Celebrating the 40th Anniversary of the Tom Bradley International Terminal

Named after LA's longest-serving mayor and a true champion of our city, the iconic terminal opened its doors to guests on June 18, 1984, in advance of the Summer Olympics. As a global gateway, the terminal has continuously evolved to meet the demands of modern air travel. Over the years, it has seen expansions and upgrades, most recently with the opening of the terminal's new "front door" which represents another step forward in LAWA's mission to enhance guests' experiences and connectivity at LAX. Join us as we celebrate the Tom Bradley International Terminal – a symbol of innovation, connectedness and the spirit of Los Angeles. Photo courtesy LAX.

Hawthorne Could Win a Yummy Award

By Ron Sokol

The fine City of Hawthorne is located close to the beach, not far from LAX. It has many nice parks, can certainly boast impressive schools, a diversity of residents, and a progressive police department, and is aptly known as "The City of Good Neighbors."

Hawthorne also is not only the birthplace of the revered Beach Boys, but the iconic Marilyn Monroe spent formative years here as a child. Then, there is Space X, which has a formidable presence in Hawthorne, and clearly is a remarkable business. In sum, Hawthorne has a lot going for it, not the least of which is an upcoming major renovation of City Hall and the surrounding environment.

I do not think, however, that one of the more common accolades about Hawthorne involves culinary delights. So, allow me to say, "Au contraire..." This column has at least three good reasons why Hawthorne should be considered an epicurean's choice.

First, and to be clear: The restaurants below are just a few out of a large variety of excellent choices in Hawthorne, let alone surrounding cities. Choices range from Vietnamese food to Brazilian steak and Korean Barbecue. I would like to write a piece about each and all of them, and in time may be able to do so, but for now will simply shine a light on these three:

Zacatecas Mexican Food, Le Pain Du Jour, and Dino's Hamburgers. Each gets a major yum

award, and each has many years in Hawthorne.

Zacatecas Mexican Food
13737 S. Inglewood Ave

To start, when it comes to Zacatecas, I cannot say what is more enjoyable – the food, the service, the warmth of the place, or the coziness. For the first two years (going back 22 years now), business was not so good. Thankfully, the owner, Juan Garcia, had a separate, full-time job (at an Italian restaurant, no less), which helped provide funds as his brother worked hard to keep things afloat. Now, today, it is not unusual to find Zacatecas filled to capacity. Take-out orders are very good as well. So much of the food is made fresh daily, from chips to guacamole, salsa to rice, beans and sauces. Prices are very reasonable. You can even get an agave margarita! Caution: Smiling is inevitable.

Le Pain Du Jour
13528 S Inglewood Ave

What is French for yummy? Talking with Dario, the baker, Le Pain Du Jour's pastries are French style. "More flakey, more flavor, and uniquely buttered." Indeed, eating an almond croissant from Le Pain will result in you ultimately being surrounded by many, many crumbs (between us, when no one is looking, you can just scoop them all up and gobble them down). There is seating outside and inside, or you may order goodies to go. Catering is a big part of the business. Sourdough bread, brioche buns, flatbread, all fresh, every day. Dario is proud of what he calls his inventions – guava and cheese croissant, blueberry and cheese croissant, even a churro croissant! Thirteen years and going strong. Oui oui!

Dino's Hamburgers
13128 S. Inglewood Ave

Here, you can drive through, come in, or sit outside; in either event, enjoy. For over twenty years, this Hawthorne stalwart has pleased so many palettes. Many just call it Dino's, but we often see "Hamburgers" in the marquee. The diversity of food is borderline astonishing. Breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Salads. Mexican food. To-die-for, diverse soups (let me make a special shout-out to the soups that come with, among other things, tortillas and rice). There are excellent unique juice drinks that may

Check It Out

Our Pool by Lucy Ruth Cummins

By Cathie Hinkle Library Assistant
El Segundo Public Library

When summertime arrives, I fondly look back on all the fun times I spent with friends and family splashing and swimming in my local community pool. When I would hear that the weather was going to be a “scorcher” it was a day to look forward to.

That is why this colorful book made a big splash with me; bright happy colors, large inclusive illustrations and a story that reflects community values and fun childhood memories.

