Welfare-To-Work, Direct Services Contract Amended by Council

By Cristian Vasquez

Approved by the Inglewood Mayor and members of the City Council was a recommendation by the city manager's office to move forward with Amendment No. 1 to the Welfare-to-Work Vocational and Direct Services Contract between the County of Los Angeles and the City of Inglewood.

The contract, which identifies the City of Inglewood as the administrative entity for the South Bay Workforce Investment Board (SBWIB), has been amended to increase the budget of the original agreement as well as the duration of the "subsidized assignments" from eight to 10 months for the Paid Work Experience and On-the-Job Training components.

"The SBWIB, Inc., is a California nonprofit

Welfare-To-Work Intermediary Contract between Los Angeles County and the City of Inglewood, in which the city acted as the administrative entity.

"The Welfare to Work Intermediary Contract serves many residents and businesses throughout Los Angeles County including the City of Inglewood," states the staff report. "There are worksites currently participating in the program that are located within the City of Inglewood."

This program comes at no cost to the city's general fund and any expenses that could arise from the program will be covered by the SBWIB, Inc. The amendment was originally enacted on Jan. 14, 2014 and increased subsidies for employment services to populations covered under the agreement. including Child and Family Team Youth, Non-CFT Youth and CalWORKs Youth. Simultaneously approved was Amendment No. 2, which provided additional funds to help refugees with Vocational English as Second Language [VESL] services. Funds for said services are made available through Targeted Assistance Discretionary Grant funds from the Federal office of Refugee Resettlement. A third amendment was approved on March 25, 2014 which increased funding for "subsidized employment and vocational services to existing populations (CalWORKS GAIN, Refugee, Child and Family Team Youth, Non-CFT Youth, CalWORKs Youth, and DCFS Foster Youth)," states the staff report. The agreement between the city and County was renewed on Feb. 9 of this year.

call repair services related to the Police Department's radio equipment.

The contract includes the option to extend the agreement for two additional, one-year terms and will not cost more than $63,632, which will be provided by the city's general fund.

"The Police Department uses Motorola two-way radio equipment to communicate between personnel, other law enforcement, and first responding agencies," states the staff report signed by Inglewood Chief of Police Mark Fronterotta.

"Since this is the Department's primary method of communication, it is important that the Department has an agreement with a qualified vendor that is capable of maintaining and providing on-call repair services in the event the equipment fails to work properly."

public benefit corporation, which contracts to provide job training and employment services to the Administrative Entity of the South Bay Workforce Investment Area (SBWIA)," states the staff report signed by Inglewood City Manager Artie Fields.

"The corporation serves as a nonprofit arm of the South Bay Workforce Investment Board. Because the SBWIB Inc., is an Internal Revenue Code Section 501c(3) corporation, it can receive tax deductible contributions from the private sector, which help to supplement the funds available through grants to provide job training and employment services throughout the South Bay."

A total of 11 cities make up the SBWIA, including the Cities of Inglewood, Hawthorne, Gardena, Lawndale, El Segundo, Manhattan Beach, Lomita, Torrance, Carson, Redondo Beach and Hermosa Beach. However, since Dec. 4, 2012 the City of Inglewood agreed to serve as the administrative entity for the SBWIB. By March 12 of the following year, the mayor and council approved the

A Request for Bid to find the appropriate vendor closed on April 23 and netted two responses, one from Advanced Electronics and the other from Commline Inc. Both vendors addressed pricing for two categories of radio equipment such as category I, which includes all fixed equipment and category II for all portable radio equipment.

"Option A is annual maintenance with nonserviceable maintenance parts (e.g. antennas, batteries, and belt clips) and Option B excludes non-serviceable maintenance parts," states the staff report. "After carefully reviewing the Department's need for items listed under Option A, it was determined that it would not be cost-effective to include annual replacement of these items in the agreement."

