School Garden Built in One Day

A Lowe's Hero Volunteer and students working together at the Environmental Charter School – Inglewood (ECMS-I). In partnership with Lowe's and ECMS-I, The Nature Conservancy conducted a one-day garden build Wednesday on the school's campus. The garden was built using drought-resistant plants native to southern California, allowing the school and its students to take action to address the drought in California. Environmental Charter Schools are located in South Los Angeles, and more than 80% of the students qualify for free and reduced lunch. Most will be the first in their family to go to college. ## Permission Granted For Use of IUSD Properties For After School Recreation Program

By Cristian Vasquez

Inglewood Mayor James T. Butts was given authorization to sign a permit that will allow for the use of Inglewood Unified School District [IUSD] properties for a provision regarding the city's After School Recreation Program [ASRP].

The property to be affected is Beulah Payne Elementary School whose principal, Karen Horowitz, petitioned that it be included in the city's ASRP, along with the nine other IUSD school sites.

"Principal Horowitz stated that although Beulah Payne has IUSD's ARC after-school program on site, the program is full and there are approximately 50 children waiting to enroll," states the staff report signed by Parks, Recreation, and Library Services Director Sabrina Barnes. "Principal Horowitz stated that she will refer the children on the waiting list and the additional parents inquiring about an after-school program to the City's ASRP."

On June 30, Mayor Butts and members of the City Council received and authorized the submission of permits in order to operate IUSD's nine ASRP sites. Those site include Bennett-Kew, Centinela, Highland, Hudnall, Kelso, Oak, Worthington, La Tijera and Parent Schools. Through the addition of, and by assigning, Beulah Payne as an ASRP site the city council is ensuring that 50-75 school children and their families will be benefit from the after school program. It is estimated that the fees generated at Beulah Payne for the ASRP will generate $24,000 in additional offsetting revenue.

"The current City staffing levels (a Senior Recreation Leader, a Recreation Leader II, and 20 Recreation Leaders) budgeted for the ASRP is sufficient to cover adding one more program site," states the staff report. "The City will provide staff for the program, which includes a minimum of two Recreational Leaders to supervise and provide program participants with homework assistance, arts and crafts, instructional reports, recreational play and other enrichment activities such as reading."

ASRP at Beulah Payne will operate until June 9, 2016, Monday through Friday from 2-4 p.m. A recreational leader will be assigned as a facilitator responsible for coordinating the education, enrichment and recreation programming.

Third Party Administrative Services Will Handle City's Workers' Compensation Claims

An approved amendment to agreement No. 14-021 with AdminSure, Inc. to handle the city's workers' compensation claims has been approved and extended by the Inglewood Mayor and City Council.

AdminSure, Inc. was one of the vendors that responded to the city's Request For Approval on July 8, 2013 for pricing in handling workers' compensation claims for the city. On Oct. 29, 2013 the city approved a two-year agreement with AdminSure, Inc. The staff report states that the third-party services provided have thus far been exceptional and in the first year of full services, 2014, the city experienced a 27 percent reduction of claims. Furthermore, this year and only into the ninth month of the calendar year, claims are down by 40 percent. With more than 200 claims yet to be settled or closed, the city is confident that extending the agreement with the current vendor will eliminate the remaining claims.

"It is imperative AdminSure continues to manage the workers' compensation claim process to maintain consistency allowing more time to settle the old claims that were left unattended by the prior third-party administrator," indicates the staff report. "The City's current agreement with AdminSure, Inc. is set to expire on October 31, 2015. The agreement has the option of being extended for two additional terms of one year each, upon the written agreement of both parties."

Police Seek Public's Help To Solve Kidnapping

The Inglewood Police continues its search for two men who were reported to have forced a woman and small child into the trunk of a car.

The incident took place outside of a discount store, in the parking lot of the Inglewood Shopping Center in the 2800 block of West Imperial Highway, on Oct. 17 at around 11:10 a.m.

Police reported that witnesses saw two men in their 20s approach the woman and child as they made their way toward silver, late-model, four-door Mercedes-Benz equipped with rims and tinted. As the victim and child reached the driver's side door, the suspects forced the woman to give up her keys, resulting in her and the child being pushed into the trunk of the vehicle.

