Wiseburn Unified School Board Candidates Question & Answers

By Duane Plank

What is something about you that people would be surprised to know about?

Neil Goldman: I'm back in high school, and I've just finished the final performance of "Lights on Broadway," a musical theater revue where I played leading roles from Grease, The Music Man, and more. Backstage, after the show, a reputable talent agent approached me with an extended hand, a smile, and five simple words: "I can make you a star!" Pretty temping for an 18-year-old ... but her take on my talent was assuredly exaggerated.

Instead, I obtained a communications degree, an MBA, and a doctorate in education, and built businesses where we've helped companies, non-profits, and schools make better decisions, better understand stakeholders' needs, and find increasing success. I recently turned my learnings on business and education into an Amazon best seller: The Escalator Effect: Four Essential Steps to Lead and Inspire Your Organization to Rising Success.

AND ... if I think I'm alone, you're still likely to hear me singing.

Jessica Daugherty: I have lived and worked in 4 countries and have travelled extensively in over 23 countries. These international experiences taught me to see the world in different ways, be open to new experiences, and to trust in the power of my fellow humans. In Ghana, in West Africa, I worked at a Liberian refugee camp where I fought for the rights of refugees in a country that opened its borders to them but then left them in a disease-filled camp with no ability to earn a living. In that harsh environment, I learned about the strength of the human spirit and the immense opportunity of an education. Some of the women refugees wanted to learn to read so I began teaching literacy. By the second class there were 80 women ranging in age from 3 months to 80 years old-all eager to learn. These women and children knew that if they learned to read, they could find work. In that moment I also learned that I cannot do everything alone nor is doing everything alone as effective as doing things in community and teaching others along the way. By the time I left Ghana, I had trained fifteen Ghanaian university students to work at the camp which ensured the work would continue and expand.

Joanne Kaneda: I have a passion for discovering languages and cultures. Being raised in a bilingual, ethnic household speaking English and Croatian gave me insights into diverse traditions and behaviors that enrich my life. I also explored Spanish, French, Japanese and Russian, and taught Russian in High School. This familiarity with multiple languages and cultures guides me to fully appreciate the importance of diversity and inclusion.

Diversity has multiple forms: gender, race, economic status, ethnicity, and those with disabilities. Each form of diversity has its own "language" and culture. As your WUSD Board Member, my perception into the languages and cultures of diverse groups leads directly to opportunities for inclusion in our classrooms. WUSD enthusiastically offers opportunities for inclusion. As your Board Member, I will vigorously enrich WUSD training and learning to result in a lively culture of teamwork and inclusion for teachers, staff, and students.

What one agenda item would you bring to the Board, and if elected, why?

Jessica Daugherty: One agenda item that I would bring to the Board if elected is a proposal to create a working group to enhance collaboration and communication between the Wiseburn Unified K-8 schools and Da Vinci Schools high schools. Enhanced communication is essential to having a truly "unified" WUSD and will facilitate the following: 1) Create a cohesive bridge for students and families from middle school into high school; 2) Articulate project based learning practices down into middle and elementary school; 3) Provide an increased opportunity for joint professional development and integrated cost savings; and 4) Strengthen the WUSD District Community. Our current District is somewhat fragmented leaving both the K-8 schools and Da Vinci Schools separate from each other and thus unable to benefit from the others' knowledge, resources, and phenomenal staff and students.

Joanne Kaneda: If re-elected, I will guide WUSD to act on learning breakthroughs realized during the COVID pandemic distance learning experience. 1. During COVID, teachers facilitate distance learning by defining "cohorts," or small groups of students to enable clear instruction and inclusive response. This instruction method forms the foundation of project-based learning. 2. My proposal to the Board is to extend project-based learning when we return to our classrooms. This approach enables all students to contribute to their project group at their level, ensuring equitable involvement. Project-based learning incorporates critical thinking and problem

AFI FEST Goes Virtual With Exciting Films That You Can Stream Soon

for cinemacy.com

Like most things, AFI FEST (presented by Audi) looks a little different this year. Instead of queuing up to see a film at the TCL Chinese Theater on Hollywood Blvd., or having the chance to see a filmmaker Q&A at the Egyptian Theater, Cinemacy and the rest of Los Angeles audience-goers are attending the festival online this year. But AFI FEST is Riz Ahmed plays Ruben, a heavy metal drummer who unexpectedly starts to go deaf before playing a show with his bandmate and partner, Lou (Olivia Cooke).

