The Aerospace Players Star in Seussical the Musical

A wildly talented cast of 45 community members accompanied by a live orchestra present Seussical at Torrance's James R. Armstrong Theatre, with a six-night run that began last weekend and will continue on July 27, 28 and 29. The show highlights many beloved Dr. Seuss characters as they sing and dance through whimsical lands. In this photo from "Notice Me Horton," Angela Asch portrays Gertrude McFuzz and Matt Garber is Horton the Elephant. Photo by John Nolan (cast member).

Inglewood City Council Agrees To Issue Tax-Exempt Revenue Bonds by CalPFA

By Cristian Vasquez

With no comments from residents in attendance during the scheduled public hearing on Tuesday, members of the Inglewood City Council and the Mayor voted to adopt a resolution approving the issuance of tax-exempt revenue bonds by the California Public Finance Authority (CalPFA).

The approved resolution will allow the City of Inglewood to issue one, or a series of, tax-exempt bonds worth no more than $17 million, which are to be used for the acquisition of a rental housing property at 510 and 512 Centinela Avenue.

In order to be in compliance with state and federal law, the City was mandated to conduct a TEFRA public hearing prior to issuing any bonds. According to the staff report, these bonds are considered limited obligations of CalPFA and are to be paid in full by the borrower.

"TEFRA stands for the Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982, which states that the public has the authority to be heard prior to the issuance of tax exempt bonds," said Acting HUD Programs Manager Harjinder Sing. "It is important to stress that the City is in no way responsible for the payment of these bonds, as they are solely the responsibility of borrower, Good Shepherd Home Preservation."

CalPFA was established by the State of California as a political subdivision under the Joint Powers Act for the sole purpose of issuing tax-exempt bonds to both public and private entities. However, the law prohibits CalPFA from issuing bonds for any project that has not first conducted a TEFRA public hearing, in addition to obtaining permission from the governing body for the jurisdiction where the property is located.

The staff report signed by Sing and City Manager Artie Fields describes CalPFA as being "empowered to promote economic, cultural and community development opportunities that create temporary and permanent jobs, affordable housing, community infrastructure and improve the overall quality of life in local communities." In January of this year, CalPFA financed the Pacific Rim Apartments in the City of Inglewood. CalPFA is also responsible for providing a 10 percent annual payment of the City's administrative fees.

Good Shepherd Homes Apartments (the project's name), which the bonds will fund, is a 70-unit, senior-multifamily rental housing complex owned by Good Shepherd Homes Preservation, L.P. With the funds, Good Shepherd Homes will be capable of acquiring and rehabilitating the complex and in turn provide local senior residents with additional affordable housing units.

"Staff recommends that the bonds be issued

El Camino, Northrop Grumman to Sponsor “Global Innovation Summit”

The El Camino College Industry & Technology Division is partnering with Northrop Grumman Aerospace Systems (NGAS) to sponsor an exciting morning of innovation, science and creativity.

The Northrop Grumman Global Innovation Summit is an intern and student demonstration activity similar to a live-action video game. The summit is scheduled for 9 a.m. to noon July 28 in El Camino College’s Murdock Stadium. The event is free and open to the public--everyone is encouraged to attend!

Five teams of ECC/Hawthorne High School students and Northrop Grumman interns will battle together to save the world from simulated wildfires ravaging the planet. They’ll accomplish this feat using RC planes, quad copters, and rovers (with silly string!) they have spent their summer designing, building and flying.

“This is a great opportunity for our students to incorporate their technical skills and critical thinking, along with communication and teamwork,” said El Camino College Industry & Technology Division Dean Stephanie Rodriguez.

One of Northrop Grumman’s initiatives to encourage STEM education across the globe, the event is designed to bring student teams together to solve problems.

“The NG mentor team noticed that while many schools and workplaces focus on teaching technical skills, what often is the pivotal factor is the ability communicate and work as a team,” said Katie Halmagean, NGAS aerospace engineer and demonstration program lead. “We constructed a fun project with technical challenges, yet it requires collaboration, rapid innovation and creativity from all five teams to succeed.”

At the summit, wildfires will be represented with six-foot-tall fabric flames on a football field-sized map of the world. Each vehicle has a critical and unique role to extinguish the fires, as each of the teams use technology, and above all, cooperation, to support this simulated disaster relief.