Witnesses reported the suspects driving east on Imperial Highway. Both men were described as African-American, 5 feet 3 inches tall and an estimated to weigh 140 pounds. One suspect was described as having short hair and wearing a gray striped T-shirt, and blue jeans. The other suspect was wearing black pants, a denim blue jacket, white shirt and black baseball cap.

The victim was described as a light-skinned, African-American in her 20s. She was wearing a blue denim jacket with similar pants and a colorful scarf. The young child was described as African American with braided hair and was wearing a pink T-shirt and diaper.

IPD asks that anyone with information about the incident call the Inglewood Police Department at (310) 412- 5240. •

Cassini Spacecraft Sends Best-Ever Views of Saturn’s Moon Enceladus

Based on press releases from JPL and ESO, provided by Bob Eklund

NASA’s Cassini spacecraft has begun returning its best-ever views of the northern extremes of Saturn’s icy, ocean-bearing moon Enceladus. The spacecraft obtained the images during its Oct. 14 flyby, passing 1,142 miles above the moon’s surface.

Scientists expected the north polar region of Enceladus to be heavily cratered, based on low-resolution images from the Voyager mission, but the new high-resolution Cassini images show a landscape of stark contrasts. “The northern regions are crisscrossed by a spidery network of gossamer-thin cracks that slice through the craters,” said Paul Helfenstein, a member of the Cassini imaging team at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York. “These thin cracks are ubiquitous on Enceladus, and now we see that they extend across the northern terrains as well.”

Cassini’s next encounter with Enceladus is planned for Oct. 28, when the spacecraft will come within 30 miles of the moon’s south polar region. During the encounter, Cassini will make its deepest-ever dive through the moon’s plume of icy spray, sampling the chemistry of the extraterrestrial ocean beneath the ice. Mission scientists are hopeful data from that flyby will provide evidence of how much hydrothermal activity is occurring in the moon’s ocean, along with more detailed insights about the ocean’s chemistry—both of which relate to the potential habitability of Enceladus.

Cassini’s final close Enceladus flyby will take place on Dec. 19, when the spacecraft will measure the amount of heat coming from the moon’s interior. The flyby will be at an altitude of 3,106 miles.

CHILEAN OBSERVATORY IMAGES COSMIC “COAL SACK”

Dark smudges almost block out a rich star field in a new image captured by the Wide Field Imager camera, installed on the MPG/ESO 2.2-meter telescope at ESO’s La Silla Observatory in Chile. The inky areas are small parts of a huge dark nebula known as the Coalsack, one of the most prominent objects of its kind visible to the unaided eye. Millions of years from now, chunks of the Coalsack will ignite, rather like its fossil fuel namesake, with the glow of many young stars.

The Coalsack Nebula (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Coalsack\_Nebula) is located about 600 light-years away in the constellation of Crux (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Crux -- The Southern Cross). This huge, dusky object forms a conspicuous silhouette against the bright, starry band of the Milky Way and for this reason the nebula has been known to people in the southern hemisphere for as long as our species has existed.

The Spanish explorer Vicente Yáñez Pinzón first reported the existence of the Coalsack Nebula to Europe in 1499. The Coalsack later garnered the nickname of the Black Magellanic Cloud, a play on its dark appearance compared to the bright glow of the two Magellanic Clouds (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Magellanic\_Clouds), which are in fact satellite galaxies of the Milky Way. These two bright galaxies are clearly visible in the southern sky and came to the attention of Europeans during Ferdinand Magellan’s explorations in the 16th century. However, the Coalsack is not a galaxy. Like other dark nebulae, it is actually an interstellar cloud of dust so thick that it prevents most of the background starlight from reaching observers. •

News for the ‘City of Good Neighbors’

From City Clerk Norb Huber

VOTE, VOTE, VOTE!