Terrified and confused, Ruben learns that with only a 20% hearing capacity, his lifestyle as a touring musician is forced to stop. Ruben is stubborn to accept his new reality but throughout the course of the film, he begins to understand the beauty in the unknown.

still looking to promise the same cutting-edge festival experience, with world premieres, to video conference conversations with filmmakers and top talent, we're enjoying it all from the comfort of our couches. Below are a few early standouts from the festival, which will be available to stream and on VOD later this year and as films find distribution.

The Sound of Metal (130 min.)

As a musician, the most important instrument you have is your hearing. The Sound of Metal, written and directed by Darius Marder and story by Derek Cianfrance (Blue Valentine), explores the emotional and physical unraveling of what it's like to lose your identity beyond all control.

The way in which director Darius Marder works with sound—the ringing of tinnitus, the strain of trying to understand the muffled conversations, and lead Riz Ahmed gives a phenomenal performance that will certainly be discussed come awards season.

'The Sound of Metal' is being distributed by Amazon Studios, and will be available to stream on Amazon Prime Video on December 4, 2020.

76 Days (93 min.)

A new documentary, 76 Days, captures the heart-pounding and heartbreaking moments inside the walls of Wuhan's hospitals during their nation's response to the COVID-19 outbreak (the film's title accounts for the number

Vice President Joe Biden and Sen. Kamala Harris Endorse Rep. Maxine Waters for Congress

WASHINGTON DC – Today, former Vice President Joe Biden and Senator Kamala Harris announced their support of Congresswoman Maxine Waters who is running for reelection to Congress from California's 43rd Congressional District. The 43rd Congressional District of California includes a large part of South Central Los and the diverse cities of Gardena, Hawthorne, Inglewood, Lawndale, Lomita and Torrance.

"In her years of service to California's 43rd Congressional District, Congresswoman Maxine Waters has delivered results as a legislator, community organizer, and fearless advocate for women and children, people of color, and the poor," said former Vice President Joe Biden. "She has fought to protect and strengthen the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and to ensure affordable housing for all – I'm proud to support her legislation to end homelessness nationwide. The first African American and first woman to chair the House Financial Services Committee, Congresswoman Waters has been critical in confronting the devastating impact of the COVID-19 crisis on working families, the poor, and small businesses across the country, securing relief including small business funding and a moratorium on evictions and foreclosures. Congresswoman Waters is a proven champion for her district and working families across the country, and I'm proud to support her reelection."

"I'm so proud to endorse my friend Congresswoman Maxine Waters to represent California's 43rd Congressional District," said Senator Kamala Harris. "In times of crisis or collapse, Congresswoman Waters has always met the moment with vigor and enthusiasm, understanding that change is always possible for those who are willing to fight for it. She is a leader in her caucus and has worked with the Speaker of the House, Treasury Department, and Federal Reserve to advance legislation to confront the devastating impact of the coronavirus pandemic on our nation's public health and the economy. I encourage everyone in California's 43rd district to get out the vote and support Congresswoman Waters for reelection." •

News for the City of Good Neighbors from an Old Guy named Norb Huber

ANTICIPATION, ANXIETY AND ANARCHY

As I write this there are just 14 days left. Just two week until it's over, or will it be? The anticipation is a killer. People all over the country are anxious. They're anxious about the outcome, and they are anxious about the aftermath. Regardless of the outcome, one half of our country is going to be extremely happy and the other half not so. Believe it or not, regardless of the outcome life will go on. If you find yourself on the winning side you will expect things to be hunky dory for the next four years. If you are on the losing side, you will have to learn to accept, tolerate and move on. Not since the Civil War has our country been so divided. Similar to the 1860's, community members, friends, and family members are fighting against each other, secretly, or out in the open. Flags are being stolen. Rallies, parades, boat armadas all are being used to promote one or the other candidate. This is America where you can express your views freely, but you may face backlash or your Twitter account might be shut down. Some of the anxiety of many is due to the recent summer delve into anarchy. One definition of anarchy is "the absence of government". God has put into place a civil government to protect us. As Christians we are to respect our leaders and follow the laws of the land. Without a civil government there would simply be chaos. Yes, life will go on after November 3rd. There is a more powerful ruler than who ever we elect as our next president. Our current president's name might be the most recognized name in the history of the world. He is either loved or hated by a great majority of our planet's population. But, even Donald of days when Wuhan first began lockdown in January to when the country re-opened seventy-six days later).