The reader follows the community on a hot summer day as they descend upon the City Pool. After using the lockers to change into suits and put on sunblock everyone enters the pool at their own pace. Then the fun begins! There is swimming, floating, diving, jumping and of course Marco Polo. When the lifeguard blows the whistle, everyone freezes- and then back to swimming and splashing. During all this activity, the reader sees numerous illustrations, but it is up to the reader to determine who is talking. I loved this aspect of the book. Every child reading this book can identify with a character of their choosing.

Our Pool by Lucy Ruth Cummins

All this activity in the pool needs fuel, so the swimmers exit and stretch out on towels and enjoy snacks and chatting with each other while making memories with their families.

Then it is back into the pool for handstands and more fun until a dark cloud passes in front of the sun. Will the cloud bring rain? Is the pool day going to end so soon?

I won't spoil the ending for you in case you are interested in checking this sweet summer read out. It is a great picture book to add to your summertime reading list.

This book and other fun summer reads are available to check out at El Segundo Public Library.

Be sure to sign up for the Summer Reading Program, June 10 - August 10, 2024.

Film Review

Kinds of Kindness is a Twisted Anthology of Artful Mayhem

By Morgan Rojas for Cinemacy

Despite its weird and oftentimes head-scratching moments, one thing is clear: Kinds of Kindness is made by a man who absolutely loves cinema. Yorgos Lanthimos, director of Academy Award-winning Poor Things, cooks up a smorgasbord of eccentricity and kookiness in his latest work, Kinds of Kindness. It does have a lengthy runtime of 2 hours and 45 minutes but the film surprisingly breezes by with uncompromising energy. Kinds of Kindness is a film you may not completely understand, but it's surely one you will not forget.

Kinds of Kindness, courtesy Searchlight Pictures

Kinds of Kindness is a very different movie for Lanthimos. Instead of following a traditional narrative structure, the film is broken up into three distinct short films that seem to have no correlation to each other. The cast includes Emma Stone, Jesse Plemons, Willem Dafoe, Margaret Qualley, Hong Chau, Mamoudou Athie, and Joe Alwyn (with a brief appearance by Hunter Schafer). The actors appear in each film but play different characters, completely unrelated to each other. It's quite engaging and often hilarious, much like how the cast of SNL fluidly jumps in and out of different scenes and personas.

The first in the anthology, “The Death of R.M.F.,” tells the story of a wayward man (Plemons) who struggles to regain control of his life, ultimately facing the mercy of his unsympathetic boss (DaFoe). In the second film, “R.M.F. is Flying”, a police officer surprise you. And, the prices for the detailed menu are a welcome relief in this day and age. Service typically is warm and friendly. I like the vegetarian sandwich (specifically, the Avocado Melt). Yum would be a bit of an understatement. So, then, Dino’s is delightful. But, while I have eaten at Dino’s many times,

I still have not had the hamburger (if that is what Dino’s is most known for, I will get there in time). Keep in mind that the menu is huge! Each of these establishments would probably be described as modest in décor. Bottom line, Zacatecas, Dino’s, and Le Pain, all remind me of Hawthorne itself: Until you get to know the place, you are missing out. Very special, that’s one apt description. Uplifting that would be accurate as well. Let me also add: Comforting. A good meal in a good environment at a good price. There is no reason why, on any given day, in Hawthorne, you cannot have a Yum Day.

Maybe I can convince the powers that be to designate an official Yum Day for the City of Good Neighbors. After all, there are so many choices. I only mention a very few here. Should we make a Yum Award part of Hawthorne’s lore? Did I hear you say, “That’s a yummy idea!”? •

Meet the Newly Elected President of ECC's Associated Students Organization

When Danielle Kabboul enrolled in El Camino College in Fall 2022, she was looking forward to putting the stress of her pandemic high school education behind her and making a new start. Initially planning on focusing strictly on academic excellence and then transferring to a top-tier university, her path changed when she discovered what was possible at ECC. It started with joining the college's powerhouse forensics team, which led to Kabboul finding a supportive community that encouraged her to branch out even further from speech and debate to student government and clubs. She recently took her campus involvement to the next level and was elected to serve as president of ECC's Associated Students Organization this fall. Read more about Danielle at bit.ly/DanielleECC. Film Review

(Plemons) is reunited with his wife (Stone) but questions whether the woman really is who she claims to be. The third film, "R.M.F. Eats a Sandwich", stars Plemons and Stone again, this time as brainwashed cult followers who are on a mission to find the next spiritual prodigy. Of all three films, the second one stands out as most in line with Lanthimos' earlier Greek "weird wave" classics. Emma Stone's physical comedy shines here, proving that her partnership with Yorgos Lanthimos continues to strike gold.