El Camino College is located at 16007 Crenshaw Boulevard, Torrance. Campus parking is $3. For more information about the Global Innovation Summit, contact Karen Latuner at 310-660-3593, extension 3520, or view <https://tinyurl.com/NGGlobalInnovationSummit>. - Content: El Camino College

Airport Board Approves Projects Connecting All Nine Terminals Beyond Security Screening

Los Angeles Board of Airport Commissioners (BOAC) this month approved a project to modernize Terminals 2 and 3, as well as connect them to the Tom Bradley International Terminal (TBIT). The group also voted in favor of a lease agreement with Southwest Airlines for a new building (Terminal 1.5) that will include a connector between Terminals 1 and 2, as well as space for additional ticket counters, baggage carousels, a bus gate and an additional Security Screening Check Point.

BOAC took a number of actions as it approved the Terminal 2 and 3 Modernization Project, including certification of the Final Environmental Impact Report and adoption of the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) Findings of Fact, the Statement of Overriding Considerations and the Mitigation and Monitoring Reporting Program (MMRP). The commissioners also recommended that the Los Angeles City Council concur with their actions.

Delta Air Lines plans to invest as much as $1.9 billion in the modernization, which would include upgrading the Terminal 2 concourse, demolition and reconstruction of the Terminal 3 concourse building, demolition of the southern appendages of the Terminal 3 satellite, and demolition and reconstruction of the passenger and baggage processing facilities (ticketing buildings). According to the environmental impact statement, reconfiguration of the gates as part of the projects could add as many as four gates between the two terminals.

The BOAC also approved two actions related to Southwest Airlines, amending its Terminal Delta Air Lines’ plan for Terminals 2 and 3 includes a connector to the Tom Bradley International Terminal Facility Lease and License Agreement for space in Terminal 1 while approving a new lease for the future Terminal 1.5.

The new building is a 417,515-square-foot, six-level facility that will span the gap between Terminals 1 and 2, and require demolition of Gate 10 in Terminal 1. In addition to providing space for baggage claims, ticket counters, a Security Screening Check Point, and two floors of office space, the building will connect Terminals 1 and 2. There will be connections between the non-secured areas of the terminals on the Lower/Arrivals and Upper/Departures levels, while the connection on the Concourse Level will be on the secured side of the building, allowing passengers to more easily transfer between the terminals.

Terminal 1.5, estimated to cost $490 million and expected to open in 2020, will also include a vertical circulation core to connect it to the future Automated People Mover, and feature a bus gate that will allow Southwest Airlines to transport passengers to TBIT for international flights. • - Content: Abridged from LAWA Press Release

Unlock The Secret To Healthy Aging By Improving Your Health In Three Key Areas

(BPT) - You’re still just as active as you were in your thirties and forties, but as you continue to add those candles to your birthday cake each year, you can feel the effects of aging starting to take a toll on your body. As you age, your body needs a little extra care to maintain optimal health; that’s why you go for your morning walk and eat a balanced diet. These things can help you support your overall well-being, but there are other factors to consider if you want to live a healthier, more active lifestyle as you grow older.

“Many people don’t realize how much of an impact hormone, heart, and bone and joint health can have on their day-to-day lives,” says Dr. Andrew Halpner, vice president of science and technical services at Douglas Laboratories. To maintain this ideal lifestyle, he offers his advice on ways you can support your health in each of these key areas.

Properly balanced hormone levels are one of the most important factors when it comes to staying healthy as you age. Healthy hormone levels support healthy sexual function, body weight, sleep and glucose metabolism.

Establishing a healthy diet, ensuring sufficient sleep and making time for recreation are great first steps toward supporting your hormone health. It is also important to consult your healthcare provider to discuss regular blood work to monitor your hormone levels.

Finally, to help maintain healthy glucose metabolism and tissues, add a nutritional supplement, such as Wobenzym Plus, to your daily regimen.*

Heart health is an important part of any healthy aging plan. You’re already monitoring your lipid profile diligently, but what else can you do?

Lipid levels are important, but maintaining glucose homeostasis and cytokine balance is just as important to supporting proper heart health.

A healthy diet that focuses on fiber and regulates carbohydrate intake has been proven to support healthy glucose levels. Consider complementing your diet with regular exercise and nutritional supplements to further support good health.*

Maintaining healthy bone and joint function is critical for both men and women. When bones are weak or joints are stiff, it can be difficult to keep up your desired level of activity.