76 Days is mostly devoid of a formal narrative, instead following the many different moments that happen within the two hospitals during this chaotic time. From seeing the respiratory health scares, the medical team's exhausted states, and the inevitable deaths that begin to rise, 76 Days captures the full spectrum of how the devastating virus actually cripples a country.

What makes 76 Days so impactful is that there are no politics or punditry injected into the film, instead, only choosing to show incredibly-captured footage of Wuhan's medical teams working at breakneck speeds on the frontlines to treat at-risk patients and contain the virus.

Director Hao Wu, along with Weixi Chen and director left as anonymous, captures the relationships and heartfelt moments between the medical team and their patients, showing the best in humanity and what we're all collectively fighting for.

Nine Days (124 min.)

A highly conceptual film that's both spiritual and sci-fi, Nine Days is ultimately more rewarding for the cerebrally-stirring questions that it asks the audience to think about after it's done rather than being an exciting watch in the moment.

The film begins ambiguously, with a mysteriously quiet and bespectacled man, Will (Winston Duke), observing a wall of old televisions—one stacked on top of the other—each playing through life moments from first-person POVs.

We learn as to why he pores over these life moments: (somehow) Will is directly responsible for choosing the souls that will begin a life on Earth, a gatekeeper or god-figure, however you choose to see it. And so, over nine days time, we see Will interview a collection of characters, asking them all a variety of life-affirming questions with searing intensity that give the film its conceptual identity.

Nine Days has a very interesting premise, but the film—directed by Edson Oda—doesn't give Will anything for him to grow or for us to invest in. Zazie Beetz is underutilized as Emma, a character interviewing for life on Earth, whose countered-openness and positivity challenges the cynically over-stoic Will into rethinking who should be granted life.

While the film is too slow-paced and loose for a great watching experience, Nine Days should be rewarded for being a daring and original film. •

Summary of Adoption of Ordinance No. 2206, an Ordinance of the City Council of the City of Hawthorne, California, Amending Chapter 17.74 (Short-Term Rental Permits) of Title 17 (Zoning) of the Hawthorne Municipal Code to Allow Secondary Residences, Newly Defined to Include Dwellings Owned by Person(s) Whose Primary Residence is in the City of Hawthorne, to be Subject to Home-Sharing Regulations and Not Vacation Rental Regulations, Adding a Cap of Ten (10) Permit to Be Issued Per Year, With a Limitation of One Permit Per Property Owner.

Pursuant to Government Code section 36933(c), the following constitutes a summary of Ordinance No. 2206, which was adopted by the City Council at its regular meeting on October 13, 2020 at 6:00 p.m. Pursuant to California Government Code section 36933(c) (1), the City Council has previously directed the preparation and publication of a summary of Ordinance No. 2206 which amends Title 17 (Zoning) to add "secondary residence" permits and related provisions to Chapter 17.74 (Short-Term Rental Permits).

Ordinance No. 2206: Ordinance No. 2206 changes certain definitions pertaining to short-term rentals in order to allow "secondary residences." Specifically, Ordinance No. 2206 adds the following new and amended definitions (undefined portions):

• "Secondary residence" means a dwelling not occupied by the owner as a

"primary residence" but owned by person(s) whose primary residence is in the City of Hawthorne. No more than ten (10) permits for a "secondary residence" will be issued by the City per year, on a first-come, first-served basis. No more than one (1) permit shall be issued per property owner.

• "Home-sharing" means an accessory use of a primary residence, while the host lives on-site, or a secondary residence owned by a person(s) whose primary residence is in the City of Hawthorne, for the purposes of providing temporary lodging, for compensation, for periods of 30 (thirty) consecutive days or less.