The selection of Option B for the purchase of non-serviceable items on an as-needed basis will reduce associated costs to the services. The annual cost for the services includes a $10,606 contingency fund to cover any related equipment, supplies, or services which are not itemized in the agreement. •

BiPro Computers receives Boeing Gold Level Performance Excellence Award

BiPro Computers announced that it has received Boeing's 2015 Gold Level Supplier Performance Excellence Award. The Boeing Company issues the award annually to recognize suppliers who have achieved superior performance. BiPro maintained a Gold level performance rating each month of the performance period from Oct. 1, 2014 to Sept. 30 2015, and this year is one of only 107 supplier to be awarded the Gold level of recognition. BiPro has been a Boeing Performance Excellence Award recipient for each of the past five years. BiPro supplies computers to Boeing for their Satellite, Defense and Aircraft divisions. Their computers also power cockpit demonstrators and flight simulators.

From City Clerk Norb Huber HOLLY PARK PANCAKE BREAKFAST

This Saturday, June 18th the Holly Park Homeowners Association will be sponsoring a pancake breakfast to help raise funds for their scholarship fund. It will be held at Olivet Lutheran Church located just East of Crenshaw on Imperial Highway. Times for the event is from 8 a.m. to 12 noon.

Fathers This Sunday is Fathers Day. My father had a great influence on me. Both my father and grandfather were Lutheran pastors. When my father was up in the pulpit preaching, he was communicating God's Word to me. As a youngster, he seemed like GOD to me. I never thought I could fill his shoes and follow in his footsteps. I became a teacher in Lutheran schools instead. It was with that same missionary mindset of wanting to help others that led me into the teaching/coaching profession and has motivated me for the past 39 years to continue to fight the good fight in our public schools. Almost every day, we are reminded of the sin that is in our world. We are surrounded by violence and death. I don't know about you, but I have yet to find anything in this world that I can put my trust in besides Jesus Christ. My prayer is that my children would also come to that knowledge of this saving grace. My heavenly father forgives and loves me, I in turn forgive and love my children, my wife, my friends, neighbors and even my enemies in like fashion. May God bless all fathers this week end.

FIREWORKS

You talk about controversy, just mention the word "fireworks" in or around the City of Hawthorne and you are certain to get an ear full from neighbors fired up over the illegal discharge of high flying rockets or super loud M80s that boom across our properties so resounding that they scare the termites chewing away in our attics. The frustrating part of this mess is that there is very little the good neighbors of our community can do to stop this constant infringement upon our peace and quiet. Yes, it is illegal. Yes, the violators can be cited. No, it's not easy to catch the violators "in the act". The firing off of any type of fireworks is prohibited except for the safe and sane type that are sold by our nonprofits during the week prior to the 4th of July. Even those legal ones can only be shot off from 12 noon til 10 p.m. on the 4th. As usual, it is a small number of neighbors who make life miserable for the rest of us. Many dogs must be kept inside and our veterans suffering from their war experiences sometimes have to leave the area or take a vacation to escape the chaos. Our Hawthorne Police force has the inevitable job of trying their best to deal with a no win situation. Like any law, if a citizen can get away with breaking that law without being caught, the temptation is there to break

it. To some, that's what gives them a thrill. If you know of a location that is violating the law, please call the HPD desk or 911 and give them the address. They cannot respond to every report, but they will have the address for future reference. Living in the big city comes with a price. With 90,000 people living within 5+ square miles of each other, there are bound to be some

TALENT SEARCH

Good Neighbors Day will be held on Saturday, July 16th this year and the Historical Society is looking for "Hawthorne talent". Here is your chance to show the world what you have. This could be your big start. If you ever have wanted to perform in front of an audience, please step right up onto our big stage and we will make you famous. The Boys, Marilyn, Russell Westbrook, and Gyasi all got their starts here in the City of Good Neighbors. It doesn't matter what your talent is, we will find a place and time for you to perform. Sing, dance, skate, skip, roller blade, draw, recite a poem, crack a joke, or anything in between, we really want you to participate. Please contact us using my email below. The big event is only five weeks away, so start practicing. If you know of friends or relatives who want to perform, let them know. Garage bands are welcome. We look forward to a fun day this mid-summer. (Vendors and exhibitors are also invited to set up a table that day. If interested, do the same, contact me using my email.)

HAWTHORNE "MOMENTS"

It's amazing to me that Hawthorne is connected to the world in so many different ways. Just in the past two weeks, I can count four Hawthorne "moments" that are noteworthy. June 1st was Marilyn Monroe's 90th birthday, some say her

Centinela Valley Historical Society BBQ

The Rancho Adobe, considered the first house of the South Bay, was built in 1834 by Ignacio Machado.