This is it. Next Tuesday, November 3, is Election Day here in the city of Hawthorne. This is the day when you can have a say in who runs our city. Your vote does matter. With only 3 or 4 thousand people expected to vote, the races may be determined by less than 100 votes. The polls open at 7 a.m. and close at 7 p.m. So, you have no excuse, we need you to participate in our democratic process. If you don’t know who to vote for, seek out a trusted friend who knows the candidates and listen to what they have to say. The city council members and mayor have much more of an impact on your life than the president or congress of the US. Local decisions are being made all the time that really does shape the direction our city goes. So, remember to VOTE this coming Tuesday.

OFREE RAIN BARRELS

Come on down to the City Hall parking lot this Saturday, October 31st and you will be able to pick up a free rain barrel. The barrels are designed to catch valuable water run off from your roof or just from the down pours that we expect to have this winter. Former Mayor Danny Juarez is coordinating the event. You must register ahead of time by calling 310-371-4633 to receive a barrel. There is a limit of 400 available to give out.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST AT RAMONA PARK

The Ramona Neighborhood Association will be hosting a pancake breakfast on Saturday, October 31 starting at 8 a.m. at Ramona Park. Any kids who are dressed up for Halloween will receive a FREE plate of pancakes.

HALLOWEEN SAFETY PROGRAM – HPD

The Hawthorne Police Department want all of our kids to be safe trick-or-treating again this year. They will be conducting their Halloween Safety Program in front of City Hall this Saturday, October 31st from 12 noon to 3 p.m. There will be games and treats for the kids. They should come dressed in their costume. This is a FREE event!

CELEBRATE VETERANS DAY

All Veterans are encourage to join the Veterans Commission of Hawthorne as they sponsor a special event on Veterans Day this year. It’s Wednesday, November 11 from 10:15 to 12 noon at the Memorial Center. There will be a program, refreshments and prizes. We would like to say thank you to our heroes.

REFORMATION DAY – FAITH ALONE

October 31st is also known as Reformation Day in our Protestant churches. 498 years ago in Wittenberg, Germany a little known Catholic monk named Martin Luther nailed a list of 95 items that he wanted to debate on the door of the Castle Church. Soon, that list was printed and distributed all over Germany and most of Europe. It signaled much more than a reform of the Roman Catholic Church. Once the “common people” could read the Bible and become literate, there was no stopping this new found freedom. Luther’s teachings were based solely on scripture and emphasized that us sinners are made right with God by “faith alone”, not by our good deeds or acts of kindness. Faith in Jesus Christ and his atoning death and resurrection is what saves us. The Reformation was a time to return to the truth found in God’s Word. This freedom found in Jesus, sets us free to be in service to him but also to enjoy the good things God has given to us. Some of you know what I’m leading to. Luther once said, “Whoever drinks beer, he is quick to sleep; whoever sleeps long, does not sin; whoever does not sin, enters Heaven! Thus, let us drink beer!” --- My interpretation: “Have a cold one, go to heaven!”

Hawthorne Stuns El Segundo

After an 0-5 non-league record, Hawthorne High’s football team still had some promise; starting Ocean League play facing two other struggling teams from Santa Monica and Beverly Hills and the Cougars topped both of those squads by scores of 20-6 and 42-35, in order. It was the first time since 2004 that Hawthorne won, at least, two league games.

Last Friday, the Cougars were faced with a big task of traveling to top Ocean contender El Segundo. Playing probably its best game of the season, Hawthorne upset the Eagles 23-14. Now, the Cougars are in position of even battling for their first league title in 11 years.

The contest was still undecided until the Cougars, who improved to 3-0 in Ocean action and 3-5 overall, clinched it when Johnal Ray scored from 29 yards out with only seconds left. Hawthorne started slow as El Segundo, which ended its 26-game league winning streak and took its first loss of the season, took a 7-0 second quarter lead on a touchdown run by Taz Tuinese.

The Cougars had a fine game from quarterback Marte Mapu. He completed 12 of 20 passes for 173 yards and one touchdown. Mapu got things started when he threw an 84-yard TD pass to Jordan Morgan to tie the game at seven late in the second period.

Shortly after, a sack to El Segundo quarterback Jason Kehl led to a fumble. Eric Holmes took the ball and ran 56 yards to give the Cougars the lead. Tuinese came back to score on a two-yard run to tie the game.