• "Vacation rental" means a dwelling unit that is not a primary residence of the owner and which is available for temporary lodging, for compensation. The term "vacation rental" shall not include: single-room occupancy buildings; hotels; a dwelling unit for which a tenant has a month-to-month rental agreement and the rental payments are paid on a monthly basis; or corporate housing. A secondary residence, as that term is defined in this Section, shall not be considered a vacation rental.

In addition, a change would be made to Subsection (A)(8) of Section 17.74.020 (Permit Required) to read as follows:

"If the short-term rental will be in a primary residence (i.e., not a vacation rental), proof of residency is required. Acceptable proof of primary residency shall include evidence of the homestead tax exemption for the property and two (2) of the following: motor vehicle registration; voter registration; income tax documents showing the residential unit as the host's primary residence; bank account statement; or a utility or credit card bill. If an application is for a "secondary residence," the applicant shall only need to provide proof of primary residence in the City of Hawthorne. In addition, an affidavit signed by the owner attesting that the short-term rental unit is his/her primary residence or secondary residence (with primary residence in the City of Hawthorne) is required."

In summary, Ordinance No. 2206 amends the Hawthorne Municipal Code to allow "secondary residence" permits, as defined, to be subject to "home-sharing" regulations, adding that only ten (10) "secondary residence" permits would be issued on a first-come, first-served basis to applicants, with the further limitation of one (1) permit to be issued per property owner.

Environmental Review: The Ordinance is not a project subject to the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) in accordance with Section 21065 of CEQA and State CEQA Guidelines Sections 15060 (c)(2), 15060 (c)(3), and 15378, and is exempt from CEQA pursuant to State CEQA Guidelines Section 15061 (b)(3) (general rule) and 15301 "Existing Facilities" (Class 1). Class 1 consists of the operation, repair, maintenance, permitting, leasing, licensing, or minor alteration of existing public or private structures, facilities, mechanical equipment, or topographical features, involving negligible or no expansion of use beyond that existing at the time of the lead agency's determination. Short Term Rentals (STRs) involve the leasing of existing residential structures involving negligible or no expansion of use.

A certified copy of the entirety of the text of Ordinance No. 2206 is available in the office of the City Clerk, 4455 West 126th Street, Hawthorne, California. You may call 310-349-2915 or email cityclerk@cityofhawthorne.org for a copy. Pursuant to Government Code section 36933(c), the summary Ordinance No. 2206 was published at least five (5) days before the ordinance was considered for adoption on October 13, 2020 at a duly convened regular meeting of the Hawthorne City Council.

said there was a man that lives that is more powerful, more famous, much more loving, and came to save not just half of the USA, this guy came to save everyone in the world. That is why we don't have to be anxious about the outcome. We can trust in the God who created the heavens and the earth. It could be said that earth is much bigger than one man's power. But, I would like to reverse that and say, one man IS bigger than the earth and all of our problems. That should give us comfort knowing that we are loved and Jesus is up there at the right hand of God ruling this world. We hear it said, "this too will pass". This election will pass. The cold ones we drink in either celebration or sorrow will be empty sooner or later. When all is said and done, the love that God has for us and the love we share with one another is all that matters. Look at the big picture. An election is but a blip, a hiccup, a nano second in relation to eternity. It's time we moved on. It's time we look past November 3rd. It's time we put our trust in someone who was not elected but he elected to love us even when we are unlovable. Don't worry, be happy! Relax, have a cold one, and let the big guy in the sky vote for you and you will be a winner forever!

HOW ABOUT THOSE DODGERS!
It's been 32 since they last won it all. For half of my life I have watched them come so close but not finished it off. This might be the year. Some of you know that I'm a Giant fan, but so many of my friends have suffered through this drought. I will be happy for them. 1988 was the year of Orel Hirshiser and Kirk Gibson and Mickey Hatcher and Tommy Lasorda and Fernando Valenzuela and Steve Sax and Mike Scioscia. It seems much more recent. Memories stick with us. 2020 will stick with us. I won't be around 32 years from now, but somewhere someone will be telling stories about what the heck happened in 2020. It'll be fun stuff!