Bone health is directly impacted by vitamin D levels. To support these function areas, boost vitamin D by spending brief periods of time in the sun - with sun protection, of course - or consult your healthcare provider about taking a supplement to achieve optimum vitamin D levels.* Additionally, adding a nutritional supplement such as Wobenzym Plus can help provide temporary relief from everyday aches and pains to ensure that when you want to be active, your bones and joints are ready to keep up with you.*

A balanced diet and moderate exercise are the building blocks of any health regimen, but as the years pass, your body may need additional support. Remember your hormones, heart, bones and joints when tailoring your health plan and consult your healthcare provider before introducing any new products into your routine. ## News for the City of Good Neighbors from an Old Guy named Norb Huber

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

What's happening in Hawthorne? Here are some really random Hawthorne happenings. My brain is locked and I really can't think of anything newsworthy to write about. The sidewalk repairs and replacements in the Ramona Tract have been completed recently. A new pedestrian bridge over Crenshaw Blvd. for SpaceX employees to use to get safely from their parking structure to their job site was put up over this past weekend. A "hole in the wall" eatery has become a very popular place for Mexican food. Mi Zacatecas Mexican restaurant on Inglewood Avenue on some nights has a line out the door. The Boring Company is asking permission to dig a tunnel under 120th Street from Crenshaw to Hawthorne Blvd. and maybe further. Hawthorne would be the first city in the nation to try going underground to beat traffic. Maybe there will be extra parking spots underground also since there is a shortage of spots on our streets. The Dodgers continue to win and no one can watch them on television since no one has Spectrum cable. Two more futsal soccer courts are being constructed at Jim Thorpe Park thanks to the LA Galaxy Foundation and the Hawthorne Police Department. The temps might not be so bad, but we are not used to the high humidity readings lately. July 21st was the 48th anniversary of man first walking on the moon. Where were you? This Sunday is National Hot Fudge Sundae Day. Now that is something to celebrate! Forget the diet. Forget your waistline. Indulge and enjoy. For me, ice cream ranks right up there with beer, hot dogs and donuts. Have some random fun and food while you enjoy some summer happenings in

Hawthorne. HISTORICAL SOCIETY UPDATE

Thanks to all of you who came out to help the HHS move their belongings into the new Hawthorne Museum. The day went well and all of the furniture and memorabilia is inside the building. Now the fun begins. Hundreds of photos and articles have to be sorted out to determine how or whether we will put them out on display. As that work progresses, we will also get ready for September 16th. That is the Saturday for Good Neighbors Day, the first annual John Baker Memorial Car Show, and the grand opening of the Museum at the Jim Thorpe Park site. Call Danny at 310-643-6139 if you would like to get involved. The next open meeting of the Hawthorne Historical Society will be held on Monday, August 7th at 6:30 p.m. at the museum located at 14100 S. Prairie Avenue. We need your help.

RESOLVE TO RISE

There will be a "Right Touch" workshop this Saturday, July 29th at 10 a.m. at the Fun Ship Learning Preschool sponsored by Resolve to Rise. The workshop is meant for children and their parents to learn how to prevent sexual abuse. Please RSVP by calling 310-465-8652 or go to eventbrite.com and search: the Right Touch.

MOVING VACATION

I'll be up in Northern California this weekend helping my daughter and family move all of their earthly possessions into a home they purchased. The forecast calls for 102 degree heat all weekend. Those cold ones will be looking pretty good after lifting boxes and getting a tad bit sweaty climbing stairs. Yes, they do have a swimming pool. I hope it's full of water. •

“They call me Glory and I certainly am in mine now that I’ve been rescued. I kept hearing about the impending Fourth of July fireworks, so I thought I’d find a place to hide before they started. Little did I know that so many houses looked like mine and therein lies the reason for my getting lost. I wandered around and eventually ended up at an LA county shelter. They called me a stray, but I’m really a three-year old female Schnoodle--Schnauzer/Poodle mix--who is just a tiny 14 pounds. When I arrived, I must admit I was a real mess--filthy, dark gray, matted dreadlocks is the only way to describe my coat. After a bath and something called a grooming, even I didn’t recognize me. Who was this beautiful gal with the glistening white coat and huge, dark eyes? I even had someone who was going to adopt me... but then sadly, they didn’t show up to take me home. However, it was really fortuitous shelter as a stray, but since I had a microchip I was pretty confident I'd be home soon. Not so, since the chip was never registered by my previous owners. Consequently, I had to wait--and wait and wait--while they tried to locate my owner, but to no avail. Since I was a matted mess when I arrived at the shelter, no one had any idea how good-looking I was until I was rescued and got groomed. I've got a shiny black coat, cropped ears, the most expressive eyes and a docked tail, so I'm really quite stunning. As far as my personality...

well, I'm 18 pounds of fun and friendly and just looking for my forever family to love."