Tuinese had a good game rushing for 171 yards and two touchdowns on 19 carries but also had two fumbles. Late in the game, Tuinese took over at quarterback and threw an interception. Hawthorne took a 17-14 lead on a 23-yard field goal from Hunter Marquez.

The Cougars will seek to improve to 4-0 and hope for a big showdown at home against Centinela Valley School District rival Lawndale on November 6 as they visit Culver City (4-3 overall and 2-1 in league) Friday at 7 p.m. The Centaurs are coming off a 49-0 rout of host Santa Monica last Friday.

LEUZINGER ROLLS OVER SOUTH

Leuzinger High’s football team is showing big progress with a 2-1 Pioneer League record after routing South Torrance 45-14 last Friday at Leuzinger. The Olympians, who are 3-5 overall, had a well-balanced game as six different players each had touchdowns. Defensively, the Olympians had four interceptions off the Spartans’ returning all-league quarterback Gabe Zuniga.

Leuzinger got off to a good start, scoring on its second possession when quarterback Malik Jackson hit Andre Hunt with a 71-yard screen pass. It was quickly after that when the Olympians increased their lead to 14-0 midway in the first quarter as Siliasi Fakava returned an interception for a TD.

Early in the second period, Leuzinger made it 21-0 on Adrian Gonzalez’s 14-yard scoring run, then Daniel Carmicle added to the Olympian party with his 83-yard run for a 27-0 bulge midway through the second quarter. Carmicle rushed for 159 yards on 10 carries. Galera added 89 yards on 11 carries on the ground.

Jackson completed 10 of 12 passes for a very good 83.3 percent success. He threw for 187 yards and two touchdowns. South, which fell to 5-3 overall and 2-1 in league, scored its first TD shortly before halftime on Zuniga’s four-yard run.

The second half saw Leuzinger pour it on the Spartans with three additional touchdowns on a 16-yard pass from Jackson to Tariq Culpepper, a 21-yard run from running back Lionel Smith and Garera’s seven-yard run. The final Olympian TD was set up by an interception of Zuinga from Monterrio Wynn.

“We had just one turnover in the last two games,” Leuzinger head coach Damien Porter said. “Prior to this, we were averaging three to four turnovers. Our results have been more consistent. Our defense got better. We’ll be more competitive.”

A week earlier at Leuzinger, the Olympians blanked a hapless Torrance team 60-0. It’s on to playing at facing star Mique Juarez and Company in North Torrance on the road Friday at 7 p.m. After opening their season with a 26-21 loss at Redondo on August 28, the Saxons (7-1, 3-0) dominated all other teams that included embarrassing cross town rival Torrance (0-8, 0-3) 69-0 last Friday at Torrance’s Zamperini Field. North is currently the third ranked team in the CIF-Southern Section Western Division.

LAWNDALE KEEPS ROLLING; MORNINGSIDE, INGLEWOOD FALL

Lawndale High’s football team had little trouble in picking up its seventh consecutive win with a 61-0 of winless Beverly Hills (0-8, 0-3) last Friday at Lawndale. The Cardinals will show down at home against defending Ocean League champion El Segundo Friday at 7 p.m. The Eagles (7-1, 2-1) were upset at home by Hawthorne 23-14 last Friday.

After winning its first six games, Morningside High’s football team lost its second consecutive game at home to Bay League power Palos Verdes 29-7 last Friday.

The Monarchs (6-2, 1-2) tied the game at seven in the first quarter when quarterback Travion Magee to receiver Patrick Jeune but the Sea Kings (5-3, 3-0), who won their 27th consecutive Bay game dating back to 2010, outscored Morningside 22-0 from there. Morningside hosts another very good squad in Mira Costa Friday at 7 p.m. The Mustangs moved to 2-1 in Bay action and 7-1 overall by routing Inglewood 55-8 last Friday at Mira Costa.