Lanthimos and co-screenwriter Efthimis Filippou re-team with many familiar faces from their recent Oscar-winning Poor Things (I can't imagine how everyone had time to make this movie in between production and awards campaigning!). In addition to Emma Stone and Willem Dafoe, he notably enlists cinematographer Robbie Ryan, editor Yorgos Mavropsaridis, composer Jerskin Fendrix, and sound designer Johnnie Burn to help bring Kinds of Kindness to aesthetic perfection. It's worth pointing out that, unlike the sonically flamboyant score in Poor Things, Jerskin Fendrix takes a much more restrained approach here. All three films embody the same off-key, eerie piano melody, akin to if your cat started walking across a keyboard.

Yorgos Lanthimos' love affair with the craft is on full display, enough to make every cinephile giddy with excitement. There is enough of his classic styling, like signature angular framing and intense closeups, to allow fans to find comfort in the familiarity and just enough disruption to push boundaries. All that to say, Kinds of Kindness isn't exactly an "enjoyable" movie to watch, rather, it's wholly fascinating. The distinction here is specific; it's not a film I'm rushing to rewatch soon but that might be because I still can't stop thinking about it.

If you take away anything from my review, let it be this: It is a long movie but don't make the mistake of leaving before the credits! While I admit that the surprise final scene didn't answer all of my lingering questions about how everything ties together, it did offer a very crucial nugget of information that made me nod my head in appreciation of the long game that Lanthimos plays all throughout Kinds of Kindness. Checkmate, Yorgos. •

Grilled Swordfish Steaks with Citrus Salsa
Provided by Campbells Soup Corp.

Swordfish steaks are grilled and then topped with a scrumptious combination of picante sauce, fresh squeezed orange juice, chopped tomato, green onion, chopped orange and fresh cilantro. The combination of flavors is the perfect partner for the fish and best of all, it's ready in just 30 minutes.

Ingredients

- 2 oranges
- 3/4 cup Pace® Picante Sauce or Pace® Citrus Pineapple Salsa
- 1 tablespoon chopped fresh cilantro leaves
- 1 medium tomato, chopped (about 1 cup)
- 2 chopped green onion, sliced (about 1/4 cup)
- 1 1/2 pounds swordfish steak, 1-inch thick (about 4 steaks)

Directions

- Step 1: Grate 1 teaspoon zest and squeeze 2 tablespoons juice from 1 orange. Peel and coarsely chop the remaining orange to make 1 cup.
- Step 2: Stir the picante sauce, orange zest, orange juice and cilantro in a medium bowl. Reserve 1/2 cup picante sauce mixture to baste the fish. Stir the chopped orange, tomato and onions in the bowl with the remaining picante sauce mixture. Cover and refrigerate.
- Step 3: Lightly oil the grill rack and heat the grill to medium. Grill the fish for 10 minutes or until cooked through, turning the fish over once halfway through the grilling time and brushing often with the reserved picante sauce mixture. Discard the remaining reserved picante sauce mixture.
- Step 4: Serve the fish with the orange mixture.

Tips

Serving Suggestion: Serve with hot cooked brown rice tossed with chopped green onion and smashed peas with cilantro. For dessert serve yogurt and fresh berry parfaits.

investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. All checks payable to Prestige Default Services, LLC.

Notice To Property Owner: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 949-860-9155 X 101 or visit this Internet Website <http://www.innovativefieldservices.com/>, using the file number assigned to this case 23-10235.

Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Notice To Tenant: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction.

There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call 949-860-9155 X 101, or visit this internet website <http://www.innovativefieldservices.com/>, using the file number assigned to this case 23-10235 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.