If you're interested in Linc, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

“Hello, my name is Bonsai and I’m an adorable eight-year old female Chihuahua. I know I would be a perfect addition to any family--especially yours. I have beautiful brown eyes that contrast nicely with my cream-colored coat and the sweetest personality. I love kids, am friendly with strangers and I’m just as happy to curl up on your lap and give kisses as I am to go for a brisk walk. Even though I would prefer to be an only dog, I get along well with dogs 10 times my size. Since I am no longer a puppy, eight years old is considered middle-aged for Chihuahuas. You don’t have to worry about me chewing up your shoes or your furniture, but I still have many more years of love and companionship to share. At approximately six pounds, I am the perfect size to take traveling--even in a purse. Once you meet me, I’m sure you’ll be charmed by my sweet smile and a tail that never stops wagging!”

Bonsai can be seen by appointment at Yellow Brick Road Doggie Playcare in El Segundo. Call 310-606-5507 or email southbaydoggie@hotmail.com for an appointment or more information. •

Happy Tails

Liam loves his new family - congratulations all around!

Congratulations to our little guy Liam and his new family. Liam, now known as Teddy, is the adorable black Bichon Frise/Poodle mix that we rescued from an LA county shelter. After being rejected five times by folks who were no-shows to adopt him, he hit the lottery when he was rescued. His new family definitely was worth waiting for! They are previous MSFR adopters and Teddy's new "sister" is Missy, who is a former MSFR alumni named Skyler. In addition to Missy, Teddy also has two human brothers who instantly fell in love with this guy when introduced at adoptions. This happy family is residing in North Redondo and we hope that they'll drop by to visit. •

Preparation

1. About 30 minutes before baking the pizza, preheat the oven to 500 F and place a large, rimless baking sheet in the lower third of the oven; for the most even cooking and optimal heat distribution. Place a large sheet of parchment paper on a work surface and dust the parchment lightly with flour. Stretch dough using hands or rolling pin. Pierce the dough firmly all over with the tines of a fork.
2. Slide pizza with parchment onto a baking sheet, then slide it onto the hot rimless baking sheet in the oven.
3. When the dough is slightly puffed, at about 7 minutes, take out of oven and spread on pesto mixture, top with mozzarella cheese, cherry tomatoes, Parmesan and ham. Place back in oven for another 3 minutes until cheese is melted. Slide pizza out, crack four eggs (one on each quarter of pizza), place back in oven and broil for about 4 minutes or until egg cooks to over easy.
4. Grab the edge of the parchment and transfer the pizza from the oven to a cutting board. Drop ricotta cheese by rounded teaspoonful over top, sprinkle with salt and pepper. cut and serve.

auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call or visit the Internet Web site, using the file number assigned to this case 17-004881. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. www.Auction.com or call (800) 280-2832 Or Aztec Foreclosure Corporation (877) 257-0717 www.aztecdtrustee.com NPP0311968 To: LAWNDAL TRIBUNE 07/13/2017, 07/20/2017, 07/27/2017 Lawndale Tribune Pub. 7/13, 7/20, 7/27/17 HL-25657

Should Los Angeles Football Fans Choose the Rams as Their Team?

This year's Rams roster could boast as many as 10 new starters when the NFL season begins. Those new starters will be most easily recognized on the offensive side of the ball and specifically under center. Though quarterback Jared Goff eventually made a few starts once head coach Jeff Fisher got fired, he didn't start the season as the main signal-caller of the team. This year should bring with it added responsibility for Goff, which will either make or break the quarterback's future with

It was no question that the Rams needed to shake things up on the roster after a four-win season in a very competitive NFC West division. Los Angeles has done its part to strengthen the roster with new coaches

The Rams are 13 years removed from the playoffs and 14 years removed from their last winning season. Now is the time to show that they are on course for a future playoff appearance. The team may not have what it takes to beat out their divisional opponents this season, but they can certainly begin to make a mark on the league and on the city of Los Angeles before another team bolts in and steals their thunder. •