A walk through the Centinela Adobe Complex represents a walk back in time, a throwback, but one brimming with vestiges of a past still within reach of today's modernity.

The crank phone on the wall, the vintage adding machines and typewriters give a glimpse of operations just a generational stone's throw shy of the digital divide.

This weekend, over 300 neighbors and friends attended the 41st Annual BBQ and fundraiser. Participants enjoyed a vintage car show, consumed a communal meal and toured the three buildings.

The two-acre compound houses three separate structures. The Rancho Adobe, considered the first house of the South Bay, was built in 1834 by Ignacio Machado. The Walter Haskell Research Center features a war room, with photographs and memorabilia from the Civil War through the Gulf War era.

The land offices of Daniel Freeman, a cottage home with the first floor office preserved much the same as the original space, was relocated here in 1975 from the original site at Florence and Inglewood avenues. At that crossing where a railroad station, livery stable and boarding house stood in 1888, Freeman, a distinguished lawyer from Canada, sold the lots that would create the new town of Inglewood. Today, a walk-through gives one a sense of the bustling business handled here.

The museum complex, operated by the Historical Society of the Centinela Valley, is a repository of artifacts, furnishings and memorabilia from the mid- and late 1800s.

It's a place to visit often, taking in the essence of the pioneering families of this local community. You'll leave wanting more.

The Centinela Abode Complex is open Sundays from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. A Fiesta Day event is planned for September. •

Finance People Are Discovering A New Way To Boost Their Portfolio

(BPT) - As a volatile market sends ripples through the global economy, many investors are worried about how events overseas will impact their portfolio. In addition, concerns about political instability in much of the world have contributed to a heightened sense of worry and stress among investors. However, while the risks in traditional markets are real, 2016 is full of opportunities for the investor who is to build a diverse portfolio and reduce risk.

Risk-adjusted returns. Marketplace lending platforms provide a product that offers competitive return rates relative to other investment products. Investors can choose to peruse the marketplace lending website manually to find the loans that match their risk tolerance. They can also use a tool available on some of the marketplace lending sites that will

"However, while the risks in traditional markets are real, 2016 is full of opportunities for the investor who is willing to think a little differently."

willing to think a little differently.

In the face of these uncertainties, the standard advice is for investors to diversify their portfolio. Many have been doing this by taking money out of their dividend-paying stocks and corporate bonds and investing in marketplace lending.

Marketplace Lending

Marketplace lending platforms, sometimes called peer-to-peer (P2P) lenders, are online marketplaces that connect credit-worthy borrowers with individuals seeking investment opportunities. This gives individual investors low-cost access to high-yield consumer loans an attractive new asset class that was previously only accessible to large institutions.

As an alternative investment strategy, investing in marketplace loans has helped investors diversify their portfolio.

Early investors discovered five secrets that are still the keys to understanding why more people are choosing to diversify their portfolios through marketplace lending. They are:

Proven returns. Individuals who invest through Prosper, a leading marketplace lending platform, can earn an estimated 6.8 percent in returns.

Simple and fast. Investors go through an authorization process on a marketplace lending website to link their profile with their bank, or do a money transfer, in order to establish bank or institutional credentials. The process can be completed within a short period of time, allowing people to start investing in a matter of days.

Reduced risk. With marketplace lending, investors can diversify by investing in many different loans (in $25 increments). Many choose to invest in a number of different loans in order run a search to help the user easily invest in the specific type of loans they are looking for.

Positive social impact. P2P lending is not only a way to strengthen your financial plans, it offers real benefits to individuals and the community. Prosper Marketplace recently conducted a study and found that over 60 percent of Americans have credit card debt and two-thirds are going deeper into debt by not paying them off in full. With so many Americans struggling with debt, it's no surprise that marketplace loans are becoming a popular option for debt consolidation. Individuals can invest in this debt knowing that marketplace lending platforms leverage technology to assess risk and determine a credit rating.