The Sentinels, though, already picked up a forfeit win over Peninsula, which dropped its varsity team due to lack of numbers that was announced on October 20. Inglewood, however, may still face the Panthers in what could be called an exhibition game due to Peninsula’s homecoming Friday at 3 p.m. The Panthers are expected to mix their remaining varsity and junior varsity players in the contest. Inglewood also has only a varsity squad after lack of numbers forced the program to drop JV’s and moving all of those few players up to the varsity level. The Sentinels’ final game of the season will be against crosstown rival Morningside on November 6 at 7 p.m. at Coleman Stadium. •

Pumpkin Pancakes

Makes 6 serving

Ingredients

- 2 cups fresh ricotta cheese
- 7 fresh egg yolks
- 3 egg whites
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/3 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 tsp vanilla beans
- 1/4 tsp baking powder
- Zest of 1 orange
- Pinch of cinnamon
- 1/2 cup sliced strawberries and raspberries
- 1/2 cup pre-cooked pumpkin (peel and cut into 1/4 inch cubes, sauté for 5 minutes with a pinch of salt and sugar)

Optional: Fresh cream, Maple syrup, Pecans

Preparation

1. In a large bowl, whip the egg yolks and sugar for about 5 minutes, then mix in the orange zest, cinnamon, vanilla, baking powder and ricotta. Whip for 1 minute.
2. In a separate smaller bowl, whip the egg whites. Pour the whipped egg whites into the larger bowl with the egg yolk mixture. Add the flour and pumpkin and mix until fully incorporated.
3. Heat a nonstick pan over low heat and pour in 1/6 of the pancake mixture. Let cook for a few minutes before flipping the pancake and cooking for another couple of minutes until golden brown.
4. To serve, top the pancakes with mixed berries, pecans and add cream and maple syrup if desired.

Enjoy with a cold glass of milk.

Carey Mulligan Fights for Women’s Rights in Suffragette

By Morgan Rojas for CINEMACY

When a woman President could very well be the future of America, it’s hard to believe that less than 100 years ago, we were banned from participating in any and all political activities. While essentially only considered as “somebody’s wife,” women who went against the grain and fought publicly for equal rights were called suffragettes. Director Sarah Gavron (Brick Lane) and screenwriter Abi Morgan (The Iron Lady) bring this all-too-important story about women (and made by women), to life in Suffragette.

Blending fact with fiction, Suffragette tells the story of the strong-willed women in Britain who, in 1912, took a stand against the current political state to demand equal rights. They were rebels, activists, and heroes. When their peaceful protests were ineffective, these women turned to more public and violent displays to seek attention for their cause. Breaking windows and blowing up mailboxes became regular suffragette actions, citing that, “War is the only language men listen to.”

While the main character in this story is fictional, Maud Watts serves as a representation of all young women and mothers who joined the political revolution. In a solid performance that balances subtlety and strength, Carey Mulligan plays the 24-year-old Watts, spending her days working in a factory laundering clothes for far less pay than her male counterparts. When she gets swept up by her friend and fellow suffragette, Violet Miller (Anne-Marie Duff), Watts can’t help but fall under the spell of their passion. The mystique of women like Edith Ellyn (Helena Bonham Carter) and the movement’s worshiped leader Emmeline Pankhurst (Meryl Streep) are appealing, but as Watts soon learns the hard way, she is going to have to sacrifice the life she knew for the life she wants.

Maud is a fictionalized portrayal of one such suffragette who endured years of unfair treatment, yet one real woman who deserves recognition and, unfortunately, doesn’t get nearly enough is Emily Wilding Davison. Davidson can barely be considered a supporting character, yet it was her courage and decision to sacrifice her life for the movement that gave the suffragettes a worldwide platform to ultimately spark the change. Davidson famously walked in front of a horse at the Epsom Derby in 1913, drawing attention to the political movement. Her death made national headlines and was credited as the turning point for women’s rights. However, her death is but a fleeting moment in the film and while the film’s credits give more explanation into the subsequent effects of her actions, the lack of additional backstory into who she was onscreen seems like an obvious and terrible oversight.

The trendy cinematography is greatly appreciated as it juxtaposes the film’s historical setting and time period. What could have. •

Wowser Schnauzers

Willie would be perfect to cuddle up with.

We are looking for volunteers to help with our pet adoption fairs which are held every Saturday at the Petco located at 537 N. Pacific Coast Highway Redondo Beach 90277, from noon-3: 30 p.m. If you are interested in volunteering and can commit to at least one Saturday a month, please contact us at info@msfr.org. You can also visit all of our Miniature Schnauzers & Friends rescues at the adoption fair or check out our website, www.msfr.org. If you have any questions about a particular dog's availability you can email us at info@msfr.org. Schnauzers! Bet you can't adopt just one!

