPETSPETS Wowser Schnauzers

We are looking for volunteers to help with our pet adoption fairs, which are held every Saturday at the Petco located at 537 N. Pacific Coast Highway in Redondo Beach from noon-3: 30 p.m. If you are interested in volunteering and can commit to at least one Saturday a month, please contact us at info@msfr.org. You can also visit all of our Miniature Schnauzers & Friends rescues at the adoption fair or check out our website, www.msfr.org. If you have any questions about a particular dog's availability, you can email us at info@msfr.org. Schnauzers! Bet you can't adopt just one!

My name is Bette – you know the one with the eyes? I'm a three-year old, white, female purebred Miniature Schnauzer. My daughter, Joan, and I were taking an evening stroll when the Inland Empire animal control spotted us. I told Joan to fasten her seatbelt because it was going to be a bumpy night and it certainly was. We ended up at an Inland Empire shelter where, because we had no identification, they called us 'strays.' I'm a voluptuous 23-pound lady/ I don't think I looked bad for a gal who had been used for breeding, so I did take exception with being labeled a 'stray.' I will admit that being matted and having that nasty parasitic illness, giardia, must have taken a toll on us because we looked pretty pitiful. To make matters worse, we've never been apart and Joan is a bit clingy. I'm hoping that I can find a loving family to take my daughter and myself because, unlike our namesakes, we truly love and adore each other. I think it would be great to spend the rest of our lives together because old age isn't for sissies and you can always use a friend." If you're interested in Bette, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

"Hello, my name is Joan and although my mother is a tough act to follow, I'll do my best. I'm a 1.5-year old, salt and pepper, female purebred Miniature Schnauzer who was taking an evening stroll with Bette when we were seized by animal control.

Since we had no identification and were looking like street urchins, we were taken to an Inland Empire shelter as strays. As if being dirty and matted wasn't bad enough, it was discovered that we were sick with giardia [parasite] and our accommodations weren't exactly five stars. No wonder I'm a bit clingy. That's a lot for a youngster to process. I'm happy to say that things are looking up since I've been bathed and my coat is silky and glistens. The giardia is a thing of the past and now I'm hoping to find a family willing to adopt me. Actually I would love to spend the rest of my life with my mother. Okay, I'm a little dependent-so a family that would adopt both of us is absolutely perfect. Please come see us at adoptions. I'm the 19-pound beauty and you'll agree we'd be a great addition to your family." If you're interested in Joan, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

"Good day! My moniker is Watkins and I'm a three-year old chap of questionable pedigree. It's been determined that I'm a Schnauzer/Cocker/mystery mix, but it will take a detective with the investigative skill of Sherlock Holmes to uncover the mystery. The kind folks of MSFR noticed me at an LA area shelter when they were liberating another dog and invited me to come along. As cute as I am, they couldn't understand why I hadn't been adopted--but it quickly became apparent to them. You see, I have a slight birth defect resulting in a deformed front left foot as it is missing the bottom of my of leg. I certainly have adapted famously and my other three legs definitely serve me well. I get along splendidly and have never let it deter me. I've been told that I'm 'cute as a button' and I'm quite sociable with other dogs. I have the eyes of an old soul, but I'm 18 pounds of joy with a face that will instantly capture your heart." If you're interested in Watkins, please email info@ msfr.org for more information. •

Happy Tails

Congratulations to Ramsey!

Hear-hear for Ramsey and his new mom! cat, we're happy to say it looks like a good Ramsev is our Carson rescue that was included match. Ramsev, who was a perfect gentleman with MSFR's rescue of Ferguson after being dumped at the shelter by his previous owner. Ramsey's mom had previously owned a Schnauzer and was looking for one that was "cat-friendly." After meeting Ramsey at adoptions and having an introduction to the was rewarded with a forever home in South Redondo Beach, just two blocks from the Esplanade! It gets even better. His mom works from home, so he'll get lots of love and attention. Best wishes for many years of laughter, happiness and love. •

Quinoa and Grapefruit Herb Salad

Ingredients

- 2 cups of cooked quinoa
- 1 grapefruit
- 2 tablespoons pistachios, chopped and roasted (optional)
- 1-2 small carrots, grated
- 1 tablespoon each of fresh parsley and dill, chopped
- Zest of 1 lemon
- Juice of half a lemon
- 1/4 teaspoon kosher salt
- Couple cracks of black pepper
- 2 tablespoons extra virgin olive oil

Preparation

- 1. Bring 1 3/4 cups of water to a boil and add 1/2 a teaspoon of salt. Add 3/4 cups of raw quinoa. Stir well, reduce to a simmer and cook uncovered for 20 minutes. Check the quinoa; the water should be absorbed and the grain should be fluffy. If the quinoa has not unraveled, add another 1/4 cup of water and cook until the water evaporates and the quinoa looks cooked. Fluff with a fork and allow to cool for up to two hours, or you can make ahead of time and refrigerate overnight.
- 2. Place the cooked, cooled quinoa in a large bowl. Using a knife, cut away all the skin from the grapefruit and cut all segments directly into the bowl. Add all the remaining ingredients and mix well.

included advising on matters ranging from Center amenities and parking to the location of meeting spaces, restrooms, furniture and

The staff report also indicates that members of the committee were vocal about their desire to include art and a history wall. Through I-SHAIR, Inglewood residents 50 and older will work with artists to develop artwork stemming from the exchange and discovery of seniors' histories.

Barnes reported that during a SCAC meeting in September 2016, consultants hosted a discussion regarding the words and images that the committee would like to use as inspiration for the artists' selection of text and images. On the list were words and images such as the celebration of age-life, liveliness, resilience, wisdom, love, honor and respect. Other members suggested representing historic, artistic and significant places such as the Centinela Adobe House, the train station, The Forum and the race track, with these members sharing experiences they had of these places. Simultaneously, SCAC members expressed a desire to display themes of looking forward and a sense of place and community. During the November 2016 meeting a handout distributed by art consultant Susan Narduli, responsible for incorporating art into the architecture of the building, included a first- and second-story rendering of the Great Wall mural. If approved, the Great Wall would serve as the background on which focal themes presented by the seniors on the committee would be highlighted. Yet to be determined is the medium for the artwork, which will be defined by the artist and can be in the form of oral history, video, audio, photography, spoken or written word, time-based works (recipe books/community meal) or a series of writings, but will be based on collaborative content obtained from the seniors.