The following disclaimer can be used to clarify the 6.8 percent return mentioned under the "Proven results" section:

Estimated returns are calculated by taking the weighted average borrower interest rate for all loans originated during the period, adding (ii) estimated collected late fees and post charge-off principal recovery for such loans, and subtracting (iii) the servicing fee, estimated uncollected interest on charge-offs and estimated principal loss on charge-offs from such loans. The actual return on any Note depends on the prepayment and delinquency pattern of the loan underlying each Note, which is highly uncertain. Individual results may vary and projections can change. Past performance is no guarantee of future results and the information presented is not intended to be investment advice or a guarantee about the performance of any Note. •

We are looking for volunteers to help with our pet adoption fairs which are held every Saturday at the Petco located at 537 N. Pacific Coast Highway Redondo Beach 90277, from noon to 3:30 p.m. If you are interested in volunteering and can commit to at least one Saturday a month, please contact us at info@msfr.org. You can also visit all of our Miniature Schnauzers & Friends rescues at the adoption fair or check out our website, www.msfr.org. If you have any questions about a particular dog's availability you can email us at info@msfr.org. Schnauzers! Bet you can't adopt just one!

Have you ever looked at a picture of a pretty, little, female Poodle mix and thought, "Gee she's precious?" Well, yes I am! They call me Precious because I'm such a sweet, gentle, well-mannered mother of three pups who, along with myself, were dumped at an L.A. county shelter by our owner. Our owner decided he had too many dogs and just abandoned us without a second thought. The MSFR folks had rescued one of my Schnoodles (Schnauzer/Poodle mix) and decided the next day to come back for me. You can read about two of my "kiddos" (Flo and Snow) below. After being neglected for so long I was a matted mess and had little hope of ever finding someone to adopt me. The matting was so bad that I had to be stripped down. What a difference, I definitely look tiny, only nine pounds, but I can guarantee that my coat will grow in and it will be glistening white. If you are interested in Precious, please email info@ msfr.org for more information

Hello, my name is Flo and you've already met my mom, Precious. Our previous owner dumped my brother, my mother and me at a L.A. County shelter because he had too many dogs. I was told that I had someone who wanted to adopt me but they never followed through. I can't say that I blame them. I was such a dirty hot mess with matted hair and a large abscess on the side of my face. As it turned out the abscess was caused by an embedded foxtail but a trip to the vet and antibiotics made quick work of that. I'm a very petite gal, weighing in at five pounds, but I'm also only three months old. My approximate date of birth is March 1, 2016, so I'm still a pup but even when I'm full-grown the "guestimate" is that I would only weigh 15-20 pounds. Schnoodles (Schnauzer/Poodle mix) aren't very big but they are very cute, sweet, loving and make perfect companions. If you are interested in Flo, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

male of the trio, am called Snow. We were all dumped at an L.A. shelter after our previous owner realized he had more dogs than he could handle. I too am a 3-monthold Schnoodle (Schnauzer/Pooodle mix), weighing only five pounds but will probably weigh 15-20 pounds when full-grown. We think my birthday is March 1, 2016, which means I'm still just a pup with lots to learn. I actually was adopted but the folks returned me to the shelter the following week because I was "too vocal" and their neighbors complained. How was I supposed to know that I had to use my indoor voice? I had no training and I was alone all day so I just started to sing to entertain myself. I'm a cutie, I'm a sweetie and I want to be yours! If you are interested in Snow, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

Hi there! May name is Toby and I'm a 2-year-old male Schnauzer mix. I'm still not certain what happened but one minute I was out exploring the neighborhood and the next I'm at a L.A. County shelter being called a stray. I was micro-chipped so I figured my folks would be notified and I'd be home in a heartbeat. Can you imagine how devastated I was when they decided not to reclaim me and actually relinquished me to the shelter? I have no idea why after spending my puppyhood with them they decided to kick me to the curb. I'm only 8.5 pounds so it couldn't have been because I was too big. I have a really sweet face with huge, dark, soulful eyes so it couldn't have been because I'm no longer cute. I guess they decided that they really didn't want someone who gets along with everyone, has a happy-go-lucky personality and a real love. I'm sure I'll find a much better home, could it be with you? If you are interested in Toby, please email info@ msfr.org for more information. •

It looks like Teresa has hit the forever-home lottery! Her new family is not only long time day to play with them. Needless to say this Schnauzer lovers, this being their sixth one, but they also have a beautiful black and silver into their arms and is looking for many, happy mini sister and a senior cat. Not only that but times with folks. Congratulations to everyone.