Hi! I'm Willie and if you're looking for an "original" you have just found him! I'm a four-year old, male, purebred Miniature Schnauzer who was rescued from a LA County shelter. I went for a walk, got lost and ended up at the shelter - that's why the folks called me a stray. I was there for two weeks before I was rescued and I got along great with the other dogs. I've been told I have a rather unique look – no beard (it will grow back) and a short cut but I have the most awesome brows, the sweetest face and tousled hair on the top of my head. I'm a larger guy at 24 pounds but still a perfect size to share a sofa with. If you are interested in Willie, please email info@msfr.org msfr.org for more information.

My name is Licorice and I'm a one-year old male Miniature Schnauzer mix who is black from head to toe! I ended up at a LA County shelter as a stray after I injured my leg while exploring the land. I wasn't available to be adopted because of my injury so I was rescued by MSFR. I visited their Vet and had X-rays, which revealed no fractures. All I had was a soft tissue injury that has already healed. I'm 13 pounds of sweetness who loves people and some, but not all, dogs. I'm cute as can be with my big brown eyes and would be the perfect pet for your family. If you are interested in Licorice, please email info@msfr.org for more information.

If anyone knows why my previous owners would surrender an adorable, 18-month-old Miniature Schnauzer mix to LA city shelter, would you please let me know? Oh by the way, they call me Sammy and no one can figure out why I was unceremoniously dumped. I'm a super nice little guy, I LOVE to play, I get along great with other dogs and I'm just too cute to believe. I may be part poodle – not sure – but I have a very unusual colored coat that's mostly black with streaks of brindle. I'm only 13 pounds, which makes me very transportable, and I'll go everywhere with you. While I am a little too energetic and vocal for apartment living I would thrive in a home with a yard and another dog to play with. If you are interested in Sammy please email info@msfr.org for more information.

Licorice is a sweet boy who's black from head to toe.

Sammy is an energetic puppy.

My real name is Mozart but my friends call me "Mosey." I'm a two-year old male Chihuahua mix who was rescued from the San Bernardino shelter. Last year I was adopted with my pal, Pepperoni, but our "parents" returned us when they had to downsize due to a divorce. Neither of us did anything wrong and we were kind of sad to go our separate ways. My pal has been rehomed so now it's my turn to find my forever home. Everyone says that I'm a phenomenal little guy because I'm great on the leash and love to go on walks and runs. I'm happy to ride in the car with you, I'm also crate trained and if that's not enough, I'm adorable. Currently, I'm living in a cage-free environment that allows me to socialize and I do enjoy playing with my doggie pals. I'm a little overweight but should be back to my ideal weight of 10 pounds before too long. Like most dogs my size, I'm cautious around new people, but for those who have the patience to earn my trust, I exuberantly form deep bonds! Mozart can be seen anytime at Yellow Brick Road Doggie Playcare in El Segundo. Call 310-606-5507 or email southbaydoggie@hotmail.com for an appointment.

Mozart is sociable and perfectly polite.

Happy Tails

Congratulations to Elsa, our beautiful "frosty white" little gal, and her new family. Elsa was adopted by previous MSFR adopters and joins a six-year old male Miniature Schnauzer at their home in Fullerton. Her new family lost their senior dog in June and was looking for someone special to fill the hole in their hearts. We were thrilled to help them find the perfect match. Wishing them all many happy adventures.

Elsa can give lots of love to her new family.

THE YELLOW DOG PROJECT.com

If you see a dog with a YELLOW RIBBON or something yellow on the leash, this is a dog who needs some space. Please do not approach this dog with your dog. Please maintain distance or give this dog and his/her person time to move out of your way.

There are many reasons why a dog may need space:

HEALTH ISSUES
IN TRAINING
BEING REHABILITATED
SCARED OR REACTIVE AROUND OTHER DOGS

THANK YOU!
Those of us who own these dogs appreciate your help and respect!
